LONDON, Sept. 18.

The Duke of Edinburgh will visit Liverpool on the 20th inst. The Cotton Exchange has resolved to observe that day as a holiday.

Steamship Kenilworth, from Philadelphia, collided on the Mersey with the Dublin steamer Windsor. Both vessels were damaged.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Sept. 16.

At seven o'clock this morning fire broke out in No. 1 Granite mill of this city. It spread with great rapidity. Operatives had just commenced work at the time, and there was great panic among them. Many escaped by jumping from the windows, and others were injured in their attempts to escape in this manner, while others were burned in the building, being unable to escape by any means. The women operatives made frantic efforts to reach the fire escapes, but their retreat was cut off by the flames. Seeing no other means of escape many rushed frantically for the windows, and some of the girls threw themselves headlong from the burning building, being either instantly killed or badly mangled. As many as forty are thought to have been killed and 80 wounded. Loss on mills, $500,000; insurance, $400,000.

LONDON, Sept. 21.

GERMANY AND DENMARK.

It is reported that Prince Bismark has proposed to King Christian of Denmark the union of Denmark with the German Confederation, and that the King has declined the proposal.

A POLAR PARTY'S RETURN.

The news of the return of the Austrian Polar Expedition, which left Tromsoe July 14, 1872, has arrived. The vessel was frozen in and abandoned, and the men arrived at Vardoe, Norway, Sept. 3, by a Russian schooner which they encountered in Puchona Bay.

DON CARLOS AND FRANCE.

Duke Parma and Counts Caserti and Bari have had a conference with Don Carlos, at which it was agreed that Carlos should be the representative of the four Bourbon branches with presumptive rights to the French throne.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.

Rates of Labor.

Now that trade is so dull at this port, and freights far below a paying figure, one would suppose that the so-called Laborers' Benevolent Association would take into their consideration the idea of a reduction in their rates—say for hours of labor and for price of scowing and stowing for ships. We can conceive how the so-called Benevolent men might work up some little sympathy for their cause were they to adopt some such plan as we have foreshadowed. But will they do so? We opine not; and yet as the winter sets in many of these men will be suffering, and we contend, that by reducing the charges (bearing now so heavily on the shipping frequenting the port) that if they do not immediately reap the benefit, it will largely flow into them in the future. This matter has been frequently noticed by this journal before, and we say now is the time for the Association to take a step in the right direction before the chance is taken from them by the whole class of merchants themselves, who have suffered in purse and temper, and grieve also at the injustice done to our port by driving away from one of the best shipping ports of the world the trade which is justly its due.

THE ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY —OF— POETRY AND SONG!

Edited by DR. J. G. HOLLAND,

Author of "Kathrina," "Bi ter Sweet," etc.

FAVORITE SONG is a royal octave volume of over 700 pages, printed in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dainty and delicate engravings, FROM ORIGINAL DESIGNS, by the most eminent artists, together with fac similes of the original autograph copies of (20) famous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where—

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day,
Raked the meadows sweet with hay;"

One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering

"Over stony ways,
In little sharps and trebles."

* * * * * * *

"Till last by Philip's farm it flows,
To join the brimming river."

Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library.
