Miscellaneous.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.—One of the vacancies in the Legislative Council has been filled by the appointment of Loran E. Baker, Esq., of Yarmouth.

— An interesting feature of the Texas cattle trade is, the wealthiest dealers, some of whom can command millions of dollars, rose from the most humble beginnings.

— Catholic missionaries in China have discovered a remedy for leprosy, which is said to have been used in some of the Spanish islands of South America and in Venezuala with great success. The nature of it is not stated.

—'A woman in West Winsted, Conn., has lost two brothers by murder and one by drowning, a brother-in-law by wounds in battle, a husband by a stroke of apoplexy, and a son in the recent railroad disaster at Tariffville.

LONGEVITY.—Mrs. Catherine Jarvis, whose years were five score and ten, died on the 6th inst., at the residence of her son Joseph, at Weymouth Falls, Digby. She was born a slave, but came to Nova Scotia in 1782 with her loyalist master.

— King Alfonso has given Queen Mercedes a crown composed wholly of diamonds: also dresses costing altogether about $35,000 and mantillas worth $2000 a piece. A mantle worn by the Queen at the State dinner on the wedding day cost $15,000.

— Early in the winter a lady in Ashburnham, Mass., took a dry stick from a brush heap, and put it in a flower pot to support a house plant. Soon afterward a green spot appeared on the seemingly dead stick and developed into a bunch of apple blossoms, with all the beauty and perfume of June.

— A proposition is being seriously considered to dam the Arkansas and Platte rivers and thus turn the waters into the great desert in the western part of Kansas and Nebraska, whence, by tapping the artificial lake, streams could be secured for irrigating purposes.

— Four hundred years ago occurred one of the most remarkable State executions on record. George, Duke of Clarence, being sentenced to death for taking up arms against his brother, Edward IV., King of England, was given the choice of the mode of his death. He chose to be drowned in a butt of Malmsey wine, and his wish was complied with.

— A 16-year old lad of Amity, Pa., named Wm. Trainor, while at school the other day indulged with a number of other boys in the pleasing pastime of seeing who could butt heads together the hardest. While at home in the evening he complained of dizziness, and soon became quite sick and at last died, as is supposed from the rupture of a blood-vessel in his brain.

— Lum Bing, a prominent Chinese merchant connected with the officials of high rank in China, has recently returned from China. He states in three or four months a Chinese war vessel with American officers and a Chinese crew will visit this port, bringing as passengers the Chinese consul and a large number of Chineso army officers of rank, who will make a tour of observation through the country. He describes the famine in the Northern part of China as terrible. In one district the State of Sang Tong last year, out of a population of 96,000, about 80,600 died from starvation.

POPE LEO XIII.

Cardinal Pecci, Pontificial Camerelengo, an Italian, has been elected to the chair of St. Peter, under the title of Leo XIII. There must have been considerable unanimity in the choice, as the Cardinals only entered the Conclave on the 18th. Cardinal Pecci was one of the five, out of the sixty-four Cardinals who were eligible to be elected, from amongst whom the correspondents at Rome of the London journals announced the successor of Pio Nono would be chosen.

The Pope, after his elect, assumed the Pontificial robes, and received the homage of the Cardinals in Sextine Chapel. The crowd before the Vatican waiting for the benediction of the Pope, numbering 20,000. The only portion able to hear the benediction was an inner gallery, from which it was pronounced. It looks into St. Peter's The Ultramontanes are reported furious at the result of the election.

It is stated that when Cardinal Pecci obtained 46 votes, Cardinal Franchi withdraw from the competition, and prevailed on Cardinal Schwartzendinburg to concentrate his vote on Pecci. Bilio obtained only a few votes, and Simon two; Franchi will probably be appointed Pontificial Secretary of State.

☞ The Cunard steamer "China" encountered a fearful gale at sea on the 9th inst., while on her passage to New York. The vessel lurched into the trough of a sea head foremost, and before she had time to right herself a wave struck her with terrible force, diagonally, which swept the decks, carrying away the bridge upon which were stationed the first and second officers. They were not seen afterwards.

— Advices from Capetown, 5th, say the Kaffir war is approaching its end. Governor Frere and ministers have had differences regarding the military affairs. The ministry have been dismissed.

THE "HIBERIAN."—The Allan steamer "Hiberian," Capt. Archer, from Liverpool, G. B., for Halifax, which broke her shaft on the 8th inst., arrived at Queenstown at nine o'clock Saturday morning under sail.

— At Oakland, San Francisco, Feb. 23, Dr. Carver, with a rifle, broke 885 glass balls out of 1000, tossed from a point twenty feet distant, the time, including all stoppages, being three hours and three minutes.

A SEA MOUSE. — The largest sea mouse ever seen in these parts was captured at Dover, West Halifax, recently, by Capt. George Garrison, who has given it to Dr. Honeyman for the Provincial Museum. It measured eight inches in length, and seven in girth. It came up on a hillock, from 35 fathoms of water—and was immediately made a victim of.—Hx. Herald.

— A company has been formed at Annapolis to try and start the fishing business. They have one schooner in course of construction, of the following dimensions:—Keel, 50 feet, beam, 18 feet, hold, 7 feet—to be launched about the first of April. She is being built under the superintendence of Mr. H. K. Richards, in the yard of L. Delap & Co., and will be a first class vessel in every respect.

BRIDGEWATER, Feb. 23.—The house of David Oikle, Pleasant River Road, was burned last night with all its contents. His son, seventeen years of age, was burned to death. Mrs. Oikle was a good deal burned about the body, but will likely recover. Mr. Oikle's mother, an old lady, jumped from an upstairs window and broke her arm. The barn was saved with difficulty. There was no insurance.

THE N. B. ANTHRACITE COAL CO.

The Point Lepreaux Anthracite Coal Company are energetically pushing their works for putting their coal in the market towards completion. The shaft is now sunk 160 feet below the surface, and will only require a depth of forty feet more to strike the coal bed. Mr. Henry Farrell, an experienced miner, has been brought from the United states, and he is preceded by the strongest recommendation of his ability and skill. Mr. Farrell will hold the position of mining foreman. He pronounces the prospects of good anthracite coal as very encouraging. He will enter upon his engagement with the company on Monday next. It is expected that in about two months from the presenttime, the cool will be for sale in the market. We are informed that, just now, in certain kinds of coal, especially of slack, there is a scarcity in the market,—St. John Freeman.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

The Moncton "Times" says:—"On Wednesday morning, as a freight train, with driver Cox and fireman Burns, loaded with fresh beef from the Upper Provinces, bound to Halifax, was descending a heavy grade near Tatague, 19 miles south of St. Flavie, the engine broke away and the train parted. The driver stopped his engine, and while backing up to the train lost control of the engine and could not reverse her when he saw the train coming down on him. There was a collision, and the tender was driven up on the cab of the engine. The fireman, William Burns, was caught in the cab between the tender and the boiler, and was both jammed and scalded, several of his ribs being broken. His life is despaired of. Burns is said to be a native of Maine and unmarried. The shock of the collision was so great that not less than seven of the safety draw-bars on the twelve Wicke's refrigator cars composing the train were broken.

ACCIDENT AT COLDBROOK.

Mr. George Logan—an elderly man—had a most remarkable escape on Wednesday the 20th inst. South of the first crossing West of Coldbrook Station, is a remarkably steep hill. A person coming down this hill and approaching the railway, can only see the crossing immediately in front, and is unable to see the line East or West until within a few paces of the track. It would appear that Mr. Logan was sitting on a sled of wood, driving a pair of spirited young horses. Down this hill the horses came at a good round pace. Mr. Logan unable to restrain or control them, and not having seen, heard, or even thought of the train then due, attempted to cross the Railroad, just as the morning express train came along. The horses succeeded in clearing the track, but the cow catcher of the engine caught the sled, and Mr. Logan, wood, and sled, were thrown completely clear of the line. Strange to say the pole of the sled broke clear off and the horses escaped unhurt. Mr. Logan was considerably shaken and naturally very much frightened but not seriously injured. No blame is attributed to the conductor or engineer of the express.—Berwick Star.

EUROPE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 23.—The St. Petersburg *Cel*s to-day says, regarding the protracted peace negotiations, either the British Squadron should withdraw to Besika Bay or the Porte should receive proof that it reckons in vain upon the presence of the British ironclads in the sea of Marmora. Turkey should be informed if the peace is not signed at the earliest practicable date that hostilities will be resumed.

BERLIN, Feb. 23.—The rumor is confirmed that Otto Samphausen, Minister of Finance, and Vice President of the Council of Ministers, tendered his resignation.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—A correspondent of the Times at Vienna, who received decisive information from the Austrian foreign office, reiterates the statement that the Czar threatened to occupy Constantinople and rejected the Sultan's personal appeal to withdraw this threat. Nevertheless the correspondent says Safvet Pasha still hesitates to sign Ignatieff's conditions, which defines the Eastern and Southern limits of Bulgaria to extend from a point east of Adrianople, southerly to Dedegatch, then Westerly along the Ægian Sea to Salonica to the Northern slopes of Mt. Olympus to the Pindus Range, including Grevno, Castoria and Monastir. The conditions also, despite the denial of L'Agence Russe, prescribe the expulsion practicaly of the entire Mussulman population.

The idea of the Sultan's withdrawal to Broussa is again mooted at Constantinople.

It is persistently maintained, despite the statements in the British Parliament, that the arrangements between England and Russia are by no means perfect; that the announcement of an intention to occupy Constantinople caused the whole affair to enter upon a new phase and that in consequence the British squadron again returned to Prince's Island. Thus the whole question at issue seems to be again renewed.

Onon, General Ignatieff's dragoman, is at Constantinople pressing the Turks to come to a speedy decision, but in spite of his importunity they do not seem yet to have made up their minds.

The Times and Telegraph both regard the situation as very unsatisfactory. The Telegraph says that nothing could be darker than the prospect.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 24.—L'Agence Russe says the situation has improved through the understanding between England and Russia, whereby Russia will not occupy Gallipoli and England will not land troops on the shores of the Dardanelles.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Times Paris correspondent says, according to a telegram from Bucharest, fresh Russian detachments are arriving in Roumania, several without arms. It is believed they are destined to form military colonies in Bulgaria.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Times editorial says it considers the situation very unsatisfactory. Europe is armed to the teeth, and increasing its armaments day by day. In such circumstances the country can but give confidence to the Government and trust that they will be able to control the dangerous susceptibilities which have on all sides been aroused.

The Telegraph says nothing could well be darker or more difficult than the prospect now before this country.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 24.—The Grand Duke Nicholas, accompanied by a detachment of troops and the Turkish plenipotentiaries, has arrived at St. Stefano. Reouf and Mehemet Ali Pasha, have gone to welcome him.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Times' Pera despatch says as a reward for the Porte's ineffectual efforts to keep the British fleet out of the Dardanelles the Czar has consented that the Russians shall not come nearer to Constantinople than San Stefano.

The Russians are coming to San Stefano as friends, not exactly on the invitation of the Sultan, but with his consent, and the Grand Duke Nicholas will probably be invited to enter Stamboul with a military escort.

It is expected peace will be signed to-day, the Turks accepting all conditions except two – the immediate surrender of the ironclads and the payment of 10,000,000 roubles in cash, and £40,000,000 stg. in bonds.

OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Feb, 19.—The Dominion Temperance Alliance meets here to-morrow.

A meeting of the members of Parliament favorable to an amended liquor law was held to-day, when the subject was fully discussed. The meeting was adjourned till to-morrow, when Senator Scott will give a full account of the legal bearing of the question. The Opposition has not decided what course to take on this matter. The proposed measure will not be of an extreme character.

In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Masson read a letter in a newspaper which he said it was reported was from an assistant Clerk of the Commons making charges against Messrs. Blake and Laflamme, of improper revelations about charges which were before the Government against a judge. Messrs. Blake and Laflamme contradicted the statements and promised to inquire into the authorship of the letter.

Bills were introduced providing for short-hand reporters for certain courts and respecting the Independence of Parliament.

In the Senate yesterday there was a discussion on the winter mail service between Prince Edward Island and the mainland. The Island members urged the immediate adoption of the route by Capes Traverse and Tormentine. McFarlane objected to spending a large sum of money—about $1,000,000—that would be called for, when it was doubtful whether the service could be carried on between the points mentioned. He favored a commission of enquiry.

AMERICAN SYMPATHY FOR ENGLAND.

In his sermon on Friday evening last, at the Brooklyn Tabernacle, the Rev. Dr. Talmage, in speaking of the three great events of the week—Stanley's return, the Pope's death, and Russia's triumph—said: The third event of the week is volcanic, Turkey crushed, Russia triumphant, England aghast, the world confounded! What next? you ask. That's what all the world asks. There has not been such an intense moment in European politics during our lifetime as this moment. If England halt she becomes a second rate Power; if she march then all Europe is an Harmagedon. May the God of nations appear in this crisis! I am glad that the Turkish Empire has perished. She was an old butcher, and the most cheerful page of her history is to me her obituary. When shall the miserable old carcase be buried? Where are spades long enough to dig a hole deep enough? but I have no admiration for her conqueror, Russia. We have heard from that nation a great deal of snuffling about religion during the past year. What does she care about true religion? She has been one of the world's most dreadful oppressors. Where is Poland? Where are the myriads who have been strangled under her hard heel? I will not hide the fact that my deepest sympathies are at this moment for England. She has not always acted kindly to this nation, but what is the good of keeping old grudges good while the fact is certain that England and the United States stand side by side to-day in the great cause of civilization and Christianity? (Applause.) When England is humiliated the Church of God and the Cross of Christ are humiliated. Look at her Churches, Bible and missionary societies; look at her throne, the purest in Europe if not all the world (Applause.) The girl Victoria, kneeling with her ecclestical adviser on the night before her coronation, made vows to God and promises to England not one of which has she ever broken. (Applause.) The fact is that the most we can do in this crisis of the world's history is to implore God to rise for the safety of His Church, for the deliverance of the captives, for the downfall of despotism, for the ransom of all nations. Though the ploughshare of battle cut through St. George's Channel to the China Sea, Christ shall have all the dominion, all the power and all the glory, world without end. Amen and amen!

READ CAREFULLY.

SAMUEL OSBORNE, Sophiasburg, says—"I was affected with Dyspepsia for nearly four years, my lungs becoming affected towards the last. I was induced to try the "Shoshonees Remedy." After using three or four bottles I felt much better, and gained strength rapidly, my health improved steadily and rapidly, and when I had taken three or four bottles more, I was quite restored to health and strength, and have experienced better health than for forty years before. I had been under the treatment of a number of physicians before, but never received any material aid until I used your remedy."

A. MCKAY, Truro, N. S., says—"He was very bad with Liver Complaint, but used the "Shosonees Remedy," and in a month was as well as ever he had been in his life. I am now in business and wish you to send me three dozen by steamer."

A. WOOD, Conseccon, says—"That he has tried the Remedy for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia with great success. I have also used the "Shosonees Pills," and find that they are as good as any I ever tried.

REV. JOHN SCOTT says— Mr. McKenzie Botting suffered from an attack of rheumatism, and was unable to move without help; but after taking a few bottles of the "Shosonees" was able to walk as well as ever." Price of the Remedy in pint bottles $1; Pills 25 cents a box.

☞ The Sheriff went out with a jury in San Francisco a few days ago, and returned to the court room in about two minutes. In the meantime, Tom Wallace, a notorious burglar under indictment, climbed over a railing in full view of scores of people and quietly walked out, and has not since been seen.

— Princeton College has some nice young men. On Monday night a number of Freshmen entered a Sophomore's room. They tied several Sophomores to chairs and shaved their heads. After the freshmen had retired, they were followed by the Sophomores, who were burning for revenge. The two parties came to blows and so serious was the affray that shots were exchanged. One of the combatants, Mr. Atterbury, was wounded in the thigh, and it is feared the wound will prove fatal.

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
