COURIER COMICS

Talking Shop
The applicant stood very erect as the prospective employer interviewed her.
"You advertised as a chauffeur-ette-maid?"
"Yes, madam."
"What were your duties at your last place?"
"I drove and cleaned the cars single-handed."
"And as maid?"
"I took down my lady at night and assembled her in the morning."
—Stray Stories.

His Very Plan
A quack doctor was being examined at an inquest upon the treatment of a patient who had been in his care.
"I gave him ipso-lactantia," he said.
"You might just as well have given him the aura-a boreahs," replied the coroner.
"Indeed, your honor, an' that's just what I'd have given him next, if he hadn't unfortunately died."

Try a Change
"I like to air my opinions occasionally."
"But why do you always use hot air?"

Hurry it on the Market What's become of the Yankee invention which conveyed the sound of snoring directly into the ear of the snorer and woke him up?

Directions Wanted Occultist—Drop a little of this into your eyes three times a day.
Patient—Before meals or after doctor?

A Rural Methuselah
"I told the boys that the best fence posts are red cedar, and that they will last a hundred years. I know," says Uncle Ike, "because Ive tried 'em twice." — Clarence Courier.

Proved His Words
"A great deal may be said on the subject," said the prosy person.
"That," said the weary auditor, "is the one point on which you have convinced me."

In Both Senses
When we see a man on the opposite side of the street who owes us a dollar we wish he'd come across.

It Depends
"Does your wife make a fuss over a late dinner?"
"Depends on whether it is due to my meeting a friend or her being to the matinee."

Placing Him
Guest—The man is awfully weak bed in that room you gave me.
Hotel Clerk—You said you were a light sleeper.

Every Stroke Counts
"Look here, Hogatt," exclaimed the irascible old golfer, "if you don't stop your infernal chatter I'll crack you over the head with this brassie."
"All right, Morris, swing away," was the calm response, "but remember this—I'll cost you a stroke."

BABEL OF VOICES AT PEACE TABLE
24 Languages Will be Represented at Versailles Convention

Paris, Dec. 5.—Translators in 23 languages, including Chinese, Arabic, Turkish, and some not even so well known, have been called for by Brig-General William W.
Harts, who is directing the equipment of the American peace delegates. The number required is in indication of the diversity of the peoples and countries before the Peace Conference, either through participation in the war or by reason of treaties or other relations.

The full list of languages comprises French, Italian, Greek, Japanese, Spanish, Montenegrin, Norwegian, Bulgarian, German, Hungarian, Turkish, Swedish, Persian, Russian, Serbian, Armenian, Czech, Rumanian, Danish, and Arabic.
This with English, makes the quota 24.

The knowledge of the languages possessed by translators must be complete in order to get the precise meaning of treaties and documents, and not the ordinary speaking knowledge.

The first effort will be directed at obtaining translators from among college men or army men, and should these be lacking others from various civilian occupations will be taken.

BURYING VICTIMS
By Courier Leased Wire
Stockholm, Dec. 7.—Nine hundred and fifty-six victims of the anti-Jewish outbreak in Lemberg, Galicia, have been buried so far, according to the newspaper Nowy Dziennik of Cracow, as quoted by the Jewish Press Bureau here. Many bodies are yet lying in the ruins of burned dwellings, it is added.

Radical Railroad Changes Needed

Whether U. S. Lines Remain in Hands of Government or Not

Washington, Dec. 6.—Regardless of whether railroads finally go back to private management or remain in the hands of the Government, radical changes should be made in their methods and theories of operation to provide a partial merger under some sort of Government regulation, the Interstate Commerce Commission says in its annual report made public today.

The Commission believes the time is not ripe to recommend concrete proposals for legislation relating to the future policy toward railroads, but says whatever be the nation's decision, there should be provision for complete unification of the railroads in war time, partial merger in ordinary times. Limitation of railway construction to ensure necessity, and systematic encouragement of the development of inland waterways, and their coordination with rail carriers.

In other words, the Commission is opposed to restoration of the old conditions of individual competition, in which pooling of traffic was forbidden by law, and to the building of new lines without proof to the Government that they are economically necessary.

If it is finally decided to restore railroads to private management, says the Commission, there should be legislation to permit their operation, emancipation of railway operation from financial dictation, Government regulation of security issues; clearing away of the existing twilight zone between the authority of state and federal authorities in railroad supervision; efficient use of equipment and common use of terminals.

On the other hand, if the policy of Government ownership should be adopted, the principal question to be considered are: The price to be paid for the roads; means of preventing the railroads from being made sources of revenue to the Government, and also to maintain them as self-supporting; measures to define carefully the responsibility of the railway administration to Congress and other federal and state authorities; guarantees against intrusion of partisan politics into railway management; and creation of a tribunal to settlement of controversies over railroad matters.

CATARH LEADS TO CONSUMPTION

Catarh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment.
It breaks down the general health, weakens the lung tissues, and leads to consumption.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is so successful in the treatment of catarh that it is known as the best remedy for this disease. It purifies the blood. Ask your druggist for it.

PUNISH ALL WHO ABUSE PRISONERS

Lord Robert Cecil Urges That C. G. Men Be Held Responsible

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Dec. 4.—German officials guilty of acts which resulted in injury or danger to British prisoners of war should be held personally responsible, Lord Robert Cecil, former assistant secretary of state for foreign affairs, says. This statement was made in a message relative to the attitude of the Government on the subject of treatment of prisoners, which has been generally discussed since the signing of the armistice.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowels poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head, producing violent, throbbing pain and dizziness, called headache.
You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetani-lides, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve, but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.
A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate instantly relieves the headache, and will not only wash these toxins from your system and cure you of headache, but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

MAY TAKE KAISER BACK TO GERMANY

Strong Delegation From Berlin Has Arrived at the Hague

By Courier Leased Wire
Copenhagen, Dec. 5.—A delegation from the Berlin Soldiers' and Workers' Council has arrived at The Hague, a Berlin despatch reports. The message indicates that its presence at the Netherlands capital has to do with negotiations concerning former Emperor William in progress at the German legation in The Hague, the nature of which is not stated.

A Berlin despatch on December 2 announced that a number of the Soldiers' and Workers' Councils in Germany had requested the Government to have the ex-Emperor tried by a German tribunal. It was added, however, that the Government would submit the question to the National Assembly, which body is not yet in being. The recent visit to Holland of a German embassy, Admiral von Hintze, former foreign secretary, was said to be for the purpose of obtaining the formal abdication of William II, which has since taken place.

PARLIAMENT MEMBER SOLD EXEMPTIONS

Charges Against M. P. and Army Officer Heard
in Quebec

By Courier Leased Wire
Quebec, Dec. 5.—Further evidence of an astonishing character was brought out at the resumption of the inquiry yesterday into the charges of trafficking in military service exemptions against George Pion, M.P., of Montmagny, Quebec, and Captain Guay of this city.

Adenre Dubé, aged 23 years, of Montmagny, one of the witnesses heard, swore that Abbe Lafleur, assistant priest at Montmagny, had told him that he (the Abbe) and Pion had secured exemptions for a number of young men, but it would cost $2,000. The witness and his father had called to see Pion and had later come to Quebec and had met Pion and Guay. They were told on that occasion that the exemption could not be given for less than $2,200, and the next Sunday when they went to Pion's house at Montmagny to settle, Pion agreed to cut off $100. Aubert, Dubé, rather of a witness, corroborated his son's testimony. He said that he had gone to Pion's house one Sunday and had given Pion's wife $500 in cash and a draft for $1,400 payable in three months.

GIRL BRIDE AS A
SIX YEAR MARRIAGE
"An unexpected" story of marriage was unfolded at Detroit last week in the divorce suit of Mrs.
Grace Maynard. She had married William Maynard at Banff, in 1918.
Soon afterwards Maynard took his fourteen-year-old bride to a homestead, he had acquired forty-five miles from the nearest neighbor, where he left her with instructions that she must not leave the place or they would lose it. She did so utterly alone in the wilderness for six long years, except for occasional visits from her husband. Her only clothing was of skins and furs, and during the cold she bore three children, without a soul to help her.
Her position was ultimately discovered by accident, while she was still maintaining her vigil.

BIBLE LECTURES AT PARK CHURCH

Satan's Career Traced by Mr. L. S. Chafer
Yesterday

Lewis S. Chafer, who is giving a series of Bible lectures at the Park Baptist Church, spoke yesterday afternoon on the future of Satan.
The address began with the Garden of Eden and traced the career of Satan on the earth. During that time, "Satan," the speaker said, "has never been in hell and will not be until placed there at the end of the thousand years of the reign of Christ on the earth. During that reign Satan will be bound and put in a pit that he shall deceive the nations no more. He is then loosed for a little season and, after promoting the last war on earth, he is cast into the lake of fire. This is his eternal abode. This, too, is the execution of the judgment that was gained against him by Christ at the cross. Since the cross, Satan reigns as a usurper and will continue so to reign until the kingdom of Christ is established in the earth by His return in power and glory." Mr. Chafer makes large use of the Scriptures and proposes what but a careful exposition of what is taught in the Word of God.

The subject last night was two of the three conditions upon which a Christian may realize the filling of the Spirit. "All known sin must be confessed and the human will must be yielded to the divine will."
The speaker stated: "Any Christian who will comply with these conditions and one other, yet to be discussed, will know a life of the fullest blessing for himself and of service to others. This is not a theory; it has been proven by a multitude of Christians in all the history of this age. It is the plain promise of God."

Rippling Rhymes

HARD UP.

With winter knocking at the door I lack my shin possessions o'er, and shoe, a brace of slugs; I'm needing bayer, usel and spuds, I'm needing shoes and hats and suits, and prunes and hooks and eyes. I'm needing cabbage leaves to smoke, I need the coat that is in soak, my necesses are urgent, sore; the shelves are bare of pie and cake, the teebbox has no luscious steak, and winter's at the door. But peace is also at the door, so let my soul be sad no more, and let my heart rejoice; the dove of peace is overhead; and war's a thing that's done and dead, she says, in cooling voice. And if the dove has got it straight, that man's a rather yellow' skate, who hands out tears or sighs, though he may find his cupboard bare, no Hoover bread or doughnuts there, and no denatured pies. My shoes let in the wintry breeze, my pants have patches on the knees, they're shaggy, aft and fore, but trifling things don't matter now; I smoothe the creases from my brow, for peace is at the door. The winter's coming, pretty swift, and soon the air cooled
