As usual on the first Sunday after the opening of College the services in the Baptist church next Sunday will be appropriate to the occasion. In the morning Rev. L. D. Morse, the pastor of the church, will preach, and in the evening the service will be conducted by President Hutchinson.

TO LET.—The house now occupied by Mrs. Gibbons, nine rooms and bath, set range. Possession April 1st, Apply to L. W. Sleep.

We notice from a copy of the official register of Harvard University, just to hand, the name of Mr Laurie D. Cox, A. B., as assistant instructor in landscape architecture. Mr Cox is a graduate of Acadia and a son of Prof. G. W. Cox, superintendent of schools at Ware, Mass. THE ACADIAN joins a host of friends in this vicinity in congratulations.

Take notice that all bills owing the estate of I. S. Boates & Co. are payable to me, and you are hereby requested to make immediate payment. All new work from this date will be strictly cash on delivery of goods.

H. R. MOODY, Manager.

The last 'Tennis Tea' of the season, given by the Misses N. DeWitt, Gladys Starr, E. Bishop, Mrs DeWitt and Mrs Benjamin, took place on the Club grounds last Saturday and was very much enjoyed by the large number present. These tennis teas have been much enjoyed by the players and guests during the summer and will be looked forward to with pleasure for the next season. The Club has had a very successful year, having now about one hundred members. They have three courts, and it is hoped next year to be able to erect a club house.

APPLES WANTED.—Wanted consignments of apples to sell by auction or private sale. Have large, cool warehouse and storage rooms. Prompt returns. In business 35 years. References any bank. JNO. SMITH, Market Square, New Glasgow.

Many of the best entertainments which Wolfville audiences have enjoyed in the past have been conducted by Mr A. V. Rand. It is therefore with much pleasure that we announce that Mr Rand has arranged a course for the present season. The first of this series will take place on Friday evening of next week in College Hall, when the Boston Entertainment party will present a fine program of impersonation from the country school boy to the gray haired banker on Wall street; from the society miss of tender years to the lovable old grandma of the rural district; interwoven with vocal and instrumental selections. The performers are all artists and a good entertainment is promised.

Canning Items.

The pulpits of the United Baptist church were occupied Sunday morning and evening by Rev. I. W. Porter, of Wolfville.

The death took place on Saturday from tuberculosis, of Mr Frank LeCain, who came here from New York a few weeks ago. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon from the residence of Mrs Laura Potter.

Mr Lyman Johnson, editor of 'The Stumbling Stone,' Everett, Mass., held a number of services in Bigelow Hall this week.

A daughter was born to Mr and Mrs Clifford Meek Sept. the twenty-first.

The funeral of Mrs Sarchfield took place on Thursday last. The burial was at Kentville.

Mr Leslie Baxter, eldest son of Capt. W. H. Baxter, was married on Monday to Miss Blanche Sandford, of Coldbrook.

Mr and Mrs David Cox, of Everett, Mass., are visiting the former's parents, Mr and Mrs Gibbs Cox.

Dr. Brett Loomer left Saturday for a trip to Boston.

Mrs James Smith and little son, of Wharton, N. S., were in town over Sunday, guests of Mr and Mrs Wm. Sturk.

Schr. Edna May is in port with a cargo of coal for Blenkhorn & Sons.

Mr and Mrs Robert Spicer, of Wharton, are visiting their daughter, Mrs Halle Bigelow.

Little Jack DeWolfe, youngest son of Mr John DeWolfe, station agent of the D. A. R., had his right eye quite badly injured recently by being shot by a playmate with an air rifle.

Mr Outram, of Brookline, Mass., spent a week recently at Mrs Owen Davison's, with his wife who has been spending the summer there.

Mr Will Kennedy, who with his son has been visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs James Kennedy, has returned to his home in Melrose, Mass.

Rev. Dr. Crowell is in Yarmouth assisting in the removal of his wife and family to Canning.

Among those who have attended the exhibition at Halifax are Mrs Annie Parker, Miss Gertrude Holmes, Mr Fred Northup and daughter, Miss Bertha Northup, Mr N. W. Eaton and daughter, Misses Stella and Annie Eaton, Mr and Mrs Halle Bigelow, Miss Beatrice Dickie.

Mr L. F. Blenkhorn spent several days last week in Grand Pre with Mr and Mrs C. A. Patriquin.

Wedding Bells.

REGAN—MURRAY.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Patrick's church yesterday morning when Miss Elizabeth Marion Murray, niece of Angus McLellan, was united in marriage to Wm. J. Regan, of Wolfville. Rev. Gerald Murphy performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a number of friends of the young couple. The bride was given away by her uncle, and was attired in a charming wedding gown of white lace over taffeta silk with Liberty satin trimmings and a bridal veil and orange blossoms.

Miss Edith Crowell was bridesmaid and was dressed in white silk with lace and chiffon trimmings.

Frank H. Regan, brother of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony the happy couple with relatives were driven to their home, where refreshments were served, after which Mr and Mrs Regan, amid showers of rice and confetti, left on the 9 10 train for a trip through the Provinces.

The groom will be much missed in Wolfville, where he held the position of captain in B. Company of the 68th Regiment.

The presents were costly and numerous, and included cheques for goodly amounts.—Morning Chronicle.

[THE ACADIAN wishes Mr and Mrs Regan much happiness.]

If real coffee disturbs your Stomach, your Heart or Kidneys, then try this clever Coffee imitation—Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. That New College.

Maritime Baptist:—Professor Everitt W. Sawyer was in St. John last week returning with his family, to Summerland, B. C, where is located the Okanagan Baptist College, the principalship of which Professor Sawyer has accepted. Buildings for the use of the College are now in course of construction and the work of the College, it is expected, will be entered upon next year. For the present year the work will be of an Academic or preparatory character. There is, we believe, universal regret here in the East at losing Professor Sawyer, but we can most cordially congratulate our brethern in British Columbia on securing a man of such sterling character and deserved reputation as an educationist to be at the head of their educational work. We heartily wish Professor Sawyer the largest success in his labor on behalf of the good work in the West.

A weak Stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this sample trial. Sold by A. V. Rand.

The membership fee will be as usual $1.50, which sum will include admission to all the concerts held under the auspices of the Club.

All who are interested in general musical culture are cordially invited to be present.

The "Bluenose" from Yarmouth on Monday did not reach Wolfville until after 10 o'clock, having been held at Yarmouth for the Boston boat, which was over seven hours late. Very rough weather was experienced, the storm being the worst, it is said, since the loss of the "City of Portland."

Constipation, Kidney Trouble

Mr. J. A. Buchnes, Port Robinson, Ont., writes:—"For many years I was the unhappy victim of kidney trouble, rheumatism and constipation, which became so bad as to make life a burden. I was a constant sufferer and at times completely unfit for anything. The appetite was fickle, and I became thin and emaciated. I could not sleep and would arise languid and enfeebled.

"A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I am thankful that they fell into my hands. The first box gave relief and hope and I continued to use these pills until the time came when I was enjoying my former good health and vigor. It took about eight boxes to make the cure complete, and I shall always recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as an ideal medicine. I am giving this testimony for the benefit of others suffering as I did."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
