Town & Counties.

☞ Remember the Concert this evening.

☞ See the card of Mr. Small. His plans, &c., are well executed, and highly spoken of.

☞ The attendance at the N. C. Soiree on Wednesday evening was not so large as we hoped to see. The proceedings passed off very pleasantly. J. V. Detlor, Esq., occupied the chair, and the speaking and singing was excellent.

THE MISSING WOMAN has not yet been found. At the Police Court on Wednesday, the facts of the case, as far as known, were entered into, and Donohue was remanded until Saturday at 4 p. m. We do not deem it necessary to publish the proceedings.

☞ O'Donohue was brought before the Police Court on Saturday, for a third time, and there being no evidence against him, he was discharged.

CONCERT.—A Concert is to be given by the Amateurs of the place in the Presbyterian Church, Walkerton, on Monday evening, 25th instant, for the benefit of a poor man who recently had his leg amputated. We hope the effort will be sustained.

RAIN has fallen copiously in this neighborhood during the past few days. The effects of the continual warm showers upon the new crops as well as on the Winter Wheat is truly magical. The grass is springing up magnificently, and we think the prospect of an enormous hay crop was never surpassed in this country. Truly Providence smiles upon the broad acres of Canada West this Spring.

The 24th of May

Is rapidly approaching, and if there is to be a creditable celebration in Goderich on the occasion, a moment should not be lost in making preparations. If it is true that the Volunteer Companies are not going to Stratford, we think it would be well to invite the corps of the neighborhood to spend the day with us. Such a re-union would be very pleasant, and would, no doubt, be easily brought about. Something definite should be decided upon as soon as practicable. We notice that the new uniforms have arrived in Quebec. They will probably be up in good time for the 24th.

OPERATIVE RELIEF.

It gives us much pleasure to publish the following acknowledgments of moneys sent from this county for the relief of our suffering fellow subjects at home. We have already noticed that Mr. Thomas had remitted £100 stg., and we learn he is to send some £12 0 0 additional today, making a total of some $1285!!

MANSION HOUSE,
London, 21st April, 1863.

SIR,—I have now the pleasure to acknowledge, on behalf of the Lord Mayor and Mansion House Committee, the receipt of your kind favour of the 2nd inst., enclosing a Draft, value £105. 2. 4., being the 2nd and final contribution from the residents in Goderich and the adjacent Townships, in aid of the distressed poor in the cotton manufacturing districts of this country. I am desired to request that your Committee will make public to the subscribers generally the sincere thanks of His Lordship and the Mansion House Committee for this further evidence of sympathy on behalf of our distressed cotton operatives, and also to thank your Committee earnestly for their kind efforts in furthering these donations.

SIR,—I have received your esteemed favor of the 2nd instant, with remittance of £40, from the inhabitants of Goderich and the neighbouring townships in aid of the destitute operatives of Scotland, for which I beg to thank you.

I shall take care that the contribution so kindly forwarded by you, shall be duly advertised in the Glasgow newspapers.

I am, Sir,
Your most obdt. servt.,
JOHN CAMERON,
Per Hon. Treas.

The Treasurer's Receipt is enclosed.

☞ A man named Heman Hill, living near Ingersoll, on Tuesday last, while under the influence of delirium tremens, cut the throat of his youngest child Thomas, three years of age, causing his death, and then cut his own throat, without taking life. He was a quiet, inoffensive man when sober, but was rendered insane by constant intoxication, and fancied that he and his family were about to suffer frightful tortures from which death alone could save them. It is believed that he intended to kill two of his other children, but he was prevented.
