A SPINSTER'S OBJECTION.

"Lady, I'll paint your portrait to the life :
But sit to me, and you shall be contented."
"No, sir, I shortly am to be a wife,
And should not like to be mis-represented.

PASTURES FOR SWINE.—A lot well seeded with clover is an elysian field for swine, and will fit them for the butcher much quicker than you could qualify a dull boy for college. Besides, if the ugly but useful creatures are accommodated with a puddle and a clover patch, together with the fee simple of a snug and dry dormitory, in which they may enjoy their nap after dinner, like other epicures, they will be as quiet as lambs and as fat as aldermen, and will need but little more waiting on than if they were already in the pork barrel, well saturated with rock salt of prime quality. But you must not allow them all these privileges, without depriving them of the natural right of rooting, otherwise they will be as much out of place in a pasture as a pig in a parlour, or a bad man in office. A few sweet apple trees in a pig pasture, will add utility to ornament, and prove auxiliary to other means of bringing forward its animal product.—Genesee Farmer.

A fair fashionable, lately united to one of the most dashing dandies of the day, having cause to complain of neglectful behaviour, the bridegroom replied, "Have patience, my dear, I am like the prodigal son, and will reform by-and-by." And I, sir, replied the spirited bride, "will also be like the prodigal son" "In what manner, madam?" "I will arise and go unto my father." She left the house the same morning.

Laughable Mistake.—In a neighbouring town some few weeks past, a man who had been paying his devotions to the bar of a tavern, left in company with several others for his home; arriving in front of a horse shed, which in his heated imagination, he took for his house; he went in, undressed himself and went to bed in the manger as comfortable as rum could make him. A person passing in the morning, heard him grumble forth, "My dear, do get up and make some fire, for I'm almost froze."—Temp. Adv.

FIRE INSURANCE.

E. DEW. RATCHFORD, AGENT for the ÆTNA INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Connecticut, continues to issue policies, and renewal receipts, for Insurance on Houses, Barns, Stores, Mills, and other buildings, vessels in port, or on the stocks, Household Furniture, Farmers' Stock and Utensils, Merchandize, Machinery, and every other description of property, against Loss or damage by Fire, on liberal terms.—It is a notorious fact, that the subject of insuring against fire, does not receive from the inhabitants of this Province that attention which its importance demands; and the premiums, for fire insurances particularly, bear so very small a proportion to the value of the property insured, that much less sympathy is felt for those sufferers who may have neglected to avail themselves of the means of providing against such calamities.

The capital of this Company, $200,000, has been all paid in, and invested in the best securities; independently of which, a SURPLUS FUND of more than $35,000 has been set apart to meet the occasional claims for losses, and the stock bears a high premium.

The Agent will at all times attend personally to the survey of buildings on which insurance is desired within the City; and applications in writing (post paid) from all other parts of the Province, describing the situation and the property to be insured, will receive prompt attention.
