put his hand out of the window and fired some three shots. When I first saw Campbell outside he had his right hand on his left breast, and was going toward the back yard. I said, "I fear you have shot Campbell," and Sinclair said "Oh! my God, I guess not." He left the bar-room shortly after this. The stick of wood here produced in court I think I saw in in the bar-room before the row began.

The Queen to be Petitioned—1500 Settlers for Ontario.

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.

The Toronto Globe intimates that should the House not meet at the time intimated by Lord Dufferin the Queen will be petitioned. This explains the policy of the Opposition in attempting to delay the proceedings of the Commission by keeping witnesses away so that the investigation cannot be completed within the period expected by Lord Dufferin when he prorogued the House.

Great efforts are being made here to start a Reform paper. The last one started lived three months.

Fifteen hundred emigrants arrived in Ontario last month. They all settle here.

LONDON, Sept. 1.

GLADSTONE'S POLICY.

The Globe says that the Ministry is determined to submit a statement of a Budget to Parliament early next session on the basis of the abolition of the Income tax, on which, if the House refuses to sustain them, they will appeal to the country.

SPANIARDS TO ATTACK THE BRITISH FLEET.

There is little doubt that the Spanish Insurgents will attack the British fleet if they attempt to remove the Spanish vessels without coming to some understanding on the subject.

The circulation of he DAILY TRIBUNE is rapidly increasing.

The Circus and Menagerie in the Streets.

The procession through the principal streets to-day of the Circus Company, Iroquois Indians and Menagerie drew almost the entire population to the sidewalks and windows. The show was a fine one. The band, the horses, the painted Indians, the pictures on the wheeled cages, the animals looking out of their sleeping cars, and the elephant, constituted a long and attractive procession. This grand show exhibits at the Ballast Wharf to-day, Wednesday, and Thursday. Everybody and his wife and children should visit it.

A sure remedy for Chills and Fever. AYER'S AGUE CURE never fails.

Safety of Mr. Hurd Peters.

A gentleman who came in from Rothesay this morning reported that Mr. Hurd Peters, who has been missing for the past few days, was ill at a house out there. Dr. Berryman at once went out to look after him.

A Visit to the Circus Grounds.

Representatives of the newspapers visited the Ballast Wharf, at noon, by invitation of Mr. Toole, and inspected the many strange animals, chatted with the pretty Circassian girl, saw the wild man and woman eating their dinner, listened to the grunting of the card-playing pig, and saw the arrangements of the 180 men and 200 horses who live under canvas. It is the greatest show that has ever visited St. John.

IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING TO SELL advertise in THE DAILY TRIBUNE and secure the benefit of its large circulation.

Disappeared.

Robert Kedey, of Anderson & Kedey, has mysteriously disappeared, and is not expected to turn up again. No fears are felt for his safety.

The Barrack Square.

This square has been closed against the base-ball, cricket and lacrosse clubs of the city by Major Evans, who has charge of the place. His reason is that there were some bass ball players who broke windows and destroyed property. The cricket club, we understand, have permission from Ottawa, so they can hardly be shut out.

NOTICE TO SMOKERS.—We would direct attention to the fine assortment of beautiful Meerschaum Pipes now on exhibition at F. B. Marter's drug store, 81 King street. Some of them are the finest we have ever seen imported for sale in this city.

City Police Court.

Henry Lee was the only drunk this morning. He was arrested in the Country Market and fined $4.

Mary Ann Hemmans went to the Station for protection. She is known as a common vagrant, and was cautioned by the Magistrate and allowed to depart.

Roland Huggins, charged with obtaining money under false pretences. He called yesterday at Mr. D. J. Seeley's office and introduced himself as the Captain of a vessel in the harbor and borrowed $50. Afterwards Mr. Seeley found out he was an imposter and had him arrested. He will be tried this afternoon.

Portland Police Court.

Three simple drunks were all Judge Tapley had to look after this morning—Charles Lester, John Herrigan and Geo. Hamilton—who were each fined $4.
