IN PULPIT AND PEW

BAPTIST

The London Baptist Association on November 10, held its jubilee service at the Metropolitan Tabernacle. In 1856 the Association had fifty-nine churches and 19,290 members. It has now 208 churches and 55,290 members. The first meeting of the London Baptist Association, was held in the London Metropolitan Tabernacle. Mr. Spurgeon was one of its founders. It seems fitting that the jubilee service should be held in the Tabernacle, and that Dr. A. C. Dixon, the present pastor of the Tabernacle, should be the president at this time.

Widely known and highly honored throughout the denomination, Dr. W. Howard Doane served his generation wisely and well. He is now absent from the body and present with the Lord. He fell asleep Thursday evening, December 23, at the home of his daughter in South Orange, New Jersey. The body was taken to Cincinnati, Ohio, for burial. No man in our denomination was more loyal to our work and institutions than Dr. Doane. He will be surely missed and widely mourned.

From Our Soldier Missionary.

Many readers of The Canadian Baptist will be interested in the subjoined letter from Rev. R. E. Smith, who, under what he feels is a divine impression, has, with the consent of the Board and the best wishes of his fellow-missionaries, offered himself for overseas service.

Gypsy Smith, Jr.

Rev. Albany R. Smith is known by the above title, because he is the eldest son of the famous evangelist, and is meeting with success in his father's line of work. He was born about a third of a century ago, a few years after his father quit the Gypsy tent. At fifteen he entered the British Marine, where he remained for nine years, when he finished as officer on one of the trans-Aatlantic lines. He then located in New York City and entered a business firm on Broadway. Seven years ago he became a Christian. His first Christian service was rendered as a chorister for a New England evangelist. He was afterward associated with Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman. Feeling convinced that God had even a greater part for him in the building of the kingdom, he entered Crozer Theological Seminary, from which institution he recently was graduated with distinction and the high esteem of his instructors. His manner in and out of the pulpit is attractive. He is easy to get along with. He appreciates the pastor's point of view. He is free from crotchets and vagaries. He has no professional tricks. He believes in the potency of the Gospel message. His oft-repeated saying is, "I'd rather fail than cheapen the Gospel." He has a marvelously sweet voice which he knows how to use in song and speech.

METHODIST

The Fairville pastor reports a Christmas gift to the Church by the combined service of the Ladies' Aid and Sunday School of $100.00 to redeem a "note." This is a cause that moves slowly, but in which there is much to encourage.

Portland Church sent a gift to everyone of its soldier boys on the Honor Roll.

The wife of Rev. S. F. Huestis, D.D., died on December 22nd in Toronto, to which the family removed from Halifax, N. S., a year or two since. She is held in loving remembrance in Halifax by reason of the invaluable service she rendered the various benevolent institutions, both of the city and church. She was a Miss Louise Archibald, of Truro, N. S., where her marriage took place fifty-eight years ago. Besides her husband she leaves four sons, and one daughter. Rev. Charles H. Ford's Day Alliance Secretary in Alberta and British Columbia. Edward A., and Archibald in business in Toronto, Harry a civil engineer in Quebec, and Mrs. Rev. G. F. Dawson, of Alberton, P.E.I. The Venerable Doctor, so well-known and beloved over the Maritime Provinces because of his extended usefulness as a preacher, Book Stewart, and association with the Wesleyan, has the fullest sympathy of his friends.

The Rev. Richard Opie, president of N. B. and P. E. I. Conference has issued a New Year's address to the church, inspiring in tone, appealing to the individual members to seek "To win one," and all to press forward the extension of the work of God throughout our provinces. All at it, and all the time at it.

A Western paper recently paid its respects to the newly weds as follows: "Mark the newly weds in your church. They ought to have a church paper in their homes. They ought to start right. A man cannot really establish a Christian home without a religious paper. The newly wed is not thinking about the things church papers tell about. Well perhaps not. But men think about things they see. Crowd the church paper on men's eyes and they will read it." Why not try this with other papers as well?

A movement is on foot with the view of building a new church in New Glasgow, N. S. Industrial conditions are excellent.

Maj. Robert E. Morton, of Hampton Institute, Va., was elected to succeed Booker T. Washington, as president of Tuskegee Institute, Ala. last week. He will not be installed as president until the commencement exercises in May. Until that time he will give his services to the campaign for the Booker T. W. memorial fund. He has been commandant of cadets at Hampton since 1890. He was born in Virginia, and is of negro parentage.

PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. Thomas Harrison, chaplain of the 64th Battalion, at present quartered in Halifax, has been spending a few days among the people of his congregation in St. George, N. B.

Rev. Dr. Polley, late of St. John's church, Dalhousie, N. B., was on Thursday evening, December 30, inducted to the pastoral charge of St. James' church, Parrsboro, N. S.

Rev. George Farquhar, formerly of Hampton and Rothesay, N. B., is chaplain of the 61st overseas Battalion in Winnipeg, with the rank of Captain.

Prof. A. S. Morton, formerly of St. Stephen, N. B., now of the University of Saskatchewan, is writing a series of articles in The Westminster on "The Changing Map of Europe." The first appears in the January issue.

Rev. James Ross, of East St. John, superintendent of home missions in the Maritime Synod, has returned from New York after successful medical treatment in hospital there. He hopes in a few weeks to be able to resume his work.

News has come to hand of the death on Monday last at his home in Toronto, of Rev. John Anderson, retired minister. Mr. Anderson spent his early days in St. John, and after his ordination to the ministry, held for several years a pastorate in St. Stephen, N. B., and other places in the Maritime Provinces, before going farther west. He retired from the active work of the ministry a few years ago. A sister, Mrs. Gilliland, lives at Hammond River, N. B.

Rev. David Charles Mackintosh, D. D., passed away very suddenly a few days ago at his home in Shenandoah, Pa., U. S. A. Death was due to an acute atack of appendicitis. Dr. Mackintosh was born in Pictou county, educated in Pictou Academy, Dalhousie University and Princton Seminary. His ministry has been exercised altogether in the United States. He was for a time instructor in New Testament Greek in Lenox College, from which institution he received his Doctor of Divinity degree in 1903. He served well the constituency in which he labored, and won the high esteem of the community at large. Rev. F. G. Mackintosh, of the Presbyterian congregation in Sackville and Dorchester is a brother.

The cordial brotherhood existing between the branches of the Christian church in these days has been well illustrated recently in a resolution passed by the Presbytery of Dublin as follows:—

"The Presbytery of Dublin at their first meting since his election to the Archbisphoric of Dublin offer to the Rev. Dr. Bernard their congratulations. The ministers of the Presbytery who in their united clerical meetings in Trinity College, of which he was one of the founders and chairman for several years, had had experience of his scholarship, catholicity of mind and brotherliness, heartily welcome him back as a friend. The Presbytery earnestly hope that the good relations between the Churches may continue and be improved, and, realizing the heavy responsibility imposed upon him, they pray that God will abundantly bestow upon him His Holy Spirit."

Pincombe of the 104th Battalion, the officer commanding at Fredericton, a speaker of ability, will give an address in honor of the men at the front and in training. Appropriate music. "FOR GOD AND HOME AND EVERY LAND."

The weekly meeting of the St. John Women's Christian Temperance Union was held on Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance, some members previously reported sick being present for the first time in months. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. W. H. Barker her subject being: "Redeeming the times, for the days are evil." Mrs. Seymour reported that members had paid a visit to the Boys Industrial Home on Monday afternoon and extended a treat to the boys there. In return the boys pleased the ladies with a fine programme. Miss Stella Fox playing for them. The visitors were induced to stay until evening and the entertainment was enjoyed by them.

At the next meeting on January 11th, election of officers will be held, and an urgent appeal is made to all members to be present.

Allied Forces Only
Serbs Were Fo

French C

From the London Daily Chronicle special correspondent.

Salonika, Dec. 29—The skilful retreat of the Allied armies from Serbian territory is over, and the following description will convey some idea of that wonderful operation. It has been that kind of retreat which is one of the most difficult of all military operations—a retirement in face of an enemy in superior force.

A glance at a map, no matter how detailed, can scarcely give an adequate idea of the difficulties encountered and overcome, and to anyone who knows the nature of the country over which the movement was carried out the excellence of the strategy and the rapidity and precision of the movement of the troops can only appear as marvellous.

Let me try to picture the country to you and describe the conditions under which the retirement was carried out. The story has reference mainly to the French army, the work of which I know particularly well, and regarding which I have been provided with special information.

Before the retreat began the advanced positions on the Serbian territory stretched from Gradsko along the Vardar to the little village of Gradetz, and then skirted the Bulgarian frontier to the slopes of the Bela-Sitsa mountains. We had rushed north to gain the commanding heights along the one great historic northward and southward leading route—the Vardar valley. It was hoped to link up with the Serbian forces bravely holding the Pass of Babuna and the surrounding heights. Had that been done, then the Allies' left would have been secured and a great wedge, with its point at Gradsko and Krivolak and its base extending from Monastir to Doiran, would have been presented to the enemy.
