Mr. Justice Hodgins Concluded Long Sessions This Morning .

By holding a special sitting last night at eight o'clock the Honorable Mr. Justice Hodgins concluded the session of the appeal court on which e is sitting, with the exception of a ew cases which were heard this norning. The appeals that have en heard at this court were made by applicants whose claims were re ected by the tribunal of which His Honor JuJdge Hardy was a member To those applicants who are not y: atisfied with the result of their hearing, there yet remains an op portunity for them to have their cases heard by the Honorable Mr. Justice Duff, who constitutes the highest court of appeal under the M.S.A. Appeals from the decisions of the appeal court over which Judgo Hardy presides, will also be made to Judge Duff. Associated with Mr. Justice Hodins is M. D. Urquhart of Toronto, who for a number of weeks was a member of one of the tribunals in the Queen City.

Wish their patrons and the public generally a very Joyous Xmas and Prosperous New Year

Just a word about our business. We would advise our customers whether they wish to buy Sewing Machines, Pathephones, or the silver-toned Bell or Wright pianos, that they do so at once and save the advance in price. We insert copy of letter just received, dated

Gentlemen:—We have found out after going thoroughly into our business, that we are selling our goods at a price inconsistent with material and labor at the present time, and we are forced to advance our prices on the 1st of January.

In view of the above letter having been received from our people, we feel we should urge our customers to buy now. Store open evenings until Christmas. Come in and select one of our beautiful instruments or Sew-Buy a Home—one of the best of Christmas presents.
