WEST IS SHOWING FINE IMPROVEMENT

George H. Belton and George Brown Return From an Inspection of West.

GET BETTER PRICE

Conditions generally in the three western prairie provinces are better than at the same period in 1923, according to George H. Belton, a director of the Huron & Erie Mortgage Corporation, who, together with George Brown, a fellow director, returned to the city on Saturday after a six weeks' tour of the west.

Mr. Belton told The Advertiser today that while there were places where hail and frost had completely destroyed the crops, conditions on the whole were satisfactory.

"The farmers are at least getting a chance now to get clear of debt out there," he said. "They should in hte majority of cases be able to start next year clear. In the case of Manitoba especially, although there are a good many farmers who are not going to get number one hard wheat, as they had expected, still they are getting 90 cents net at the elevators for their feed wheat and that is more than they got in 1923 for their best grades.

See Mixed Farming.

"In this province the farmers are seeing the absolute necessity of going into mixed farming and of making the poultry and butter pay part of the farm expenses. The old Ontario style of mixed farming is becoming more prominent now in Manitoba, and that means a great deal in the way of permanent prosperity. The farmers are paying their way as they go, lifting mortgages and getting out of debt, and in Manitoba things are looking very much brighter than they did last year.

"I was particularly pleased with Alberta as a farming province. There are more trees and bush there and more shelter for cattle. The country was looking very well indeed."

The party of directors left London on Aug. 29 and spent six weeks in the west. They visited Vancouver and stayed in the Hotel Vancouver on the top of Granville street at the same time that the Prince of Wales was a guest there. Mr. Belton succumbed, as everyone does, to the natural beauties of Vancouver, and stated that business, though slow, is improving. He looks for the eventual growth of the Pacific city into one of the biggest of Canadian cities.

Hard to Calculate.

Speaking of calculating the western wheat crop, he says it is impossible to come to any definite conclusion owing to the fact that much wheat which looks fairly well in the shock does not thresh out as well as it looks. Rain, hail and forst have all taken their share of the crop, and he points out that even the farmers themselves are not able to calculate their crops with any certainty until after the threshing.

Hume Cronyn, general manager of the company, has not yet returned from the west, but is expected to be in the city by the end of the week.

FORMER CITY BUSINESSMAN DIES IN OTTAWA TODAY

McPhillips, on Dundas street. He had a large circle of acquaintances and was missed by all his friends when about 15 years ago he moved to Ottawa.

LIME AND GRAPE JUICE COME UNDER FOOD ACT

Drinks such as lime juice and grape juice come under the pure food laws. The local inspector of food and drugs said today that several retailers and a few wholesalers appear to be under the impression that drinks do not come under the meaning of the foods in the health act.

The inspector points out that according to the foods and drugs act of 1920, food includes every article used for food and drink by man and every ingredient intended for mixing with food and drink used by man for any purpose whatever.

The net contents must be marked on the label, the crown top or blown in the bottles, says the act.

REVOLT IN RANKS CAUSES DOWNFALL OF DEFENDERS

Chekiang Troops Retreat in Confusion Toward Shanghai.

ARMISTICE SIGNED

Generals Are Said To Have Betrayed Their Leaders in Battle.

Associated Press Despatch.

Shanghai, Oct. 13.—Their defeated armies retreating in confusion towards Shanghai, General Lu Yung Hsang, military governor of Chekiang province and his chief aide, General Ho Feng-Ling, defence commissioner of Shanghai today announced they had signed an armistice with the invading Kiangsu forces representing the central government of China.

Generals Lu and Ho, who have led the defence forces fighting west and south of Shanghai for the last six weeks, today sought refuge in foreign concessions while a report was in circulation here that they had been bribed to betray their leaders.

While the Chekiang army was retreating towards the envirous of Shanghai today, every unit of foreign defence forces in the city, including British sailors and foreign warships, was being drawn up along the boundary of the foreign settlement to put up a defence against attempts on the part of the Kiangsu troops to enter the concession.

The Chekiang forces were torn apart by a revolt in their own ranks about two weeks ago. Until that time they had repelled the attacks of the invading Kiangsu troops.

The truck from No. 2 fire hall, turning out early this morning to answer a call at 11 Bathurst street, skidde on greasy leaves on the corner of Richmond and York streets, and collided with an auto belonging to a Mr. Russell of Toronto, which was standing outside the Tecumseh House. Hamilton Sees The Fiery Cross

Canadian Press Despatch.

Hamilton, Oct. 13.—There was a disposition last night to regard the fiery cross, which was erected on the mountain brow, as a hoax, but today the belief is that it was the work of persons interested in the formation of a Ku Klux Klan here.

Small cards have been surreptitiously circulated, hinting at the formation of such an organization, but it is not thought such a plan would be approved here by more than a very limited number. The gas pipe of which the cross was formed disappeared during the night and no trace of it has been found.

PROFESSIONAL MEN LEAD AMONG TAX DELINQUENTS

Doctors and school teachers are said to predominate numerically among the assessment return delinquents ,according gto information at the municipal income tax department. Procrastination is prevalent in these professions more than in any other class, and officials are having some difficulty in getting returns in before court actions are started.

Two prominent councillors held back for a long time, making the excuse that they were not making sufficient to pay income tax. However, they have finally filed returns and have dodged a court case. Good authority is given for the report that a leading member of the board of education is still numbered with the delinquents.

GOLDEN RULE IS URGED BY BARKER

Former Personal Physician to President Taft Addresses Rotarians.

Dr. Charles Parker of Grand Rapids, Mich., at one time personal physician to Taft when he was president of the United States, speaking today to the London Rotary Club at luncheon, recommended the observance of the Golden Rule in business as the hallmark of a Rotarian and the sure road to material success.

He believed that the Rotarian idea was destined to remain and develop in the communities of the world because it supplied the greatest need of business and professional men today, namely: friendship.

"No other organization in the history of the world," he said, "has inculcated this idea of friendship to the extent which the Rotary Club has done. Not excepting the church. The church is the finest organization of men in the world, but it has never done as much for the building of friendship amongst businessmen and professional men as the Rotary idea.

"The question of religion or rather of denomination does not enter into the selection of Rotary candidates at all. One of the main achievements of the club is to break down the religious prejudice bars, that for so many centuries have prohibited friendship among men. Both the Kiwanians and the Rotarians about twelve years ago began to take hold of the 'service club' suggestion. They broke away from the original reason of the clubs, which was merely business service to each other, and opened a new path in social service. This is now the real reason of their existence and the fact that will keep them alive a hundred years from now.

Dr. Barker spoke this afternoon to mothers and girls in the Central collegiate, and will speak tonight to the boys and fathers in the Central auditorium.

Mr. Clarke has filed naturalization papers at the courthouse, and his application will be heard by Judge Talbot Macbeth next January.

Catholics Offer Atonement For Theft of Sacred Hosts

Roman Catholics of the diocese of London, led by Bishop M. F. Fallon, D.D., will next Sunday offer public atonement and reparation for the recent sacrilegious attack suffered by the blessed sacrament at St. Joseph's church, Sarnia.

Such is the substance of a pastoral letter issued by Bishop Fallon and read yesterday in all the churches of the diocese on the occasion of the feast of the rosary of the most blessed virgin.

The sacrilegious act referred to by the bishop was perpetrated some few weeks ago by a person or persons unknown, who entered the Sarnia church and carried away a box containing the sacred hosts. Later some, but not all, of the hosts were mysteriously returned to their original resting place. Two men, who had been conducting evangelistic services in Port Huron, were charged in court with the offence, but were acquitted.

Bishop Fallon announced in the letter: "That in the city of Sarnia particularly, a special effort shall be made to wipe out the memory of the vile offence committed against the Saviour of mankind." The bishop will himself, in the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, celebrate solemn pontifical mass for the first time, perhaps, in the history of the parish. In the afternoon the bishop will give benediction in St. Joseph's church, and in the evening he will preach on the real presence on the mother church at Sarnia.

The diocesan director of the Priests' eucharistic league has also been instructed by the bishop that the next dicesan eucharistic congress will take place in Sarnia.

OFFICIAL'S GRADING PLANS PROGRESS

School Inspector G. A. Wheable Hopes To Have System Working in Three Years.

SEEKS TEACHERS' AID

G. A. Wheable, public school inspector, is making progress with the statistical end of his new charting scheme looking to the establishment of a uniform standard for grading the pupils of the public schools at the examinations held throughout the year.

When he has completed this phase of the work the inspector counts on calling together all the teachers of a certain grade an ask them to give him a number of questions for the grade under consideration. The inspector, after examining these questions, will send a list of them to teachers with instructions to them to attend a meeting at which they should be prepared to discuss the questions fro mall angles. Discussion will then follow as to how the questions should be marked and why. In this manner the inspector hopes to get the teachers thinking along the same lines and marking the papers along the same grade.

nspector Wheable points out that it will require two or even three years' time to get his charting and standard grading system functioning and working satisfactorily in all grades throughout the schools of the city.

Statistics prepared by Inspector Wheable showing the average mark throughout the schools of the city in grade V and gradeVI during 1923 and 1924 are as follows:

	Grade V.		Grade VI
	1923	1924	1923	1924
Reading	72	72	71.5	74
Spelling	67	66	69	62
Writing	69	70	68	70
Literature	65	67.5	69	70
Composition	67	67	71	67
Geography	65	66	70	66
Arithmetic	51	62	65	60
History	(not taken)		63	61

Commenting upon the fact that the average mark in grade V for 1924 equals or is higher in every instance as compared with the mark of the previous year, Inspector Wheable pointed out that the number of pupils in that particular grade in all the schools in 1924 was 777 or 325 more than the previous year. This difference is accounted for by the fact that many of the pupils skipped from grade III to grade V. In spite of this fact, however, the averages for the year were considerably better.

CALM PERVADES IN SCHOOL BLAZE

Listowel Building Is Cleared Quickly When Fire Is Discovered.

Listowel, Oct. 13.—A fire alarm sent in from the public school this morning about 9:40 caused great excitement in the town and in a few minutes anxious parents and citizens generally were hurrying for the school. When they arrived they found the children all safe and no damage to the building except from water.

It is thought that the fire was caused from the electric wiring and an electrician is now examining the school. Smoke was noticed coming up from the floor in one of the downstair classrooms. The fire bell was sounded and the school cleared promptly, the pupils from the upstairs thinking it was merely drill until they saw the downstairs. One of the rooms had been fitted up Friday last with undetached desks. These were all removed to the lawn when the blaze was thought serious.

The school board instructed Principal McDonald to dismiss the children for the day as excitement and nervousness would prevent the scholars from studying and the school could be put in order for tomorrow.

Desert Sheiks Use Flivvers

Noble Arabian Steeds Relegated to Background.

London, Oct. 12.—The desert sheik no longer ranges the sand wastes on a noble Arabian steed. Instead he uses a flivver. This blow to the conventions broadcast by novelists was made known today by Brigadier-General Thompson, British air minister, who has just returned from a tour of Mesopotamia.

General Thompson reports moreover, that sheiks use flivvers" not to seek beautiful girls, but oil borings, which are carefully camouflaged by wily white men against the acquisitive instincts of the Arab.

THOUSANDS SEE BELOVED LEADER

General Bramwell Booth Honored by Salvation Army in Toronto.

Associated Press Despatch.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—A spectacular parade by the Salvationists themselves and a civic welcome and reception at the city hall were the features on Saturday of the formal honors paid General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, who is visiting this city. All of the function were highly impressive, not alone for the numbers who attended them, but also for the sincere enthusiasm and devotion which they revealed as existing for the Salvation Army and its leader.

Such enthusiasm was shown in the parade held on Saturday afternoon when the Salvationists of Greater Toronto, numbering more than three thousand, passed in procession before their beloved commander, who from a specially erected stand just south of Queen's park on University avenue, reviewed the many corps, whose march past furnished a most inspiring spectacle.

Standing with the general on the reviewing stand was Adjutant Wycliffe, the commander's second son, a real Booth, who has accompanied his illustrious father on the occasion of this year's Canadian tour. He is tall, lean, spectacled, commanding in appearance, and in addition to possessing platform ability of marked character, is a talented musician and gifted singer.

PRACTICE OF CATHOLICS INCENSES OBREGON

Order To Remove Insignia From House Exteriors Causes Big Sensation.

By HARRY NICHOLLS.
Special to The Advertiser.
Copyright.

Mexico City, Oct. 11.—The greatest sensation in many years has been caused by the instructions of President Obregon to the procurator-general of justice to take legal proceedings against thousands of Catholics in Mexico City who have adorned the exteriors of their houses with religious insignia in honor of the eucharistic congress now in session here. In his communication, the president said "these actions have been inspired by the directors of the so-called eucharistic congress." Mexican law provides that there shall be no religious ceremonies in the open air and no display of religious emblems.

The leading newspaper, Universal, published a special edition last evening dealing solely with this startling notice. It is expected that the government will take action against several foreign bishops who are attending the conference. There is considerable speculation as to whether article 33 of the constitution under which undesirable foreigners are expelled will be applied in these cases, as happened a few years ago when the papal nuncio, Felipe, was expelled for holding a religious ceremony in the open air.

WIND AND RAIN HALTS THRESHING IN THE WEST

Canadian Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Oct. 13.—Wind and rain were prevalent in many sections of Western Canada yesterday and last night, and the further precipitation will add to the delay in resuming threshing operations.

The wind reached a high velocity in Winnipeg and district, playing havoc with electric transmission lines. Street cars were held up for half an hour, electric light circuits interfered with, and signs and awnings were ripped from store fronts.

Telegraph companies report bad wire trouble both east and west of Winnipeg, caused by heavy winds and rains.

CITY HALL SHAMED BY SEWAGE PLANT

Engineer Tells of American Systems—Question To Be Talked Tonight.

POLLUTION QUESTION

Chairman C. Mitchell and other members of the board of health will at tonight's board meeting bring up the matter of action to stop pollution of the river Thames. Mr. Mitchell declares that provincial action will be sought to force an end to pollution of the waters, and Ald. L. H. Douglass wants the city sewage disposal plant improved at an early date.

W. P. Near, city engineer, declares that visits of he and Assistant Engineer Veitch to sewage disposal plants at Rochester, Fitzburg and Worcester, Mass., recently showed much keen interest on the part of municipal authorities in caring for sewage disposal. Plants in these cities were sources of civic pride. Photographs taken by Mr. Near of plants in use would put to shame London's present city hall. One was a fine one-story brick structure with stone trim, sweeping lawns, situated in a park district and served by ample highways.

Mr. Near reports that manufacturing concerns in some American cities co-operate to the fullest extent in the matter of sewage disposal. Tanneries extract all hair and other matter that would clog sewers before waste matter from their plants goes into the civic sewers.

LABOR RESPECTS BRITISH TRADITION

J. H. Whitley, Speaker in Commons Since 1921, Will Not Be Opposed.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, Oct. 13.—J. H. Whitley, speaker of the House of Commons and Liberal member of the late parliament for Halifax, Yorkshire, will not be opposed by Labor in the present election. Although the Labor party in Halifax about two weeks ago, before any one thought there would be a general election so soon, decided to put a candidate in the field against the Liberal representative the party has now decided not to do so.

The speaker of the House of Commons, no matter what party he nominally belongs to, nor what riding he represents, is never opposed when he offers himself for re-election, this being one of the traditions of British politics.

It is also a tradition that the same representative shall be elected speaker of the House, no matter what party is in office. J. H. Whitley was first elected speaker in 1921. His immediate predecessor, Sir James Lowther (Lord Ullswater), was speaker for 16 years and was always re-elected by acclamation. He was Conservative member for the Penrith devision of Cumberland from 1886 to 1921. He was elevated to the peerage in the latter year.
