To the Electors of the City and County of St. John.

GENTLEMEN:—

At the request of a number of you, I hereby announce that I will be a Candidate at the approaching election, to represent you in the Dominion Parliament. I am sorry that the lately formed Government have not, previous to bringing on this election, announced any policy, so that I could state to you whether I could approve of it or not, but, if elected, I will continue my exertions in endeavoring to get justice for this Province, and endeavor to procure grants for the building of a Marine Hospital, and to preserve and improve the harbor. Also, I will use my best endeavors to put the employes of the Government, of all grades in this Province, on the same footing and pay as in the other Provinces. I will support the present or any other Government in all measures that I consider good, and oppose them in all that I consider bad, but you must not expect me to give them any factious opposition, or any at all, if they give this Province her rights and promote good measures. I will again enter Parliament with a determination to act independently; and, as I cannot in the space of this card, state fully as I could wish my views on some matters that I consider important, I will do this in a communication that I will address to you through the City papers. Respectfully soliciting your support,

I am your obed't. serv't.,

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AMONG the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to go without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centered on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured. Prepared by Candidates and Constituencies.

OTTAWA, Jan. 12.

Scott is busy looking for a constituency. Scott's brother is sent to Algoma to run there. Malcolm Cameron, rejected by the reform convention of Russell, because of his independence proclivities leaves for South Ontario to oppose Gibbs. Lewis, the late member for Ottawa, is out as an Independent Conservative. The workingmen nominate Dan. O'Donohue, President of the Typographical Union, for the Local. Ross and Coffin leave tonight. A strong candidate is out against Huntington. The latter can only avoid defeat by a lavish expenditure of money.

Mrs. Tilley will hold a reception on Thursday afternoon next, from 2.30 till 5 o'clock, at the residence of J. Boyd, Esq.

Wife Shooting.

James McCallum was given in charge to the police by his wife for threatening to shoot her in their house in Duke st. When arrested he had no less than four pistols on his person, with which he proposed to do the bloody deed. The man was brought up before the Magistrate this morning, and his actions showed him to be insane. He was sent to Gaol until Saturday, to see what effect towards curing him the confinement will have.

Wife Beating.

Charles Buchanan was given in charge of the police by his wife for beating and abusing her in their house in Orange st. When she entered the court room this morning to press the charge he affectionately threw his arms about her neck and whispered some words in her ear, probably an appeal for mercy, but they had no effect, as she prosecuted him. He denied abusing her, except occasionally when he was drunk. She said he was always drunk, and had several times taken an axe to kill her and she had had to leave the house. He denied this, said he had only once taken an axe to break a chair, and she was in the way (sitting on the chair). He insisted that her relatives were plotting against him, a peacable man, and had put her up to do this. The Magistrate thought rum was putting him up to act as he did, and sent him to gaol for two months, without the option of a fine. Good.

Larceny Trials.

Daniel Gordon was brought from Gaol this morning and tried for taking a coat from Samuel McPherson's house. The evidence was not sufficient to convict him. He said he took the coat, but intended returning it. He was discharged from custody.

Charles McCarthy, the very small boy, arrested on Tuesday for stealing $25 from James Gordon, was also brought from Gaol. He is only nine years of age, and is a bright lad. He confessed the theft and said he gave the money to Mrs. Maxwell, who lives in Duke street. When asked if his mother ever taught him to know good from bad he said she taught him his prayers. "How does it happen, then, that you have become such a bad boy?" asked the Magistrate. "Oh, I lived in York Point for some time," was the reply. This answer created a general laugh. Mrs. Maxwell was in Court, and denied getting the money, or telling the boy to steal it. The lad, however, stuck to his story and carried on a lively argument with her. There was not evidence to convict Mrs. Maxwell of aiding and abetting the theft, and she was discharged, and the Chief directed to get his detectives at work to hunt up evidence. The boy was sent for one month to gaol, the Magistrate remarking on the necessity of some sort of a reformatory for juvenile offenders. It was a sin, and a disgrace to the city, he said, that there was not some institution where a bright lad like the one before him could be sent to get a Christian education and learn a trade.

City Police Court.

There was more excitement than usual about the police court this morning. The police made fourteen arrests, and the prisoners waited patiently in the dock for the Magistrate to arrive. He entered the room, looked benignly around, smiled on friends, and frowned on the violaters of the law.

William Gray was the first to answer to the charge of lying drunk in Drury Lane. He admitted that he took one glass, and now he thinks it a very expensive proceeding, as it will cost him $8 before he can breathe free air for some time.

Patrick Dollard was hilarious in Prince Wm. street, and confessed drunkenness. The same fine was imposed.

William Agar related his history. He is an Englishman, and is on his way to Halifax, having worked his passage to New York, then here, and on Saturday he was carrolling in feelings of thankfulness for being so near his journey's end. The police told him to stop singing, and he did, but commenced again and was arrested. He had not drank anything since last Easter. The policeman swore he was drunk, and he was fined $8.

"You'll remember the tune next time," said the Magistrate.

Henry Wilcox and Patrick Coughlan were fined $8 each for simple drunkenness.

John McCarthy, a lad of fourteen, and Daniel Griffiths, aged 20, were fined the same amount, both having been arrested drunk in Mill street.

Eliza Donnelly was arrested drunk in Duke street; $8 or two months in gaol.

Charles Anglin and Edward McFadden, who went to the station for protection, were let go.

James Ross, an old man who sought protection, was sent to the Alms House.

LOST.—A ticket for the dinner to Lt.-Gov. Tilley, for Wednesday night. The finder will oblige by leaving it at THE TRIBUNE office.

Accident in Carleton.

A fatal accident occurred in Carleton about noon to-day. Several laborers were engaged excavating a place for a new furnace in Clarke's mill, Carleton, when the earth caved in on them. One of the men, a Dane, was killed by the falling earth and timber. John McNealy had his arm broken, and one or two others were slightly injured.

A late number of the St. John Morning News thus concludes a lengthy article eulogizing Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites: "Mr. Fellows is certainly entitled to high credit for his energy and enterprise in working up his valuable discovery so successfully, and the presence of such gentlemen in any community is a matter on which that community should congratulate itself."

The St. John Telegraph and Journal says: "The invention of Fellows' Hypophosphites has become one of the valuable industries of the country, unique of its kind, and a credit to the Dominion of Canada."

The Minister's Appeal.

The following was found in a Western hotel and the finder, not knowing to whom it belonged, and seeing that it referred to St. John affairs, forwarded it to us:

Oh! DeV—r, my friend, don't leave me just now,
But assist in the contest now pending:
Henry Charlie's appointment has caused a big row—
I'll be careful again of offending.

You see that my old friends are down on me all,
For they think I've not been consistent,
And I fear they'll do me in a way they call "tall
And altogether persistent."

They are down on the Scandal Pacific, I trow,
But they don't think I ratted for that sure.—
They think I was looking for office and power
Er—was not patriotic and pure.

They know I tried to get A—lin's support
At the last election we had, Sir!
To run Mr. T—y out of his seat
And to whip his party so bad, Sir!

There are fifty-two other stanzas, but we have published enough to enable the author to recognize his property.

MR. TRIBUNE: Kin you oblige a large number of wimmin in this part of the county, who pay taxes and think they orter have a vote, by letting us know if the Canada Government will allow wimmin to vote at the coming election. We want to if they will let us. Mr. Domville is a furriner, but tends prayer meeting pretty regular in these parts and so we want to give him a vote. Herbe Sinnott we all know. He was reared round here, and used to tend singing school with our Miranda, but he's got proud and wants to be elected by the city folks. Mr. McCready was edicated at the plough and never went to the free schools or any other for all we know, and is pesky proud since he has been the Ottawa correspondent of a newspaper. But this is not what we wanted to write about, but to ask about wimmin votin and coming out as candidates, also who on 'airth this Ellen Sharp is that the folks say has got her kurd papers, kase lots of wimmin round these parts want to vote and if Ellen Sharp can be a candidate why cant we vote. The warm weather is making the sap run, and if you answer these questions we will send you down a keg of maple molasses.

Election Cards.

To the Electors of King's County.

GENTLEMEN:—

Parliament having been dissolved and Writs issued for a General Election, it becomes necessary for you to select a representative for this County for the House of Commons at Ottawa.

Having been requested by a large number of influential Gentlemen to offer myself for re-election, it affords me great pleasure to do so. And if I have again the honor to represent you at Ottawa, I shall, as in the past, vote for all measures that may be conducive to the welfare of the Dominion, stand up for the rights of this Province, and endeavor to obtain equal privileges for King's County.

Thanking you for the generous support you gave me on the last occasion, and asking the favor of your influence at the coming Election,

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant, &c.,
jan 5 dw JAMES DOMVILLE.

To the Electors of the City and County St. John.

GENTLEMEN:—

Parliament having been dissolved, and you having been called upon to elect representatives for this City and County, I, at the request of a large number of the Electors, have decided to be a candidate for your suffrages.

The disclosures lately made in Canadian politics called, in my opinion, for a condemnation of the Administration then in power; and believing, as I do, that the present Government has been formed on principles which, if adhered to, must tend to elevate the moral tone of politics in the Dominion and advance its general interests, I shall, if elected, accord to them a liberal support.

Assuring you that, if elected, I shall devote myself earnestly to promoting the welfare of the Dominion in general, and particularly of this City and County, and respectfully soliciting your support,

I remain, gentlemen,
your obedient servant,
G. R. PUGSLEY.

To the Electors of King's County.

GENTLEMEN:—

The Dominion Parliament having been dissolved, you are again called upon to elect a representative.

At the personal solicitation of a large number of electors, I have consented to allow myself to be put in nomination as a candidate for your suffrages, and, if elected., I will give the present Government a liberal support in all matters in the interest of the Dominion generally, and especially of the County of King's.

Soliciting your support,
I am yours truly,

To the Electors of the City and County of St. John

Who are entitled to vote, and others who will probably vote without being entitled,

GENTLEMEN:—

Parliament having been dissolved, and you having now another glorious chance to exercise your franchise, I, at the request of a number of influential neighbors, have decided to be a Candidate for your suffrages and for Ottawa.

The disclosures lately made in Canadian politics, on both sides, call, in my opinion, for a condemnation generally of all old representatives; and, believing as I do, that the present Government has a "soft thing" just now, and that it is the correct policy to give them a liberal support, I shall, if elected, (which is more than probable), accord the same to them so long as it will pay to do so.

Assuring you that, if elected, I shall devote myself earnestly to promoting the welfare of myself, and the Dominion in general, the world at large, and particularly of this City and County, and respectfully soliciting your votes at the lowest market rate,

I remain, gentlemen,

Good News for the Children!

ST. NICHOLAS HAS COME!

CHRISTMAS comes but once a year, but ST. NICHOLAS, the beautiful new Magazine for Girls and Boys, just published by SCRIBNER & Co., of New York, comes every month.

It is full of good things, Pictures, Stories, Talks with Children, Historical Sketches, Fairy Tales, Nursery Rhymes, Jingles, Puzzles, &c.

There are two Serial Stories, "WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN EXPECTED," a Story for Boys, already commenced, by FRANK R. STOCKTON, one of the best writers for Children in the country. The scene is laid in Virginia. The Boy Hero has started out with a gun on his shoulder, and you may be sure there will be no end of Fun and Adventure. The other is a story for Girls, "NIMPOS TROUBLES," by OLIVER THORNE (Mrs. Harriet M. Miller), to begin in January. The Editors say:—"It is a good strong helpful story of Girl Life, and will be full of interest for both Girls and Boys. We are not sure but that the boys will like the girl's story the best, and the girls be most delighted with that written for the boys.

Then there is JACK-IN-THE-PULPIT who tells the children the most curious things they ever heard.

ST. NICHOLAS has already won the hearts of the young-folks who are eagerly expecting the next number. The Publishers have issued a very amusing picture, entitled "Little Children crying for St. Nicholas."

It is the most beautiful Magazine ever issued, and it has a hundred delightful suggestions for the Little-Folks. Indeed you find in its pages something for all, from Grandpapa and Grandmama to the Baby.

The Publishers say, they mean to make it just as good and helpful to the children as they can. They want 100,000 children made happy by ST. NICHOLAS before the Holidays. PRICE $3.00 A YEAR.—ONE PRICE TO ALL. ST. NICHOLAS is for sale by all NEWS DEALERS, and Subscriptions are received by all BOOKSTORES, POST MASTERS and PUBLISHERS of NEWSPAPERS, and by
