POETRY, &c.

PARTING OF THE WIDOW'S SON.

BY MRS. SIGOURNEY.

Yon slender boy his bark hath launched
On life's deceitful tide;
His balmy years of childhood o'er,
He goes without a guide,
Amid the stir and strife of men
His devious course to run,
The tempter and the snare to bide—
God bless the widow's son.

He turned from the pleasant door,
And from the garden fair,
Where with his little spade he wrought
Beneath a mother's care;
He bears his head like manhood high,
Yet tears their course will run,
When on his stranger-bed he rests—
God bless the widow's son.

Ye say he goeth forth alone,
To dare the eventful field—
No, no! a spell is round him thrown,
More firm than diamond shield—
A mournful mother's fervent prayer!
So, till his life is done,
Till time, and toil, and change are o'er—
God bless the widow's son.

WELL-A-DAY.

Loves comes and goes,
Like a spell!
How, no one knows,
Nor none can tell!
Now here, now there,
Then away!
None dreameth where:
Well-a-day!

Love should be true
As the star,
Seen in the blue
Sky afar!
Now here, now there,
Like the lay
Of harps in the air!
Well-a-day!

Should love depart,
Not a tie
Binds up the heart
Till we die!
Now here, now there,
Sad we stray!
Life is all care!
Well-a-day!

TIT FOR TAT.—A young Englishman, while at Naples, was introduced at an assembly of one of the first ladies by a Neapolitan gentleman. While he was there his snuff-box was stolen from him. The next day, being at another house, he saw a person taking snuff out of his box. "There," said he to his friend, "that man has the box, with gold embroidery, is taking snuff out of the box stolen from me yesterday. He pretends to know him? Is he not a sharper?" "Take care," said the other, "that man is of the first quality." "I do not care for his quality," said the Englishman, "I must have my snuff-box again; I'll go and ask him for it." "Pray," said his friend, "be quiet, and leave it to me to get back your box." Upon this assurance the Englishman went away, after inviting his friend to dine with him the next day. He accordingly came, and as he entered, "There," said he, "I have brought you your snuff-box." "How did you obtain it?" "Why," said the Neapolitan, "I did not wish to make a noise about it, therefore I picked his pocket of it."

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

An Important Letter—Please Read it.

The following letter from Dr. Brigham, of Lowell, Mass. but speaks the uniform language of hundreds of other Physicians, who have tried, and therefore know how to appreciate Jayne's Expectorant.

Lowell, Mass., Jan. 27, 1844.

Dr. David Jayne:

Dear Sir,—I have used your medicine, (so universally known by the name of JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT,) in my practice for a number of years, and can most truly say, that I have been more successful in the use of that as a mild, safe and thorough EXPECTORANT, than of any which I have ever used. It is the best for the following obvious reasons. It does not, if given in proper doses, occasion a disagreeable nausea. It does not weaken the lungs and prostrate the system, like most other Expectorants in common use, nor does it abate the appetite of the patient, like other nauseating medicines, which have been used by the faculty. In a word it is nearly or quite the thing which has been sought for by many of the faculty for ages gone by.

I remain, your's, &c.

LUTHER BRIGHAM, M. D.

Jayne's ALTERATIVE, a valuable Medicine for the cure of Cancer, Scrofulous Affections, and Diseases of the Skin generally; Jayne's SANATIVE PILLS; Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge; Jayne's Carminative Balsam for bowel complaints; Jayne's Hair Tonic, for the growth and preservation of the Hair.

A NATURAL REMEDY

Suited to our Constitutions, and competent to the cure of every curable disease, will be found in

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

OF THE

NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH.

THESE extraordinary Pills are composed of plants which grow spontaneously on our own soil; and are therefore better adapted to our constitutions, than medicines concocted from foreign drugs, however well they may be compounded; and as the INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are founded upon the principle that the human body is in truth

SUBJECT TO BUT ONE DISEASE, viz: corrupt humors, and that the said medicine cures this disease on

NATURAL PRINCIPLES,

by cleansing and purifying the body; it will be manifest, that if the constitution be not entirely exhausted—a perseverance in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, we drain it of the superabundant waters; in like manner, if we wish to restore the body to health, we must cleanse it of impurity.

The Indian Vegetable Pills will be found one of the best, if not the very best, medicines in the world for carrying out the

GRAND PURIFYING PRINCIPLE,

because they expel from the body all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, in an easy and NATURAL MANNER, and while they every day

GIVE EASE AND PLEASURE,

disease of every name is radically driven from the body.

CAUTION.

The citizens of New England are respectfully informed that in consequence of the great popularity which the above named Indian Vegetable Pills have earned by their astonishing goodness, a gang of counterfeiters are now industriously engaged in palming on the unsuspecting, a valueless and perhaps dangerous medicine, under the name of Indian Vegetable Pills.

This is to inform the public that all genuine medicine has on the boxes

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

(Indian Purgative.)

OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH

And also round the border of the label, will be found in small type, "Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1840, by WM. WRIGHT, in the Clerk's office, of the District Court, of the Eastern district of Pennsylvania."

It will further be observed that the printed directions for using the medicines, which accompany each box are also entered according to Act of Congress and the same form will be found at the bottom of the first page.

The public will also remember, that all who sell the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills are provided with a certificate of Agency, signed by

WILLIAM WRIGHT, VICE PRESIDENT

and that pedlars are never in any case allowed to sell the genuine Medicine. All travelling agents will be provided with a certificate of agency as above described; and those who cannot show one will be known as base impostors.

☞ Personsin this city and vicinity will also be on their guard against purchasing medicine purporting to be the Indian Vegetable or Purgative Pills, of Apothecaries or Druggists, as they are not allowed to sell my medicine, and any composition which they may offer as such must of necessity be COUNTERFEIT and injurious; therefore never purchase of them.
