FLAGSTAFF SNAPPED.

CHICAGO, May 14—A series of mishaps, commencing with the breaking of the flagpole and ending with a furious wind and rain storm, marred the demonstration at the raising of the world's championship baseball pennant at the American League park here today.

Forty ball players and officials laid hold of the halyard to haul the great 35-foot pennant to the top of the staff. Their combined effort was too much for the slender staff, which snapped at the crosstrees. Mayor Busse, August Herrmann, chairman of the National baseball commission, and President Ban Johnson of the American league delivered their speeches, however, and the pennant was declared "officially" raised.

The affair was staged on one of the biggest scales ever attempted in the national pastime, a parade from the city hall to the grounds being the biggest feature.

Lowering clouds caused Umpire O'Loughlin to start the game ten minutes ahead of schedule time, but before the game was an inning old a terrific rain storm broke over the field and made the grounds a lake, and drenched everybody within the inclosure.

The game was declared off.

HARVARD FRESHMEN WON.

In a game between the Harvard Freshmen and Stone's School at Boston on Tuesday, Max. Clay, the Stone School pitcher, struck out twenty-one men, surpassing his record of the previous day, when he struck out twenty Pomfret players. Forty-one men in two successive games isn't bad, and is unparalleled in baseball. Notwithstanding Cicy's great work the Harvard Freshmen won the game in the twelfth inning by a score of 4 to 3.

WEDDINGS.

MILLS-MANCHESTER.

SUSSEX, May 15.—Another well known Sussex bachelor has deserted the ranks of the old guard. At the Church of the Ascension, Apohaqui, at 3.30 this afternoon were solemnized the nuptials of Walter Caines Mills of the Sussex Mercantile Co. and Miss Emma Manchester, eldest daughter of the late Dr. John Manchester of Studholm. Rev. Scovil Neales, rector of Sussex, performed the ceremony.

The bride was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of navy blue venetian. She was attended by her sister, Miss Kate Manchester, who was costumed in brown venetian. Joseph Mills, brother of the groom, was best man. George Secord and Will Jones acted as ushers. The church presented a beautiful appearance, being tastefully decorated with flowers for the occasion.

The happy couple left on the west bound C. P. R. from Apohaqui shortly after the ceremony en route to Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara Falls. They expect to return in about two weeks by way of the St. Lawrence and Quebec, and will take up their residence in Sussex.

Among the numerous presents received by Mr. and Mrs. Mills may be mentioned a polished oak cabinet containing 84 pieces of sterling silver, accompanied by an address, from the employes of the Sussex Mercantile Company; check from Mr. and Mrs. S. H. White and Miss Della White; oak music cabinet from Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mills; fish set from Mayor and Mrs. J. A. Murray; mirror and cut glass centrepiece from Mrs. Robert Lee, St. John; cabinet of cutlery from James Manchester, St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills are the recipients of hearty congratulations and best wishes for long life and happiness from a host of friends. Mr. Mills, both in business and public affairs, enjoys the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. His associates in the town council met at the town clerk's office yesterday afternoon and summoned Mr. Mills by telephone to appear in their midst. Mayor Murray in a happy speech conveyed to him the high appreciation in which his character and services were held by his brother aldermen and their hearty approval of his contemplated action. He was followed by Ald. McLean, who in appropriate words on behalf of the council presented Mr. Mills with a handsome oak and leather Morris chair. Mr. Mills, who was completely taken by surprise, spoke feelingly of the kindly relations subsisting between himself and the other members of the board and of the friendships which had been strengthened by association round the council table.

PLAYS LORD BOUNTIFUL, SCATTERING DOLLARS

New Yorker Throws Money on Los Angeles Street to Appreciative Retinue.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 15—Scattering silver dollars along the sunny side of Broadway, a man who says he is Fred Morris, of New York city, owner of the Morris Ranch and Morris Racing Stables, made his way up street, followed by an appreciative retinue. "It all goes but 10 cents," shouted the money scatterer. "It all goes but a dime." Tremendous cheering from the attending retinue followed.

The man at once made good with a fresh shower of silver dollars.

The scramble that followed was so tempestuous that Officer Osterlorch feared for Broadway traffic, and amid groans and hisses, haled the philanthropist off to the Central police station.

The usual search brought forth fifty-seven silver dollars and $140 in bills.

Tucked away in a corner of a vest pocket was the favored dime. The prisoner was booked on a charge of intoxication. He mumbled that he had $500 when he began to play "Lord Bountiful."
