ST. STEPHEN

The graduating exercises of St. Stephen High School, class 1910, were held in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening. The church was most tastefully adorned with flowers, under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Matthews and Mrs. D. Lawson and Mrs. Walter [illegible]. The floral scheme was green and white, the class colors. The church was crowded to the doors by the people and friends of the graduates. On the platform were Principal McFarlane and his assistants, Miss Bertha Barlett, Dr. Hart W. Ganong, chairman of the board, and Mr. Jas. Vroom, secretary of the board. There were nine graduates: [illegible] Scott Poole, Anna Gretchen [illegible], Elva Beatrice Nicholson, [illegible] Catherine Wade [illegible] Hazel Mae Polk; Charles Stevenson De Voe, Ruth Marjorie Clark, Owen Roy [illegible], Myrtle Beulah Ganong. The essays were all unusually good. [illegible] Ganong's on the class motto Ad Astra per Aspera, was excellent [illegible] of Miss Clark's essay was Canadian [illegible] while Miss Leubman took for her subject King Edward VII. as a Man. The class prophecy was well taken by Miss Elva Nicholson, and the valedictory was well rendered and written and reflected great credit and talent on Miss Phyllis Waterson. There was a musical programme at which Miss Annie Nicholson, a student at Mount Allison, sang a song very delightfully. Mr. Edward DeWolfe, of Calgary, who is visiting here, also sang in a pleasing style. Mr. G. W. Ganong gave a short address to the graduates afterwards the prizes and diplomas were presented by Mr. Jas. Vroom. The ushers were Frank Nicholson, Frank Ensor, Hardy Ganong, Ernest Barber, Howard Crant.

The class ode composed by Miss Katherine Poole, was sung, followed by God Save the King, and brought to a close the school days of class 1910. After the exercises the class were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. M. Ganong.

A very happy wedding party gathered at the residence of Mrs. John C. Henry on Wednesday afternoon, to witness the marriage of her daughter, Miss Jessie Dacida Henry, to Mr. William Frederick McGibbon, of Moore's Mills. The house was prettily adorned with flowers for the occasion, presenting a most festive appearance, the color scheme being green and white. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Legal, of the Union church, Calais. Promptly at the hour of 5 o'clock the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Ethel Chase, sounded softly through the house. When the bride and groom, unattended, came into the drawing room and stood in the bay window where the ceremony took place. The bride looked very pretty and attractive in a lovely gown of white silk with overdress of white mull and Irish embroidery. She wore a veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. After the ceremony and congratulations, refreshments were served. At 6 o'clock the happy young pair left on the C. P. R. train for a trip to Ontario. The bride's going-away gown was a lovely shade of dark grey with hat to match. The presents were very handsome and numerous. On their return they will reside at Moore's Mills, where the groom has recently erected a handsome residence.

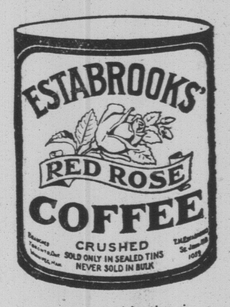
Did you ever hear any one say they could not get good coffee except in the States?

I have heard it, scores of times, and it's one of the reasons that made me decide to go into the Coffee business.

Of the Americans who visit us in summer, hundreds take home a supply of Red Rose Tea because they have never used such good tea before. I determined to put up a coffee that would make for itself just as good a reputation. It has not been easy, but I am sure I have succeeded.

Estabrooks' Red Rose Coffee, put up in sealed tins is—well, it's good coffee. You and your American friends will say so.



A good combination is Estabrooks' Coffee for breakfast and Red Rose Tea for other meals
