A DYING WRECK

Pitiful Story of Pretty Western Actress who Went to Smash in New York.

New York, Oct. 30 .- Mapel Bouton is one of the annual sacrifices on New York's aftar of pleasure. She came here from the west, young, beautiful and idexperienced. Broadway seized her, wined her dined her, flattered her and finally devoured her.

Four years ago she was the life of many a gar midnight party in the

WOMEN VOTERS

Democrats May Drive Republicans Into Passing out Fashion Plates.

Denver, Oct. 30 .- In this state, where women are allowed to vote, the problem of campaigning has new features. The familiar political formula: "What are you going to have?" is still effective, but the "what" has to be changed.

Milton Smith, chairman of the democratic state central committee, has undertaken to solve the problem of getting out the woman vote and getting it out on his own side by distributing candy. The candy comes in half-pound boxes on the top of which are the names of the democratic candidates and this legend: "East with the democrats; vote with the democrats.

The sides and ends are labeled with appeals in ink of various colors, of which this is a sample:

"It would be a crime to our state loss to the nation if Henry M. Teller were not returned to the United States senate. While the republicans will support Edward O. Wolcott, vote the democratic ticket. The plan was first tried in bringing out the women to register and more than a ton of candy was distributed to the men at democratic headquarters. Every woman who registered got a box of sweets when she left the booth.

So pleased were Smith and County Chairman Hewitt with the success of the scheme that they announced at the end of the first day's registration that should the supply of candy and campaign funds hold out, every woman who registered and didn't get candy would get it when she had

The republicans will not admit that the plan has caused them any alarm, but it is understood that they are considering various counter-moves and Denver may yet see the ward worker traveling from house to house with a fashion paper in one hand, a feather boa in the other and his pockets bulging with boxes of candy. Thus far the republican newspapers have contented themselves with declaring that the candy is stale.

WHY?

Why do women continue to endure uffering caused by womanly diseases? There are many answers to that ques-tion. Sometimes because they have exof local physicians and remain un-cured. At other times it is because they shrink from submitting to obnoxious examina tions which local physicians deem necessary. And to sum it all up, they endure suffering because they do not know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick

BRAIN FOOD

Is of Little Benefit Unless it is Digested.

Nearly everyone will admit that as nation we eat too much meat and too little of vegetables and the grains. For business men, office men and clerks, and in fact, everyone engaged in sedentary or indoor occupations, in one registration district according grains, milk and vegetables are much more healthful.

Only men engaged in a severe outdoor manual labor can live on a heavy meat diet and continue in health. As a general rule, meat once a day is sufficient for all classes of men, women and children, and grains, fruit and vegeetables should constitute the bulk of food eaten. But many of the most nutricious loods are difficult of digestion and it is of no use to advise brain workers to eat largely of grains and vegetables where the digestion is too weak to asimilate them properly.

It is always best to get the best results from our food that some simple and harmless digestive should be taken after meals to assist the relaxed digestive organs, and several years' experience have proven Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to be a remedy which nay be taken daily with the best Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can hardly be called a patent medicine, as they do not act on the bowels nor any particular organ, but only on the food aten. They supply what weak stomachs lack, pepsin, diastase and by stimulating the gastric glands increase the natural secretion of hydrochloric acid.

People who make a daily practice cert will be held in the church. Revs. of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal are sure to have perfect digestion, which means perfect health. There is no danger of forming an njurious habit as the tablets contain absolutely nothing but natural digestives.; cocaine, morphine, and similar drugs have no place in a stomach medicine and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are certainly the best known and most popular of all stomach remedies. Ask your druggist for a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and after as week's use note the improvement in health, appetite and nervous energy.

BARBER MISSING

Owosso Merchants Mourn His Departure for Considerable Sums.

Owosso, Mich., Oct. 30 .- Those who nave had financial dealings with Hophire J. Greer, of Burton, five miles west, are worried over his continued absence. Greet was a cheesemaker for the Burton cheese factory, and was also the village barber. He drove out of town recently with a horse and carriage worth $240 on which Munson & Eaton, of Ovid had a chattel mortgage of $180.

Joseph Vincent, treasurer of the cheese company, accuses Greer of forging his name to a check for $11. J. Babcock, one of the owners of the factory, indorsed a note for $5 with Greer, and Mrs. Babcock lent the cheesemaker $15. Chas. Stiff, of the Owosso Paint & Wall Paper Co., and A. N. Henry, also mourn Greer's absence for various sums. The cheese company claims Greer collected about $50 from Sherman & Sons, Bancroft, to which he is not entitled. Greer was married a few weeks ago to Miss May Kent, of Bancroft, who has gone to her parents' home, after waiting week at Burton for her husband's return. Greer is about 35 years of age, a smooth talker, and an expert chepsemaker. He is also a fair bar-ber. He formerly conducted a cheese

John Duss Wins Complete Control of Great Harmony Society Property.

Washington, Oct. 30 .- Justice Mc-Kenna yesterday delivered the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Christian Schwartz and others vs. John S. Duss, the bandmaster, involving the property held by the Harmony Co-Operative society of Pennsylvania. Schwartz and his associates held they were descendants of former pearance with its hundred masked faces, resplendent costumes, pretty figured girls, and handsomely drapciety's property, alleging that the or-ganization has ceased to exist; that Red Riding Hood, The Queen of Night, Uncle Sam, Hay Rube, The Cholly pretend to be members of the society, ing the property.

The court decided that Schwartz comically dressed and the best dress- and his associates have not such a proprietary interest in the property as would entitle them, on a tion of the society, to a share in the

The Harmony society was quaint and communistic. It was founded in the nineteenth century by George ley also spoke, complimenting the Ropp, a youth of some education and originality of thought, who became so obnoxious to the Prussian government through his advocacy munistic doctrines that he was forced to leave his native country. He land ed in New Orleans just 90 years ago, and a few years later found him in St. Louis. Later he migrated to Indian, where he settled in Posey county, surrounded by a band of in-trepid spirits attracted by his en-

This section of the country proved unhealthy and Rapp and his followers pulled up stakes and landed in Butler county, Pennsylvania. In 1836 they again moved "Harmony" to Economy, in the same state, where the society has ever since thrived. Hundreds of inhabitants grew up like mushrooms, and mills and fertile fields were numbered among the possessions of tine society.

"One for all and all for one" was the motto of this little band of communists, who on admitting a new member compelled him to cede all of the community. Members received no compensation for their labors. They were not permitted to marry Consequently no members were born into the society, and all recruits went in by election. One of the tenets of the commune was that when "Father" Rapp died Christ was to make his second appearance on earth and take all members to his bosom. When "Father' Rapp died this prediction did not come true, and, as the original members had passed the prime of life, new ones were not admitted, and the dis-integration of the society commenced. The lands were leased to tenants that the sisters and brothers might pass their declining years in peace and free from toil.

Duss is virtually the only child of the society. When he was two years old his mother took him to Economy This was in 1862. Duss was admitted to the Harmony society in 1890, through the influence of "Father" Henrici, and so was his wife. Although they lived in the "Great House," they were separated, in accordance with the doctrines of the community. When "Father" Henrici died a few years ago Duss was elected "patriarch," and he was accused of violating some of the car-dinal principles of the society. He gave mortgages to pay the society's indebtedness. He says that with the end of the membership came the end of the society.

Much of the society's money was invested in Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad stock by "Father" Henrici, who was president of the road in its He was later associated with William K. Vanderfilt in build ing the McKeesport & Youghiogheny railroad. He was also a director of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, in which he invested the money of the society.
