Glasgow University will elect a Lord Rector on November 16th. An active canvass is in progress. Conservative students support Disraeli for re-election. The liberals are divided, some going for Hon. Mr. Foster and others favoring Ralph Waldo Emerson.

It is stated that the French Minister of Foreign Affairs communicated documents to the Spanish Minister exonerating France and showing that the note ought to be addressed to other powers, and that the Spanish Minister expressed satisfaction.

The Government have decided to change the gauge of the Intercolonial Railway. The Manchester, Baldwin, and Kingston Locomotive Works have been awarded the contract for supplying thirty new engines for the road, their tender being lowest.

The Government have not yet succeeded in obtaining possession of the Prince Edward Island Railway, the Local Government not being disposed to part with it.

Many veterans of 1812, living in Canada, having been refused the pension offered by the Imperial Government because they were not in the regular army. The Dominion Government have considered the matter and have decided to ask Parliament for such an amount as will give a small pension to the Canadian survivors.

The appointment of Hugh Blackader of the Recorder, to the Halifax Past Mastership, is announced.

It is probable that the Dominion and United States Governments will shortly improve their postal arrangements so that they may operate more favorably to both countries.

Attempt to Destroy Property.

About 1 o'clock yesterday morning an attempt was made to burn the Farmers' Hotel, in Waterloo street. The fire was first discovered by a daughter of Mr. William Stafford, who lives opposite. She aroused her father, and he rushed across the street with two pailsful of water, towards the outbuilding, which was commencing to burn. He was about to throw the water on the fire when four men ordered him to desist, and refused to allow him to go near the fire. One or two others fortunately arrived on the scene, and the flames were put out, while the four men quietly walked away. Sergt. Rider and Policeman Briggs arrived, and, hearing the story, went after the four, but did not overtake them. An examination of the place showed that the side of the building had been saturated with kerosene oil.

New version of Burns, by the medical student: "If a body snatch a body."

Almost Blinded.

John and James Berry, express agents, came near being blinded on Saturday afternoon. One of them had purchased a vial of ammonia for the toothache, and at their hotel, the Bangor House, opened it. As soon as the cork was drawn the volatile substance flew up into the faces of the two, John received it in both eyes and James in one. Both were nearly blinded, and their eyes were, yesterday, very much swollen. All but a drop of the ammonia went from the bottle.

Fight Spoiled.

What promised to be a very pretty free fight was spoiled by the interference of the police Saturday evening about ten o'clock. It seems that four young men disputed the right to accompany two young ladies home from Kings Square and agreed to fight to decide the question. So off they started to the quiet corner in King street East at the Old Poor House Lot, and peeled off their coats. The young women followed to witness the combat. The principals had just commenced what they termed "a good square fight," and the seconds were preparing for the encounter also, when two policemen came running to the scene. They were a little too early, as the youths, not thoroughly engaged, no sooner espied the officers than they ran with all their might, and were soon out of sight. The policemen, when on the Square, had heard the arrangements for the fight and acted accordingly. As the original disputants for the right to accompany the ladies home had departed, the other two escorted them.

SICKNESS is an affliction that waits on us all. None are exempt, and there are none but need relief from its attacks. Whoever can furnish this becomes our benefactor. A conviction prevails that DR. AYER does it. Disorders of the blood have been healed by his SARSAPARILLA, and affections of the lungs by his CHERRY PECTORAL, too frequently and too distinctly to be disputed. His AGUE CURE is said, by those who use it, to never fail. Reader, if you must have medical aid, take the best of medicine. Poor remedies are dear, as good are cheap, at any price you have to pay for them.—Charleston Courier.
