—Messrs. Wm. S. Case and R. E. Simpson, for many years travelers for Robinson, Little & Co., and both highly respected citizens of London, have rented a prominent store in Aylmer, where they will conduct a business in drygoods and ready-made clothing. The new firm intend to commence business on Thursday next. They are gentlemen of wide experience and sterling integrity, and their success is assured.

—Yesterday two additional rooms at the Wortley road school were used for the first time, and it was found that they provide ample accommodation. The school, which is now a four-roomed one, is under the direction of Principal McQueen, of Victoria school, but Miss Macarthur, who has been transferred from Victoria school, will be practically the principal. The other teacher added to the Wortley road staff is Miss Powell.

—Some recent important decisions of the Grand Board of the Patrons of Industry have been made public by the new secretary-treasurer, Mr. Geo. Wrigley. All arrearage dues up to Oct. 1 will be canceled, and the password will be given to all members who pay their dues from Oct. 1 to Dec. 31. All county secretaries, who, in the general elections opposed Patron candidates, will be deposed, should such secretaries on being called upon by the county executive refuse to resign. Local associations must meet regularly at least once monthly, or the charter will be called in.

—At the annual meeting yesterday of the London Ministerial Association, Rev. W. M. Walker was elected president, Rev. M. P. Talling, secretary, and Rev. A. L. Russell, vice-president. Otherwise the meeting was unimportant. Notice of motion was given that all resolutions by the association shall be deemed advisory only. After the meeting there was considerable desultory talk, some holding the view that as the proceedings were important only to the members themselves, the meetings should be private. As to passing resolutions by which nobody was to be bound, one member thought that resolutions of any kind were out of place, while another took the view that they must be exceedingly careful as ministers not to seem desirous of achieving the maximum of notoriety at the minimum of responsibility.

—The London Presbyterian Council met in St. Andrew's Church last night, the president, Rev. M. P. Talling, occupying the chair. Mr. Gilmore, gave a most encouraging report of the work done at the North End and Pottersburg missions. Good services were held in the North End during the summer, and the prospects were that at Pottersburg a very nice building would be erected by the middle of November, at a cost of about $2,500. Mr. Scott reported satisfactorily for the work at the Waterloo Street South Mission, which is in connection with the First Presbyterian and Knox Churches. Both reports were received, but discussion on them was deferred for an adjourned meeting of the council, to be held on Monday, Oct. 5. Rev. Robert Johnston recorded some of his impressions on religious work in Great Britain during his visit there. Rev. W. J. Clark followed with some personal reminiscences, and his impressions of some of the great preachers he had heard.

DOMINION C. E. CONVENTION.

Great interest is being taken by Canadian Endeavorers in the International Convention, which is to be held in Ottawa, Oct. 6, 7, 8 and 9. It is the first attempt at a joint meeting of the provincial unions, and the result will probably determine the feasibility of organizing a Dominion union. The programme has been arranged so as to permit of sufficient time being given the provincial unions to meet and transact business. The speakers will be the most prominent in Endeavor circles in Canada, and a large attendance is already assured. Good citizenship is being given a prominent place on the programme, and the Hon. G. W. Ross, Ontario's eloquent Minister of Education, has promised to address the gathering on this most important theme. A feature of the convention will be an open air patriotic service, to be held at Aylmer, Que., on Friday, 9th, when addresses will be delivered by Dr. G. M. Grant, principal of Queen's University, Kingston, and Mr. John Willis Baer, of Boston, secretary of the United Society of the Christian Endeavor. Aylmer is the birthplace of Rev. Dr. Clarke, founder of the movement, and is easy of access by electric car. The Canadian railways have arranged for single fare rates, and the convention is likely to be one of the most important gatherings of the year.

PROF. ALEXANDER.

Lectures to a Large Audience on Human Nature—An Entertaining Address.

Prof. Alexander opened a series of lectures last night in the Music Hall before a large and appreciative audience. His subject was "Human Nature," and he handled it in a very entertaining and instructive way, dealing with the boy as the father of the man. Artemus Ward said there was a great deal of human nature in mankind, but the difficulty was in understanding that nature. The lecturer said a man might study his wife for 30 years and then not know her. Again, there were many wives who had studied their husbands, and they wished they had never begun. People with large heads were not necessarily brainy. Brain was the making of the man, not bone, and there might be much bone and very little brain. He exhibited the head of Chauncey Leonard, a horse-thief, who was condemned to death, and who sold his body for a pound of candies, and who, on the day of the execution, sat up in his coffin and ate them. The professor dealt with the wide and the narrow-headed boys. The former were the making of smart men, if they were started in life on the right road, while the later were only Willies and Johnnies at the best of times. He had often heard sermons all his life from the words, "Children, obey our parents in all things," but he had never heard a word from the text, "Parents, provoke not your children to anger." The time was coming when this latter kind of preaching would be equal to if not better than the former.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine and less than half a bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."

Rousing Rally

By Young People of Dundas Center Methodist Church.

They Hold Their First Epworth League Anniversary—Rev. W. F. Wilson and Rev. R. Hobbs Give Telling Addresses.

The young people's rally last night in connection with the Epworth League anniversary services at Dundas Center Church was largely attended. It was the celebration of their first anniversary.

Mr. J. D. Keenleyside, of the league, was chairman, and on the platform were the pastor of the church, Rev. E. B. Lanceley, Mr. Wm. Jeffery (president of the local union), Rev. H. J. Uren, and the speakers of the evening, Rev. W. F. Wilson, of Trinity Church, Toronto, and Rev. R. Hobbs, of Askin Street, South London.

The president spoke briefly on the Epworth League movement—a good and growing one, which represented the young life of the church. Introducing Rev. Mr. Wilson, he said they were very fortunate in securing the services of that stalwart son of Methodism.

Mr. Wilson's address was a rich treat—amusing, pathetic, instructive and inspiring. He recorded some of his impressions received at the great Christian Endeavor convention in Washington, and spoke of the welcome the Ontario delegates received. Whenever they said they were from Canada, they always had the right of way. He said he was proud to tell them of Toronto what the might have said of London—no Sunday desecration. One thing the speaker was impressed with when he saw the behavior of the forty thousand young people attending the convention was that they were intensely patriotic. Everywhere were to be seen Stars and Stripes, ranging in size from 50 feet long and 12 feet wide, to the little flags worn in the button-hole. He attributed it to the intense love and spirit of intense patriotism instilled in the young people. "Let's talk of our country when we go away. When in Detroit for a holiday, don't try to make people believe you are from Toledo."

The speaker was struck with the power of a single consecrated life. He then gave a brief description of F. E. Clarke, the founder of the Christian Endeavor movement. His third impression was that of the practical, wide-awake spirit of the young people. He concluded by saying that no other name than that of Christ, and no other book than the Bible, could have brought together such a large gathering.

Rev. Mr. Hobbs spoke very earnestly on "Our Duty and How to Measure It." Christ would never ask them to do what was not for their highest good, and, His greatest glory, nor what they had not the ability to do.

The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. H. J. Uren, and the special Epworth League music by the choir under the direction of Mr. W. H. Hewlett, organist, was very fine. Solos were rendered by Miss Robiyn and Dr. Ziegler.

PLEASANTLY REMEMBERED.

An Exhibit at the Western Fair That Attracted Much Attention.

The thousands who attended the great Western Fair last week will carry for many a day multitudes of profitable recollections, gathered in the Main Building alone. It is safe to say that those interested in household affairs made special studies of that article so essential to comfort and happiness of home—a stove. They looked for something new and they found it in the great silver-steel line shown in the admirable exhibit of the Moffatt Stove Works of Weston. The silver steel ovens, with which Moffatt's Pearl stoves and ranges of all kinds are fitted, are the acme of perfection. Not only do they bake more quickly and more evenly than the old cast-iron ones, but they burn only half the fuel! The oven bottoms are held perfectly even by the company's patent truss and twelve bolts. The solid silver steel range—a thing of beauty and a joy to any household—reaches the climax of modern improvements. Its movable grate, simple and faultless, and its water reservoir, subjected to any degree of heat by a simple adjustment, are features which make it supreme among ranges. The agent in charge is giving away catchy souvenirs in the shape of miniature frying pans. Mr. Wm. Pudney, 503 Richmond street, is the sole city agent.

Cod-liver oil suggests consumption, which is almost unfortunate.

Its best use is before you fear consumption; when you begin to get thin, weak, run down; then is the prudent time to begin to take care, and the best way to take care is to supply the system with needed fat and strength. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, will bring back plumpness to those who have lost it, and make strength where raw cod-liver oil would be a burden.

A substitute only imitates the original.
