Prince Albert Fair.

PRINCE ALBERT, July 21.—Already the exhilarating effects of the gold and copper discoveries at Lac La Ronge are getting into the blood of the people of picturesque Prince Albert. A daily paper—The News—was brought into the world there just the other day. A full fledged city directory will be issued in a couple of weeks, prospecting parties are streaming into the new wonderland of wealth north of Lac La Ronge, and the Summer Fair gathers momentum from day to day. The liberal purses are attracting horsemen from the northern United States, entries are coming from all over Western Canada and the Parker Shows are arousing much pleasant anticipation in the minds of the people of Central Saskatchewan.

When it is remembered that this year six thousand six hundred dollars are being spent on fair features, fast races and one continuous round of three days' pleasure, as compared with about one-fourth that amount on any previous fair, the scope of the present production can be understood.

There is another feature about this Prince Albert Fair that appeals to the people of the West. No fair outside of Winnipeg has made so systematic and intelligent use of newspaper space. This is a wide departure from the circus method and is well calculated to set a new pace for publicity in Western Canada.

The enlarged grounds, new buildings, new grand stand, trains right to the grounds, and all the compelling interest of the mystery, the wonderful possibilities and the rich promise of the great hinterland of this Province are calling to the dwellers of the plains to visit the Gateway City in August.

Pilot Butte Picnic.

A very enjoyable picnic under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the English Church was held at Pilot Butte on July 12th. This annual event is now becoming quite popular and draws a pretty good crowd each year that the weather is good.

The band from Balgonie was in attendance and discoursed good music. The sports were well contested. Pilot Butte football boys defeated the Balgonie boys, the score being 2-0 in favor of Pilot Butte. Rain prevented the playing of the baseball match. The tug-of-war was won by Balgonie.

The races resulted as follows: 100 yards, boys under 15—1, H. Zinkham; 2, F. Rust; 3, W. Betteridge.

100 yards, girls — 1, Etta McGreor; 2, L. Zinkham; 3, M. Zinkham.

100 yards, boys under 10—1, F. Miller; 2, W. Zinkham; 3, G. Miller. Men's race, 100 yards—1, J. Scott; 2, Hunt; 3, F. Weisbrod.

Regina Exhibition.

As the date of the provincial exhibition draws nearer, we are able to gain a more comprehensive idea of the magnitude of the undertaking, the immense amount of work necessary to ensure its success, and the completeness of detail in the arrangements for handling the vast crowds that will be in attendance. The racing and stock entries are filling rapidly. In this connection a recommendation of the Regina Board of Trade has been adopted, to the effect that the stake races be all thrown open to close and name Friday July 23rd, and that in number eight, (The Saskatchewan Stakes) the words "for horses owned and bred in Saskatchewan" be cut out, thus leaving the race open to the whole world. Never during the life of the association has such an interest been displayed. Never have entries been so numerous. Almost all the available space in the buildings and on the grounds has been taken up. A number of individual exhibitors from the three prairie provinces have entered full carloads of stock, consisting of Clydesdale and Percheron horses, and thoroughbred cattle of every description. One exhibitor has entered a carload of thoroughbred hogs. From indications to hand there are many others to follow, and though extensive enlargements in housing and handling stock and catering to the public needs are being pushed forward by the officials, it is safe to say that the association's capacities will be stretched to the utmost to meet the demands made upon them. Booth privileges are almost all taken, over $1,000.00 worth having already been sold. The new race horse stables are nearly completed, and the new grand stand accommodation, providing additional seating capacity for 2,500 people, is well under way. This is the first section of the new grand stand as designed for the Dominion Exposition in 1911. It will be provided with individual comfortable chairs, manufactured expressly for the purpose. The association is making every effort possible to ensure excursion trains during the fair from Saskatoon, Outlook, Swift Current, the Soo line, Arcola and the main line east. The Saskatoon and Arcola trains will be run on the 26th, and those from the east and west and the Soo line on the 29th. Any information required may be obtained from the manager, Mr. L. T. McDonald, and the rush for space is such that intending competitors are urged to send in their applications with the least possible delay.
