the Europeans and demanding native control of the Government of India by means of an elected Parliament, has been followed recently by riots here and elsewhere in the Punjab, and by attacks on Europeans.

Professional and political agitators are now fomenting strikes on the railroads and the government has concluded that it is time to suppress the rioting by forceful means if necessary. The authorities are satisfied that a determined front will speedily end the outward signs of disaffection, especially as they have the unanimous support of the great Mohammedan population, who, at numerous mass meetings, have emphatically condemned the anti-European movement.

Recent events have given a remarkable impulse to enlistment in the volunteers. The recruite include five judges of the supreme court, the director of public instruction, university professors, high Government officials and leading bankers and merchants.

No Longer "Slayes."

The word "nutsal" or "slave" has hitherto been used by all the Manchufian officials as well as military officials in addressing the throne, but it is now proposed to stop such words being used hereafter and to order them to use the word "ghen," or servant of a sovereign, which is at present used by Chinese officials and civil officials. An imperial decree to that effect will be issued when the new administrative system is published.—Shanghai Mercury.

STILL SINGS AT 78.

British Veteran Choir Singer Who Took Part In the First Performance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

There is singing in the Birmingham Fessival Chorus this year a chorister whe took part in the first performa-ance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah," when the great composer himself conducted the work, at the Birmingham Festival

William Pountney, of the St. Cyprian's Choir, Hay Mills, Birmingham, was a youth of 18 at that time. Coming of a gifted musical family, he had ing of a gifted musical family, he had earned the right to be included in the festival choir, and he has taken part in every festival choir save one since that time. When you speak to him he tells you that he still has the remnant of a voice, but the writer has often heard him sound his bottom D in choir work during the last two years, and he can him sound his bottom D in con't work during the last two years, and he can sing a ballad with the tone and vigor of a youth. When Mr. Pountney had his voice tested for this year's festival he told the examiner his age, and was met with the remark, "Well, you may be nearly eighty, but your voice is only forty."

> London's New Mayor.
> Sir William Purdie Treloar, the new Lord Mayor of London, is a man of many parts and is most popular with the members of the City Corporation. On election day when his name was proposed it was received with tremendous applause. To all other names the crowd shouted "next," meaning that they were to be set aside until next year. The Lord Mayor is a Cornishman, 63 years of age. He has been a member of the Corporation of the City of London since 1839 and an alderman since 1892. From 1899 to 1900 he was one of the sheriffs of the city and has been a Justice of the Peace in Kent, Surrey and London. He is deeply interested in Egyptian matters, being a director and trustee of T, Cook & Sons, Limited, and is besides an author of some note. London's New Mayor.

Traveler in Trouble.

Toronto, April 29.—J. J. Cummings, a Montreal cigar traveler, was arrested on Saturday night by Detective Tipton, on a warrant from Berlin, Ont., charging him with fraud.

Cummings, it is alleged, undertook to sell a quantity of wine on commission for Weiner Bros. of Berlin. He advised the firm to the effect that he had sold two casks to an Ottawa firm. Weiner Bros. sent him a cheque covering the amount of the commission. When called on for payment, the Ottawa firm denied any knowledge of the transaction.

Cummings will be taken to Berlin to-day.
