In Pajamas of Sealskin.

Nervy Woman Physician Will Cross Chilkoot.

The Steamer Seattle Carries 422 Passengers North.

A Party of 50 Start From Kalamazoo Next Week—Effects of the Rush on Canadian Trade.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—Dr. Luella Day, of this city, a bright, good-looking woman of 37, has abandoned her practice, and will seek her fortune at the Klondike. Her party will follow a number of surveyors, who will lay out a route for a telephone line from Dyea to Dawson City. She will sail from Frisco Feb. 1.

Each of the party will carry 55 pounds of baggage. Dr. Day will carry her medicine chest, which will weigh 28 pounds. They will have 16 dogs to draw their provisions in sledges.

Dr. Day says she expects to be six weeks on the road from Dyea to Dawson, and will stake out a claim and gather her own nuggets. When she is accoutered for the overland trip she will appear in a sealskin cap with flaps that fall down over her shoulders, a sealskin jacket that will reach to her knees, a pair of sealskin pajamas, and a pair of rubber boots that reach above the knees. She will also carry a fur-lined sleeping bag, which is like a pillow case, with a running string at the open end. When she sleeps at night she will lie in the bag with the running string pulled taught and tied.

Detroit, Jan. 29.—Kalamazoo will send another party of adventurous spirits to the Klondike, Feb. 3. "Fred Willard has organized the party," said W. H. Guerin, the Detroit agent of the Chicago and Northwestern. "He has 25 men on his list, and expects 25 more. Willard is 35 years of age and has spent five years in Alaska. He worked on the Dominion government survey, and is well fitted to take out a crowd. Willard's party will go straight up to Fort Selkirk, and then break into the region east, where, so far as known, the foot of white man has never trod. The crowd will go to Spokane on our line. They will buy their supplies there. Each man will invest in five horses. Costly? No. You can buy a horse there for $2 or $3. From Spokane they will go overland to Ashcroft by the wagon trail; from there to the Skeena for 300 miles and thence to Teslin Lake on the three-foot trail, and from there on to Fort Selkirk. They can make the trip in seven weeks."

THE RUSH FOR THE GOLD REGION.

Winnipeg, Jan. 29.—From Victoria, B. C., comes word that the season's rush to the gold fields of the Canadian Northwest is now on in earnest. The steamer City of Seattle, on her way north, called at Nidonia this morning with 422 passengers. This evening the City of Topeka sailed with as many as she could carry, and a large quantity of freight. The next vessel to leave will be the Islander, of the C.P.R. Company on Feb. 1. Already nearly all her space for freight and passengers has been secured. Two days later the City of Nanaimo, also of Victoria, will follow her, and on the 24th the steamer Queen will sail.

EFFECTS OF THE KLONDIKE TRADE.

The Guelph party, which left Montreal in August, have struck gold near Fort Selkirk, 160 miles from Dawson City. They will not proceed farther.

The wholesale grocers of Toronto are beginning to feel the effect of the Klondike trade, and several large orders have gone through lately.

A big party of Klondikers from Detroit arrived at Toronto on Friday morning, headed by W. R. Booth, of Detroit. They left for the west by Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific. They will go west to Seattle, and outfit there and proceed.

The Snow and Ice Transport Company, an American device, which proposes to climb mountains, will carry at least 15 passengers booked in Montreal—one party numbers 12. It includes two French actresses, who hope to win gold dust at Dawson City.

The indications point to Montreal becoming the outfitting point for all eastern people bound for the Klondike. This applies to European parties also. The wholesale trade revival here is due in a large measure to the demand from the Pacific coast merchants and traders. As an instance, one woolen company recently resumed operations in two mills closed down for a year, and has orders six months ahead.

For 1898

We don't intend to make any promises of an unusual character for the new year. To use a homely expression, "We are still doing business at the old stand." We propose to continue along the lines heretofore existing. That is—in our prescription department we assure careful, intelligent and prompt service; in our sundry department we carry every improved aid for the convenience of a nurse or the comfort of a patient.

It Was the Goat.

Fifty-Seven Pairs of Slippers Stolen.

Two St. Thomas Boys Charged With the Theft—Their Arrest Brought About by a Billy Goat.

[St. Thomas Journal.]

Walter Boulding and Robert Wilson have been arrested on the charge of stealing 57 pairs of slippers from Mr. W. H. Tallman, shoeman, corner Talbot and St. George streets.

The direct cause of their arrest was a billy goat, though, of course, the animal would hardly have been able to bring such a thing about had not the unlawful and felonious act previously been committed.

Walter Boulding is a cockney, who keeps a junk shop in the Lindop block, west end, and lives on New street. Robert Wilson and William Robinson also live on New street, and are neighbors of Boulding. The latter formerly boarded with Boulding, but now boards with Robinson. The latter had been in Boulding's house, and saw a bureau drawer full of slippers, and as on Nov. 30 last a case containing 57 pairs of slippers had been stolen from Mr. Tallman, it did not take Robinson long to put two and two together and discover who was the thief.

Robinson owns a billy goat and some chickens, and Boulding, it is alleged, maltreated the goat because of its eating up some of his belongings, and that he did not take kindly to Robinson's hens and considered them a nuisance. The effect was that the neighbors quarreled, and the result was that Robinson got even by giving Mr. Tallman a pointer that Boulding had stolen his slippers, and that they were in the bureau drawer in Boulding's house. A search warrant was got out, and the police visited Bouldin's house a couple of days ago, but only one pair of slippers were found. Robinson had threatened to get even with Boulding the way he did and Boulding got the goods away.

The police, however, secured sufficient information to justify the arrest of Boulding, and a warrant was issued yesterday and he was arrested yesterday afternoon by P. C. Smith. During the night he turned himself inside out to Constable Palmerston. He confessed that he committed the robbery, implicated Robert Wilson, and said that the booty was stored in the old St. Thomas pipe foundry. Constable Palmerston promptly arrested Wilson, and a search was made of the pipe foundry, and a bag containing 23 pairs of slippers found. Boulding contended that the remainder of the slippers were in the old foundry, and he was taken over there by the chief and Constable Palmerston, but the slippers could not be found. He then said that he had burned the remainder of the slippers, but this story the police do not believe.

Boulding secured the services of Mr. S. Price to defend him at the police court this morning. County Attorney Donahue prosecuted.

Boulding pleaded guilty and was remanded till Wednesday for sentence. Robert Wilson was remanded till Wednesday for trial.

Abscess Was Lanced.

"I had an abscess on one of my hips. It was lanced and never healed. Hospital treatment failed. The next winter I had three abscesses. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon found it was helping me. When I had taken about six bottles I was cured." MRS. FRANKLIN H. TEED, Freeport, Nova Scotia.
