ARMOUR STAYS IN U. S. CHAMPIONSHIP

Scotchman, Champion of France, Disposes of Carter of Shinnecock.

Roslyn, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Thomas D. Armour, who hails from Scotland, and holds the amateur championship of France, stayed in the race for the United States national amateur golf championship today, disposing of Phillip Carter, Shinnecock, with whom he had little trouble. The score was 4 to 3. Armour is the only British player left in the tournament.

Tomorrow he plays Francis Ouimet, Woodland, former open and amateur champion.

The national amateur champion and a former champion were eliminated in today's round. Davidson Herron, Pittsburg, lost his title when he was defeated by J. Wood Platt, Philadelphia, whom he put out in last year's tournament at Oakmont. Platt won today 2 and 1.

Robert A. Gardner of Chicago, former champion, was eliminated by another ex-titleholder, W. C. Fownes, Jun., of Pittsburg. The score was 2 and 1.

CROWN PRINCE PULLING WIRES TO COME TO U. S.

Propaganda Begun To Work Up Sympathy For Exiled Hohenzollern.

"HAD TO STAY IN ARMY"

Ex-Gallant Tires of Uneducated Peasants and Gloomy Parish Priest."

PARIS, Sept. 8.—Somebody is trying to work up sympathy for the poor, ill-treated crown prince of Germany in the hope of getting him away from his enforced retreat in the Dutch village of Wieringen, where he was interned on November 22, 1918, and where his only companions are "uneducated peasants and a gloomy parish priest."

Just who is responsible for this altruistic effort is not clear at this time, but French diplomatists profess to be highly amused at it, as, despite the crown prince's desire to leave his present home, there was said to be a strong agreement between the allied nations that the young Hohenzollern was not to be allowed to go to America or anywhere else as long as there is the slightest indication of an inclination by a German minority to re-establish the Hohenzollern monarchy.

As a matter of fact the European press has contained numerous articles recently which point to the non-complicity of the crown prince in the world war, and telling what a cheerful, irresponsible youth he was and how he just had to do what his kaiser and father said for him or lose his rank as colonel, which would have injured his prestige.

Anxious To Be Interviewed.

Moreover, several journalists have been approached by friends of the crown prince, and told that there was nothing to prevent them from getting interesting interviews from the young Hohenzollern heir. Some of them yielded to the temptation to see the exile, but a majority refused to lend any assistance in getting him away from Wieringen, especially when they learned of his yearning to go to the United States and forget the dream of his, a dream which the allies shattered two years ago.

In any event, getting a talk with the crown prince is no longer a journalistic feat, and he is beginning to feel the effect of not having had a visitor for several weeks.

A more serious campaign is that being carried on through most subtle phrasing of articles in the European press, even some of the most patriotic French journals carrying articles regarding peace possibilities in 1917 and recalling the friendship for France of Alfonso XIII., King of Spain, articles in which there crept cleverly worded paragraphs indicating that the crown prince of Germany would have done his best to convince the kaiser of the futility of trying to defeat the whole world.

It was even suggested that the crown prince, while directing headquarters at Charleville, wrote to the kaiser and declared that all hopes of achieving a victory were gone, and appealing to him to save the dynasty, as well as the German people, by renouncing all claims for the annexation of Belgium, and urging the restoration to France of Alsace and Lorraine.

The Matin, the anti-German sentiment of which cannot be doubted, even admits that a member of the staff of the crown prince proposed recently to give an interview regarding Friedrich Wilhelm's efforts to bring about peace, but such a palpable attempt to minimize his criminal record failed to attract the attention desired.

SPANISH HOUSEMAIDS THREATEN A STRIKE

MADRID, Sept. 8.—A movement for better conditions among domestic help, inaugurated recently, is spreading rapidly. A leaflet issued by the Young Communists, a society of woman servants, threatens a national strike of domestics, unless the following conditions are granted:

An increase of wages of 15 pesetas monthly; twelve hours daily service; with eight hours night for sleep, and four hours for meals and recreation and a half holiday once a week. The leaflet demands that no reprisals be taken against domestics participating in the movement.

FOREST TAKES TWO FROM THE MUELLERS OF SARNIA

FOREST, Sept. 8.—Two of the best games of ball seen here for some time were played at the Old Boys' Park on Labor Day, when the local nine took a double-header from Muellers of Sarnia. The score was 8 to 6 in the first game, and 5 to 0 in the second contest. Both teams played excellent ball, but Forest took the big end of the bat. The Sarnia team forced "Smokey" Joe Allen, the Imperial City's best twirler, into the box in both games, but it seemed that the home team was out to win and nothing could stop it.

Batteries (first game)—Sarnia: Allen, Whyte and Corey; Forest, Rogers, Doolittle and Govenlock.

Second game—Sarnia: Moorehouse, Allen and Corey; Forest, L. Widdell and Govenlock.

"BABE" RUTH TO PLAY A SERIES IN CUBA

Havana, Sept. 9.—"Babe" Ruth of New York American League team has signed a contract to take part in a series of ten games here beginning October 31, according to a story published here. The games in which Ruth is to participate will be played within a period of two weeks.

ALGOMA MAN DECLARES HE TOLD FERGUSON OF BIG TIMBER "STEAL"

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—Samuel Marks of Algoma, Ont., a former registrar at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and afterwards interested in timber limits, on the witness stand this afternoon in the timber inquiry being conducted by Commissioners Riddell and Latchford, stated that United States firms had employed prospectors to stake mining claims in sections where no minerals were apparent, and that spruce timber was cut thereon under the excuse that it was to be used for mining development work and afterwards exported to the United States, and that he had told Sir William Hearst and Hon. G. Howard Ferguson about the contravention of the mining act, but that nothing had been done by the Hearst Government to stop it. The reply was that these acts were not actionable, Mr. Marks said.

The witness said he had told Hon. Mr. Ferguson, who was then minister of lands, forests and mines, that claims were being staked fraudulently and that there was no mineral there at all. Mr. Ferguson thanked him, Marks said, but claimed that he could not do anything. Mr. Marks stated that he had given to Hon. Beniah Bowman, minister of lands and forests, at that time, a private member of the Legislature, copies of letters he had written to Hon. Mr. Ferguson about the matters complained of, also of the originals of replies from Mr. Ferguson's department, but he had heard lately that these copies and original letters were lost.

Mr. Marks stated that on one occasion he had gone back to Mr. Ferguson to urge the minister to act, and had told Mr. Ferguson that a big "steal" was taking place, but the reply was that the Government had no power to act.

HOWARD MAKES OFFER

Redmond's Nephew Would Give Himself As Hostage For Mayor.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Mrs. MacSwiney, on leaving Brixton Prison this evening after visiting her husband, the lord mayor of Cork, said that twice this afternoon the attending physician had warned her not to speak to her husband, as he was "living on his vitality."

She added that the mayor suffered from giddiness this afternoon.

Friends of the lord mayor, his wife said, were much encouraged at the presence of Premier Lloyd George in England, he having returned from Lucerne yesterday, and hoped that something might ensue favoring the Irish prisoner.

Ex-Premier Asquith, answering an appeal from John Howard Whitehouse, former Liberal member of the House of Commons for his intervention, in behalf of Mayor MacSwiney, said:

"I think the decision to allow the lord mayor of Cork to die in prison is a political blunder of the first magnitude. I would gladly intervene if any appeal of mine could lead even now to wiser counsels prevailing, but I fear that the latest declaration of the ministers precludes any such hopes."

AIRPLANE MAIL TO AVOID ATTACKS

DUBLIN, Sept. 8.—In order to check the constant attacks on the government mails throughout the country, an aeroplane mail service has been inaugurated for the conveyance of mails from Dungarvan, County Waterford, and other points where police and military are quartered.

POPE INTERCEDES FOR MAYOR MACSWINEY

ROME, Sept. 8.—The pope has interceded in behalf of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, now in Brixton Prison, London, according to the Giornale d'Italia.

Commenting on the situation in Ireland and the imprisoned mayor, the Giornale says:

"Lord Mayor MacSwiney will be canonized in the course of centuries, when Englishmen will join in his glorification, just as recently they joined in the apotheosis of Joan of Arc."

SINN FEIN MEMBER ARRESTED THIRD TIME

BELFAST, Sept. 8.—Peter Paul Galligan, Sinn Fein member of Parliament for the west division of Cavan, was arrested today for the third time. He sustained a broken wrist in the process.

REDMOND'S NEPHEW WOULD BE HOSTAGE

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Father Dominic, on leaving the prison late tonight, also reported that Mr. MacSwiney's condition was much the same. Like Mrs. MacSwiney, the priest reported that the prisoner had experienced spells of dizziness during the course of the evening, but said he had not lost consciousness.

Redmond Howard, nephew of the late John Redmond, has written a letter to Mr. Lloyd George, in which he offers himself as a hostage for Lord Mayor MacSwiney.

Mr. Howard recently sent a telegram to the King, urging clemency for the Irish hunger strikers.

An inspired statement issued today indicates that Mr. Lloyd George is willing to accept guarantees from Sinn Fein headquarters that police murders will cease and that he does not require a personal guarantee from Lord Mayor MacSwiney.

If such guarantee is forthcoming, it is set forth in the statement, MacSwiney and the hunger strikers in Cork jail will be released and held as virtual hostages, and if the murders were resumed they would again be sent to jail, thus, in effect, reverting to what was called the "cat and mouse" policy adopted in the case of the suffragette hunger strikers.

It is an interesting question whether the Sinn Feiners are prepared to give such assurance as will satisfy this requirement. Up to the present they have insisted upon unconditional release.

CLAIMS RELEASE WOULD HINDER LAW

LONDON, Sept. 8.—In response to an urgent representation from ex-Sheriff Barney of the county of Cork, counselling the immediate release of the eleven untried hunger-strikers in Cork jail, Premier Lloyd George today sent a message declaring that the hunger-strikers had all been arrested "either in the act of murderous attacks on police or soldiers or on clear evidence implicating them in such attacks, and they are engaged in a combined effort to prevent their trial, and have reduced themselves to a physical condition under which a trial is legally impossible."

"The Government," continues the premier, "cannot allow men charged with such grave offenses to escape trial by their own act. If this were permitted, there would be no doubt as to the end to any possibility of the enforcement of law and the administration of justice."

RELEASE COMING IS GROWING FEELING

CORK, Sept. 8.—The eleven hunger-strikers in Cork jail who are undergoing the 29th day of their self-imposed fast are all in a serious condition. Sean Hennessy, the 19-year-old youth of Ballingarry, Limerick, collapsed this afternoon and remained unconscious for a time. His parents and the prison chaplain are at his side tonight.

The deputy lord mayor, who made the announcement after his daily visit to the hunger-strikers, said that the condition of several of the others was very bad.

The feeling seems to be growing that all the prisoners will soon be released. The Bishop of Cork informed the Associated Press today that he had gained the impression during a recent visit to London that the Government would shortly liberate the Cork hunger-strikers.

MONTREAL MAYOR APPEALS TO GEORGE

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—Mayor Mederic Martin sent the following cablegram to Premier Lloyd George this afternoon:

"In my own name and on behalf of the population of the metropolis of Canada I hereby beg to pray you, as head of the British Government, to be lenient toward Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, at present incarcerated in Brixton Prison for a political crime, and release him before he dies of hunger; I am convinced the population of the whole Dominion, without any distinction as to race or creed, is anxious that he should be liberated at once."

SOLD HER BOARDER'S LIQUOR, FINED $200

Four O. T. A. Cases Dealt With in Ingersoll Police Court.

INGERSOLL, Sept. 8.—Four cases arising out of breaches of the O. T. A. were disposed of by Magistrate Paterson this afternoon, and a severe blow aimed at illegal selling here. John Dewolfe, an elderly man, was convicted on a charge of selling liquor on Saturday, and in default of the payment of a fine of $200 and costs he was sentenced to a three months' term in the county jail. Robert Grey, a local man, and Ralph Dominey, of Brantford, were each assessed $10 and costs on charges of having been drunk. Dominey stated he had purchased two bottles of liquor from a Mrs. Young, Charles street east. Mrs. Young appeared in court and admitted she had received money for the liquor, but claimed it belonged to a boarder at her house. She was fined $200 and costs.

ONDREMON WINS JUMPS.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Two open jumping competitions were won at the Rochester Horse Show today by Ondremon, chestnut gelding, from Ennisclare Farms, Oakville, Ont., owned by Lieut.-Col. Herbert C. Cox. His winnings were the features of the day's judgings, four firsts, two seconds, two thirds and two fourths going to his entries.
