THE GROCERS' LICENSES.

Vote Against! And Why—An Appeal to the Ratepayers of Toronto.

To the Editor of The World: SIR—I confess that for myself I sometimes weary of the statistics of this question, interesting as they are, and moreover it frequently happens that others are, like me, weary also. Some, too won't read them; some wont believe them, and assert that they are gotten up to prove anything and so prove nothing.

But if one wearies of statistics, there are facts which are beyond the question of statistics—self-evident facts which cannot be gainsaid, and which have a prominent bearing upon the question. The list of deaths which the abuse of liquor occasions; the long muster-roll of pauperism kept up year by year through the continued use of intoxicating liquors; the committals for crime bearing a constant proportion to the manufacture of, and facilities for, obtaining liquor; the filling of our lunatic asylums with inmates rendered insane by the use of intoxicating drinks; these and many other fearful items of a similar character, although they are of a nature to harrow the soul, are facts, the beginning and end of the question, without reference to statistics. There is little occasion therefore for me to attempt any array of figures to prove that 75 per cent. of the crimes committed have their origin in drink, or that 20 per cent. of the inmates of the lunatic asylums are made lunatics by the use and abuse of intoxicating liquors.

Evidence has been adduced over and over again which might well settle the question, and opposed to which certainly I find no particle of contradictory evidence from the opponents of our cause. In fact all the arguments of the liquor-selling grocers and liquor dealers appear to be summed up in this; the traffic is so profitable that we cannot afford to give it up, and while the stuff we sell may and does kill the many, it aggrandizes, with much wealth, us—the few.

We cannot too much bear in mind that we who are opposed to these liquor-selling grocers and liquor dealers should be all united; that we have a common interest, a common cause, not only in this city but in every part of the country, and in all countries, and as our cause is universal so should be the exertions we make to further it. This is what the cause requires of you, citizens of Toronto. It is not a degradation but a privilege to work for it. After all it is not a toil but the enjoyment of a right, and it is assuredly a duty.

Nor am I afraid or ashamed to call for woman's sympathy and woman's help in this cause, assured that she will honor herself much more by contributing her aid and influence towards the destruction of the causes of misery which liquor selling through the grocers produces in her home, than by merely aiding the societies which here and there pull a leaf or a twig from the poison tree, but leave it still to send forth its bashful odors and scatter death and destruction over the social soil of our fair country.

In promoting the work which the vote of the 25th of February (if a majority vote be obtained), is expected to accomplish, our citizens will be co-operating with a social, moral and religious work—one which deserves to be classed with those which made illustrious such names as those of Howard and Clarkson — for bringing emancipation to the slavery of drink—the light of heaven into the darkest and dreariest homes of wretchedness—the song of gladness to the tongue of the parent and the prodigal, the widow and the orphan—and kindlier feelings of social order to where now all is strife and contention. As a good work then promote it! Work for it! Sympathize with it! Vote for it! There is no cause which lays stronger grasp upon the heart and mind than does this. It is one for which the exertions of a life would be well spent, and dying breath could scarcely be poured forth more appropriately than in a last protest against that frightful scourge of intemperance which practically denies to man the rights of his humanity, the charter of his being, and the blessings and bounty of his Creator. RICHARD SNELLING.

Toronto, Feb. 19, 1884.

Farley & Co. will commence to sell to-day the bankrupt stock of Messrs. Morrison & Wilbur, Yonge street, which they bought yesterday at 35 cents on the $.

The Irving party are spending to-day at the falls, and will arrive in the city to-night. Mr. Irving will put up at the Queen's hotel, and Miss Terry will be a guest at the Rossin house.

A rumor which circulated yesterday that Harry Lee, the alleged Cincinnati forger, had been married in the jail to the woman who accompanied him to this city is untrue. Lee himself says that he was married in New York last September.

A conversazione was given in the house of Mr. J. C. Hamilton, Rosedale, last night by the ladies of Charles street presbyterian church, which has been recushioned and refitted, and to defray which the entertainment was given. Over 250 were present. The church will be re-opened on Sunday.

Coffee House Conversazione.

In commemoriation of the opening of the first coffee house in Toronto the directors, shareholders and friends of the Toronto coffee house association held a conversazione last night at the Shaftesbury hall branch. Among those present and participating were Rev. P. McF. McLeod, ex-Mayor McMurrich, Ald. Harvie and Messrs. J. J. Withrow and William Alexander, vice-president of the association. Misses St. Croix, Bailey and Berryman and Mr. Schuch enlivened the proceedings with some excellent singing, and addresses were delivered by several of the gentleman present. A splendid collation was served up and a very pleasant time spent. The management were highly complimented for the perfection of their arrangements and the very tasty repast offered.

Duplex lace curtains, handsome patterns, worth $8 for $4, at Farley's.

The Queen Street Subway.

The Parkdale subway question came up before the legislative railway committee yesterday in the shape of a bill to compel Toronto to pay part of the cost. Both municipalities were well represented. Ald. Turner defended the city in an able manner, showing how manifestly unfair it would be to make Toronto pay for Parkdale's error in judgment. Ex-Reeve Hamilton pointed out that Toronto ought to pay for it on account of the benefits it would derive. The objectionable clause in the bill was thrown out, and the Toronto deputation retired triumphant.

Presentation.

At a meeting last Monday evening of the Irish Catholic benevolent association, No. 1 of Canada and 451 of the United States, the officers and members presented J. J. Murphy, their retiring president, with a handsome gold emblem badge and address, as a mark of their respect and esteem for him during his office as president. Mr. Murphy responded, congratulating the society on the progress made during the past year, and hoped they would continue in advancing their main aim of benevolence.

Police Court Pointers.

William Williams and Albert Berry, disorderly, $2 and costs. Wm. McDonald, larceny, 3 months in the Central. John Woods, stealing boots from Frank Kavell, 10 days in jail. W. Watson and Wm. Carr, suspected of larceny, remanded. I. F. Finnigan, charged with stealing $100 from a farmer in Arthur, was handed over to an officer from Fergus. Ed. Wilkinson, carrying a revolver, $20 and costs. Peter Green was fined $20 and costs or 30 days in each of two cases for selling liquor without a license.

Wayward Harry Lee.

Yesterday the extradition case of Harry Lee was continued before Judge Boyd. Members of the defrauded firm were called to prove that figures on cheques produced in court were forged and that the forgeries were in the hand writing of Harry Lee. Mr. Murphy, for the prisoner, said that he was prepared to prove that the monies had been misappropriated by members of the firm, who were making a scapegoat of Lee. The case will be continued to-day.

The Library Board.

A meeting of the free library board was held last night, Mr. Hallam in the chair. All the members were present except the mayor. Very little business of public interest was transacted. The time of the meeting was largely taken up by arrangements for the opening of the library, and it was decided to invite the mayors and chairmen of those cities that have adopted the free library act to the opening.

A Drunken Burglar.

Early yesterday morning John Hopper of 133 Jarvis street heard a noise in his house, and on going down stairs found Pete Connors, a notorious burglar, lying on a sofa very drunk. He had evidently come in to search for plunder but was too much intoxicated to carry out his scheme. Mr. Hopper handed him over to the police, and the magistrate sentenced him to one month in jail.

A Collingwood Girl.

Some time ago Private Detective Howitt received instructions from the parents of a girl named Henrietta Burgess, living in Collingwood, to look for their daughter, who had eloped with a hired man named Erms. He found the young woman in a house of ill-fame on Queen street, where her paramour had deserted her. Her parents took the erring one home yesterday.

Hard on the Horses.

Some painful scenes were witnessed on the street car lines last night. In many instances the huge busses got stuck in the deep ruts and the wretched horses had not the strength to pull them out. The sweat poured down their jaded bodies and the poor beasts looked utterly worried out.

Severely Burned.

Last evening at 6 o'clock a fire broke out under the counter in Frisby's tailor shop, 249 Yonge street. Mr. Frisby in endeavoring to extinguish the flames was badly burned about the hands and face. The flames, however, were got under control without the brigade turning on water.

The Dime Museum.

Large crowds still witness the presentation of Uncle Tom's Cabin at this place of amusement. The fee is so small that all who wish to see this famous play can have an opportunity of doing so. The Tennessee jubilee singers alone are worth the price of admission.

Millinery at half price at Farley's.

A Reporter's Perils.

A Kingston Whig reporter relates the peril he experienced in trying to gain an entrance into the salvation army barracks Saturday night, when there was a terrible crush for admission. As he attempted to climb the back stairs an elderly lady got her arm around her neck, a pair of girls hooked him by the arms, and a fourth held him tenaciously by the coat-tail. "Take me with you," pleaded the lady of advanced years, while the maidens fair begged, "Let me follow you." As he didn't propose to be the escort to seventeen women, though all were pretty, he shook them off, and was drawn into the ante-room by the coat collar.

—The reason why "Nonsuch Washing Compound" should be used in preference to all other washing preparations. First, It is perfectly harmless. Second, It saves more than half the labor. Third, It is the cheapest in the market. Many more could be given but this should be sufficient. For sale by all grocers. Lowden & Co., Wholesale, Agents for Toronto.

THE BAD BOY AND HIS PA.

His Ma Goes to Petleys' and is Surprised.

"Who was that magnificently dressed woman I saw you trotting after the other day?" enquired the grocery man, as the bad came in.

"That was my Ma," said the bad boy.

"Oh, come off!" said the grocery man incredulously.

"Hope—I—may—die if it isn't," said the bad boy, "this hyer Petley's a terror, betcher life. Why Ma got forty dollars from Pa, an' Ma says 'is this hyer money to buy street car tickets with er what?' An' Pa said, 'You take that money an' go down to Petleys' and he'll 'stonish yoh.'" So Ma an' me went down to Petleys' and bought a beautiful silk mantle an' a purty bonnet an' a hull lot uv things an then she had money left. Why it's ridic'lous how cheap things is.

That thur show room uv Petley's is like a scene in a spectakler dramer. Betcher life it's fine. Ma says it's the purtiest show room she wuz ever in, an' the young ladies that waited onto her were so polite an' attentive. Ma seen me starin' hard at one ov um with old gold hair. An' she told me to go out like a good boy an' see if thur wuz a street car comin'. I wuz onto her little game right away. Why don't you take your wife down to Petley's an' spend a few dollars on her an' not hev her slouchin' off to church like an epileptic fit with a sun bonnet on an' the bad boy dodged a cheese knife, skipped through the door and hung up a sign outside,

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS.

ALBION HOTEL—GREAT ALTERATIONS have taken place at this hotel for the reception of travelers and agricultural people in general. It has long been felt that there was not sufficient room to accommodate the increasing trade of the hotel, and to meet this demand the proprietor has, at an expense of over $18,000, purchased the late premises occupied by the St. Lawrence coffee house association adjoining the Albion, and has now 125 bedrooms, accommodation for 200 guests. The house has been re-modelled and re-furnished throughout at an outlay of $5000—gas in every room, new dining-room 40x60, capable of seating 200 people at one time. The house is the best $1 house in the Dominion.

ROSSIN HOUSE—THE ROSSIN IS THE largest hotel in Canada, only two blocks from Union station, corner King and York streets, finest situation in Toronto. Its thoroughly first class appointments, large corridors, lofty ceilings, spacious, clean and well ventilated rooms, (the whole house having been painted, frescoed and decorated this spring), detached and en suite, polite and attentive employes in every apartment, together with unexcelled cuisine, make it specially attractive to the traveling public. Elevator run ning day and night. Hot and cold baths on each floor. Electric bells in rooms. Fire escape in each bed room. Prices graduated.

BAY HORSE HOTEL, YONGE STREET—I have taken possession of this well-known hostlery, and will conduct it on first-class principles. Good table, well-stocked bar, and ample stabling. The house will be the best $1 per day hotel in the city. ALEX. GIBB, Proprietor.

KING'S HOTEL, TORONTO, THE BEST $1 a day house in the city, corner York and Front streets. Porter to meet all trains. The most convenient house to all railroad stations. J. H. RIGG, Proprietor.
