Father and Son Events in Churches Here on Sunday

St. David's, Ludlow Street and Brookville Churches Have Special Observance

The annual father and son service was held in St. David's church last evening and attended by a large congregation, served to impress the deep interest which St. David's manifests in the work of all classes of young people who are associated with the church, including the boys' and girls' summer camps.

Almost the entire service was conducted by boys. The scripture lessons were read by Robert McDaid and John McFarlane. Prayers were offered by Thomas Aird, Chas. McIlveen and Thomas Sommerville, and several interesting addresses were presented, Donald Patterson pointing out "What We Owe to Our Dads," Thos. McClelland "What We Expect From Our Dads" and Norman Brittain the "Confession of a Boy Who Failed." Gordon Lipsett spoke on the work of the Maritime Religious Education Council, and made an appeal to the men of the church to assist in the work by purchasing shares in "Canadian Future Citizenship," which they were selling. It is proposed to collect $500 in Saint John for this religious education purpose. The total sum that is proposed to be raised in the Maritimes amounts to $3,000.

The choir was largely conducted by the boys and men of the congregation. Mr. Stewart Smith sang a solo, and there was a men's chorus, "We Need a Friend Like Jesus."

LUDLOW STREET

Boys' Sunday was well observed in Ludlow street Baptist church last night, boys of the congregation carrying out the service impressively. Donald Maher presided; Scripture was read by George Day, chief ranger of the C. S. E. T. group, and pleasing vocal solos were given by Walter Kierstead and Kenneth Black. Albert Punter, boy organist, gave a 15-minute recital before the service and it was specially appreciated. Donald Maher spoke forcefully of the work of the Maritime Religious Education Council, and Rev. W. A. Robbins gave a very fine address on "A Lad and His Dad." There was a very large congregation. Announcement was made that next Sunday afternoon there would be a mass meeting in the church at 3.45 for all of the young men and boys of West Saint John, and Lou Buckley, National Y. M. C. A. secretary for boys' work, would be the speaker. Albert Punter played the organ at the morning service in the Ludlow street Baptist church yesterday as well as at the boys' service in the evening. He was supplying in the absence of Miss M. E. Mullin, who has been ill.

IN BROOKVILLE.

In the Brookville United church last evening the service was conducted by the young men and boys of the church. A boys' choir of 14 led effectively in the singing. Rev. Hugh Miller, the pastor, presided, and H. G. S. Adams was organist, but the boys carried through the chief parts of the service. A quartette number was well sung by Fred Perry, Douglas Breen, Kenneth Pederson and Willie Goldsmith. Scripture was read by Fred Harding, who also made the announcement of the hymns. Douglas Breen gave an interesting account of the Boys' Parliament at Sackville, and C. M. McCulley, boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., gave an inspirational address on leadership. Rev. Mr. Miller spoke briefly. There was a large congregation. There was much congratulatory comment heard.

E. R. Higgins And Miss E. C. Walsh Wed

A wedding of much interest was solemnized this morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, when Miss Evelyn C. Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh, of this city, was united in marriage at nuptial mass to Edward R. Higgins, Jr., by Rev. Joseph Floyd. The bride, who was given away by her cousin, Alfred Burns, was becomingly attired in a gown of pale thistlebloom georgette, heavily beaded, with hat and scarf of a deeper shade, and wore a seal jacquette and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. She was attended by Miss Mary Lannen, who looked very pretty in a frock of jade green georgette over gold cloth, with black picture hat and wore a beaver coatee and carried a French bouquet. The groom was supported by his brother, John J. Higgins. After the wedding ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, 138 Leinster street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Higgins left on the early morning train for New York and Philadelphia.

The bride's going away costume was of Chinese blue crepe black satin with hat and scarf to match, and she wore a seal coat. The beautiful array of gifts and the many social functions held in their honor during the last two weeks testified to the popularity of the young couple.

CONFERENCE IN MARCH.

The local members of the Life Underwriters' Association held their fortnightly luncheon at the Admiral Beatty Hotel on Saturday, followed by a business session. The executive also met and arrangements were made for an educational congress embracing the entire province which will be held here on Mar. 11 and 12. Special speakers will be here from other sections of Canada and Dominion. President Petty of Winnipeg is expected.

HOME FOR VISIT.

Miss Hattie Worden, who has been nursing in Boston for some years, returned to Saint John two weeks ago. After visiting friends in the city, including Mrs. Wm. Myles, Guilford street, West Saint John, and Mrs. Gordon Watters, Kennedy street, she left yesterday to spend a few weeks at her home in Kingston. Accompanied by Miss Mabel Porter, a nurse in training at New England Sanitorium, Melrose, Mass., who had been called home recently on account of her father's illness.

As Hiram Sees It

"Did I tell you about that doctor I hed in Noo York?" asked Mr. Hiram Hornbeam of The Times reporter.

"No," said the reporter, "but I will say I suspect he didn't have your record."

"Meanin' he wouldn't hev pulled me through if he knowed?" queried Hiram.

"Precisely," said the reporter. "Your own conscience is my witness."

"Well, now, look-a-here," said Hiram. "As fer as that goes — apart from wishin' the devil 'ud take Sile Jones—I haint go no crime to answer fer—an' you can't prove I hev."

"What about those pretty maidens in the hotels and restaurants in a dozen cities from here to the coast?" asked the reporter. "Didn't Mrs. Hornbeam have to go after you three times to turn you from the lanes of dalliance to the high road of manly endeavor?"

"You ask Hanner," said Hiram. "The gals can't help gittin' crazy about me. "Now if I was a wizen-faced, half-baked reporter it 'ud be different."

"You were speaking," said the reporter, "about a doctir in New York."

"I thought that 'ud fetch you," said Hiram. "Some time when you get civil I'll tell you about that doctor. He knows a lot about the feeble-minded. You orto see him—he might help you—yes, sir."

PLAN DISCUSSED RE EMPLOYMENT

City Will Confer With Premier of Province on the Matter

Federal Government Included—City Solicitor's Bill For Year up at City Hall

The matter of work to provide employment, the federal and provincial governments to pay a part of the cost, was brought up at a committee meeting of the Common Council this morning, and it was decided to confer with Premier Baxter to see how far the N. B. Government would be prepared to go in the matter.

Commissioner Wigmore read a letter from the Minister of Labor in which it was said the Federal Government would, under certain conditions, pay a part of the cost of works undertaken to provide employment, but whatever aid was given would be through the Provincial Government. The commissioner said the situation here was more or less acute and if the city could go ahead with some necessary work and provide employment for some of the men out of work it would be well worth while. He moved that the committee take up the matter with Hon. J. B. M. Baxter to ascertain if the Provincial Government would help and to what extent.

This was seconded by Commissioner Bullock and carried.

On motion of Commissioner Harding the three-year leases of the stores in the Market Building were ordered renewed from May 1, 1926.

SCHOOL MATTERS

Commissioner Frink announced that a special meeting of the council would be held on Wednesday morning to discuss with representatives of the School Board the matter of the overdraft and that the manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia would also be present.

Commissioner Frink reported that he had been advised by the city solicitor that under the law the Department of National Defence was within its rights in billing the city for the pay and maintenance of the troops here during the street railway strike of 1921 but that since that time the law had been changed making the province responsible for the maintenance of troops sent out in cases of this kind. The acting Mayor was authorized to communicate with the minister of national defence to see if this bill might not be remitted.

VOTERS' LISTS

The common clerk was authorized to secure from the Board of Assessors the voters list for 1926 and have it printed for use at the coming civic elections.

On motion of Commissioner Frink it was decided to have a bill prepared and sent to the legislature providing for changing the time at which the schedule of properties to be sold for taxes must be filed from July 1 to August 1 and the time of sale from September 1 to October 1.

BILL FOR $2,802.

Acting Mayor Frink presented a bill from the City Solicitor for professional services for the year 1925, amounting to $2,802.53.

Commissioner Harding said he would like to see this bill presented monthly.

The acting Mayor said the bill was larger than usual this year on account of the city having been engaged in several suits, but he thought the members of the council would not feel as secure if the City Solicitor was not retained by the city.

Commissioner Bullock thought some of the items were open to question, such as a letter to the Premier at Fredericton. Commissioner Harding asked if the City Solicitor was not in receipt of a salary and the acting Mayor replied that he had a retaining fee of $1,500, but was paid for services rendered in addition to that.

The bill was ordered paid.

Two Events Held In Birthday Honor

Mrs. Arthur Sweet entertained a few playmates of her little son, Douglas, on Saturday afternoon in honor of his fifth birthday. The nicely appointed tea table was effectively decorated with red hearts and Valentine favors and centred with a nicely iced birthday cake, with five lighted tapers. The cake contained souvenirs for the little guests. Mrs. Sweet was assisted in serving by Mrs. Harold Hanson and Mrs. Dane Crosby. Miss Marie Lester and Glendon Lester directed games for the children. Douglas received nice gifts from his little friends. Those present were Gerald Hanson, Ray McLaughlin, Edwin Purcell, Dane Crosby, and Glendon Lester.

About forty friends of Mrs. Richard McGuire Jr. gathered on Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Titus, 123 Chesley street, in honor of her birthday. On behalf of the guests N. A. Palmer presented to Mrs. McGuire several gifts, including articles of aluminum, china and linen. Dainty refreshments were served. Those assisting were Mrs. T. L. Wilson, Mrs. W. Ward and Miss Phyllis Wilson.

Excellent Music At Church Service

Germain street Baptist church was filled to capacity last evening. An excellent musical program was given by the choir, assisted by the Baker Male Quartette. The selections were excellently rendered. Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, pastor of the church, gave an interesting and instructive address on the "Influence of Music." Following was the program: Soprano solo, Miss Estelle Fox; male quartette, "Just As I Am"; anthem, "Gloria in Excelsis" choir; organ solo, "Improvisation on Pilgrims"; duet, "Say, Watchman, What of the Night?" Miss Estelle Fox, Dr. P. L. Bonnell; Male Quartette, "Just Outside the Door"; solo, aria, "It is Enough" (Elijah), Dr. P. L. Bonnell; anthem, "Lead, Kindly Light" (Buck), choir; vesper, 'Saviour, Breathe an Evening Blessing, choir.
