C. Becher, stock broker, next Free

rivate wire from Bartlett, Frazier &
rington today:

ew York, Oct. 27.—Noon.—As might e been expected from the somewhat ming telegrams which appeared in morning's papers in regard to the sian situation, the London houses e quite sellers in our market, put-e out some 30,000 shares. After the hour, however, this selling dimind in volume, and the whole list eloped a rallying tendency. It was ught that in view of foreign liquida-ength, and the traders were thereby ouraged to work for higher prices.

DEPARTMENT SETTLES UP

City Gets Check for Nursing Militia Camp Patient.

City Clerk Baker today received a check for $414 60 from the militia department, Ottawa.

The check is to defray the expense incurred by the city in connection with the case of Private Wonsch, the Guelph militiamen, who was stricken with smallpox while attending the June camp on Carling's Heights. Wonsch was in an isolated tent down the river for several weeks, under the care of a special nurse and the local medical health officer, and as the disease made its appearance at the camp the cost was charged up to the department.

MRS. LABURTIS ON TRIAL

Woodstock Woman Charged With Illegal Practice of Medicine.

Mrs. Susan Laburtis, the colored woman from Woodstock, who is an alleged voodoo doctor, was up before P. M. Love this afternoon on a charge of illegally practicing medicine. The charge was preferred by Inspector Rose, and the Medical Society was represented by Mr. S. G. McKay, of Woodstock. Mr. Joseph Judd is defending Mrs. Laburtis.

Miss Wallace, of Grey street, was the first witness for the prosecution. She told of the woman coming to her home on invitation, and said that she had merely brought medicine to her mother, who was a sufferer from a paralytic stroke.

The examination of Miss Wallace was still in progress at 3 o'clock.

MAY HAVE BEEN MURDERED

Bodies of Woman and Three Children Found in Burned House.

Ashbury Park, N. J., Oct. 26.—The bodies of Isabelle Spivey, colored, aged 34 years, and her three children, Marie Louise, aged 10, Gladys, aged 7, and a boy of 3 years, were found in the burned ruins of their shanty early today under such circumstances as to lead the authorities to suspect that the two little girls had been killed before the fire started. Their skulls were crushed and Coroner Bennett, of Long Branch, today ordered the police to investigate the case to discover whether or not the shanty had been fired to conceal a crime and whether all the four may not have been victims of a murder. The origin of the fire is unknown. Harvey G. Spivey, the husband of the dead woman, was not in the house when the fire started and the blaze was discovered shortly after a neighbor who had been visiting her had departed.

Mutiny at Odessa.

London, Oct. 26.—A special dispatch farom Odessa says it is reported that a mutiny has occurred on the Russian battleship Catherine II. at Sebastopol, and that 400 of her crew have been arrested.

Class "Rush" in Streets.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Twenty-five policemen and 200 students of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery fought here following a clash "rush," and fifteen students were arrested. The police fired several shots in the air to frighten the students.

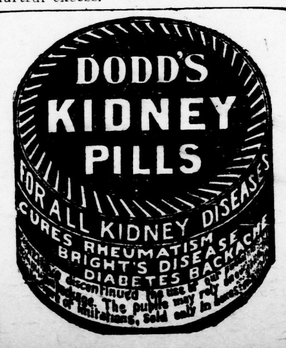
The freshmen and junior classes met in their annual class rush, and the scrimmage became so desperate that a riot call was sent to two police stations. When the police arrived traffic was blocked in nearby streets.

Investigate

For over a quarter of a century Angier's Emulsion has been the remedy of physicians. It has always given satisfactory and beneficial results. It has never disappointed. It will do the same for you. If you are suffering from hoarseness, throat irritation or weakness, cough, bronchitis, weak lungs or consumption, try it.

Two Australian black swans were recently picked up off Norfolk Island, in the Pacific. They must have traveled 400 miles. The birds were in a very exhausted condition, but after a fresh water bath and plenty of food they revived. The black swan is a powerful swimmer, but 400 miles at sea is a long swim, even for him.

Imagination is a window. If too wide, it means a weakened wall and light in hurtful excess.



WILLIAM MORGAN'S PITIABLE CASE

Consumptive Young Man's Love for Drink Gets Him in Jail Again.

William Morgan, a most unfortunate young man, was up before Police Magistrate Love on the charge of stealing an overcoat from a boarder at the Queen's Hotel. Morgan was convicted some time ago of stealing a watch and pawning it. He was sent to the county jail for four months on the charge. While there consumption, from which the young man was suffering, developed very fast, and he was removed to Victoria Hospital. While there his passion for drink overcame him, and he caused so much trouble that he was sent back to the jail to finish his sentence. He was discharged a week ago. He immediately set out on a protracted spree, and being short of funds, he took a good overcoat and pawned it. In court he admitted the theft, his excuse being that he did not remember the circumstance at all. He was remanded a week, and it will be seen what can be done in the matter. It is a most pitiful case, but there is no questioning the fact that the authorities have done everything possible for Morgan. Citizens have taken an interest in his case, and the young man whose overcoat was stolen had paid Morgan's board at a hotel rather than see him in need. The best place for him certainly was in the jail, for had not Police Magistrate Love sent him down on the former charge, he would doubtless have drunk himself to death in a short time. He comes of a good family in Scotland and is an only son.

Frank Legge got a big jag of fighting booze on board and soon had a bunch of trouble on his hands. He met an older man in the barroom of a hotel and then a fight began. He biffed the old chap around at a merry clip. The old fellow made for the highway, and Legge followed him, and proceeded to make a good job of it. He jabbed the old chap in the chest and knocked him all up in a heap. The women in a street car in real hearty manner hissed him for his conduct. He kicked his victim several times in the ribs as a token of friendship. Bystanders got the old man on his feet, and started him up the street. Legge, however, was not satisfied, and seemed to regret that he had not taken a few more punches at his easy mark, so he crossed the street again and repeated his assaults. The third time that he went through this proceeding, a street car conductor got off his car, and took hold of Legge. He showed fight, but when he was biffed hard on the jaw he was tamer than Mary's pet lamb. He was arrested, and this morning Police Magistrate Love fined him $20 and costs for assault and $10 for being drunk and disorderly. He paid the freight. When imposing sentence the magistrate gave him a severe lecture, and expressed a regret that the charge had not been of such a nature that he could have him sent to Central Prison. It was the most cowardly assault, he said, that he had had to deal with for some time.

Albert Finch is a young chap, and he sampled strenuous booze, too. He went into the Olympia restaurant and indulged in a cut-up turn there. He was chased to the weather, but thought he would like to finish the performance. This time an officer of the law arrived and Albert was taken in. He was fined $5 and costs for his jag, which he paid.

A young man was charged with refusal to pay livery hire, but the liveryman failed to make out a case, as he was paid the price agreed upon. The liveryman wanted some more money for extra driving.

A couple of holiday jags were set loose.

WAS ONLY A ROW

But Nevertheless It Gave the Westminster People a Scare.

The residents in close proximity to the old London View Hotel on the Wharncliffe road, about a mile south of the city limits, got a scare last night. About 10 o'clock a junk dealer named John Loughead, who lives east of the hotel, was driving home with his housekeeper, Elizabeth Cossland. Both were in a drunken condition, it is alleged—at any rate, they were indulging in loud talk, which continued after they entered the house. Neighbors who had been attracted by the row heard the woman scream several times, and then all became quiet. The sudden termination of the row caused the neighbors to suspect that possibly murder had been committed, and they notified Detective Northgreaves. The officer visited the scene, but finding everything quiet and being without a warrant, he was unable to act. However, he secured evidence which resulted in him charging Lougheed and the woman with being drunk and disorderly and using profane language, and this morning he arrested the pair and brought them before Squire Gorwell, who remanded the woman for a week, and bailed Lougheed in the sum of $500 to appear at the same time.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Marshall Celebrate Golden Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Marshall, of Stratford, well known in this city, yesterday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, seven children and nine grandchildren, besides a number of friends taking part in the very pleasant event.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are 77 years of age, and are in excellent health, the former still being in active business as a produce and commission merchant.

Mr. Marshall's father and mother celebrated their golden wedding many years ago, and a peculiar fact is that a few guests present yesterday had been present at the previous celebration.

Fifty years have passed in the life of this happy couple, who have raised a family of seven children, and not a single death has occurred. The grandchildren are also all living. Five sons and one daughter are married, one of the former being Mr. Marshall, an optician, of this city. Many happy tokens and telegrams were received by the aged couple among them being a pair of gold-headed umbrellas, the gift of the sons.

Mr. Marshall is perhaps the only living survivor of the awful Desjardin wreck near Hamilton, he having had three ribs broken and received other injuries at that time.

When some men pretend to act foolish their neighbors are unable to detect the difference.

CONDENSED LOCAL NEWS

—H. P. Moore, editor and publisher of the Acton Free Press, is in the city.

—Miss Hattie Mount, of Chatham, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Lawson, of Maitland street.

—Mr. John Collar, of Egerton street, has written the city regarding the need of filling in some property at the corner of Egerton street and the Hamilton road. The property belongs to the corporation, and Mr. Collar thinks that the earth removed from streets might be placed on it, instead of being given to citizens to place on their own lands.

The better heating apparatus and the other improvements in the jail were favorably commented on. At present about 20 prisoners are incarcerated, of whom only one is a woman.

"TEACHERS' 'SOCIATION" DAY.

Today is "Teachers' 'Sociation Day," as the children call it. Twice a year the youngsters are made happy by reason of a holiday, while their teachers have to go to school. The association meets in Guelph today, and nearly all the teachers and school trustees of this city are in attendance. The meeting is being held in the Macdonald Institute, which is a part of the Ontario Agricultural College.

WERE SENT HOME.

The Port Huron Times of Thursday contained the following: Joseph Wickett and Ralph England, the two boys arrested by Deputy Sheriff Siepes and Police Captain Collins at the tunnel section on Wednesday afternoon, will be sent back to their homes in London, Ont. Chief of Police Maines questioned the boys regarding their leaving home, but neither of them had any excuse to offer. Both absolutely refused to return home although they have relatives there.

A SHOOT TOMORROW.

Owing to the many other events on the programme, the Seventh Regiment Rifle Association could not have the extra series match No. 3 at the Cove ranges yesterday. The match will be shot tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. It will be open to all citizens, and free ammunition is to be furnished. Each competitor will fire five shots at the 200-yard range, but instead of firing from the usual distance they will be placed back an additional hundred yards. The prizes range in value from $6 50 to 50 cents.

OUT IN THE SECOND.

Eleven events were pulled off last night in the preliminary contest for the Toronto city amateur championship. The Globe says: George Seymour, of London, Ont., a statuesque boxer of little skill, and a bundle of swings, lasted a round and a half before W. A. Waring of the Heyward A. C. It was a ripping free-for-all contest, both men scoring knockdowns in the first round. Seymour was prone on the floor when the bell rang. In the second Seymour was weak and after being floored once was finally put over for keeps. Both men swung incessantly, doing little clinching.

A CANADIAN APPOINTED.

Mr. W. R. Manning, principal of the model and public school at Walkerton, Ont., has just received and accepted, while in this city attending the Provincial Sabbath School Association, the unsolicited offer of the position of teacher training secretary for the Sabbath schools of Iowa, with headquarters at Des Moines. Mr. Manning is well-known to many Londoners, having once resided here. He was born near Derwent, Westminster Township, and early adopted the teaching profession. Prior to going to Walkerton, where he has taught four years, he was principal for extended periods of such important schools as those at Essex and Campbellford, distinguishing himself as an enlightened and enthusiastic educationist. He has for years achieved very great success as superintendent and Bible class teacher in several large Methodist Sabbath schools. His work in conventions, teachers' meetings, etc., being of a most inspiring character, has also aided in marking him for promotion to the important post with which he is now intrusted, having naturally attracted the attention of such men as Mr. Marion Lawrance, the general secretary of the International Sabbath School Association and others. Mr. Manning will assume his new duties in Iowa at the beginning of the new year.
