Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If, wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Nursery Rhymes--No. 24.

A STORY OF DOOM! (almost.)

CANTO I.

The coffin maker bent low at his work,
And, coughing, cast his eyes upon his bench,
A spasm came, which gave his frame a jerk,
And shook his head about with fearful wrench;
The blood skipped from his ears and sought the ground;
The Undertaker deemed his lungs unsound.

CANTO II.

It was a dull and dismal afternoon,
The ice had melted in the Skating Rink,
And lovers sighed to walk beneath the moon,
And tapers paused at Bars to get a drink;
The coffin-maker hummed an air, then stood,
And drove a nail deep in the coffin-wood.

CANTO III.

Another spasm came, then down he fell,
And sought the pitch pine floor, quite ill at ease,
And listened to the knell of deep-mouthed bell,
His gold hair fluttering madly in the breeze;
But Hunt's Invigorator cured the pain,
And Ayer's Vigor brought in the hair again.

CANTO IV.

These two great Cures he at the Chemist's bought,
The Pharmaceutist's, King street, twenty-four,
Where Drugs and Medicines are often sought
By iron-mongers when life is nearly o'er:
And coffin makers, when they're coughin' loud,
Take Tracheal Drops, and thus postpone the shroud.

READ THIS.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 23, 1869.

Dear Madam,—In justice to you, and that the afflicted may know the great benefit derived from the use of your justly Celebrated Dinner Pills, I send you the following testimonial:—

My wife was afflicted with the Dyspepsia for one year, and Piles many years, and tried various remedies that were recommended, but nothing did good until a friend told her to try your Pills, which she did, and after taking one box found so much relief that she continued to take them for four months, and now she is really in good health as she ever was. And for myself, I had a cough for four years, and constant pain in my breast; I was also troubled with hemorrhage for upwards of nine months. I tried almost everything, but no cure was effected, until I used your Pills, which I have been taking for three months, and I have neither pain nor cough, and enjoy as good health as ever I did, and allow me with due respect to remain

Yours, very thankfully,
JOHN FREDERICKSON.
