

McGraw Has Number of Promising Recruits

Report From the South Indicate That Giants Will be Strong This Year.

MARLIN, Tex., March 24.—The good ship New York on its annual spring cruise through the uncertain water of the Sea of Spring Training continues to enjoy smooth sailing. With the exception of a couple of southeasters, which have slightly disabled the rudder and temporarily disabled the jib boom, the weather has been of that variety to cause Capt. McGraw to loll at ease in his cabin with that most comfortable of all inducements under the command. It is now getting along towards the time when promotions on this bark will be in order, and those who have been taught of the canteen and have displayed their ability to climb to the most prominent of the mainmast without batting an eyelash to collaborate in the search for the treasure of Pennantdom, will get their just dues.

This port of Marlin is a sort of Stevenson's Treasure Island, as it were, where there is enacted a long and tedious search for the diamonds and gems of the base ball field. Those who assay pure gold are put back in the dear old harbor of Harmond, while those whose gold assays of the 'brick' variety must needs peddle their talents in other parts until they shall have become proficient enough in their art to command the admiration of that time-tried seaman McGraw.

Jim Thorpe, in centre field, performs very well, and he has had a couple of very muddy days to hamper his leading swatters in the camp up to date, the Indian athlete having procured seven of those four-base things. Cooper still a sensation. Claude Soper continues to be one of the sensations of this year's Colts, and it looks like a merry tussle between him and Burns for the utility outfield position. Cooper is a native Texan, having been famous for his ball playing ever since he was a very small boy. He gained fame on the Texas Christian University team, then playing with Greenville and Bonham in the Texas Oklahoma league. Walter Morris signed him for the Fort Worth Panthers for the 1912 season and then one of McGraw's scouts grabbed him. Cooper is a studious chap and hopes to put in at least four months' studying in the should he be promoted to the major league. If he does not go up this year one year at Mobile ought to fit him for the stellar work on the New York team and give him the title of the 1913 Texas kid.

"An umpire, an umpire; my week's salary for an umpire," exclaimed McGraw a few days ago when the arbiters refused to go on the job. Again he repeated his appeal this time making it "our week's salary for an umpire" instead of "my week's salary for an umpire."

Chief was then put that qualification upon the plea Chief Meyers couldn't quite see the proposition of donating part of his weekly stipend to getting an indicator manhandler. "John, you have dared me once too much," he shouted to the man who does things. "I will take this job if I have to be relegated to the cohorts of Amnians for fair."

"Well, Chief, take the job and peace be to you, or shall I say your remains?" This was the brunt of many sarcastic remarks for some of his decisions, but he came right back at the waggish insinuations ante his judgment with a merry monologue of raillery.

A particular game was a rattling jolly affair known as the Regulars versus the Colts 11 to 10. A ninth inning rally by the younger consisting of three runs, with men on second and third bases when time was called, came very nearly upsetting the victory which the Old Heads finally carried away with them.

McGraw changed his regular lineup, sending Burns to left field and Shafer to short instead of Fletcher. He also changed the batting order. Burns taking the lead-off role, being followed in the order named by Shafer, Devore, Doyle, Murray, Merkle, Herzog and Wilson. The pitchers worked in three-inning relays, Tesreau, Crandall and Smith working for the Regulars and Ames, Demaree and Schupp for the Youngsters.

ANOTHER PROOF FROM THE WEST

That Dodd's Kidney Pills Are a Natural Remedy.

For Cases of Exhaustion and Nerve Weakness—How S. J. Jeremy Found Relief When He Cured His Kidneys.

Sniatyn, Alta., Mar 24.—(Special)—That the natural remedy for exhaustion and nerve weakness is one that will give good circulation and pure blood, is again proved in the case of S. J. Jeremy, a well-known resident of this place.

"For over two years I suffered from attacks of exhaustion and nerve weakness," Mr. Jeremy states "I tried many nerve foods and tonics but must admit that Dodd's Kidney Pills have benefited me more than anything else I ever used."

"I am more than grateful for what Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for me."

Nerve weakness and exhaustion are caused by impure blood. Impure blood is caused by diseased kidneys. Failing to strain the waste matter of the body out of the blood. The natural remedy is to cure the kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills have yet to find a case of kidney disease they cannot cure.
