LONDON LOSES.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Hamilton, July 12.—The London team played a scrappy game from start to finish today, claiming everything, fighting for what they were not entitled to, and making Umpire Patton's life miserable. The umpire held his ground, however, and gave both sides fair treatment. The visitors made a big kick on a two-base hit by Cochrane that won the game. The ball struck the chalk-line at the side of first base, and was undoubtedly fair, but six of the London team surrounded Patton and called him all sorts of names. Not one of the six was in a position to see whether the ball was fair or foul. After two men were out on the fourth, Gunther made a three-base hit, and Cockman and Keenan got singles, but only one run was made. In the sixth Johnson got first on balls, Reid and Hickey hit safely, and an error by Mallott let in two runs. Score:

FLYS.

The only member of the New Yorks who won the league and world's championships in 1889 now playing in the National League is Mike Tiernan. Ewing is manager of the Cincinnatis, Bill Brown and Pat Murphy have sank into oblivion, Keefe is umpiring in the Eastern League, Welch is running a saloon in Holyoke, Ed. Crane is dead, Titcomb has retired, Connor is playing in Fall River, Danny Richardson is in business in Elmira, Ward is practicing law. Whitney is at Lowell, O'Rourke is managing the Bridgeport team, and Gore is living in New York city. Jim Mutrie is living quietly on Staten Island.

"That Chicago club is made up of some of the best natured players the diamond has ever seen, and they look to me like a first division team," says Manager Captain Donovan, of the Pirates.

Jesse Burkett's present batting gait will not get him to the top of the list of league sluggers, where he has been for the past two seasons. Just now, Kelly, of Baltimore is the champion stick man.

"Ten Thousand Dollar Beauty" Breitenstein has been a sore disappointment to the Cincinnati club thus far. It is suspected now that Von der Ahe sold President Brush something in the nature of a gold brick.

Harry Vonderhorst says he believes the old coaching rule will soon be restored by a mail vote. Nobody seems to like the new order of things. Players, managers and public are all kicking for more life in the game.

The youngsters in the league, who were hitting the ball like fiends in the early spring, are gradually giving way to the second batsmen. The sun has loosened up the joints of the old players, and the game is getting faster every day.

"Anson may be getting old, his steps less springy, his points not so supple as of yore, but his eyes and brains are unimpaired," says O. P. Caylor. "For all that, he knows more about playing the game than all the other men on his team combined. There are at least seven less valuable players than Uncle Anson among the Chicago Colts."

Capt. Anson is credited with saying that he doesn't believe the Baltimore team to be as fast as last year and that he is willing to wager that they will not win the pennant.

Fred Clarke is now captaining the Colonels, and young Johnson, a Chicago boy, who has been acting as utility man, is playing second base.

Manager Freedman has suspended Doheny for breach of discipline. The New York magnate appears to have no end of trouble with his players.

Everybody seems to think that President Freedman made a sad blunder when he let Jake Beckley go. Old Eagle Eye is playing great ball for the Reds.

Cuppy's pitching arm is out of form, and "Big" Cy Young has not been a wonder so far. Pat Tebeau's pitching department appears to be a bit demoralized.

It is now rumored that the Cleveland team will be transferred to Columbus. Tom Loftus is reported to be dickering with the Robinsons for the Cleveland franchise.

Buckheart, the Carlisle Indian catcher who was recently tried by Rochester, is not meeting with the same success in the ballfield as his brother redman Sockalexis.

Cartwright, of Washington, has missed but ten games in three years.

Pitcher Damman, of Cincinnati, has recovered from his recent illness.

Bill Lange and Keeler, of Baltimore, are the boss base stealers up to date in the league.

Capt. Patsy Donovan, of Pittsburg, appears just now to be the boss kicker of the league.

Pitcher Klobendanz is credited with never having kicked against an umpire's decision. It is needless to say he was not born in Hamilton.

Hank O'Day seems to have less trouble than any of the other umpires in the league.

Roger Connor has been claimed by Detroit. He is at present with the Fall River (Mass.) club.

Prof. Hinton's baseball pitching gun will, it is thought, prove valuable in training batsmen.

Everywhere in the east Anson is receiving great praise for the grand game he is playing at present.

The heavy sluggers of the league seem to be learning how to connect with Amos Rusie's curves.

O'Connor and Zimmer are now alternating behind the bat for Cleveland. Zimmer welcomes the rest.

Gaffney's umpiring in the Eastern League has been highly praised this season. Uncle Nick ought to get him again.

Pitchers frequently make good infielders—Wallace, of Cleveland, and "Kid" Gleason, of New York, for instance.

Anson has announced that his team is "rotten," and will not win the pennant.

Sunday ball was inaugurated in Cleveland, and there was no interference by the police.

Sockalexis is once more playing right for Cleveland, after his lay off. He is batting in his old-time form.

Lew Whistler and his Springfield players were arrested at home for trying to play a Sunday game. The crowd came near mobbing the officers.

Blanford, the Kansas City catcher, who was struck behind the ear with a pitched ball on Saturday, is suffering from concussion of the brain, and his recovery is doubtful. Jimmy Manning is certainly having hard luck.

The make-up of the New York team is practically the same as last year, and yet a year ago the club was hanging on to the coat-tails of National League society. The return of Rusie to the game has made all the difference in the world with the Giants.

WHEEL.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE BICYCLE.

The bicycle may be regarded as purely a product of the past 50 years. Within that time this vehicle has passed through a progress of development the singular nature of which is shown by the fact that the last, or evolved, form has fewer points of similarity with the types which immediately preceded it than it has with the first crank-driven bicycle of 1840.

McMillan or Dalzell, in England, in 1840, devised a crank-driven rear wheel driver bicycle. This machine had its two wheels of about the same size, the rear wheel being fitted with driving cranks. The saddle was placed low and the lever treadles were connected with the driving cranks by pitmen.

During the velocipede mania of 1868-69, a French inventor named Legros first employed the chain gear with success. This machine contained all the foundation principles of the modern safety, except the rotary pedal cranks. In 1869 Samuel Anderson, an American, improved this device by doing away with the smaller sprocket wheel. Further improvements were made by Shearing, in England, aided by De Torville in France, while Wilson, in England, deviated from the course the other inventors were taking by placing the driving device on the front wheel of the machine. In 1870 Henry Bates appeared in England with the "Shadow;" then followed the bicyclette of Lawson in 1879, both of which contained all the elements of the modern safety bicycle, but in an awkward and distorted form.

The American Star was the next rear-driven bicycle, and this, through various short-lived novelties, led to the "Rover."

The commercial success of the rear-driven, chain-geared safety bicycle dates from the appearance of a catalogue of a bicycle firm of Coventry, England, for 1885. In this catalogue this firm first offered to the public their "Rover Safety Bicycle." This was the prototype of the modern wheel. In an incredibly short time this style of bicycle became unanimously popular, and in a very few years gained complete control of the bicycle market. modifications of this style of machine soon followed, chief among which was the drop frame, or, as it is now known, the ladies' wheel.

In 1886 Mr. E. G. Latta patented in the United States the first drop frame bicycle.

LOUGHEAD BEATS COOPER.

Port Huron, Mich., July 13.—The matched race for $500 a side between Tom Cooper, of Detroit, and Fred Loughead, of Sarnia, the Canadian champion, at the Port Huron quarter-mile cement track yesterday, was witnessed by 1,500 spectators. It was won by the Canadian in the surprisingly slow time of 2:22 flat. Cooper was slightly injured in the first heat, which partially accounted for his slowness.

RACING AT TORONTO.

There was a large crowd at Hanlan's Island on Saturday, but the matched race was a failure. In the first heat there were only two starters—Davidson and McCarthy, McLeod getting injured while training, and being unable to ride. Davidson had the pole, and when the pair were started he would not take the tandem, but loafed for the first quarter. McCarthy pulled ahead at the three-eighths, and won the heat easily by five lengths, when the officials declared the heat off. When it came time for the next heat McCarthy said he would not start if after winning the heat it was declared off, and finally Davidson decided not to ride against McCarthy, but said he would ride an exhibition mile for $50, although McCarthy stood on the track, ready to go on with the race.

The last event on the programme was an exhibition mile ridden by I. B. McCarthy, paced by Greatrix and Tucker on a tandem. He made a record for the island track, going the distance in 1:56 3-5, the fractional time being: quarter in 27 seconds; half in 56 2-5; three-quarters in 1:28 1-5, and the last quarter was ridden in :28 2-5. Summary:

Mile novice, amateur, 4 heats—Final—J. Hesson, T. A. C., 1; D. Colville, Ramblers, 2; A. H. Oake, R. C., 3. Time, 2:18 2-5. Arnold, Abraham, Herrington, Stewart, Patterson, also started.

Mile handicap, amateur, 3 heats—McEachren, T. A. C., 1; Thompson, Tourists, 2; Hancock, Toronto, 3. Time, 2:13 2-5. Burchard, Plant, Davidson, Murray, Anderson also started.

Mile open, amateur — Thompson, Ramblers, 1; More, T. A. C., 1; Gardner, Wanderers, 3. Time, 2:07.

Two-mile handicap, professional—Gordon (175 yards), Toronto, 1; Young (175 yards), Toronto, 2; Westbrook (15 yards), Brantford, 3. Time, 4:25 1-5. Greatrix, McCarthy, Davidson, Talton also started.

RECORD-BREAKING.

Providence, R. I., July 13.—A world's record of 2:01 1-5, tandem, amateur, mile in competition was made Saturday on Crescent Park track. These figures were put up by Casey and Eckberg, of Worcester, in the mile handicap. John S. Johnson, of Worcester, Ohio, also added a state record to the list by winning the mile open in 2:09 3-5.

Detroit, Mich., July 13.—Tom Cooper shaved 4 4-5 seconds from his mile world's record at the Cycle Park track Saturday. He rode a mile on a quarter of a mile board track in 1:44¼. He was paced by a quad.

London, July 13.—The amateur champion tandem bicycle record for a quarter of a mile, flying start, was broken Saturday at the Putney Athletic Club grounds by L. Pearce and J. E. Wells, who made the distance in :25 2-5.

THE TURF.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A HORSEMAN.

At the trotting match in the Vienna Prater, Austria, recently, the winning driver in the chief race dropped dead immediately after passing the winning-post. His wife fainted in her box on seeing her husband fall. The deceased was Mr. Dan Macphee, a Canadian, who for the last fifteen years has resided in Vienna, and both as trainer and as driver was known all over Europe. It is due to him that Canadian trotters have been so largely introduced on the continent.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

is the most dangerous of all human ailments because its approach is unobservable. Its symptoms are common to other diseases, viz., Severe Headache, Backache, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Blurred Vision, Dyspepsia, etc. Once let it get a firm hold on the system and it is difficult to dislodge. It is caused by inability of the kidneys to filter the Urea from the blood.

Yet it can be

CURED

For over a year I have been troubled with kidney disease, something like Bright's Disease, so the doctors informed me. They failed to cure me, or, in fact, to do me any good whatever, and I made up my mind I was past cure. About two months ago, passing Weatherhead's drug store in Cincinnati, I saw a man giving away sample boxes of Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills. One was handed to me, and I commenced to take them. I found they helped me immediately. After taking three boxes I feel that I am now well. I am past 65, and I must say that I feel better than I have for the last twenty years. They are a truly wonderful medicine. WARREN P. SMITH, 135 Front street, Bellevue, Ky.

Brantford, July 11.—Interest has been revived here, through the published dispatches about the Kent case in Ottawa, in the extraordinary recovery from diabetes of Mr. T. EIGHT YEARS AGO.

A London Lady Speaks Strongly in Regard to the New Medicine for Heart Trouble Which is Causing So Much Favorable Comment in This City.

Miss Lizzie Jones, when interviewed by our reporter, spoke as follows: "Eight years ago I had rheumatism, which left me with weak nerves and serious heart trouble. Just at that time, when I was convalescing, my dear mother died, and this threw me into a complete state of nervous prostration, thus aggravating my heart difficulties, which have since been growing serious.

"My blood was so impoverished that I had no color in my face. I lost flesh and became very weak. The condition of my heart frightened me, as I suffered from sharp pains and palpitation. It was impossible for me to get restful sleep at night, and on this account I was unable to walk even a short distance, as the slightest exertion made me so short of breath that I could scarcely move.

"I was easily startled and mentally became very despondent, thinking that I was going to die shortly. I had to give up my painting, which was my chief pleasure. Last November I gave up treatment with the doctors because their medicines seemed of no effect. I then commenced taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I got at Strong's drug store. From the time I commenced their use a radical improvement took place. My nervous system was completely restored to its usual strength and vigor. I have now taken four boxes, and am strong and well. They have restored healthy blood.

"The color in my face has returned, and I sleep as well as ever I did in the past. I do not suffer now from heart or nerve trouble. I can walk any distance today without inconvenience or weariness. All my friends remark the wonderful change for the better in my case."
