Dry goods.

The dry goods trade during the week shows a decidedly cheerful tone in consequence of the fine weather and the bright crop prospects. Prices are firm. Circulars are being received by the jobbing houses here from the woolen manufacturers to the effect that prices are increasing. The latest circular received is that sent out by the Trent Valley Woolen Mills of Campbellford. It states that prices are advanced 1 cent per yard all round or about 8 per cent. of an increase. Cottons of all descriptions are very firm, but the demand now is nothing to what it was in the spring. Immense quantities of imported goods have passed the customs during the week. It was decided the heaviest week of the year in importations. These goods also show firmness. Since prices were made prices in England and France have advanced in all kinds of dress goods and for woolens. This, no doubt, will have the effect of steadying the Canadian dry goods market. Payments are poor, as is usual at this time of the year.

Groceries.

This has been a quiet week in groceries. The only notable feature is the weakness in sugar. It is probable that there will be a drop of ½c. in prices to-morrow (Saturday), as the demand is very light. Quotations now stand at 9¾c. and 9⅝c. for granulated and yellows at 7¾c. to 8¼c. Teas are dull and steady. Coffees are quiet, showing no change. Canned goods, both fruit and meat, are very firm. Payments are fair.

Leather.

The feature of leather trade this week is the retail character of the dealing. There have been no large sales, though several to Ontario manufactures are in prospect. Prices are weak in light leathers, owing to continued accumulations. Heavy grades are firm. Prices for some large lots: Selected, 32c to 35c; No. 1, 31c to 32c; No. 2, 19c to 21c; No. 3, 14c to 16c; black leather, 24c to 26c; upper leather, 27c to 30c.

Hides, Skins and Wool.

Hides are a little firmer. A car load of No. 1 was sold to-day at 5 3-8c. Receipts are fair and the demand has improved slightly. Sheepskins, lambskins and shearlings, remain at 40c. Wool is quiet; there is not much inquiry for it and receipts are slow. Fleece is quoted at 20c with 22 and 23 for select and Southdown. Unwashed fleece is quoted at 11c; unwashed Southdown, 14c; and rejects 10c.

Horses.

Trade in horses has been dull this week. No foreign buyers have been in the market, and the local demand is only moderate. At Grand's to-day 25 work horses were sold at prices ranging from $60 to $140.

Live Stock.

Receipts at the Western Cattle Yards to-day were 20 loads, including 300 sheep and lambs and 100 hogs. The market was firm. There was an active demand for all kinds of stock. Butchers' cattle were in good demand, the favorable reports from Montreal stimulating business. Export cattle were offered more liberally than in the early part of the week. The demand was active and prices firm. Good store steers were particularly enquired for. There was a light supply of export sheep. More could have been disposed of. Butchers' sheep, too, were not offered in quantities equal to the demand. Calves were rather scarce and in good request. Hogs were in moderate supply and the demand was good. Prices: Butchers' cattle, good to choice, 3½c to 4c; medium, 3c to 3½c; inferior, 2½c to 2¾c; export cattle, 4½c to 5c; shipping sheep, 4½c to 4¾c; butchers' sheep, $4 to $4.50 each; lambs, $3 to $4 each; hogs, $5 to $5.50 per cwt.

Business Embarrassments.

These business embarrassments are reported to-day: B. G. Ostrom, grocer, Ashburnham, assigned to William A. Stoneberg, Peterboro; W. W. Mann, grocer, Listowel, assigned to J. W. Myers, Listowel; E. B. Cays, grocer, Maidstone Cross, assigned to J. C. Iler, Sandwich; Peplow & McCabe, millers, Port Hope, making an extension; James O'Hara, tailor, St. Catharines, assigned to E. J. Henderson, Toronto.
