POETRY.

BLIGHTED AFFECTION.

If thou hast crushed a flower,
The root may not be blighted;
If thou hast quenched a lamp,
Once more it may be lighted;
But on thy harp, or on thy lute,
The string that thou hast broken
Shall never in sweet sound again
Give to thy touch a token.

If thou hast loosed a bird
Whose voice of song would cheer thee
Still, still he may be won
From the skies to warble near thee;
But if upon the troubled sea
Thou hast flung a gem unheeded,
Hope not that wind or wave will bring
The treasure back when needed.

If thou hast bruised a vine
The summer warmth is healing,
Its clusters still may glow
Thro' the leaves their bloom revealing;
But if thou hast a cup o'erthrown,
With a bright dust filled, oh! never
Shall earth give back that lavish'd wealth
To cool thy parch'd lip's fever.

The heart is like that cup,
If thou waste the love it bore thee;
And like that jewel gone,
Which the deep will not restore thee;
And like that strain of harp and lute,
Whatever the sweet sound is scattered;
Gently, oh! gently touch the chords
So soon forever scattered.

THE SENTIMENTALIST IN COURT.

'What is your name?'

'My name is Norval on the Grampian Hills.'

'Where did you come from?'

'I came from the happy land where care is unknown.'

'Where are you lodging now?'

'I dreamt I dwelt in marble halls.'

'Where are you going to?'

'For, far o'er hill and dale.'

'What is your occupation?'

'I played on a harp of a thousand strings.'

'Are you married?'

'Long time ago. Polly, put the kettle on.'

'When were you married?'

'Twas twelve o'clock one starlight night, I ever shall remember.'

'How many children have you?'

'There's Doll, and Bett, and Moll and Kate and ——.'

'What is your wife's name?'

'Oh, no, I never mention her.'

'Did your wife oppose your leaving?'

'She wept when we parted.'

'In what condition did you leave her?'

'A rose tree in full bearing.'

'Is your family provided for?'

'A little farm well tilled.'

'Did your wife drive you off?'

'O sublime was the warning.'

'What did your wife say to you that induced you to elope?'

'Come rest in this bosom.'

'Was your wife good looking?'

'She was all my fancy painted her.'

'Did your wife treat you badly?'

'Oft in the stilly night.'

'When you announced your intention of emigration what did your wife say?'

'O dear, what can the matter be.'

'And what did you reply?'

'Sweet Kitty Clover don't bother me so.'

'Where did you last see her?'

'We met—'twas in a crowd.'

'What did she say to you, when you were in the act of leaving?

'Go forget me.'

'Do you still love her?'

'The Minstrel's returned from the war.'

'What are your possessions?'

'Old Dog Trey.'

'What do you propose to do with him.'

'Send him to the other side of Jordan.'

'How do you propose to make a living?

'Pull off my coat and roll up my sleeves.'

The Judge could not stand it any more and accordingly shut him up for three months.'

A late London paper gives the following account of an experiment in the river Seine, which seems to indicate the discovery of an improved Life Preserver, in cases of shipwreck:

Some experiments with a new Life-Belt, to be used in cases of shipwreck or similar disaster, have been made opposite the Quai d'Orsay, Paris.—The apparatus consists of a small waist-belt, stuffed with cotton, which has undergone a special preparation. It was at first tried by a man who jumped into the water near the Pont Royal, and floated down the stream very quietly as far as the Pont de la Concorde. The author of the invention then put on the belt and went into the river, and proceeded for some distance, having two men hanging to his shoulders. After these two experiments, (which were perfectly successful,) had terminated, the next point to be ascertained was whether the belt would retain its useful properties if torn. In order to test this, the belt was cut in several places with a knife, and the cotton thus exposed to the action of the water. In this state it was put on by a man, who proceeded down the stream with perfect safety; thus showing the superiority of this invention over the air-belts which are frequently rendered useless by an accident, and become rather an embarrassment than a means of safety to those who use them.

LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.—1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers wish their papers discontinued, publishers may continue to send them until all the charges are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their paper from the office or place to which they are sent, they are held responsible until they settle their bill, and give notice to discontinue.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.—Notice should always be given of removal.

5. Refusing to take a paper periodical from the office, or removing and leaving it uncalled for, is evidence of fraud.

The last word is the most dangerous of infernal machines. Husband and wife should no more strive to get it than they would struggle for the possession of a lighted bomb-shell. Married people should study each other's weak points as the skater looks after the weak parts of the ice, in order to keep off them. Ladies who marry for love should remember that the union of angels with women has been forbidden since the flood.—The wife is the sun of the social system. Unless she attracts, there is nothing to keep heavy bodies, like husbands, from flying off into space.—The wife who would properly discharge her duties, must never have a soul "above buttons."—Don't trust too much to good temper when you get into an argument. Sugar is the substance most universally diffused through all natural products. Let married people take the hint from this provision of nature.

A MEDICAL REVOLUTION!
THE WORLD UNANIMOUS.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
THE GREAT COUNTER IRRITANT!

The virus of disease often makes its way to the internal organs through the pores of the skin. This penetrating Ointment, melting under the hand as it is rubbed in, is absorbed through the same channels, and, reaching the seat of inflammation, promptly and invariably subdues it, whether located in the kidneys, the liver, the lungs, or any other important organ. It penetrates the surface to the interior, through the countless tubes that communicate with the skin as summer rain passes into the fevered earth diffusing its cool and regenerating influence.

SKIN DISEASES & GLANDULAR SWELLINGS.

Every species of exterior irritation is quickly reduced by the anti-inflamatory action of this Ointment, Angry ERUPTIONS, such as SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, TETTER, RINGWORM, SCALD HEAD, NETTLE RASH, SCURVY (or Psora) &c., die out, to return no more under its application. Hospital experience in all parts of the world proves its infallibility in diseases of the skin, the muscles, the joints and the glands.

ULCERS, SORES, AND TUMORS.

The effect of this unrivalled external remedy upon Scrofula, and other virulent ulcers and sores, is almost miraculous. It first discharges the poison which produces suppuration and proud flesh, and thus the cures which its healing properties afterward complete are safe as well as permanent.

WOUNDS, BRUISES, BURNS, AND SCALDS.

In cases of the fracture of the bones, injuries caused by stress, explosions, BRUISES, BURNS, SCALDS, RHEUMATISM, STIFFNESS OF THE JOINTS, and contraction of the sinews, it is unapproved and warmly recommended by the faculty. This marvellous remedy has been introduced by its inventor in person into all the leading Hospitals of Europe, and no private household should be without it.

UNDENIABLE TESTIMONY.

The Medical Staff of the French and English Armies in the Crimea have officially signed their approval of Holloway's Ointment, as the most reliable dressing for sabre cuts, stabs, and gun-shot wounds. It is also used by the surgeons of the Allied Navies.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Rheumatism,	Sore Throats,
Burns,	Ringworm,	Sores of all kinds
Capped hands,	Salt Rheum,	Sprains,
Chilblains,	Scalds,	Stiff Joints
Fistula,	Skin Diseases	Tetter,
Gout,	Swelled	Ulcers,
Lumbago,	Glands,	Venereal Sores,
Mercurial	Sore Legs,	Wounds of all
Eruptions,	Sore Breasts,	kinds.
Piles,	Sore Heads,
