

THE NICKELS

ROSSLEY'S EAST END
Last night Rossley's was crowded to the door and its safe to say that the pantomime will be the talk of the town for it is possibly beautiful. Mr. Ballard Brown, the villain of the play, sang an Italian song in great style. Miss Midge Locke made a delightful Boy Blue, and was loudly applauded as she deserved to be. Mr. Deakin, as the old dame, was also very good; Bonnie Rossley, as Bo Peep, was charming in her quaint costume, also in her magnificent wedding costume. The Sunshine girls excelled themselves. The transformation scene was one of the most beautiful sights ever seen and must have cost money, time and wonderful patience. The dance of Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter was delightful. Jack Rossley, as Idle Simon, who bought a watch and all the works fell out, had the crowded house in roars of laughter. There will be a special matinee Wednesday under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency the Governor, Lady Davidson and the Misses Davidson.

ROSSLEY'S WEST END
There was a large audience at the ever popular little theatre last night, and all enjoyed the good show provided. The little singer received great applause. Always a good selection of pictures to please all patrons, good music and a well conducted house, just the place to spend an enjoyable evening.

CRESCENT
At this very entertaining movie palace among to-night's shows are included "The Passing of Diana," a special Vitagraph feature film in two parts, while "The Empty Sleeve" is a most pathetic feature illustrated of war times and besides is of a very vivid character. "Bought to Justice" is a Kalem Indian picture, which vividly depicts Indian life, while in the realm of comedy, "The Particular Cow Trip," and "For Two Pins" are both producers of the first order. Admission prices have now dropped from 10 to 5 cents afternoon and evening, and none should miss the very good shows given daily and nightly at the Crescent.

Our Volunteers
Up to yesterday 1918 names were on the roster of our soldier boys. There enlisted yesterday—Wm. Cheater, Plymon Pollard, Albert Stride, Botwood; Aubrey Parsons, Cat H.R.; Daniel H. Sullivan, St. George's.

In the afternoon the men marched to Smithville in charge of Lieut. Nunn and were served with a sumptuous tea, which all heartily enjoyed, after which they were put through various military exercises in the nearby grounds. On return to the armory they were addressed by Capt. Montgomerie, who emphasized the fact that they were now under military law and that breaches of it would be punished severely. Last evening ex-Major McNeill and Capt. McKay of the Highlanders held examinations for Non-Coms. stripes, the results of which will shortly be made known. Recruiting continues to-day.

Prospero Sails
The Northern coastal steamer Prospero, Capt. A. Kean, sailed at 6 o'clock last evening and will make another attempt to get to Quirpon. The steamer took a full cargo of freight and the following passengers:—F. Win sor, J. Tillier, G. Shea, J. Moore, Rev. Dr. Curtis, J. Davies, L. Fallon, W. French, A. Mercer, J. Joseph, J. Andrews; Misses Gard, Perry, March, Green, Huber, Constock, Palmer, Tremills, Newmann; Mesdames Hudson and Crocker in saloon and 40 in steerage.

Girls Friendly
Thursday will be observed as the annual day of intercession for the Girls' Friendly Society. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion in the Cathedral at 7 a.m. The Revd. C. H. Barter, M.A., will give an address.

A meeting of the parishioners of St. Patrick's was held at Holy Cross Schools, Sunday, to deal with the matter of decorations for the consecration fetes. A committee of 30 was formed with Inspector M.L. Bambrick elected chairman and Mr. Jno. J. Doyle secretary. A handsome arch will span Patrick Street near the church and the deanery, and many public and private residences in the West End will be illuminated on the night of the 29th.

Association Football

B.I.S. Win the Opening Game—Score: B.I.S. 4 Goals; Saints 0

The opening game of the League Fixtures was pulled off last evening on St. George's Field before a late gathering of spectators, with the result as given above. The weather was ideal for playing the game, although just a trifle cool for spectators, a fact which probably kept a good many from attending.

First Half
The kick off was advertised for 7 o'clock and it was just at 7.08 that Referee Congdon got the teams together in the following order, the Saints' captain who won the toss, electing to defend the Western End.

SAINTS—Goal, L. Ewing; backs, E. Spry and A. Foster; half-backs, Reid, Munn and Elton; forwards, Ferguson, Kerr, Bastow, E. Ewing, and Smith.

B.I.S.—Goal, R. Walsh; backs, J. Kavanagh and D. Hogan, half-backs, W. Duggan, T. R. Jackman, and E. Kavanagh; forwards, Constantine, Simms, R. Jackman, Duffy and McGrath.
From the kick off the game opened at a rather slow pace, with fairly even exchange for some ten minutes of time, when from a free kick for an Irish infringement Munn placed the ball nicely and Smith missed a nice chance to score by shooting high. Two minutes afterwards from a nice pass of Elton's, Bastow all but beat Walsh. This stirred the Irish lads a bit and they rushed matters to the other end where a corner was conceded which was however placed behind. A few minutes afterwards, from a free kick, for a foul throw-in, Duggan placed the ball nicely and Dick Jackman getting an opening netted first goal for B.I.S. 15 minutes from the start. Immediately afterwards another corner was conceded the Irishmen, which was well placed by shot over. Play continued with fair exchanges—the B.I.S. securing another fruitless corner—without further scoring till half time, the teams crossing with the score, one to nothing in favor of B.I.S.

Second Half
The Saints pressed at the re-opening and secured a corner. This was nicely placed and Foster essayed a shot, which Walsh just cleared to J. Kavanagh, who drove the leather well down the field. An off-side infringement however, gave the Saints a free kick, and play was transferred to the other end where it raged for a few minutes.

B.I.S. then combined and brought the ball east, and after some hustling in the goal-mouth, Duffy got a chance and banged the ball past Ewing, No. 2 for the Irishmen, 8 minutes from the re-start. Right from the centre the B. I. S. forwards came again and all but netted, and then play got a little bit wild, with erratic kicking over the touch lines, and continuing so for a few minutes. Again, Foster in trying to clear, had to concede a corner which was well placed, but cleared to mid-field, and from a throw-in the Saints had another look-in at Walsh who was all but beaten.

Play continued at a moderate pace with even exchanges for a short time, then from one of Billie Duggan's famous throws-in, Dick Jackman got possession and netted No. 3 for his team, after 20 minutes play. Two minutes after Smith had another try at beating Walsh but shot past. The B. I. S. forced matters from this till the close of the game, and just before the final whistle, from a corner kick, well placed, and after quite a bustle in front of the Saints' goal, Billie Duggan added the fourth goal for his team. Final result, B.I.S. 4 goals, Saints Nil. Referee, J. Congdon. Linesmen, E. Power and L. Calvert.

The Breach of Promise Case, Snow versus Faulke, was withdrawn from the Supreme Court docket at the request of Plaintiff's counsel, the matter having been settled between the parties involved.

Went To Japan
Yesterday Mrs. Newman Ebsary whose son Fred is in the 3rd contingent received from him a letter dated at Edinburgh, April 9th. Its delay in delivery was caused by its being sent to Tokio, Japan, by mistake. In a recent letter received Mrs. Ebsary learns from her son that he had not received one of the many letters she wrote him, nor the several parcels forwarded him.

Police Court

(Before F. J. Morris, K.C., J.P.)

A drunk and disorderly, farmer of the Torbay Road had to find bonds for fifty dollars for his future good behaviour.

Thos. Brown, a fisherman of Salvage, charged with the larceny of $390.00 from the premises of the Martin Hardware Co. last October, was remanded for eight days.

A carpenter of Duckworth St. drunk and disorderly and violently resisting arrest, had to find bonds for $50.00 for future behaviour.

Two citizens, for loose and disorderly conduct, had each to contribute two dollars or take 5 days imprisonment.

8 boys of the East End were charged with loose and disorderly conduct in Bannerman Park and their case was postponed till Thursday.

After the business on the docket of the Court had been gone through Mr. Morris said:—It is my sad duty to announce officially here to-day that since this Court last sat the Judge of the Central District Court has passed away.

Judge Knight's death terminating a very short illness was not unexpected by his friends as the malignant character of the disease from which he suffered gave no hope of recovery, still now that death has come, the knowledge of its approach has not made it easier to bear. The late Judge Knight occupied the position of Acting Judge of this Court for many years and it was only very recently after the death of the late Judge Conroy, that he received his full appointment, and it is said to say he was never privileged to enjoy the full fruition of his life's labours in the position he had attained. The problems surrounding human life, altho oft times probed, have never yet been solved by the deepest thinking philosophers, and one of us can say what guided the dispensations of Providence in taking our friend from us.

When the call came he was full of energy and life, occupying a prominent public position and with what we all supposed many years of good work and usefulness before him. In his case it can be truthfully said of him that he was a true friend, a good citizen and an upright Judge. The sympathy of the whole community, I feel sure, will go out to his bereaved wife and children in this their hour of deep affliction, and out of respect to his memory I adjourn this Court until after the obsequies.

Mr. Morine, K.C., the senior member of the Bar present, stated that on behalf of the profession he wished to add a tribute to the memory of the late Judge Knight, who conducted the business of the Court as Acting Judge for many years.

The late Judge whilst not being possessed of some of the brilliant characteristics of some of his predecessors, still he believed that had he been spared a length of years, that by reason of the broadness of his views, his knowledge of human nature, combined with his legal ability, he would have succeeded in establishing a record for himself equal to any of the Judges who had preceded him. He agreed with the bench as to the late Judge's qualities as a friend and a good citizen.

It is likely that the work of developing the Snow's Pond iron mine will soon start at Clarke's Beach. Yesterday by the express, an American expert arrived to look over the property and it is said there will be a chance later for the owners of the property to sell to an American concern.

OBITUARY

JUDGE KNIGHT
With regret we chronicle to-day the passing of Judge Knight, whose death occurred shortly before six o'clock last evening at the family residence on Military Road.

Whilst it had been apparent to all that the summons to Cross the Bar could not be long delayed, the news of his death last evening was hard to realize as it seemed like only a few days ago that Judge Knight presided at the Central District Court in the discharge of his magisterial duties.

Arthur W. Knight, K.C., was the youngest son of the late Capt. Wm. Knight, and was born in this city in 1862. After a brilliant career at the Methodist College, where he studied, he was articled to the late legal firm of McNeily and McNeily. In due course he became a Barrister, forming a partnership with Hon. S. D. Blandford, and afterwards with Hon. D. Morison.

He subsequently accepted the position of Clerk of the District Court and Acting Judge, filling that office with marked ability and dignity all through the illness and absence of the late Judge Conroy. When the latter passed away, the deceased was appointed as his successor, and few appointments have been made to any position that was more generally approved of in the community.

However, man proposes, but God disposes, and Arthur W. Knight was never privileged to fill the appointment, as it was in the capacity of Acting Judge that he presided for the last time in Court, when the fatal malady seized him in its grip.

There are left many to mourn, for Judge Knight had a large circle of friends and acquaintances who will miss his genial company and kindly advice.

The immediate family circle consists of the widow, formerly Miss Dicks, and three children, two girls and a boy. On them the blow falls with terrible severity, for Judge Knight lived for his family. To them the sympathy of the public will go out in their great sorrow, and also to the sisters, Mrs. Fannie Pratt and Miss Sophie Knight, and the brothers, Mr. Allan Knight, of Regina, Mr. Arch. H. Knight, Contractor of this city, who accompanied the Judge on his sorrowing visit to Montreal, and Mr. Edwin Knight, of Smallwood's.

Judge Knight was a member of St. John's and Whiteway Lodges, A.F. & A.M., having joined the former Lodge over 30 years ago. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

Fogota Here

The Fogota, Capt. Dalton, with the S.S. Bloodhound in tow, arrived here at 8 a.m. to-day. The ship met an ocean of heavy ice at Cape Freels, could not get down to Change Islands and only went as far as Fogo. Fogo is surrounded with ice, which extends all around as far as the eye can see. Those jammed are the Earl of Devon, Erik, Newfoundland and Ingraham, with quite a number of schooners bound for the Labradors.

Her passengers were:—Revs. J. Jones, Legge, Hiscock, Walker; Messrs. L. Carroll, J. Critch, W. LeDrew, N. Parsons, E. Wornell, W. Bemmister, Lance Corporal Bemmister, Pte. J. Coish, B. Hann, Magistrate Wheeler, Mrs. L. Earle, r.M.S. E. Leman, Mrs. McGrath, Misses Rogers, Abbott, Wellon, W. Penny, E. Penny, W. Bowden, M. Leman and 12 steerage.

Arrested For Theft

Just before dinner to-day Mr. Crosbie while on board the Fogota found one of the firemen who had been in the habit of getting supplies for his mess, taking without leave from the saloon pantry some provisions, &c., which he had not been asked to procure by those on board.

Sgt. Mackay was called and arrested the man who it was found had a lot of goods secreted and these were taken along with him to the Police Station.

Kyle's Passengers

The Kyle arrived at Port aux Basques at 6.55 to-day, bringing Mrs. Hy. Neissant, Mrs. T. R. Prince, B. M. Shipman, Mrs. M. Pike, Rev. Mark Pike and J. J. Lacey.

LOCAL ITEMS

The owner of a gold brooch recently picked up, can get it by applying to Sgt James Mackey of the Police Force.

Matters are more than ordinarily quiet in police circles of late, yet three unfortunates made the acquaintance of the cells last night.

DEMOCRATIC CONTROL

(Winnipeg Voice)

In an able sermon last Sunday night, the Rev. Dr. Horace Westwood, pastor of All Souls' Unitarian church advocated the principles of the Union of Democratic Control. As most labor men probably know, the organization has been founded in England with a view to creating public sentiment in favor of a peace settlement on a democratic and therefore stable basis. It deserves the support of every working man, because it teaches political doctrines which, if followed, will absolutely ensure the peace of the world. In other words, it advocates the submission of every kind of international dispute to a concert of nations, and lays down the principle that no government must be forcibly imposed on any people. Obviously, the whole motive of war is to impose the will of one group forcibly on another. If the civilized nations of the world could begot to recognize the social value of creating governments solely "by the consent of the governed," there could never be any more war.

LIBAU PROVES OF LITTLE USE

Russians Held it While of Use for Mobilization, Not As a Fortress

London, June 7.—A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says:

"Statements appearing in German newspapers to the effect that Libau (on the Baltic sea) is a fortress and naval base are denied here. It is stated that in 1910 Libau was abandoned as a fortress, that its forts were completely dismantled, and that it is now an open sea port.

"That the Germans expected to find there important war material is proved by their sending many steamers to carry away booty but they were disappointed as at the beginning of mobilization all important or valuable property was removed.

"The Russians assert they intended to maintain Libau only while their fleet there predominated, but from the time the German naval forces became superior no serious attempt was made to remain masters of the city which is outside the region for the deployment of land and sea forces and would not have justified the necessary disposition of troops."

STRAD. VIOLIN

(Pall Mall Gazette, London)

A record price is expected for the Strad violin which Lord Newlands has placed at the disposal of the British Red Cross fund. To break the existing record, however, the instrument will need to fetch a handsome figure, for five years ago Kubelik raised the Strad record at one bound from $10,000 to $50,000, by giving the latter amount for the famous "Haddock Strad." Babelik's Strad, by the way, attains its bicentenary this year, Antonia Stradivari having made it in 1715. A century later, in they ear of Waterloo, it was brought from Brussels to London, and in the subsequent 100 years it had only been heard in public twice until Kubelik bought it in 1910 from Messrs. Haddock for $50,000. It has been estimated that altogether Stradivari made between 1,100 and 1,200 violins during the 75 years he labored at Cremona, and the average price he received for them was four louis d'or, about $17.50. Making allowance for the greater purchasing power of money two hundred years ago Stradivari received for his entire output of violins about half what Kubelik gave for one specimen.
