10,000 Chinese At New Chwang

Attacking a Force of 4,000 Russians.

Viceroy of Canton Orders Execution of 40 Pirates—Sir Claude McDonald's Dispatch From Pekin Dispels Doubts As to the Fate of the Envoys—Secretary Brodrick's Statement in the House of Commons.

Shanghai, Monday, July 30.—The Japanese have news that 10,000 Chinese are attacking New Chwang, with 4,000 Russians opposing them.

The Japanese minister has forwarded a letter to Tien Tsin, stating that the casualties at the Japanese legation in Pekin were Capt. Ando, Attache Mojime and five marines killed, and Secretary Naranara wounded.

FORTY PIRATES TO BE EXECUTED.

Hong Kong, July 30.—The acting viceroy of Canton, it is reported, is becoming more active and adopting a more vigorous policy.

It is announced that he has ordered the execution of 40 pirates. He says Li Hung Chang is not returning to Canton, where quiet prevails.

The British naval and military officials have taken careful observations of the Canton and Bogue defenses. The Bogue forts are crowded with troops, and the parapets are lined upon the approach of strangers.

A WELCOME DISPATCH.

London, Tuesday, July 31—4:50 a.m.—Sir Claude McDonald's welcome dispatch, dated Pekin, July 21, and received in cipher, is accepted on all sides as dispelling any doubt that might still have existed regarding the genuineness of the dispatches. Owing to an error in transmission the message fails to show the number of wounded. David Oliphant and Warren were two student interpreters. The message fails to mention the other legations and other matters of pressing importance to know. But it should be borne in mind that the British minister may not be aware that all his previous dispatches have been suppressed. He may be under the impression that the government is fully posted regarding all recent occurrences.

Apart from this dispatch there is practically no fresh news, although a special from Tien Tsin asserts that the British and American forces are getting ready to advance within 48 hours.

Li Hung Chang remains at Shanghai. He says that the great heat has prevented him continuing the journey to Pekin.

JAPAN'S POSITION.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, explained to parliament yesterday that the British Government has incurred no financial liability to Japan sending a larger number of troops than she sent and at an earlier date, and the offer was not accepted by the Japanese Government.

LI'S PROPOSAL.

Sir Chih Chen, Chinese minister in London, has been notified by telegraph that Li Hung Chang, conjointly with other viceroys and governors, has memorialized the throne to urge the immediate sending of the foreign representatives under escort to Tien Tsin or the restoration to them of free telegraphic communication with their governments.

The Che Foo correspondent of the Daily Express, telegraphing July 25, says: "I have received a dispatch from Pekin, dated July 10, saying: 'All silent; bullets and shells occasionally fired from streets, causing but few casualties.' It is reported that 18 foreigners have been murdered at Tung Chou, on the Pei Ho."

CHINESE REPULSED.

A dispatch from Shanghai, dated Monday, says that according to the governor of Shan Tung, an imperial decree announces that all the ministers are safe. The rebels attacked the British legation on July 8, but were repulsed with a loss of 1,000. Through the intermediary of the governor of Shan Tung, a telegram from the Russian admiral, Alexieff, has reached the ministers in Pekin. Chinese sources say that the Europeans were holding out on July 24 in the Catholic Cathedral.

LATE MESSAGE FROM PEKIN.

London, July 31—3:05 a.m.—The admiralty has made public the following dispatch from Rear Admiral Bruce at Tien Tsin: "Following message from Pekin: British legation, June 20 to July 16, repeatedly attacked by Chinese troops on all sides, both rifle and artillery fire. Since July 16, an armistice, but a cordon is strictly drawn on both sides of the position. Chinese barricades close to ours. All women and children in the British legation. Casualties to date, 62 killed, including Capt. Strouts. A number of wounded in hospital, including Capt. Halliday; rest of legation all well, except David Oliphant and Warren, killed on July 21. (Signed) McDonald."

STATEMENTS BY THE GOVERNMENT.

London, July 31.—In the House of Commons, Parliamentary Secretary Brodrick read a dispatch from the British consul at Tien Tsin saying that the foreign ministers at Pekin were safe July 22. Mr. Brodrick also read a dispatch in which the statement was made that a strong body of troops, composed almost entirely of Hwang Sus, was around the legations, and that the Chinese were forced to block the river with sunken craft, with a breach on the left bank, in order to flood the country to the eastward.

Mr. Brodrick added that the council of admirals decided on July 16 that the railroad between Taku and Tien Tsin should be guarded and managed by the Russians. The government has informer Russia that it acquiesced, as the arrangement might be the most convenient, but that it must be clearly understood that the line would revert to its former management, i. e., the British, on the termination of hostilities. Mr. Brodrick added that he did not yet know who was to have supreme command. British troops would be available to co-operate with the allies, but no arrangement has been made to put them under command of foreign officers.

A JAPANESE DISPATCH.

New York, July 30. — The Japanese consul at Tien Tsin sent a runner on July 15 to Pekin, and on the 19th the runner left Pekin, bringing a cipher telegram to the Japanese Government, says a Che Foo special to the Herald, dated July 27. It reads: "We are defending ourselves against the Chinese very well, but now the attack has stopped. We will keep up to the last of the month, although it will be no easy task. The Japanese casualties are: Killed: Kozima, diplomatic attache; captain and one student, and also a few marines. Wounded—Five or six. Slightly wounded—Very many." The Che Foo consul says that nothing was written about the other ministers.

AS VIEWED AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 30.—The view which the Washington cabinet has taken from the beginning, that with the exception of Baron Von Ketteler, the legations at Pekin were alive after the date which was said to have marked their massacre, is being slowly but surely confirmed. The most important contribution in support of this position since the receipt of the Conger autograph letter, representing the foreign ministers to have been alive on July 4, came today from United States Consul Fowler, Che Foo. The letter referred to by the consul as coming from the German legation at Pekin is supposed here to have been an autographic letter, and as such absolutely removed from the possibility of fraud. The Japanese representative also is understood to have come down to the sea without having passed through Chinese hands. It was one of the first results of the private messenger system inaugurated by the commander of the allied forces. Taken in conjunction the two reports submitted by Mr. Fowler added overwhelmingly to the weight of testimony in favor of the existence of the legationers.

A discrepancy appears upon a comparison of the German and the Japanese advices. The German report says the attack stopped on the 12th. The Japanese report places the cessation of firing on the 17th. The state department officials believe the Japanese advice to be based on the Chinese calendar, which is about five days ahead of the Gregorian calendar, and this would account for the apparent discrepancy.

BATHERS DROWNED.

Huntsville, Ont., July 31.—A young man named Robert Gray was drowned in the East River, about four miles from here, on Sunday, while bathing. Gray had no friends here. He came from the Barnardo Home.

Dr. Edward Grafton, of Montreal, was drowned while bathing at Berthier, a summer resort on the St. Lawrence.

WAS BUILDING A HAY-FORK TRACK.

Hespeler, Ont., July 31.—On Saturday evening at the farm of Capel Reeve, third concession of Puslinch, while building a track for a hay-fork near the top of the roof, the scaffold gave way, carrying with him Mr. Cutting, of Guelph, and William Reeve, son of the owner of the farm. Mr. Cutting fell to the floor, a distance of 30 feet, alighting on his head and breaking his neck. Death was instantaneous. Young Reeve suffered only slight injuries.

MORTGAGE SALE UNDER AND BY virtue of the power of sale contained in the mortgage made by Richard McElheran and Rachel McElheran, his wife, to the vendors, dated the 31st day of March, 1886, default having been made in payment thereof, there will be sold by public auction at the auction rooms of J. SAD SURPRISE

Death of Queen Victoria's Second Son, Duke of Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha, Formerly Duke of Edinbugh.

London, July 31.—The news of the death of the Duke of Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha, second son of Queen Victoria, has created a sensation in London. It was totally unexpected. There were many callers at Clarence and Marlborough Houses, and the lord chamberlain's office. Flags were half-masted. The Queen was deeply affected.

It is stated that the body of the late duke will be embalmed and brought to England for interment, and that it will lie in state at Windsor.

Numerous public and semi-public functions have been abandoned, and the ebbing season will be brought to a sudden close, as the court and society will immediately be ordered into mourning.

BRIEFS FOR BUSY READERS

Lord and Lady Minto have reached Vancouver.

Sunday's marriage record at St. Joe, Mich., was 66, the bulk of the bridal couples coming from Chicago.

Mr. D. D. Rogers, M. P. for Frontenac, declares he will be a candidate at the next election, no matter who is in the field.

Five cars of the Transit Company, St. Louis, Mo., were damaged during Saturday night by dynamite placed on the tracks. Nobody was injured.

Montreal is flooded with one-dollar notes of the State Bank of New Brunswick, New Jersey. No such bank is in existence, nor has been for 30 years.

Col. Richard Hebden O'Grady Haly, the new commander of the Canadian militia, who arrived at Quebec by the Tunisian on Saturday morning, reached Ottawa on Sunday.

Mrs. O. McLarney, Binghamton, N.Y., aged 22 years, swallowed carbolic acid, Monday morning, at her home, in that city, in the presence of her husband, who was unable to prevent the suicide. Illiness is supposed to have unbalanced her mind.

Geo. F. Lee, of Toronto, a traveler for a New York commercial house, died at the Tunnel House, Port Huron, on Sunday. A post-mortem examination disclosed that death resulted from alcoholism, the end being hastened by too sudden abstention.

The treasury of the State of Michigan contains more cash today than at any other time in its history, there being a total of $3,005,019. The big surplus is occasioned by the railroads of Michigan paying their taxes. All railroad taxes must be paid before Aug. 1, if the companies wish to avoid the 2 per cent penalty.

Saturday afternoon two boxes, containing 50 pounds each of dynamite, were found on the canal wharf at the foot of Pitt street, Cornwall, Ont. The boxes bore no address and nothing to show where it was from. The stuff was taken to the police station. In view of the policing of the Cornwall Canal the discovery of the dynamite created considerable talk.
