We understand that the new Royal Bank building will likely be erected next summer. Considerable other building is in contemplation and next season promises to be as busy in Wolfville as the present one is.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock a service will be held in the old Covenanter church at Grand Pre, by Rev G. W. Miller. The church, which is the most interesting in the province, has not been open for worship for many years. There will no doubt be a large attendance on Sunday next.

Rev. V. E. Harris, Secretary-Treasurer of the Diocese of Nova Scotia, took the services at St. John's church last Sunday, celebrating Holy Communion twice and preaching two excellent sermons. Mr. Harris is always a welcome visitor to St. John's church. While here he was the guest of Sir Charles and Lady Townshend. The rector was in Halifax, where he preached in All Saints' Cathedral by invitation.

'Sunny Brae' appears to be growing in popularity with tourists and the present season a large number are being entertained there. Mrs Borden has recently had erected a number of lodges to supplement her accommodation. Two of these are especially attractive and restful. They have spacious verandahs which have been artistically arranged. Chief Toney has been engaged during the past week in trimming the walls with birch bark and has done a splendid job. The effect is most pleasing.

FLAT TO RENT—Over drug store and post office. Modern conveniences. A. V. RAND.

A terribly sad affair occurred at Grand Pre this week when Mr. Fred Rye, an industrious and respected citizen, while in a state of mental depression, ended his life by taking a dose of Paris green. The unfortunate man lingered until an early hour yesterday morning when death came. No motive can be found for the rash act, and it can only be accounted for by the fact that his health had been failing for some time. Deceased was about 60 years of age, and leaves a widow and large family who have the fullest sympathy of the community.

Obituary.

John Burbidge Best was born in Prospect, Kings county, N. S. Jan 11, 1832. His early education was received in the common schools of the county. In Upper Dyke Village, in 1860 he married Miss Isabella Adelia Woodworth, of Canning, whose death he never ceased to mourn since she was called to her long home seven years ago. Early in their married life they moved to Brooklyn Street on the farm now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Foote. Here they raised a family of eleven children, ten of whom survive them, and accumulated a goodly portion of this world's goods. Since the death of his wife in 1904 he often expressed a wish to join her, knowing that his life's work was accomplished. Early in life he sought and found salvation, and was always ready and willing to testify to the goodness and saving grace of the Infinite. In his last letter to his children he counselled them to put their faith in Jesus and always be guided by His teachings. He died July 4th, of Angina Pectoris, at Brooklyn Street, where he had lived continuously for fifty-seven years. Of his ten surviving children only three were able to be present at the burial service. We bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well, believing:

'There is no death,
What seems so is transition,
This life of mortal breath
Is but the suburbs of that life Elysium
Whose portal we call death.'

Salt Rheum On the Hand

Yielded only to the soothing, healing influence of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

In addition to the suffering and annoyance caused by eczema and salt rheum there is always danger of the trouble spreading and becoming chronic. For this reason the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment should be regular and persistent until the cure is effected and complete.

Mrs. John A. Delory, Linwood, Antigonish county, N.S., writes:—"I want to say that Dr. Chase's Ointment has proven a great blessing to me. I had salt rheum on one hand, and could not get it healed up. The itching was most distressing at times. Two boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured me completely, and I gladly recommend it to every sufferer."

In every home there is a demand for Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is particularly useful where there are children. Chafing and skin irritation are relieved at once and eczema is cured by this soothing, healing ointment. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
