A CHINESE CUSTOM.

The Festival of the Feast of the Souls of the Departed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Yesterday was one of the great festivals in the year when the Chinese go out to Point Labos cemetery and feast the souls of their departed. From 7 o'clock in the morning until noon there were thousands of Mongolians placing meat offerings on the graves, and burning joss sticks and fire-crackers. The procession of hacks and wagons numbered 500, and the debris left on the ground after the affair was over, resulted in a wholesale gathering of tramps and dogs for a moonlight Chinese dinner. The white superintendent of the Mongolian burial ground estimates that the package of corpses for shipment back to China, will exceed 2000 for the season, and all the exhumations will have to be performed under Government supervision before removal from the cemetery will be allowed. The corpses must have been under the ground for two years, and then they are not allowed in the city limits unless hermetically packed. There is not the slightest indication of the Chinese giving up this custom of shipping back their dead to China, and except with converts to Christianity, the rule is always followed. It is a very costly custom and the imports on it are increasing, but these are met with indifference by the rich Chinese corporations who undertake the matter.

OPPORTUNE DELIVERIES FOR EASTER WEEK.

To-day we open a repeat consignment of our 20c. and 25c. All-Wool French Dress Goods In HELIOTROPES, GREYS, BLACKS, BLACK and WHITE, etc., etc. Exclusive tissues beyond a doubt the choicest designs produced this season. The immense sale of these goods amply sustains their unapproachable value; as is usual with repeats, the prices now are even better value than ever. This arrival affords all a desirable and economic choice for an Easter costume. We will also open to-day a late delivery of JACKETS AND WRAPS.

Newest productions of London, Paris and Berlin. Their prices will well repay all to see them. Frillings, Ruchings, Collars, Cuffs, etc. Latest New York Novelties to hand this morning.

NO ESTABLISHMENT IN CANADA can equal our productions in Ladies' Tailoring (Mantles and Costumes), in proof of this we give a positive guarantee with every order of better fitting and more satisfactory garments than are to be had elsewhere, else acceptance is not expected. This should certainly commend a trial, our charges being lower than any establishment of pretension in the city. We are the only costumers in Toronto engaging separate modistes for the design of garments, the chief as well as our first fitter, being without any approach in Canada. Estimates furnished when desired.
