Baseball Toronto 3 Rochester 1 ❧ Fight Kaufman Stays Ten Rounds ❧ Lacrosse Bradford 10 Maitlands 1

Note and Comment

Those who witnessed the Intermediate C.L.A. semi-final at Bradford yesterday wondered at the playing of Dr. Lew Campbell of the home team. Lew, like old wine, grows better with age, and for active athletic service has all your Alex Turnbulls, Barney Quinns and Cy Youngs beaten many blocks, the fleet-footed doctor being now in his forty-fifth year.

In search of new material who may be ripe for N.L.U. company, Fred Thompson of the Torontos and Charlie Querrie of the Tecumsehs journeyed to Bradford yesterday, but returned crestfallen, no ripe ones being visible, and as Galt, the other team in the intermediate final, is said to be only ordinary, it behooved the N.L.U. magnates to look to the juniors for recruits. Verily, good lacrosse players are scarce.

Here's the way lacrosse is spreading. At Batavia, N.Y., before a crowd of over 3000 enthusiastic spectators the Rochester Club played a tie game against the Tonawanda Indians on Labor Day. This was the introduction of lacrosse in Batavia, and it created a most favorable impression, says a local paper. The crowd was so large that it hampered the progress of play, causing a great many stops on account of the ball being out of bound behind the rows of spectators who surrounded the field.

Jack Johnson took little chance of losing his title at San Francisco yesterday, and at the same time Al. Kaufman is removed from the list of near champions. Kaufman's showing fell far short of the press notices, but bad as he was the black again displayed his inability to land the knock-out punch.

Patsy Galvin of Rochester is here at the exhibition. He used to come over in the times of professional boxing, being associated in a managerial capacity with Mr. Patsy Donovan and Mr. Walter Burgo. Mr. Galvin is now in the literary field, handling a publication that boasts as its author Battling Nelson.

The real battle is on for the Eastern League pennant; that is, whether Toronto will bowl over Rochester sufficiently to put a new team on top in these four games and as many next week remains to be seen, tho the way the Leafs went at the Hustlers in the first yesterday makes it hopeful for Newark and Providence. Toronto and Rochester play again to-day, and two games to-morrow.

There seems to be quite a little of fact in the report that James Casey will not be the manager of the Montreal team next season. A report in Montreal was that Casey is to retire at the close of the present season, or that he might replace Kelley here, the latter going to Baltimore. The chubby doctor had nothing to say on the subject when interviewed in Rochester. "I don't care to discuss my future just yet," was the doctor's answer to all questions. In the line of a successor several players now connected with the Montreal team have been mentioned, including Mike O'Neil and Joe Yeager, the shortstop, who is one of the best ball players in the Eastern League. It was said on good authority in Rochester that Yeager will get Casey's job.

Fred Clarke asked Wagner if he could hit Camnitz one day when the Pittsburg star was bending them over exceedingly well.

"I don't know, but I'd keep my eye on the ball," said Hans.

"If I feel right I don't worry about the pitcher," continued the champion swatter. "Some days I feel as if I can hit anything, and again they keep me guessing.

"People seem to think players should be like machines, putting up perfect games all the time. If they were, there wouldn't be any more fun watching a game than there is watching a rolling mill turning out rails."

Argonaut's Fall Regatta.

The fall regatta and at home of the Argonaut Rowing Club will take place on Saturday afternoon next, Sept. 11, and judging by the interest which is being taken in it and the strenuous training which the crews are undergoing in it is sure to be a huge success. In addition to the fours there will be three eights from the Argonauts and the Hamilton Rowing Club are sending down an eight, which is sure to make things interesting. The sculling race for the Dufferin medal will take place as well as the novice single. Tickets for the at home may be obtained from the secretary, who will be at the club house all day or fro many member of the committee.

Soccer Notes.

On Saturday the Pioneers will play Weston at Stanley Barracks, kick off at 4 o'clock. The following players will represent the Pioneers: Jones, Watson, Williams, Harris, Stevenson, Ruddock, Watson, Lyons, Davie, Mortimer, Fisher. Reserves: Maycock, Foster, Cowlishaw.

Stratford will challenge for the Hough Cup. This was decided on at an organization meeting of the Stratford C. I. Football Club yesterday afternoon. The cup is for competition among the collegiates of Western Ontario, and is at present held by Berlin.

McGinley Outpitches Cy Barger Joe Kelley Starts the Rally

Providence Wins Two From Orioles—Royals Beat Bisons — Newark and Skeeters Play a Scoreless Tie in 13 Innings of a Great Pitchers' Battle.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Sept. 9.—(Special.)—McGinley had the better of Barger in the first game of the series here and the visitors won three to one. For eight innings it was a tight battle with a single tally perched on each side, and it looked like an extra inning game when the ninth opened. However, Kelley started a batting rally which netted two runs and the Hustlers could not equal it in their half. Grimshaw got Toronto's first run. There was an element of luck in it. His hit was a long drive to right. It bounded up the terrace and instead of striking the fence rolled under. It would have been good for three bases anyway, and he made the circuit on it.

Toronto didn't get near the plate after that until the ninth, when Joe Kelley doubled to centre anu scored on McDonald's out and Houser's single thru the box. Grimshaw followed with a single to right which put Houser on third. A double steal was worked to perfection, Houser scoring.

Erwin was the first to touch McGinley for a safe one. It was in the third with one down. Barger and Anderson could not advance him. Rochester's only run was a gift. Barger hit a slow one to McDonald in the sixth. His throw was low and went thru Houser's legs, Barger reaching third. Anderson's slow grounder to Mullen scored him, no effort being made to catch Barger at the plate, as he started home when Anderson hit the ball. The Hustlers had a chance in the ninth, but a double play killed it. Score:

DENISON IS PRESIDENT

Of the O. R. F. U.—Donovan Second Vice—Peterboro Meet.

Mr. A. R. Denison of I.A.A. has been elected president of the O.R.F.U. and Mr. Donocan of St. Michaels second vice-president. Three new teams have joined the junior series, they being Beach Success, Central Y.M.C.A. and St. Michaels, while Parkdale, T.A.A.C. and I.A.A. will also be represented.

A Peterboro despatch says: "At a meeting of the executive of the Peterboro Rugby Club hel dto-night, it was decided to form a senior and junior city Rugby league. From present indications there will be three teams in the senior division and four in the junior. The playing of a team in the Senior O.R.F.U. was also discussed and while no action was taken it is certain that Peterboro will have a strong aggregation in the provincial organization. Dr. A. W. MacPherson, the former Varsity star, has been appointed coach and will likely play again this season."

Cricket Slips.

At Birchcliff Queen City C. C. won in the first innings, as Queen City had only an hour to make 103 runs. Robinson for the winners scored 21, and McLachlin 10. For Queen City Bright 22, Carter 14 and Isted 11 in the first, and in the second McKechnie 42 and Robinson 30 were the big scores.

Owing to the extra demand on our space exhibition time several of the detailed scores have been omitted.

Toronto Wanderers played at Orillia on Labor Day, resulting in a win for Orillia by 100 runs. For Orillia L. G. Black, an old member of Grace Church, scored 13 in each innings. Dr. Leacock 18, not out in the first. In the second Doolittle 12, Thomson 10, and Easton 18 were the other double figure scorers. For the Wanderers A. Rosedale lost to the Wanderers at Rosedale on the holiday, the Wanderers winning a pleasant game by 3 wickets and 12 runs.

Under the auspices of the Toronto Vagabound Club, a cricket eleven made the journey to Schomberg on Labor Day, and succeeded in winning the game. Messrs. Armstrong and Bone were the trundlers for the home team, the former being very successful with the ball in the second innings of the visitors, while the same two players were the chief scorers with the bat. The brothers Smith excelled themselves for the Toronto team, compiling 72 runs between them out of a total of 114. Frank Smith was the best of the visitors bowlers, while Fowler and Henderson did good work.

JACK JOHNSON FAILS TO K. O. AL KAUFMAN

No Decision is Rendered According to Agreement Tho Champion Has Lead in Every Round.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—Referee Smith refused to give a decision after Jack Johnson and Al Kaufman had battled ten rounds in a no-decision contest. Johnson, however, had a clear lead in every round, and easily earned the unofficial decision of the newspaper men. In the seventh Kaufman drew yells from the crowd by planting right and left to the stomach. In the eighth Johnson put left swings to thej aw and mouth, drawing blood, but Kaufman retaliated with a hard right hook to the stomach.

FIRST ROUND—Johnson opened with left hook to the stomach. They mixed at close range. Johnson landed right and left short arm punches to jaw and left to the face. Kaufman looked worried. Johnson closed in, landing short arm righths and lefts to the head. There was little sting in them, however. Just before the round ended Kaufman shot a right and left to the jaw, but the champion only smiled. Kaufman seemed slow in comparison with the fast work of Johnson.

SECOND ROUND—Johnson wrestled Kaufman against the ropes and a moment later drove a straight left to the fect, following it with a left to body, and then quickly whipped left to the jaw. Kaufman appeared confused. They closed and Johnson rocked Kaufman's head with a short arm swing that carried no steam. Johnson had the better of the round. Johnson seemed to smile and cracked jokes at the spectators.

ROUND THREE—Johnson drove a wicked left to the jaw and a hard clout to the stomach and uppercut twice with his right to the mouth, and blood spurted from Kaufman's mouth. Johnson planted an awful right wallop on Al's bleeding face and forced him to stall. Johnson taunted Kaufman good-naturedly and varied this with two fearful jabs to the jaw.

The bell rang and Al. tumbled into his chair with blood flowing in a veritable stream from his mouth and nose. It was apparent that Johnson was clearly Kaufman's master and could finish him at such time as he was ready to cut loose.

FOURTH ROUND—Kaufman drove a hard right to the stomach. This angered Johnson, and he beat the Californian against the ropes, planting right and left on the jaw. Kaufman again drove his right to the stomach and Johnson grinned. Both men eased up, Kaufman seldom landing. The round ended tamely and it looked as if Johnson deliberately slowed up to this stage. Kaufman failed to lead and had landed but two punches, both to the stomach.

SIXTH ROUND—Kaufman clinched, but Johnson broke loose and sent the white man almost into the press stand with a left hook to the body and a right across the jaw. Al mixed it, but found Johnson waiting and the latter showed that he was master of the situation at any style of fighting that Kaufman could bring to him. The round closed with ineffectual exchanges, Johnson having everything his own way.

TORONTO CITY BOWLING

Amendments to Rules to Be Discussed at Annual Meeting, Sept 20.

The Toronto City Bowling Association executive committee held a meeting at the R.C.B.C. Wednesday night and prepared a report for the past season, which will be submitted to the annual meeting on Monday, Sept. 20. The executive committee's report will recommend the following changes in the rules, and the bowlers will have plenty of time to discuss the advisability of adopting same at the meeting.

Rule 6 to read: The captain of each team shall keep the official score of his team and the captain of winning team shall forward score sheets to secretary (on cards supplied by the association) duly certified and endorsed, within twenty-four hours after the completion of game.

Rule 11, section B, to read: Class B. is open to all bowling teams, subject to the following restriction, viz., that no class A. bowlers be permitted to bowl in class B.

Rule 12, substitute 15 days instead of 7.

Rule 16 to read: The individual average be computed on best home score and all scores made away from home. A player to play at least two-thirds of the away from home games to qualify for prize. Rule 19, section B, substitute 150 for 140. Rule 20, substitute word series instead of season and home and home be inserted after word deciding.

New rule—All players must produce their certificates upon request by captain of opposing team.

New rule—The home team to provide the alleys.

The above changes, if adopted, will not make any radical changes from the manner in which the association was so successfully conducted last season; however, the officers are of the opinion that the few changes suggested would greatly improve the organization and at the same time distinctly separate the three classes, A, B and C. The alley managers and captains of last year's teams are urged to organize their teams and enter them with Secretary J. Chestnut, 18 De Grassi-street, or R.C.B.C., 131 Broadview-avenue, before the annual meeting, Sept. 20. Any new teams wishing to organize and enter any of the leagues will be supplied with any information they desire by applying to the secretary. Entry fees are $6 per team and must positively accompany entries.

Further notice will appear as to where the annual meeting will take place.
