SOVIET FORCES ARE IN BAD SHAPE

Disorganized and Hungry, Are in Full Flight on Both Fronts.

London, Oct. 4.—Press despatches reaching Stockholm from Finland, according to the correspondent of The London Times, continues to represent that a state of great anxiety prevails in Soviet circles. Reports conveyed across the Russian frontier say that the Red forces are in full retreat on both the Polish front and the Crimea, demoralized, suffering from hunger and surrendering and deserting in large numbers.

The Soviet government has instituted forced contributions of clothing for the troops. The order says that every one who has two coats, two pairs of boots, two fur caps, give one and save the soldiers from perishing from cold."

Trotzky's efforts to recruit new forces in Siberia and the eastern provinces, the reports say, have failed, the peasants in the agricultural districts and the workmen in the towns equally revolting against further recruitments.

Fighting Progress.

London, Oct. 4.—Fighting is proceeding in the regions of Novo-Grodek and Neswish, east of the rivers Nieman and Shkhara, according to the Russian Soviet official statement of Sunday received here today by wireless.

"In the Pinsk region fighting is in progress west and south of Lusnitlets," the statement continues. "We are conducting an advance along the Korosten Railway. The enemy's attacks on Starokonstantinov have been repulsed."
