noon, by which George Argreves lost s life. The young man had charge of me cars loaded with potatoes, and in tempting to board the train by catch-g a ladder, fell under the car, which ssed over his body, completely sev-ing one leg and badly mangling the her.

He was placed on a special and rushed Woodstock, but expired just as the ain reached the station. The body was moved to Henderson's undertaking oms and viewed by Coroner Lindsay d a jury, who will continue the in-est Monday evening.

The unfortunate man belonged to rt Fairfield (Me.), and was in the ployy of P. H. Reed. The body was ken to Fort Fairfield on last night's press. He was thirty-five years of age d is survived by his mother, with hom he lived.

Gordon Cogger, a member of the 55th attalion, will be transferred to the sigalling corps at Ottawa, word to that fect having been received yesterday.

A man named, Wilkinson, working re, was placed under arrest yesterday request of the St. John police on a arge of deserting his family, who are ing in St. John.

Eighteen members of the 55th battaln attended service in St. Gertrude's urch this morning. About the same mber attended the services in the nited Baptist church, where a special rmon was preached by Rev. Frank L. rchard.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, March 24—Mrs. Geo. B. yan was the guest of Mrs. H. M. Wood Sackville, last week. Mrs. Wood en-rtained at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. yan on Wednesday last.

Mr. F. C. Dickie, former manager of e Royal Bank here, but for the past e years of Carleton (Alta.), was in wn on Friday the guest of friends en ute to Moncton. Mrs. Dickie and hild, are the guests of Mrs. Dickie's arents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hewson, in oncton.

Miss Josephine Oulton returned on onday from Sackville, where she spent e past week the guest of Miss Lila stabrooks.

Miss Marie Landry left on Wednesday st for St. John, where she will be the uest of Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, and then aves for Quebec and Montreal to be bsent a few weeks.

Mrs. Leonard Hutchinson has returned rom Truro, where she spent the past eek.

Miss Bessie Anderson has returned om St. John, where she has been the uest of relatives for the past few weks.

Miss Maud Robson, who has been the uest of Miss Mina Palmer, returned n Saturday to her home in Sackville.

Miss Blanche O'Brien, who took part e Red Cross entertainment on Tuesay evening last, was the guest while town of Miss Daisy Burnett.

Mrs. Papineau, who spent several days st week the guest of her sister, Mrs. allant in Amherst, has returned home, ompanied by Mrs. Frank Turner.

Miss Annie Landry, of Memramcook, the guest at the home of Judge Lan-ry this week.

Miss McCarthy, who was the guest the Misses Foran, has returned to er home in Moncton.

Mr. Robert W. Starratt is spending few days in Hopewell Hill, the guest f friends.

Mr. Tom Gillespie, of the Royal Bank, t. John, spent last Sunday the guest f his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gil-spie.

Mr. Geo. P. O. Fenwick, formerly of pohaqui (N. B.), now of Edmonton Alta.), has been appointed deputy atrney general of the province of Al-erta. Mr. Fenwick was for several ars principal of the High school here, nd has many friends who will be leased to hear of his success.

Mrs. H. K. Bowes and Miss Bernice mmerson, were guests last week of eir sister, Mrs. Julian Cornell, in Amerst.

The entertainment given on St. Patick's Eve in Hickman's hall, by the embers of the Red Cross, was a deided success. A delightful programme f solos, by Miss O'Brien (Moncton), nd Mr. Jack Pincock, were enjoyed; eadings by Rev. Kenneth Kingston; ad-ress, Origin and Growth of the Red ross Movement, by Rev. R. A. Robnson, were also much enjoyed. A se-ies of statuary was the most extensive eature of the evening's entertainment. he Life Line orchestra pleased the udience with several selections. The rogramme concluded with a tableau—ngland and her Allies—and with the inging of God Save the King. A sale f candy, shamrocks, national flags by he ladies, brought the sum realized to 31, to be used for patriotic work. Mr. esner A. Taylor, county secretary, perormed the duties of chairman.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 25—The at home iven by the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Wood at the Queen on Thurvening was the most brilliant and enable event of the season. His ceived the guests in his apartment and as assisted in receiving by his daughte Mrs. F. B. Black and Miss Allison and Miss Fawcett, of Sackville, and was at-ended by Colonel Black, A. D. C., and Mr. Wm. Crulkshank, private secretary.

Mrs. Black was beautifully gowned in hite silk crepe de chene over white sat-n with diamante trimmings and corsage ouquet of violets.

Miss Fawcett wore blue charmeuse ith overdress of chiffon and lace trim-ed with chinchilla fur.

Miss Allison was in cream brocade atin veiled in cream marquisette roses nd lace.

Mrs. Black, Miss Allison and Miss awcett left this morning for their omes in Sackville.

Governor Wood spent the week-end t his home in Sackville, returning here n Monday. His honor will not hold the sual reception this week.

Mrs. A. J. Gregory entertained at her ome on Saturday afternoon, in honor of er daughter, Miss Hilda Gregory, who eceived with her. Miss Gregory looked ery pretty in garnet velvet with overress of flowered chiffon. Mrs. F. P. obinson invited the guests out. In the ea room Mrs. H. V. Bridges and Mrs.
V. W. Hubbard presided over the pret-ily appointed table, which was centered ith yellow daffodils and southern smi-ax, and poured. Mrs. John Stephens resided at the end table and cut the es. Assisting were Miss Lucy Morri-on, Miss Mary Chestnut, Miss Gladys itzGerald, Miss Frances Smith, Miss lorence Campbell and Miss Stopford.

Mr. Prescott, M. P. P., and Mrs. Presott spent Saturday in St. John, return-ng here in the evening.

Miss Lucille Hawkins was hostess at a ouble bridge of six tables on Saturday vening when Miss Florence Campbell was the winner of the ladies' prize, and Mr. Brydone Milldge won the gentlenan's. Miss Allison took the out-of-own guest prize.

Mr. Arthur Culligan, M. P. P., and Mrs. Culligan, of Jacquet River, are uests at the Barker House.

Mrs. Duncan Davidson, nee Miss Kathlen Hodge, and litle daughter, of Didsbury (Alta.), and Miss Jeanie Hodge, who has been spending several months in the west visiting her sister, arrived here on Thursday and are with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, Mr. Davidson will come later.

Miss Sterling was hostess at a bridge of three tables on Monday afternoon, with other guests coming in at the tea hour. Miss Allison was the prize winner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, of Woodstock, are guests in the city.

Mrs. Ketchum entertained at a luncheon of ten covers on Saturday for the visiting ladies.

Chancellor and Mrs. Jones entertained at an enjoyable musicale and sewing party at their home in the university on Monday evening, in honor of the visitors in the city. Miss Fawcett, of Sackville, and Mrs. W. S Carter sang.
Miss Baird, who spent last year in Germany studying music, gave several instrumental solos, and Miss Lynds gave a couple of readings that were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Arthur Porter has returned from a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Alward, at Moncton.

Mrs. H. W. Woods, of Welsford, is here to join her husband.

Mrs. Wm. Vradenburg entertained pleasantly at music and cards on Friday evening.

Mrs. P. M. Macdonald entertained at a bridge of two tables on Friday evening, when Miss Fuller was the prize winner.

Mrs. W. J. Scott entertained a number of friends at a bridge and sewing party on Tuesday evening.

Fredericton, N. B., March 27—Last night's blizzard was really the worst storm of the winter. The mercury was near zero.

The local agricultural society has decided to hold an exhibition in September.

Mrs. Henry Watts died here last night aged seventy-six. She was a daughter of the late John Pollock of South Bay.

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, March 26—Mrs. T. Ly-ford, of Boston, and Miss Portia Duston, of St. Stephen, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Odell.

Miss Flora Russell was called to Moncton on Saturday by the illness of her father.

Miss Nellie Stuart returned on Tuesday from Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Freshwater left for England on Thursday night, being called there by the serious illness of Mrs.
Freshwater's father.

Miss Laura Wilson is spending a few days with friends in Calais.

Dr. O'Neil returned from New York on Tuesday.

Mrs. Alexander Russell arrived from Edmunds, Washington Territory, Wednesday to spend the summer with Mr.
James Russell at Bayside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker, of Truro, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Charles Bool, in Boston, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Hanson.

The March meeting of the Women's Canadian Club was held in Paul's hall on Tuesday evening, when the speaker of the evening, Mr. James Vroom, of St. Stephen, gave a most interesting lecture on National Flags. The vote of thanks to Mr. Vroom was moved by Mrs. Street and seconded by Mrs. Babbitt. Miss Laura Wilson then sang very sweetly two solos, Calm as the Night, by Bohn, and Because I Love You Dear.
The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Cockburn, Mrs. F. Stevenson and Miss Main.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McFarlane, of Bayside, have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their eldest daughter, Lois, who passed away on Tuesday, at the age of eleven years. The funeral took place at Sandy Point on Thursday afternoon, Rev. W. S. Ledford officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elkerton (nee Miss May Anning), of Rossland (B. C.), are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, March 1.

Mr. J. T. Ross arrived on Tuesday from Boston, where he has been spending the winter.

Mrs. E. Andrews entertained a few friends at dinner on Saturday last.

Miss Ethel Cummings is visiting Calais friends.

Mrs. Austin Budd returned on Thursday from St. Stephen, where she was spending a few days.

The death took place on March 21 of Mr. Robert Richardson at his home in Waweig at the age of 73. He had been ill only a short time with pneumonia.
He is survived by his wife and two sons, Fred, of Rolling Dam; James, of McAdam; and four daughters, Mrs. A.
Mears, Mrs. Joe Greenlaw, Mrs. Frank Gillman, Mrs. Dan Thomas.

Mr. Ben Hanson left on Saturday for Moncton, where he has secured a position in the I. C. R. service.

CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., March 25—Corporal Fred Alexander, of the 12th Battalion First Overseas Canadian Contingent, who was invalided home, arrived in Halifax last week on the Allan liner Corsican.
The ship floated the Star and Stripes when leaving the Mersey, owing to the close proximity of two German submarines, in the Irish Sea.

Mr. A. Ferguson Fraser, of Cross Point (Que.), is spending a few days in town, the guest of his brother, G. B.
Fraser, King street.

W. S. Loggie, M. P., spent the weekend at his home, Wellington street, returnig from Ottawa on Friday.

Miss Grace P. Huson has returned from a visit with friends in St. Stephen and Calais.

Mrs. Fred McKeen has returned from an extended visit with friends in Bathurst and Newcastle.

The many friends of Bombadier Fred C. Gunn will be glad to hear that he has been appointed artificer to one of the batteries now serving in Northern France.

Paymaster J. D. K. MacNaughton, of the 40th Battalion, arrived home on Saturday from Halifax, to spend a few days at his home here.

Mrs. J. W. Brankley spent the latter part of last week in Windsor (N. S.), visiting her daughters who are students at Edgehill.

Mr. Arthur M. Tweedie, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J.
Tweedie, for the past three weeks, left on Thursday for Amherst to join the Mounted Rifles in training there.

Miss Doris Brankley has returned from Edgehill, Windsor (N. S.), to spend the Easstertide with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brankley, Wellington street.

Mr. G. Stead and little daughter, Elizabeth, have returned home from a short visit with friends in Moncton.

J. L. Stewart, M. P. P., and W. L.
Allain, M. P. P., returned from Fredericton on Friday evening for the week-end.

Newton A. Tyler, of the Miramichi Lumber Company, has been transferred to Gaspe (Que.) Mr. Tyler's many friends, while sorry to lose him, are glad to hear of his promotion.

Paymaster J. D. K. MacNaughton was the recipient of a handsome military watch, the gift of the choir and trustees of St. Andrew's church. The presentation was made in the hall at the close of Sunday evening's service.

Rev. and Mrs. J. R. MacKay, of Middleton (Ont.), are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. D. Henderson, Henderson street.

Among those who entertained in the series of Red Cross teas this week were, Mesdames L. J. Tweedie, B. A. Marven and J. Connors, and Misses Flossie Heck-bert, Lillian Fisher and Dorothy Fraser.

Mr. C. T. Munroe, of Petitcodiac, was in town on Monday.

REXTON

Rexton, N. B., March 25—A largely attended meeting of the Kent County Liberal Association was held here this afternoon, when officers were elected as follows: Honorary president, O. J. Le-Blanc; president, F. S. Peters; vice-president, Juddas Robichaud; secretaries, Clifford Atkinson and Philias Melanson; treasurer, A. T. Leger.

The meeting was very enthusiastic and the attendance was more than twice as large as had been expected, owing to the fact that Liberals from all over the county had gathered. Votes of confidence in the Liberal leaders were passed, followed by the singing of the national anthem.

The date for the convention was left to the executive, which is made up of the officers of the association.

Rexton, N. B., March 26—The death occurred at her home at Little Chock-fish, Saturday, of Mrs. Fabien Babineau at the age of thirty-six years, after a long illness of consumption. She is survived by her husband and several brothers and sisters. She was Miss Josephine Richard, sister of Reuben S. Richard, of this town.

Rexton's dramatic company went to Buctouche Wednesday and presented the drama "A Country Kid." to a large audience in St. Jeon Bapiste hall. The play and specialties were well received.
The company enjoyed the trip very much.

E. J. Hutchinson has sold his residence to George Hudson and purchased a farm near the station from Andrew Dixon, and will erect a dwelling on it.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jardine have returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. J. D. Palmer, in Fredericton.

Captain Gordon Weston has accepted a position in the dredge Prince Ito now at Montreal.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, March 25—Mrs. Frank Ward returned to her home in Harcourt last Saturday, after spending several days in town, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Jardine.

Mr. Gordon Rae and little daughter, of St. John, who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rae, returned home last week.

Mrs. S. W. Crocker returned home last week from a pleasant visit of two months with friends in Toronto and Rock Island (P.Q.)

A pleasant little sewing party was that given by Mrs. John Russell at her home last Friday evening, when the guests included Mrs. J. H. Phinney, Mrs.
Howard Williston, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. A. E. Shaw, Mrs. James Stables, Mrs. Osborne Nicholson, Mrs. Robert Nicholson, Mrs. E. B. Gillespie, Mrs.
Walter Jardine, Mrs. Gilmour Stothart and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Capt. W. H. Belyea, of the 26th Battalion, St. John, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Park returned home last Saturday from a visit to New York and Boston.

Mr. James A. Rundle and daughter, Miss Lillian, spent several days of this past week in St. John with friends, returning home Tuesday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, held their weekly social in the basement of the new Sunday school hall on Tuesday night. About $25 was realized for the Red Cross Society.

A very creditable presentation of the operetta "Sylvia" was given by members of St. Mary's choir, assisted by others, in the Opera House last Wednesday evening. Those taking part performed the roles assigned to them in a most creditable manner. In the specialties, the duet, A Soldier and a Red Cross Nurse, by Miss Carmel, McCarron and Master Hubert Murphy, is worthy of special mention, and again, Miss Doris Buckley's reading of "The test of Nations," was ably executed and won for her fresh laurels. A very large audience was present. Miss Clare Wheeler's playing, added much to the evening's enterainment.
Too much credit cannot be given Miss Quinn the efficient organist of St. Mary's choir, who through her untiring efforts carried things through so successfully.

Mr. J. J. Ander has organized a company of Presbyterian Boy Scouts with about twenty-four members to date.
The patrol leaders are Jack Nicholson, Lawrence Fitzmaurice, and Hudson Sproul.

Last Thursday evening a very interesting and exciting game of hockey was played between the Campbellton Princess Pats, and Newcastle's Fair Sex, which resulted in a victory for the latter, the score being 1 to 0. The Citizens' Band furnished a splendid programme of music, which was greatly appreciated by the many spectators and skaters. After the game was over the visitors were entertained to a supper in the basement of the new St. James' Sunday school hall. The line-up was as follows:

Newcastle.	Campbellton.
	Goal.
Jean Robinson	Miss McKenzie Point.
Mrs. Wm. Ferguson	Miss McLellan
	Cover Point.
Cannie Armstrong	Miss Dickie Rover.
Laura Williston	Gladys Keane Centre.
Hedge Morris	Miss Graham
	Right Wing.
Nan Creaghan	Miss Farrar Left Wing.
Pinkie Ingram	Miss McDonald

On Tuesday evening Master Blanchard and Miss Elva McCurdy entertained about twenty of their young friends at a greatly enjoyed party. It was the intention of the young host and hostess to entertain at a rink party, but there being no ice for skating, the young folk were entertained with games and music at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Curdy. At the close of a most pleasant couple of hours, the merry party repaired to the basement of the new Sunday school hall, where a most delicious lunch was served them, after which they departed to their homes.

Mrs. W. R. Fitzmaurice returned last Saturday from a pleasant visit of several weeks with friends in Amherst.

Mrs. W. H. Belyea left yesterday morning to visit Major Belyea of the 26th Battalion, at St. John.

Miss Bessie Crocker entertained a few young friends at a much enjoyed tea at her home on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Carrie Moss, of Amherst. Included among the guests were Miss Jennie Gremley, Misses Florrie and Bert Ferguson, Miss Louise Manny, Miss Jean Robinson, Miss Laura Williston, Miss Cannie Armstrong, Miss Payne, Miss Moss (Amherst), Miss Bate and others.

Miss Dorothy Wilson, of the Newton hospital staff, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, arrived home last Saturday, to spend a few weeks with her parents, Dr. and Mrs.
W. Wilson, of Millerton.

Newcastle friends are pleased to learn of the recent promotion of Captain W.
H. Belyea to the rank of major.

Mrs. George Mersereau has returned from Montreal, where she was recenving treatment in the hospital there, very much improved in health.

Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, of St. John, is in town today, and will go to Bathurst tomorrow to visit her son, Mr. G.
McIntyre and Mrs. McIntyre.

Miss Elsie O'Leary, of Richibucto, is the guest of Miss Gertrude Buckley this week.

Mr. Gordon Atkinson, who will finish his course in Vermont Medical University in June, came home this morning to spend the Easter vacation with his parents, Station Master and Mrs. Atkinson.

Last Friday evening, Mrs. R. Waldo Crocker entertained to a social at her home on Pleasant street, in aid of the primary department of the Methodist church. A most delightful time was spent by all present, and a goodly sum was realized.

The many friends of Miss Bertie Rae regret to learn that she is not so well this week.

AMHERST

Amherst, March 24—Mrs. G. B. Papineau, of Dorchester, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George E. Gallant.

Miss Agnes White, superintendent of H. V. Hospital, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is able to be out again.

Dr. Arthur Gass, of Tatmagouche, was a week-end guest of Mrs. D. Mac-Gregor.

Mrs. C. D. Dennis left today for Yarmouth, called there by the very serious illness of her father, Mr. William Burrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian T. Cornell are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Rev. Father Danay, chaplain with the 22nd French-Canadian Battalion, at present stationed in Amherst, is the guest of Rev. Father Brown while in town.

Mrs. Keating, of Bangor, wife of Captain Keating, of the Army Service Corps, is with her husband at the Terrace Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sutherland are on a trip to Montreal and Ottawa.

Mrs. Miles, wife of Rev. J. Miles, of Great Village, is the guest of Mrs. T.
N. Campbell.

Miss Dora Moffatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Moffatt, is a patient of Highland View Hospital, having undergone an operation for appendicitis on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murray announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Winnifred J., to Mr. Clarence W. Allen, of Upper Cape (N. B.) The marriage will take place at an early date.

Mrs. Brown, of Wentworth, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ernest Hunter, left yesterday for Kerrobert (Sask.), to remain for some months.

The teachers of West Highlands school held a delightful reception on Friday evening last, about eighty being present.
Mrs. Shipley and Mrs. F. E. Boudreau acting as chaperones. Music, games and an informal dance made a very pleasant evening. Miss Rachael McKim and Mr.
Wetmore were the prive winners for the "Lucky Hunt" game, and Miss Edna Hogan and Principal Morehouse won the prizes in the musical romance. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening's entertainment.

PARRSBORO

Parrsboro, March 25—Miss Alma Hatfield left yesterday for Seattle, where she will visit Mrs. H. S. Coffin.

Mrs. F. A. Rand is spending a few days in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Henderson, returned to Amherst yesterday.

Mr. Aubrey Pugsley has been transferred from the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Springhill to the branch at Middleton.

Miss Miriam K. Smith left on Saturday for Moncton, where she has taken a position on the teaching staff of the Success Business College in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire left on Monday for Port Elgin, where they will remain for the summer.

Mr. Blair Mosher was home from Halifax last week spending a few days with his family.

The sympathy of the community is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. William Puddington in the death of their young son, Albert, aged five years, which occurred on Monday.

Mr. Graham Duff, of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has been transferred to Alberton (P. E. I.)

Mr. H. C. Jenks, who has been in Boston for thep ast few weeks undergoing treatment for his eyes, arrived home on Tuesday much improved.

Mrs. M. C. Foster entertained most enjoyably at afternoon tea on Friday.
She wore a stylish gown of tan crepe de chene with trimmings of velvet and lace and was assisted by Mrs. F. A. Rand, who wore a cream voile gown with lace trimmings. Misses Irene Rand and Geneata Manuge assisted with the refreshments.

Mrs. W. R. Huntley, Mrs. Amberman and Miss Lamb recently entertained at neighborhood teas for the benefit of the Red Cross Society.

Capt. J. L. Corbett has taken command of the schooner Exilda which sailed for Britain a few days ago.

CHIPMAN

Chipman, N. B., March 25—Mrs. W.
A. MacDonald, Moncton, is spending a few days in the village, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Parkhill.

Mrs. Annie McIntyre, who has been in Moncton for several weeks, returned to her home here this week.

Mrs. E. D. King, Minto, spent last week in Chipman, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry King.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wiley left on Tuesday for St. John, where they will remain the week.

Mrs. John Miller and child, of Minto, were guests of Mrs. E. B. Morrison for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Orchard went to St. John on Wednesday, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Orchard's sister, Mrs. George Moore, Douglas avenue, for some time. They were accompanied by Mrs. Terrill, who has been spending the winter here.

Miss Idella Darrah returned on Tuesday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Norman Mungall, Fredericton.

Miss Ida Hay is spending the week at Salmon Creek, the guest of Mrs. T.
Porter.

The ladies of the Red Cross Society here met on Thursday and packed another box for the front. The box contained about sixty pairs of socks, as well as a number of hospital shirts, making the third box sent from here since the society was organized.

Friends here heard with deep regret of the death on Saturday of Dr. A. P.
Webber at his home in New Bedford (Mass.) Dr. Webber and his wife have visited here every summer for a number of years and many friends will extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

PETITCODIAC

Petitcodiac, March 25—Miss Alice Keith, who has spent the last few months in Shediac, guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. J. Webster, returned home last week.

Mrs. Herbert Trites spent Monday in Moncton.

James Smith spent the week in Amherst guest of his brothers.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Taylor (Moncton), accompanied by their guest, Miss Mc-Donald, of Campbellton, were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. S. C. Goggin, recently.

Miss Dollie Jones, who has been the guest of Mrs. McCluskey for a few weeks, returned home Friday.

Miss Lillian Graves returned home from St. John on Tuesday.

Bishop Richardson will conduct the service in St. Andrew's Episcopal church Sunday evening, March 28.

Miss Ethel V. Wheaton is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Goddill, St. Stephen.

Miss McEnerow, Shediac, was the week-end guest of Mrs. Guy A. Parkin.

Mrs. Geo. Jones, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. V. Hatfield, St. John, returned home on Saturday.

William Pollick is spending a short holiday with his family here.

John Hiltz has sold his residence to Robert Scribner.

Mrs. P. Mann was called to Bathurst the first of the week owing to the illness of her daughter, Mrs. O. Hyson.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, March 25—The funeral of Mrs. John Tucker, took place from the late home of the deceased near Chemical Road, yesterday afternoon. By order of the board of health, no public service was held at the house, as there had been a case of diphtheria in the household recently. Rev. H. E. DeWolfe, pastor of the Hopewell Baptist church, conducted an impressive service at the grave in the new cemetery here. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family in their affliction.

Mrs. Susan Robinson had a cancerous growth in her face, which had been bothering her for some time, removed yesterday. Dr. Carnwath officiating.

Joseph Milton, son of Albert Milton, of Demoiselle, who has been ill all winter with rheumatism and hip disease, is in a very serious condition now, being confined to his bed and practically helpless. The doctors performed an operation a few days ago, in the hope of giving relief.

Mrs. Willard Milburn was operated on today for serious internal trouble. Dr.
Carnwath, assisted by Dr. Lewis, of Hillsboro, performed the operation.

The members of Mount Pleasant Lodge, I. O. G. T., held special exercises this evening in honor of Pte. Hugh Wright, a member of the lodge, who has been home on a short furlough. A programme of entertainment was carried out and refreshments were served.

HAVELOCK

Havelock, N. B., March 25—Mr. and Mrs. David McGowan, of New Hampshire, accompanied by a nurse and infant daughters, arrived in Havelock last week and will remain here for some time with Mr. McGowan's mother. Much sympathy is being expressed for Mr. and Mrs. McGowan as they brought with them the body of their oldest daughter, a little girl of seven, and since coming to Havelock the youngest child died. Both children were burried in the Catholic burying ground at White's Mountain.

At a special business meeting of the Havelock Baptist church, held in the vestry, on Wednesday evening, the resignation of the pastor, Rev. W. J. Jenkins, was read. By vote it was decided to accept it, the resignation to take effect the first of October. Mr. Jenkins will probably take a pastorate in Nova Scotia.

The Book Lovers' Club met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. J.
Gervin.

Word has been received here by Havelock relatives of the serious illness of Joseph Keith, of Boston.

Miss Marie Strong, of St. John, was the guest for a few days last week of Mrs. A. J. Gervin.

J. D. Seely, of the Havelock House, has been quite seriously ill for the past week, but is recovering.

The Havelock division on Friday evening visited the Corn Hill division and report a very enjoyable time.

APOHAQUI

Apohaqui, March 26—Col. H. Montgomery-Campbell spent a few days of this week in Fredericton.

Mrs. J. L. McWilliams, Lord's Mills, Kent county, is here with her parents, being hurriedly called by the illness of her father, Isaac B. Humphrey.

Mrs. Chas. Keith, who has been visiting in Havelock for a few weeks, has arrived in Apohaqui to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. G. I. Veysey.

Whitfield McLeod, who has been suffering from an attack of pleurisy, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Harry Thompson, St. John, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Jas.
Strong. Miss Mabel Strong returned home from St. John with her sister, where she had spent two weeks.

Miss Annie Armstrong, who teaches at Waterford, was home last week to attend the Wiedrick-Snyder wedding.

Mrs. Percy L. Folkins has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. H. Scribner.

The funeral of Miss Susan Lisson took place at the Church of Ascension on Tuesday afternoon, the Very Rev.
Dean Neales officiating.

GAGETOWN

Gagetown, N. B., March 28—Miss Louise Scovil, who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. William Smith, returned to Queenstown on Friday.

The first meeting for the year of the Gagetown Tennis Club took place on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Reid and was well attended. Committees were appointed for carying out arrangements for the coming season.

Owing to having previously shown that Edward Sacobie came to his death by drowning, the hearing of the case of Frank Nash the Indian for a time suspected of being his murderer, was very brief. The trial was held at the Queen's county Court House here on Tuesday morning. Peter Hughes, of Fredericton, appeared for Frank Nash, and a verdict of not guilty was soon pronounced. It was shown that Nash has been an unusually industrious and trustworthy Indian, although somewhat quick tempered.

Miss Louis Rubins, who has been spending the past two weeks in St.
John and Rothesay, returned home on Tuesday morning.

Rev. and Mrs. William Smith were visitors in Fredericton on Tuesday.

Miss Ada Dingee spent Tuesday in Upper Gagetown, the guest of Mrs.
Weston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Reid spent Tuesday in Fredericton.

R. B. Smith of Oromocto and H. G.
Clowes, of Maugerville were here for Tuesday.

Miss E. Pearl Babbitt, of Montreal, who will go overseas with the McGill Hospital, arrived here on Tuesday afternoon and will spend about two weeks with her mother, Mrs. R. T. Babbitt.

Miss Winfield Dunn, of the Victoria Hospital, Fredericton, was home on Tuesday for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dunn.

Mrs. Richard McCready, who has been with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Law for a few weeks has gone to Oromocto where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Davis.

Miss Bessie Edwards, after a month's visit with friends in Fredericton returned home on Tuesday afternoon.

Frank D. Dunn, who has been spending a three weeks vacation with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dunn, returned to his duties in The Bank of Nova Scotia, Fredericton, on Tuesday.

Miss Molly Otty was a visitor to Fredericton on Tuesday.

Gagetown, N. B., March 26—A very enjoyable social was held in the Methodist parsonage on Thursday evening and was largely attended. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and amusements, Rev. H. Harrison and Miss Harrison assisting to make everyone enjoy themselves. A short and informal programme of music and readings added to the pleasure of the evening. Tipperary and other patriotic songs were sung. Mr.
Harrison accompanied the singers, and a piano duet was given by Miss Mary Harrison and Master Ernest Harrison.
Patriotic recitations were rendered by Miss Nettie Allingham and Miss Lillian Macdonald. Delicious refreshments were served by a committee of ladies and gentlemen and a collection was taken up for the expenses of the church, the sum of $22.65 being realized.

Red Cross workers are active and are planning to send off another consignment of work early next week. The members have been asked to have all finished pieces in by Monday evening.
Gagetown workers have done a great deal of knitting and sewing for the Red Cross and send their work direct to Halifax for shipment. The next meeting and tea takes place on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John R.
Dunn.

George Allingham is able to be out again after the painful injury to his foot received over two weeks ago.

Reid Bros. are this week taking to Upper Hampstead the machinery and lumber for their new mill, which will be erected on the site of this winter's lumbering operations. The machinery for the mill, which will be thoroughly up-to-date, arrived on Tuesday by the Valley road.

The W. A. of St. John's church met for quilting on Wednesday afternoon in the Guild hall. Mrs. T. Sherman Peters presided at the meeting.

NORTH HEAD

North Head, G. M., March 24—Cleveland Richardson arrived home last week, after an absence of two years in the west. After the war broke out Mr.
Richardson joined the Army Medical Corps at Calgary, but owing to physical weakness, he was obliged to leave. He formerly owned and operated a drug store in Medicine Hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ainley Flagg, of Cas-talia, are being congratulated on the arrival of a baby son.

The ladies of the United Baptist church, of Castalia, served refreshments at the residence of L. C. Graham, on Saturday of last week. The proceeds were for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. Eben Gaskill, of North Head, left for St. John this week to consult a specialist and undergo an operation for ear trouble.

J. L. Guptill and Manfred Young left last week for Port Elgin, where they have fishing interests.

Mrs. Paren Frankland, of Los Angeles (Cal.), is visiting friends on Grand Manan. Mrs. Frankland was a former resident here.

The Masonic lodge held their annual banquet at Woodward's Cove, Tuesday evening. The Grand Harbor Brass Band was in attendance. About 100 people were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Chelsea Richardson, who has been suffering from a severe attack of la grippe and tonsilitis, is much improved.

Miss Vashti Babcock, who has been suffering from facial paralysis, is now improving.

HARVEY STATION

Harvey Station, March 25—William McCulloch, of Manner Sutton, who has been very ill for some weeks, is somewhat improved, and hopes of his recovery are entertained. His daughters, Mrs. Brewer, of Haynesville; Mrs. A.
Gray and Miss Daisy McCulloch, of Waltham (Mass.), came this week to visit him.

Edward James, of Tweedside, and his son-in-law, H. T. Wentworth, have purchased the Scott farm at Poklok Settlement, in the parish of Prince William, and intend going there to reside in a short time.

Squire S. A. Robinson, who has been in New Haven (Conn.), most of the winter, assisting his brother in business there, returned home on Monday evening.

There are thousands of barrels of potatoes in the cellars in this section with very little prospect of a market for them, but the farmers are preparing for another crop. Two cars of fertilizer have been unloaded and more has been ordered.

PORT ELGIN

Port Elgin, March 23—Mrs. Harry Redmond (nee Miss Mayme Spence) arrived home on Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Spence.

John Horseman, who has been engaged by J. & C. Hickman as millwright for the coming season, arrived in town on Tuesday with his family.

Miss Ethel Fitzpatrick returned home on Monday from Moncton, where she spent a few days the guest of her brother, Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick.

Miss Mary Mitton entertained at a musicale on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 in honor of her friend, Miss Grace Farquhar, of Mount Allison, who spent the week-end with her. A delightful time was enjoyed by all, Miss Farquhar