PUBLIC SCHOOL GIRLS PLAY FINE BASKETBALL

Four Good Games Pulled Off on Opening Day of the Schedule.

The Girls' Basketball League got away to a flying start yesterday afternoon when four fast games were pulled off by the fair and winsome lassies. All the games started on time, much to the satisfaction of G. F. Copeland who is president of the league.

Over 500 young enthusiasts were present at Alexandra school where two games were being pulled off simultaneously.

The scores were:

Rectory street school 13, Victoria school 3.

Pottersburg 18, Aberdeen 0.

Lorne avenue school 2, St. George's school 0.

Empress avenue school 20, Talbot street school 10.

15c. each, 2 for 30c. or $1.75 the dozen.

Stiff Workout For Western Rugbyists

Art Smith Put the Boys Through the Mill at Tecumseh Park Yesterday Afternoon—Twenty Men in Uniform at Best Practice Yet.

It will not be the fault of one Arthur Smith if the Western University rugby football team does not wallop and otherwise lay waste the Guelph O. A. C., when the two teams meet in the Royal City Saturday afternoon. He has been putting the boys through stiff workouts for the past ten days, and hopes to have them in shape when the roll is called in Guelph.

Hard Practice Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon he chased the boys through a good hard practice, and they seemed to enjoy it. Over 20 of the 'Varsity squad were present, and they worked with a will. Art believes in a good tackling team, and special attention was paid to this branch of the game. The ball was punted to the half-back aspirants, who ran it back as far as they could in the face of the wings. The outside wings, Elgie and Pardy, showed up well, and few of the Aggies should get around the Western ends. A signal practice was held at the close of the afternoon. The back division is light, but fast, and should give a good account of itself at Guelph. With such old hands as Kingswood and Smith on the job, things look pretty rosy there. A number of spares will be taken to Guelph in order that Art may get a line on all his material. Those who will take part in trying to eliminate the O. A. C. from the football map are Kingswood, Anderson, Smith, Christopher and McKay, on the back division; quarters, Reynolds, Mace and Shosenburg; scrimmage, Kaiser, Ferguson and Mathews; inside wings, Loughlin and McLarty; outside wings, Elgie and Pardy.

A full attendance at practice is asked for tonight at Tecumseh Park, as Manager Smith realizes that in the farmers the club has no mean foe, and one that will make the Western U. travel the fast and stormy path to pull out a victory.

Detroit Pug Will Fight Baker Here

Zoccano Goes to Detroit and Will Sign Up Scrapper to Meet Sammy Here on October 27—Also After Man for Wrainwright.

Matchmaker Tony Zoccano is having great difficulty in getting a man to meet Sammy Baker, the Buffalo lightweight star, who will scrap here on the evening of October 27. Tony left this afternoon for Detroit, where he will sign up either Jerry Dalton, the Indianapolis pug, or Billy McKenzie, who has trimmed the best that Western Canada has to offer. Both these lads have good records, and the only thing that is keeping Zoccano back, is the fact that they want the Bank of England or its equivalent to step ten rounds in this city.

Will Land One.

"I think that I'll be able to get one of them to come here," said Zoccano. "They are both fast. McKenzie fights something after the style of Bat Nelson, and would be a good drawing card in London. I can't get a single local lad to take on Wainwright, so I will get a good fast boy from Detroit to go on with him in one of the preliminaries. You can rest assured that the Sportsman's Patriotic Association will put on the best bill of boxing ever seen in this city on Friday, the 27th of this month.

MUST CHANGE DATE FOR GIBBONS-DILLON MATCH

Auditorium in St. Paul, Minn., Cannot Be Engaged for November 10.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 17.—There is a strong likelihood that the Jack Dillon-Mike Gibbons match, scheduled for here between November 10 and 15, will have to be held earlier or after those dates.

It was learned today that the auditorium in which Promoter Sherman hopes to hold the go cannot be secured during November or the early part of December.

RUMORED THAT FOHL IS THROUGH WITH INDIANS

Chicago, Oct. 17.—From Cleveland came the report today that Manager Lee Fohl of the Indians is to be deposed.

Just who will succeed him is not known, but it is known Secretary Robert McRoy is on his way here to confer with President Dunn.

The latter, when asked about the shift, said:

"I don't want to discuss it."

COFFROTH HAS LOTS OF HORSES FOR HIS TRACK

Tia Juana, Mexico, Oct. 17.—James W. Coffroth, former king of fight promoters, now president of the Tia Juana Jockey Club, today declared he will have plenty of new horses and jockeys when the meet opens here November 11.

Jockeys Buxton, J. McTaggart, Tommy McTaggart, J. McCarthy, Frank Jimmy Butwell and E. Haynes have been engaged.

DILLON OUTFIGHTS O'NEIL.

New York, Oct. 17.—Jack Dillon of Indianapolis, outfought Tim O'Neil of Chicago, in a 10-round bout in Brooklyn tonight. Dillon weighed 173 pounds, and O'Neil was a pound lighter.

BRITTON OUTPOINTED LEWIS.

Boston, Oct. 17.—Jack Britton of Chicago, welterweight champion, successfully defended his title tonight, outpointing Ted ("Kid") Lewis of England in a 12-round bout. Both men set a furious pace. Britton was cautioned several times about hitting low, and using his forearm, and nearly lost the bout on a foul in the fifth round.

PIRATES MAY BE PENNANT CONTENDERS NEXT YEAR

Jimmy Callahan, Successor to Fred Clarke, Has Some Good Ball Tossers.

Jimmy Callahan, who made way for Clarence Rowland when Charley Comiskey decided Callahan was not the man to manage the White Sox into an American League pennant, has done something to the Pirates which may elevate the Pittsburg club to a point where it again will become a pennant contender. Jimmy has tinkered here and there, dropped players, changed the positions of others, and has put a little more all-around fight into nearly every corner of the squad.

Fred Clarke bequeathed Callahan several good ball players, among them being, of course, Hans Wagner. Callahan also found Max Carey, Al Mamaux, Bill Hinchman, Douglas Baird, Doc Johnston, Cooper, Bob Harmon, Dan Costello, Jimmy Voix, Gibson and Murphy. Of these only a few remain, and their places are being filled by youngsters who are learning to play the Callahan brand of baseball.

Marvel on Pitchers.

Callahan always has been a marvel at developing pitchers. Glance over the record he made with the White Sox. He left behind him what once was a most wonderful collection of slab artists, among them being Joe Benz, Reb Russell, Jim Scott and Eddie Cicotte.

Urban Faber also had his major league baptism under Callahan's tutelage. Consequently, one would expect Callahan's new pitchers to be the brightest spot in the new Pirates, and the expectation is well founded. Callahan already has begun to build up a pitching staff which in time should give an excellent account of itself.

SANCTUM WINS OUT IN CESAREWITCH STAKES

Newmarket, Eng., Oct. 18, 3:03 p.m.—The Cesarewitch stakes of £1,155, a handicap, was won today by Sanctum. Cornsheaf was second and Darkopal finished third. Nineteen horses ran. The distance was 2¾ miles.

ECHOES FROM PAST.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 17.—Seven civil suits dismissed by Judge Sessions in the United States District Court Tuesday were started by the Chicago Federal League Baseball Club against William J Killifer in which the club sought an injunction restraining Killifer from playing in the National League while under a Federal contract.

The matter was dismissed for want of prosecution, the Federal League having ceased to exist.

Strang's Entries Refused at Latonia.

Latonia Racetrack, Ky., Oct. 17.—The stewards today ordered that the entries of horses owned by G. L. Strang be refused because they had unearthed a copy of a circular letter sent out by Strang asking bettors to make bets on his horses and promising rich returns.

The horses thus barred are: Samuel R. Meyer, Jane Straith, Rhyme, Chief Brown and Deliver. The latter two are jointly owned by Strang and W. Perkins, trainer for Strang.

Azora Axworthy Takes Feature Race at Atlanta

Surprises Crowd by Coming Through With a Win.

ATLANTA, Oct. 17.—With Lu Princeton a close second and fighting hard, Azora Axworthy, piloted by Murphy, took two of the three heats and first money in the Devereaux, the 2:15 trot, which was the feature of today's grand circuit program here.

The outcome was a surprise, as Azora Axworthy ended the first heat in third place with Lu Princeton more than a length ahead. Daisy Todd finished second in the first heat, fourth in the second, and third in the last turn, which brought her into third money. Erisac, with "Pop" Geers driving, ended fourth in the first and third heats, and third in the second.

The 2:09 pacing event was won in straight heats by Little Frank D.

The 2:20 trot was captured in three straight heats by Marie Constant.

DAVY FULTZ COMES ALONG WITH ANNUAL SUGGESTIONS

Dave Fultz and all the rest of the baseball gang are tearing around New York today, emitting howls just like they had something to do with the decisions of the National Commission. Dave and the rest of them are satisfied there is something radically wrong with the way the world's series is conducted, and they're flinging suggestions for its next stand with little regard for the bystander.

Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' Fraternity, managed to have something to say about the players when he was asked what games he thought should be included in a world's series, and handed out the tip that he is getting ready to kick and kick hard when the National Association holds its annual meeting, November 10, in New Orleans. Fultz said he is tired of the way the minor leagues have been run, and he proposes to put a stop to it. He says he has four demands and a bunch. The demands are for the betterment of the game, and the bunch is that they will be granted.

The rest of the baseball toplights can see a dismal future for baseball unless the world's series is quickly changed and the huge sums which go to players cut down. Also, some of them seem to think too much is charged the public for the privilege of watching the big encounters.

Ban Johnson started it when he got the idea that he was going to stick his fingers in and change things all around. Considering that this is one of the best things Johnson does, it must be admitted the world's series is facing a shaky future. Ban says he doesn't like high prices and such stuff, but he didn't say that he had worn his voice out trying to stave them off in the series just stowed away. He did intimate, however, that he is considering a protest before he allows any such thing next year.

Johnson, and Arthur Irwin, who is business manager of the Toronto International League Club, are about the only ones who have voiced any hearty opinions. The club owners are keeping their secrets. Fultz says he has some ideas, but he isn't going to pass them out right now.

MISS CAVERLY WINS

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Miss Mildred Caverly won the Mary Thayer Farnum memorial golf cup today at St. David's by completing the 36 holes of the match in 184 strokes. Mrs. Caleb F. Fox finished second with 185.

The Cardinals Have Given Up Pennant Hopes

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16.—President Schuyler Britton of the Cardinals, agrees with Ban Johnson's suggestion to adopt popular prices for world series games.

"I believe the highest cut should be a double increase for the season's prices," he said today. "I am going to make this suggestion at our meeting this winter. If I ever win a pennant, I will only double the bleacher prices."

The Cardinals' park has the largest bleacher seating capacity in the major circuits. Britton has 10,000 two-bit seats.

HAS-BEENS WIN FROM BRUNSWICKS IN BOWLING

The City Bowling League opened last night with a win for the Has-Beens over the Brunswicks. Ernie Heard showed that he is the same old Ernie that knocked 'em over last season, by rolling up the highest score, 526. Alf Sheere of the same club rolled 520.

Wilbert Followed Moran's Dope in Deciding Clash

And, Like Pat, He Tasted the Dregs of Bitter Defeat.

Wilbert Robinson followed in the footsteps of Pat Moran when it came to making a choice of a pitcher for the final game of the world's series.

When it came to the last game of the series of 1915 every baseball man expected Moran to pick Alexander the Great to work against the Red Sox. Alexander had won one game and lost another by a score of 2 to 1. But Moran tried to get by with Rixey, his plan being that if he could get by with the southpaw he would be more likely to tie up the series the following day with Alexander. But Rixey lost and Alexander never got the chance to pitch the next day, as the series did not go beyond the fifth game.

Same This Year.

So it was this year. Nine out of ten critics expected Robinson to call upon Sherrod Smith to pitch the fifth game. Smith had held the Sox to two runs in fourteen innings and would have won his battle 1 or 2 to 0 had he received the proper support and if he had the help of better base running.

But Robinson evidently figured:

"What's the use? It will only be prolonging the series one day. And perhaps I may be able to get by with Pfeffer. If I do I will have Smith in better shape to pitch tomorrow's game."

But tomorrow's game never came.

Severe on Rube.

Robinson was rather severe in his criticism of Rube Marquard because of the southpaw's pitching in the fourth game of the series.

"Rube has no one to blame for his defeat but himself," said Robinson. "He knew Duffy Lewis and Larry Gardner were high-ball hitters, but in the inning that Lewis made a double and Gardner a home run, he pitched to each just the ball the batter wanted and could hit with all his might."

"Why didn't you pass Carrigan and take a chance on Leonard with two out?" Robinson was asked.

"I'll admit I pulled a bone there," replied the Brooklyn manager. "I was thinking ahead at just that moment, taking my mind off of what was going on at the present time. That one run that Boston scored on Carrigan's hit can be blamed to me."

Someone then asked Robinson why it was he did not have Smith pass Del Gainer in the fourteenth inning of the game last Monday.

"Carrigan fooled me with Gainer," replied Robinson. "Boston, if you remember, had a chance to win the game in the ninth inning when Janvrin was on third base and Walker on first, with none out and Hoblitzel at bat. I looked for him to send Gainer to bat then, and when he did not I figured he could not think much of Gainer's ability if he preferred a left-hand batter at that time to Gainer.

"Consequently, when Gainer was substituted for Gardner in the fourteenth inning, I thought the chances were that Gainer was not likely to prove nearly as dangerous as Scott, who was to follow. In fact, Scott had been hitting Smith hard and I would have ordered him passed had we got Gainer out of the way."

HOCKEY IS CATCHING ON IN THE UNITED STATES

Big Cities on Other Side Form Circuit—Plan to Teach Kids the Game.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—A revival of winter sports is planned by the American National Hockey League, whose program for a series of inter-city hockey games was today made known by Dr. F. M. Seixes of Pittsburg, president.

St. Louis, Detroit, Cleveland, Brooklyn, New York and two teams in Chicago, comprise the circuit.

It is planned to open the schedule for the national championship with professional teams December 15, and at the same time to undertake to promote and develop collegiate and amateur competition.

SOFT FOR OFFICIALS.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 17.—Sidney Hatch, veteran long-distance runner, started at 8 o'clock tonight on a 100-mile run from Milwaukee to Chicago. Abe Montverde, a New York runner, accompanied him as pacemaker. He hopes to lower the record of 18 hours 7 minutes made for the course by Al Corey. Officials of the American Amateur Athletic Union will accompany the runner in an automobile.

CHALMERS MOTOR CO. OF CANADA LTD. Walkerville, Ontario

Quality First

THE NEW WAY TO SPELL ECONOMY—

C-H-A-L-M-E-R-S

A cheap piece of machinery, like the boy with a little knowledge, is sometimes a dangerous thing.

Men are buying better and better lawn mowers and reapers and printing presses and gasoline engines and pumps.

Why? Because they find it pays.

Probably there's no better example of this in the case of automobiles than Chalmers cars.

Figures show that over 75 per cent of men who have bought Chalmers cars this year previously owned a low-priced car.

And the great big increase in Chalmers sales (792 per cent in six months) has come from towns just like this.

In the old days Chalmers cars were sold for the most part in the larger cities.

You can find Chalmers cars most any time of the day in most any block in such towns even now.

But in the smaller communities Chalmers cars are getting more numerous every day. Because the people in these towns were quick to see the value, note the endurance and observe the wonderful performance.

Particularly of this 3,400 r. p. m. Chalmers, which is, in our opinion, the most able car that ever came to this town.

Every Chalmers car sold in Canada is made in the plant at Walkerville. The co-operation we receive from them means we can give satisfactory service to our owners.

Prices: 5-passenger Touring, $1,475; 2-passenger Roadster, $1,475; 3-passenger Cabriolet, $1,900; 7-passenger Touring, $1,775. All f. o. b. Walkerville.
