Deadly Foes No Quarter Given

Disease never grows weary; never [illegible] claims a peace. Poisons bred under certain conditions within our own bodies are deadly foes of the human race. At first it is only a slight cold, but neglect soon multiplies the trouble. How many thousands there are who are guilty of neglecting to care for their health until they see it slipping from them? Thousands, I should have said millions, have

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.
