HENRY BLAIR

Obituary.

MARION OAKLEY.

Early Monday morning, 29th inst., there passed peacefully away at her parents' residence, 14 Knight's St., Marion, the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Oakley. Marion had been a cheerful sufferer for the past six years, so that her end did not come as a surprise. Being of a kind and loving nature, she made many friends, all of whom are sorry for her early demise. She was never happier than when in company with children, and in fact, although 25 years old, she possessed the sweet simplicity of a child. Throughout her long and tedious illness she was ever patient, and though at times her sufferings were almost unbearable, she never complained. When her sickness permitted she occupied herself with doing fancy needle work and many beautiful specimens of her skill and patience are in possession of friends who will treasure them as the epitome of a good and beautiful soul. She leaves to mourn a father, mother, three sisters; Mrs. E. A. Crowther, Mrs. F. Samuelson, City; and Mrs. H. Makinson, now residing in California, to mourn their sad loss. To the bereaved relatives the Telegram offers sympathy.

The Battlefield of Beaumont-Hamel.

As requested, the raising of $10,000 for the purchase of the battlefield of Beaumont Hamel, has been undertaken by Mrs. Browning, through the Ladies' Committee of the Great War Veterans' Association; Mrs. Eric Ayre, Secretary; Mrs. McKeen, Treasurer; Miss May Furlong, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Kearley, Miss Edwards. They are undertaking this work with the assurance that it will be the wish of everyone to help to secure for Newfoundland this burial place of our boys. To feel they have given their mite to save this sacred spot from desecration, to feel that they are sheltering the gallant lads who lie there, to feel that they have a share in this little corner of Newfoundland in France made glorious by the heroism of our men, must make it a proud privilege for all to give.

POLICE COURT.—Two young women occupied the court this morning in an assault case. They were both ordered to enter into personal bonds for $100 each.

Evangelistic Service.

There will be service at Wesley Church this evening at 7.45, conducted by Mr. A. Dawe; also to-morrow night, at same hour. Mr. Kenneth Barnes will be leader. The Pastor is expected back to preach on Good Friday at eleven a.m., and there will be collection in aid of the Sustentation Fund at that service. Same evening at 7.30 a devotional meeting, especially remembering "Our Lord's sufferings and death for us." Strangers are always welcome.

Holy Week Services.

GOOD ATTENDANCE.

The biggest crowd since opening attended to-day's service at the Board of Trade Building, and the room was full. Rev. Gordon Dickie was the preacher, taking as his subject "Christ's Discourse to His Disciples." The sermon was delivered in Mr. Dickie's well-known style and was heard with great interest.

Insane Woman Apprehended.

At one o'clock to-day, on Water St., near Adelaide St., considerable interest was caused by the apprehension of a woman. It appears that this outport woman, who was brought here from Bay-de-Verde a day or so ago, to wait for admission to the Lunatic Asylum, left the house at which she was staying and a Constable was sent after her. She resisted the officer, but was eventually put in a cab and driven to her boarding place.

Reids' Boats.

Argyle, Home and Petrel in port.

Clyde left Burin 5 p.m. yesterday, outward.

IN LOVING MEMORY

of my dear son, Gregory Greening, who lost his life in the S. S. "Southern Cross," March 31, 1919.

Sacred heart of Jesus have mercy.

IN LOVING MEMORY

of my dear son, Frederick Squires, aged 22, who lost his life in the S. S. "Southern Cross," on March 31, 1914.

We hoped against hope on that sad fatal day
Which left us forever to mourn;
But we hope, dear, to meet you in heaven above
In that great Resurrection morn.
Inserted by his Mother.

IN LOVING MEMORY

of my dear husband, Benjamin Squires, aged 63, who died March 31, 1917.

He is gone to his rest and his conflicts are o'er
He is done with his sorrow and pain;
The ills of this life, which he patiently bore
Shall never distress him again.
Inserted by his wife.
