MR. ALCOCK BACKS HIS PROTEGE.

Jimmy Smith's Manager Picks Up All the Leon Money in Sight—To-night's Bouts.

Mr. Alcock, manager for Jimmy Smith, having landed on the winning ponies at good prices, will leave the Woodbine alone to-day for what he thinks a better proposition from a financial standpoint. It did not take him long yesterday to cover Manager Alt's century, left with the Crescent Club, and there is still plenty at the Black Bull that says the Toronto bantam will again score over Casper Leon. The New York lad was down to 113½ lbs. last night, while Smith has a half-pound to take off to-day, and he will easily save his forfeit. The 20-foot ring in Mutual-street will favor Leon, so he thinks, tho everyone remembers the splendid battle for 17 rounds put up by Smith in the same square against Eddie Lenny about a year ago.

Roach counts on securing the decision this time over Sullivan by washing matters, tho the Philadelphia Jack says he will end the bout before the limit at this kind of fighting. Both lads kept up their training, and will enter the ring to-night fit to go 20 rounds, if necessary.

Billy Smith says he can make 118 lbs. if necessary, so a victory over Middy Hennessy in the curtain-raiser would mean a bet to the bicycle rider, as he likes the game. Angus McLeod gives out that his protege stopped a big chap at a private show last summer in Montreal, so there may be an early surprise at the Crescent Club's closing show of the spring.

All the regulars from out of town have ordered their seats, and the races and boxing will attract one of the biggest delegations ever sent from Hamilton. Popular prices prevail. The plan will remain at Wilson's until 2 p.m. T2the bouts will start promptly on time, allowing out-of-town patrons to catch the late trains. The program:

8.30—Middy Hennessy, Syracuse, v. Billy Smith, Toronto, six rounds at catchweights.
9.00—Jack Sullivan, Philadelphia, v. Jack Roach, Toronto, 10 rounds at 135 lbs.
10.00—Casper Leon, New York, v. Jimmy Smith, Toronto, 20 rounds at 115 lbs.

Referee—Mr. Bennett. Timer—Mr. Tinning.

Association Football.

The final game for the championship of the Toronto Football League between the Gore Vales and Scots will be played this afternoon on the University Athletic grounds. These two teams played a drawn game last Saturday, necessitating an extra game, which comes off to-day. The winner will meet the winner of the W.F.A. for the Caledonia Cup on July 1, and to say that both teams will do their utmost to win is putting it mildly. The game will commence at 4 o'clock. Mr. Arnot will referee.

The following members of the Toronto Scots are requested to be at the Varsity Athletic Field not later than 2.30 p.m. to-day: Armstrong, McKendrick, Mott, Humphrey, Browning, Stinson, Turnbull, Munro, Bradley, G Humphrey, Macdonald, Murray, Sinclair, Jones, Biggs. The team will be picked from these.

Yacht Manoeuvres To-Day.

Commodore George H. Gooderham will conduct the Royal Canadian Yacht Club's manoeuvres this afternoon opposite the town club house. The yachts will line up at 3 o'clock in front of the flagship Clorita.

Sporting Notes.

The valuable prize field spaniel Billy, owned by Miss M. H. Douglas of Kew Beach, died on Wednesday, aged 13 years. Miss Douglas was the first lady to exhibit dogs at the International Dog Shows, in connection with the Toronto Industrial Exhibition, winning three firsts, one second and a diploma with her field spaniel Billy.

The Queen City Bicycle Club will have a run to Islington to-morrow, leaving the club rooms at 11 a.m. A large turnout of members and their friends is expected.

There will be an open bluerock shoot at McDowall's grounds, commencing at 3 o'clock to-day.

The Toronto Bicycle Club will hold a reunion to-day, starting from the Athenaeum Clubhouse at 3 o'clock. They will wheel to York Mills, where tea will be served at 6 o'clock. In case of rain, they will go by street cars. A first-class program has been arranged for the evening.

Pure and Reliable.

Their "D.C.L." (black bottle) Whiskey is only bottled for Exportation, and is the result of a long experience of what a well-matured and absolutely pure and reliable Whiskey ought to be. UP TO WOODBINE'S LAST DAY

Five Favorites Fall on Friday, Two Long Shots Landing the Money.

DUGGAN'S BROMO WON AT 40 TO 1.

Royal Sterling and Cavalero Were the Only First Choices in Front.

The books scored again over the public on the eighth day at Woodbine Park, as five out of the seven favorites went to the bad. A steady rain fell nearly all afternoon, but still the track was fast, and there was the same big crowd in the betting ring. The surprise of the day came in the fifth race, when Bromo, at 40 to 1, landed the coin. This trick was only backed by the guessers, only a few small bets being recorded. The other outsider, Bell Punch, was also lightly played. After the first race a fog settled on the track, and the horses ran the lower back stretch and turn unobserved.

The bunch that went to the post in the first race were all more or less played to show and for the place, while Royal Sterling, the favorite, at 2 to 1, was heavily backed by the knowing ones. They went away from a straggling start, with the favorite running second to the three-quarter pole, then pulling out to win in a drive with Pharaoh.

Donna Seay opened favorite in the second at even, and Terminus at 5 to 1. The former was heavily backed, and the latter, along with Lightning Flash, was played for the place. The lot went away from a bad start, and at the three-quarters little Jack Martin took Terminus to the front and on the rail, landing him a winner by three lengths, Donna Seay as far ahead of Germantown, the latter beating out Lightning Flash in the last quarter.

Devil's Own, the good thing in the third, gave the public a fall, as he was heavily played, while Clancey's entry was only nibbled at to win and for the place. Pillaridist got the best of a fair start, and had it all his own way, altho he was second to show in the stretch. Adagio beat Play Fun easily for the place.

The jumping race was a surprise to the public, and the stewards are now investigating a case against Gallagher. Quick Silver opened favorite at 8 to 5, and was afterwards extended to 3 to 1. The stewards suspected a job, and watched for results. Gallagher let the favorite out till he reached the east end, when he let up again, and finished almost last. Arrezzo was supposed to be the good thing, but was beaten by Kinney, who was ridden out, and the clever push was thrown down.

In the fifth race the books took the breath away from the talent, as the favorite was beaten by two lengths by a 40-to-1 shot. The odds showed Zoroaster at 2 to 1, with Zanone next choice, and they only fought it out for the place. The start was a very bad one, and fog obscured most of the race.

Bell Punch got away with Elg, the favorite, in the sixth, the former being played for the place, and the latter heavily to win. This was the best start of the day, and was won all out, the place being easy.

The last race was a clinch for Cavalero, Mr. Seagram's good old horse, who, according to the jockey, was never in trouble. This race could not be seen for the fog, and three of the horses Salvato, Laurentian and Annie Lauretta—finished without their riders.

In the first race the mutuels paid $7.30 on the favorite, $9.50 on the field in the second, $7.50 on the field in the third, no business in the fourth, $9.50 on the field in the fifth, $11 on the field in the sixth, and $14.25 on the favorite in the last race.

TORONTOS RETURN FOR RAIN

No Game at the Island With the Champions, and Both Sides Lost at the Races.

ALLOWAY PITCHES THIS AFTERNOON

Hartford Outscored Springfield and Worcester Won From Providence.

Manager Barrow and his Torontos arrived home yesterday morning, along with Rochester ready for their scheduled game at the Island in the afternoon, but the rain sent the bunch down to the races, where both sides lost. A quartet of the Islanders are in pretty bad shape, Carr and Grey with sprained ankles, and Dundon and Bruce sore muscles. The game this afternoon starts at 3.30, with Alloway and Murphy as the opposing twirlers. Yesterday at Syracuse there was also rain, leaving Worcester and Hartford as the only winners. The record:

Clubs.	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Rochester	19	11	.633
Montreal	18	11	.624
Springfield	14	12	.538
Providence	14	14	.500
Worcester	14	14	.500
Syracuse	13	14	.481
Toronto	10	18	.357
Hartford	11	19	.366
