The Colonist.

FRIDAY, MAY 3RD, 1889.

From THE DAILY COLONIST, April 27.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

The Vancouver Scandal.

At Vancouver yesterday, the preliminary hearing of the charge against Dr. Langis and Sullivan was brought to a close, and the accused were committed for trial. They were at once taken to Westminster, where Mr. Justice McCreight will consider the question of bail.

I. O. O. F.

Western Star Lodge No. 10 I. O. O. F. will be instituted at Vancouver by Grand Master Meldrum and the grand officers on the evening of May 3rd. This will be an important event in the history of Oddfellowship, as it will entitle the Grand Lodge hereafter to representation in the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

No Leak.

An unfortunate mistake was made in yesterday's COLONIST in which it was stated that the steamer Falcon was again placed on the ways because a leak had been discovered in her bottom. There was no leak, as the Falcon is today as she always has been, one of the staunchest and tightest crafts of her size plying in the waters of the Pacific.

Queen Charlotte Island Coal.

A San Francisco despatch says: The State mining bureau has received from Edgar Fawcett fine specimens of anthracite coal from the Cowgitz mine on Queen Charlotte Islands, B.C. The samples are from a cargo of 75 tons, and experts pronounce it as good as Pennsylvania coal. Two ammonite fossils, taken from the same place, accompany it for analysis.

A Wise Judge.

"Around Town" in the Nanaimo Courier says: "A colored case in the police court yesterday amused me somewhat. Judge Planta is wise and thoroughly magisterial. He is full of wise saws and modern instances, and he is not a lover of law, but of peace, and many a good sermon falls unconsciously from his lips. His honeyed eloquence did not settle the dark case, yesterday, however, and it will again occupy the attention of the worthy judge."

The Sealer Penelope.

The sealing schooner Penelope, Capt. A. C. Folger, arrived in yesterday afternoon, with 384 skins on board. She had encountered nothing but bad weather during the last month, and had not lowered a boat for over three weeks. About four days ago the schooner Winifred was spoken, just out from Victoria with no seals yet. The Penelope will leave as soon as she has discharged her skins and taken on provisions for the northern sea.

Steamer Sale.

The North Pacific Canning company yesterday completed the purchase of the new steam yacht which has been under construction at the Rice Mills during the past few weeks. The new steamer will be as fast and as handsome a any on the coast, and the company are to be congratulated on their selection of a boat. It is understood that the price paid for the new boat, which will be launched in a few days, was in the neighborhood of $6,000.

Semi-Centennial of Oddfellowship.

The local lodges and encampment, I. O. O. F., celebrated the semi-centennial of the birth of oddfellowship by holding a grand banquet at the Clarence last evening; about thirty-five sitting down to the well-filled tables, and after they had been cleared, spending several hours in toast, song and sentiment. It was on the night of April 26th, 1839, that John Wilde and his associates met in a little back room in Baltimore, and laid the foundation stone of the great and noble order, whose members are now found in every quarter of the inhabited globe.

The Need of a Reformatory.

The two little Caffire boys, who were arrested yesterday on a charge of shoplifting, are, though young in years, old offenders. It is not long since they were taken in charge for stealing a silver watch from the steamer Hope. On this occasion the stolen property was found secreted in the bed in which their mother was lying sick. The police have nothing good to say for the two young reprobates, and it is unfortunate that the projected reformatory is not yet erected and ready to receive them. If they could be separated from evil associations for a year or so the probability is that a reformation might be brought about.

Vandals at Work.

The disgraceful and lawless conduct of several young vandals, who gather at the Royal Jubilee Hospital almost every evening after the workmen have left, has at last reached a stage when it can be no longer tolerated. On several occasions the work has been interfered with, and the most filthy tricks have been played on the workmen. On Thursday night, however, the rascals over-stepped the bounds and made a determined attempt to remove the cap from the corner stone laid a few days ago by Mrs. Nelson. The cement held firm, however, and the stone was thrown from the foundations. A hint has been given as to the identity of the scoundrels, who it is to be hoped, will soon be brought to book.

Youthful Shoplifters.

Sergeant Walker, of the city police, yesterday arrested two little boys named Daniel and Charlie Caffire, who live with their father near the Rock Bay bridge, on a charge of shoplifting. The boys acknowledged the offence, the younger attempting to shift the responsibility upon his brother. The circumstances of the case are that the boys, who are 13 and 10 years old respectively, went into Frank's general fancy store on Johnson street on "Thursday" afternoon, and asked to see silk handkerchiefs. They were shown the stock, and while the elder was looking over the handkerchiefs, the younger asked to be shown cigarette holders. Mr. Frank went to get the latter, and while his back was turned, the boys helped themselves to several silk handkerchiefs and a silver watch. The goods were not missed until after the boys had left the store, a few hours later the youngsters attempted to dispose of the goods in a saloon, and were arrested. They will appear for trial in the police court this morning.

A Source of Disease.

On South Pandora street, in the low lying land beyond the Royal hospital, a drain leads from that institution, carrying all the sewerage to this point. A drain is supposed to flow through Spring Ridge, the hospital property, and through a portion of De Cosmos' property to Johnson street, and along Cook to the sea. But since the spring rains this drain has been stopped up, and there is no flow. As a consequence the sewage from the hospital and stagnant water has formed a pond of filth in the centre of the street, and noisome and disease breeding odors arise therefrom. On the one side is the hospital, on the other the central school. It depends upon the direction of the wind as to which institution receives the full benefit of the noisome odors. The deposit is offensive enough as it is, but so soon as the warm weather sets in, it will be a veritable hotbed of disease. It is trusted that the sanitary authorities will at once take steps to have the nuisance removed. A drain is now being excavated on Johnson street above Cook, and connection should be made with the low land mentioned above so that there will be a constant flow of the surface water and sewage.

The Nanaimo License Case.

Mr. Justice Crease yesterday issued a mandamus directing the licensing board of the city of Nanaimo to issue a license to D. Morrell of the Palace Hotel. The Board, it will be remembered, recently refused to issue the license and Mr. Morrell appealed from their decision.

At Cedar Hill.

A musical and theatrical entertainment was given at Cedar Hill last evening, under the auspices of St. Luke's Guild, the attendance being good and the programme as presented, very enjoyable. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the Churchwardens' fund.

C. P. R. R. Extension to Seattle.

The Seattle Times says: It is positively certain that the branch of the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern to connect with the Canadian Pacific will be completed this year. The Canadian Pacific company is now calling for tenders for grading the extension on the Mission branch from the Fraser river to the international boundary, where the western extension of the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern is to meet it. The work of the Canadian Pacific will be finished by the end of summer, and the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern will be completed to the junction.

A find of coal is reported at Gordon Head district. A resident appropriately named Wood has discovered coal while sinking a shaft for water. This was well done. Further developments of coal are anxiously hoped for.

The Steward of the Royal Hospital acknowledges with thanks the receipt of a parcel of clothes from Mr. Robert Ward, a parcel of clothes from Mrs. Charles, and books from Mr. McGregor.

O'Connor says that Hanlan is expected on the next steamer, and if he then arrives will come to Tacoma to take part in the regatta.

THE JACKSON-CARDIFF FIGHT

For a Purse of $3,000 Won by Peter Jackson, of Australia, in Ten Rounds—A Brutal Exhibition of the Manly Art.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—Peter Jackson, champion heavy weight of Australia, defeated Patsy Cardiff, champion of Minnesota, in a contest for a purse of $3,000, at the California Athletic Club to-night. Jackson was the first to appear in the ring at 9:10, and was followed by Cardiff a moment later. John Donaldson and Tommy Warren were Cardiff's seconds, and Sam Fitzpatrick and Jack Hyams were Jackson's. Hiram Cook, the referee of all the big events of the past year, acted in the same capacity to-night. Both men appeared in prime condition and calmly awaited the moment for action. Time was called at 9:20.

First round—Both stepped with alacrity to the centre of the ring, and after a few seconds of feinting on the part of Jackson, he landed on Cardiff's stomach with his left. Then followed some heavy leading by Jackson. This was succeeded by several clinches, Cardiff pushing Jackson to the ropes. On being freed Jackson went at Cardiff fiercely, and it was give and take at the call of time.

Second round—Jackson again led, but fell short. Cardiff returned with a left blow on the Australian's ribs, and a second after with a warmer on Jackson's neck. Cardiff continued his leading, and generally landing. Wild fighting followed, Jackson punching Cardiff's stomach. Both led at the same time, Cardiff's right landing heavily on his opponent's neck.

Third round—Jackson again led. The blow reached Patsy's breast, after which they clinched. On breaking Jackson gave Cardiff a terrible smash under the chin, and got one on his bellows in return. Another clinch, both pounding the other's stomach. At the break Cardiff looked tired.

Fourth round—Jackson's left came out, but was neatly stopped. He followed it up by a jab on Cardiff's ribs. The battle now waged hot, Jackson rushing the Minnesotan and punching him alternately on the stomach and on the head. Cardiff endeavored to return the hard compliments, but they were of slight effect.

Fifth round—The Australian again opened the round with two quick but weak left hander's. Both men gave evidence of distress. Patsy did work, however, first punishing Peter on the right cheek and then on the left, but he suffered the most, Jackson's blows being of a jabbing nature. It was, however, any man's fight at the end of the round.

Sixth round—Things were immediately made lively, the fighting being at close range and hot. Neither man was afraid. Cardiff slipped, and on rising went for Jackson's wind, reached it effectually.

Seventh round—Fighting was light in this round, the men endeavoring to regain their lost wind.

Eighth round—Jackson started in to rush things, and landed so effectively that Cardiff became slightly bewildered. A terrific right-hander on the neck sent Patsy to the floor. Immediately rising, he led out with his left, got there, and then hugged Jackson to the ropes. Jackson forced him off, and observing his advantage went into finish the Minnesotan. Just at the call of time Cardiff was staggering.

Ninth round—Both men came to the scratch distressed, Jackson too weak to knock out his opponent, but he struck at him all the same and got him to the ropes. Cardiff was dazed. His hands fell to his side and he was entirely open. Jackson pummelled him as he fell, but his great strength had left him, and he couldn't down the Minnesotan. Cardiff was now a truly conquered man.

Tenth round—Cardiff came up as if he was going to a funeral. Jackson, on the contrary, stepped to the centre like the conquering hero he was soon to be. Out came his left. The Minnesotan felt it on his chin. He reeled like a drunken man to the ropes, refusing to put up his props, and manifesting a desire to quit. His heart failed him. "Fight, you coward, fight!" shouted his backer, Donaldson; but there was no more fight in the Minnesota champion. Jackson banged the defenseless easterner once, twice thrice on the head, and there fell to the floor all in a heap, defeated the man on whose hard head Sullivan broke his arm.

Plimsoll's Work.

In a recent speech at the sixty-fifth anniversary of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution, Mr. Chamberlain quoted some remarkable statistics to show the beneficent effects that have followed the legislative efforts of Mr. Plimsoll and others to prevent coffin ships from being sent to sea. During the last eleven years nearly 20,000 persons, or an average of over 2,700 a year, have lost their lives in British and Colonial trading and fishing vessels. In the last year for which there are returns, 1886-87, the number had fallen to 2,071. In 1881 no less than 1,414 lives were lost in missing vessels—that is, in vessels which foundered at sea. In 1886 the number thus lost was only 356. Though it might be claiming too much to attribute the whole difference to the humanitarian legislation referred to, no one can doubt that the reduction of mortality at sea is largely due to that cause, and that the number of unworthy vessels flying the British flag has been greatly reduced. The blessing of many that were ready to perish rests upon the head of Mr. Plimsoll.

Quick Time—48 Hours.

"I always use Haggard's Pectoral Balsam for colds and it cannot be beaten. It has always cured me within 48 hours while the other medicine will do, and I always keep a bottle by me." These words from Chester Miller, Lisbury, Ont., prove the efficacy of a popular preparation. sun-w-f

From THE DAILY COLONIST, April 28.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

Accident to the Amelia.

The steamer Amelia, after leaving Nanaimo yesterday morning, broke her cross-head, and was thus rendered helpless. She was taken in tow to Chemainus by the steamer Isabel, and last evening the Rainbow was sent up from Victoria to bring her down for the necessary repairs.

Fell Fifty Feet.

Augustus Polschieder, a young carpenter employed on a new building in course of erection at Regent Park, fell to the ground yesterday afternoon, a distance of about fifty feet. He was stunned by the fall, but strange to say no bones were broken. A hack was summoned and the young man was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where all that can be is being done for him.

From the North.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz arrived at her city dock at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, from the north. She brought in all seventeen whites, and several Indian passengers, and a small cargo of skins, principally for the H. B. Co. She also had on board as passengers several of the crew of the steamer Sardonyx, now on the rocks at Aberdeen.

Beats Its Own Record.

On Friday the Moodyville Sawmill beat its record, cutting no less than 140,000 feet of lumber in eleven hours. At this rate, this mill could load a very large number of vessels in a limited time. The Moodyville Sawmill Company has made a name for itself both for the rapidity of its work and for the excellence of the lumber it turns out, and is bound to hold a high place in the province.—World.

Drop a Nickel in the Slot.

The first automatic beggar of the drop-a-nickel-in-the-slot description ever seen in Victoria is now raking in the coin at Frank Campbell's corner. In return for the nickel it gives electric shocks. It probably is only the advance agent, and before long we will see the signs, "Drop a nickel in the slot" and get your morning newspaper—or have your hair cut—or get your fortune told—or have the hand organ play "Sweet Violets."

Salmon Packing Commences.

The Bon Accord Packing company, of which Mr. D. J. Munn is the manager, has the honor of packing the first salmon of 1889. The first boiling was made on Saturday last, when a couple of dozen cases were packed. Since then a number of cases have been packed every day and the total pack now amounts to close on 150 cases. Only a few boats have been employed so far, but if the run shows any signs of increasing, an additional number will be pressed into service.

Funeral of Adam Innes.

The funeral of the late Adam Innes took place at Westminster on Friday afternoon shortly after the arrival of the steamer Rithet from Victoria. The pall-bearers were Messrs. T. F. Bonson, J. Bryan, Geo. Black, A. Rankin, D. McGregor and James Stephens. Rev. Mr. Scouler officiated. The members of the Caledonian and St. Andrew's Society were present in full regalia, and, with a large number of citizens in carriages and on foot, followed the remains to the Masonic cemetery, where they were consigned to mother earth.

City Police Court.

In this court yesterday, Hon. A. N. Richards, P. M., presiding, Donald Innes, charged with stealing, was discharged, there being no evidence against him. W. G. Sum, found guilty of selling liquor in his restaurant, not having provided himself with a license, was fined $35 and costs, amounting in all to $41. Ah Book, charged with an infraction of the street bylaw, was fined $5, and Wm. McKenzie, summoned for violating the hired vehicles bylaw, not putting in an appearance, a warrant was issued for his arrest.

Laughing at Law.

The two little shoplifters, Davie and Charlie Caffire, who were arrested on Thursday by Sergeant Walker, were not brought up for trial yesterday. In fact a trial was not necessary, as neither attempted to make any denial of the offence with which they are charged. Owing to their extreme youth it is altogether probable that, although they are juvenile professional thieves, the boys will be allowed to go unpunished, as there is as yet no suitable place of imprisonment provided for criminals of their tender years. On Monday morning they will be brought before His Honor, who in the meantime intends to look about for some means by which adequate punishment for their crime may be inflicted.

In Great Luck.

The sealing schooner Sapphire, Messrs. E. B. Marvin & Co. owners, Capt. Wm. Cox, master, came in at about ten o'clock yesterday morning, having on board 740 seal skins, the best catch of the season. The Sapphire went out on January 2nd, and sent her boats out for the first time on the first of February. She met with the usual run of bad weather, and was only able to lower her boats twice during the present month. Her armament this year consisted of 6 shot Winchester rifles, which were found to be far more effective and convenient in hunting than the shot guns generally used. Nothing had been spoken during the past few weeks. As soon as possible the Sapphire will discharge her load of skins and sail for the north.

Chinese Troubles Anticipated.

The Chinese merchants of this city, who have branch stores in Vancouver, have received private information to the effect that serious Chinese troubles are likely to arise in Vancouver about the 1st of May, when it is said the Mongolians will be forced to quit that city. The merchants are, in consequence, greatly alarmed, and are making preparations to remove their goods to Westminster, should the troubles assume a threatening aspect. They are closing accounts with Vancouver purchasers, and will send no more goods there until the time for the expected move has passed. A series of anti-Chinese meetings have been held in Vancouver during the last few weeks, and it is said that a general lockout of Chinese laborers will be enforced on the first day of May.—Columbian.

Resolution of Condolence.

A committee of the B. C. Fire Insurance Company presented the following resolution of condolence to the family of the late Hon. R. Dunsmuir yesterday morning:

"We, the undersigned, have been appointed by the Board of Directors of the British Columbia Fire Insurance Company, to present to you and family the following resolution of condolence passed at our last meeting, held on the 25th day of April, 1889:

Resolved. We, the Directors of the British Columbia Fire Insurance Company, take this means of extending to Mrs. Dunsmuir and family our deepest sympathy at the death of the Hon. Robert Dunsmuir, and we wish to place on record our high estimation of our late co-director, as a man of sterling worth and ability, whose death is also a loss to many of our most prominent local enterprises. In conclusion, we extend to you our kind wishes and heartfelt sorrow at the sudden bereavement which you are called upon to suffer.

Obituary.

Mr. James McKinley, a well known and respected resident of Lake La Hache, died in this city yesterday, aged 42 years, the cause of death being acute pneumonia. The relatives of the deceased were notified by telegraph of the sad occurrence, and an answer is awaited as to whether the remains will be interred here or forwarded to Lake La Hache for burial.

The Washington Centennial.

The President of the United States has appointed Tuesday, the 30th, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, as a time for prayer and thanksgiving. These services are in commemoration of the fact that 100 years ago George Washington took the oath of office as President of the new Republic. There will be a meeting of the American citizens and their friends at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association on that morning.

Wonderful Carpets.

The wonderful carpets of the East, famed in song and story, are to the great majority of Americans unknown quantities. Victorians have never had an opportunity of seeing them or knowing what they are like, until a few days ago, when Mr. D. Spencer, proprietor of the Arcade, imported a choice consignment, the first ever brought into British Columbia. In the lot are a number of Decan rugs, curiously made by hand of brilliantly dyed camel's hair, and soft as plush. They were manufactured by the Arabs, and for beauty are unsurpassed. Mr. Spencer is also showing a number of handsome French rugs, as well as rare Bicova, Houlah, Turkestan, Benares and Decan goods, all objects of curiosity as well as of elegance and beauty.

Scalded to Death.

A sad accident befell Clara, the 18-month old child of Mrs. Goodyear, at Seattle, a few days ago. The infant was asleep in its cradle, when Mrs. Goodyear left the breakfast room for a few moments. During her absence the little four-year-old girl picked up a pot of hot coffee, and finding the handle exceedingly warm for her delicate fingers, quickly dropped it. It fell in the cradle on the sleeping infant. The pot toppled over, and its contents ran over little Clara. The child's screams brought Mrs. Goodyear to the room, and hurriedly looking into the cradle, a terrible sight met her gaze. Little Clara was literally scalded with the burning coffee, and her piteous, though scarcely audible cries, caused the mother's heart to sink within her. Recovering herself she raised the baby from the cradle and tenderly laid her on a bed in the adjoining room. A doctor was immediately sent for, but after twenty-four hours of intense suffering, the scalded infant breathed her last. Mrs. Goodyear is almost heartbroken over the terrible death of her baby, and fears are entertained that her illness will take a serious turn.

REPAIRS AND IMPROVEMENTS

Contemplated or in Progress, at the Provincial Departmental Buildings.

Extensive repairs and improvements are now being made at the various departmental offices of the provincial government, over James Bay. All the offices are to be overhauled, and refreshed and made more attractive with fresh paper and paint. The Education office, which in the past has been found much too small for comfort, has been made more comfortable by the addition of the room formerly used as a provincial museum, and which will now be used as a public or general office. It is about twenty feet in length by sixteen in width, and will fill the bill admirably. Connected with it are the two smaller rooms which formerly comprised the Education offices, and which now will be termed the private office and store-room. The old Supreme Court room with the offices on the west side, and the judges' chambers in the rear, has been entirely remodelled, and will hereafter be known as the Provincial Museum. Here can be shown to good advantage, the splendid collection of mineralogy and curiosities of the sea, air and land, which the province may well boast of. The walls have been newly plastered and tinted, and the exhibits will shortly be placed in the most advantageous position to be seen and admired. The five offices on the east side of the new Museum Building, have been fitted up for the use of the attorney-general and his deputies, as the old quarters in the Legislative Building have long been acknowledged to be entirely too small for comfort. The improvements to the other departmental offices, which are being made none too soon, will be completed without delay. The exterior of the Legislative and Departmental buildings will also undergo a series of changes, which will vastly improve their present appearance.

Second race—Half-mile dash between Langston's Cowboy, of Seattle, Whitney's Tiger Tail from Yakima, and Sleepy Dick from Victoria. Entrance $100 each and one-half the gate money. Winning horse takes the whole.

CRICKET YESTERDAY.

Yesterday a match between teams chosen from Her Majesty's fleet, and the Victoria cricket club took place. The naval men were considerably handicapped, not having had much practice for some time. Play commenced about 11:30 a. m., and continued, with an interval of one hour for lunch, until 6 p. m. The Victoria club went to the wickets first, and only put together 76 runs, contributed principally by Clinton, 15; Drake 12; Martin, 14; and Hammond, 12. The bowling of the fleet was of a very good character, Kethrow being especially noticeable. The fleet had great difficulty in playing Clinton's slows, and were got rid of for the small total of 32 runs, Hicks being the only double figure, (10.) In their second innings the Victoria club collared the bowling and ran up the handsome total of 161; Ransome being best with a total of 46. The navy men, however, failed to improve in their second trial, and with one-half an hour to play, getting only fourteen runs for seven wickets. We trust to see another match with the same teams, and hope the difference will not be so great.

Through the courtesy of the officers of the battery, their fine band discoursed excellent music in the afternoon. A large turn out of spectators were drawn to the hill by the several attractions. Annexed is the detailed scores:

MAYFLOWERS V. JAMES BAY.

About 1,000 people witnessed the second game of the Victoria league yesterday afternoon, when the hitherto invincible James Bays were vanquished by the Mayflowers. The game was spirited throughout, good batting being the principal feature. The James Bays ascribe their defeat to the fact that Harman, their regular catcher, was unable to play, and it was impossible to get another to hold Jackson. Askew distinguished himself during the game by his catch and brilliant play and Partridge by exceptionally good hitting, he making the only home run scored during the game. Gowen and Widdowson were also made noticeable by their good work with the bat; while the decisions given by Umpire Edwards were straight "by the book." The following is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	T.
Mayflowers	1	2	3	2	0	2	0	2	1	12
James Bay	1	0	2	1	0	0	1	3	2	10

SUMMARY.

Home run, Partridge; 3 b. hits, Gowen; 2 b. hits, T. Baker, Askew, Gowen, Whitehead and Sullivan; double plays, Askew, Partridge, Deasy, Franklyn and Widdowson; struck out by Jackson, 5, by Askew, 3; one on balls, Mayflowers, 4; James Bay 8.

Time of game, 2:08.

HERE AND THERE.

Watson, of Victoria, and McIntyre, of San Francisco, are matched for a one-mile foot race, to be run in San Francisco this afternoon.

There is talk of a baseball match between Seattle and Victoria printers, to be played in this city on May 24th.

On the street last evening some of the James Bay ball players were heard singing "the flowers that bloom in the spring, tra la."

The endorsement of German Syrup is unparalleled. We will publish 1,000 testimonials received during the last six months. Read them. May save your life.

BURLINGHAM, N. Y., May 31, '88.

G. G. GREEN, Sir:—I was badly troubled with severe colds, and the only remedy that will relieve me of them is your Boschee's German Syrup. I have used it for more than twelve years. It is a constant household companion with me. Our merchant here procured it first at my request, and says he has sold a great many bottles. It is a very popular remedy in this section. Every person who has used it speaks in the highest terms of its merits. I do not know of a single case it has not cured. I first used it in Vermont, where I lived before coming here. I advise everyone to use it, as it is certainly the best cough medicine I have ever known. I have tried nearly all of them at different times.

Yours respectfully, MOSES GRAY,
Proprietor Gr
