L. S. S. A. REGATTA OPENING TODAY

The entry list for the Lake Sailing Skiff Association's annual regatta, commencing this afternoon at the Alexandra Yacht Club is the largest in years.

The 14 foot dinghies have 53 boats entered, including Geo. Hancock's new boat from Hamilton. This is the first time the Hamilton sailors have had a boat in this class, and if the weather is at all rough the Toronto fleet will have to keep an eye on him, as Hancock is some sailor in a breeze.

The 16 foot dinghy class will have eight new boats in the open events, in which six of them are Toronto boats. This class was started in Toronto last fall by Tom Turrall of the National Yacht Club when he secured a boat from Morris, the famous boat builder in Hamilton, and when the crowd saw the boat they decided to build a class in Toronto, and from reports the Hamilton delegation will have to sail to beat them. This class will have 15 entries.

The 16 foot skiff class will have the usual entry with two new boats from Toronto, and one from Hamilton, which will mean 17 starters. Bill Judd, the crack skiff sailor of Hamilton, will come down from the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club, and if he has crew of previous years there will be some great manoeuvres take place on the bay.

The feature of today's race is the challenge cup in which the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club and the Alexandra Yacht Club will battle it out for the honors of the 16 foot skiff challenge cup, and the Victoria Yacht Club, Hamilton, against the National Yacht Club for the 16 foot dinghy challenge cup.

Races commence at 2.30 and 2.35 p.m.

McNEAL HAS REAL OPPONENT TONIGHT

That keen rivalry exists between the two great motorcycle riders, Larry Fleckenstein of Denver, Col., and Jimmy McNeal of Omaha, Neb., was proven beyond doubt to a crowd of fans at the Motordrome yesterday afternoon. Fleckenstein was about ready to try out his machine when McNeal appeared at the trackside with a watch in his hand. The Denver man objected, and after a wordy battle McNeal agreed to leave with the remark that Fleck could not tell him anything about that machine, because that was the gasoline buggy that McNeal had made his world's record on.

The two speedy men will meet tonight in the first of the series for the world's championship, and in the second stage on Monday night at the holiday meet.

Both McNeal and Fleckenstein will ride from scratch in a ten-mile handicap tonight, giving 3½ laps to six other riders.

The amateur cyclists will decide the quarter mile Canadian championship tonight, and the ten-mile title on Monday night. The Russian Juvenile Band will be in attendance at tonight's meet.

THIS WAS EASY.

ANNUAL CONVENTION PROVINCIAL FIREMEN

Thorold Chosen as Meeting Place and Amalgamation Will Be Discussed.

The 16th annual convention of the Provincial Firemen's Association of Ontario will be held at Thorold, Ont., Aug. 2, 3 and 4.

The business sessions will open Monday at 2 p.m., when the mayor will extend a welcome to the visiting firemen. One of the most important matters to be discussed is the amalgamation of the Northern, Eastern and Provincial Associations, in order to secure much-needed legislation in the interests of volunteer and badly paid firemen.

Wednesday is Demonstration Day, when it is expected that 50 companions with bands and banners will parade the principal streets. Following this there will be fancy drill, hose reel and hook and ladder races and a number of other interesting events. ROSEDALE IN SHAPE FOR THE HOLIDAY

Captains Bert Green and Barnett had the full Rosedale team in uniform last evening and worked them against 14 Young Torontos for fully one hour without a let up. Every man looks fit to go any pace that Tecumsehs may set for the holiday; in fact it looks like the blue shirts to go out in front. The boys are all in good condition and fully expect to take a fall out of the Indians.

The Rosedale management expect to play both Kalls and Fitzgerald; both these boys have been working out regularly at home and will be in the best of shape. With Querrie's Indians playing the same brand of lacrosse as they did last Saturday the match will be well worth a visit to Rosedale on the holiday.

The teams for Monday, with positions: Rosedale—Goal, Holmes; point, Harshaw; cover, Yeaman; first defence, Green; second defence, Harrison; third defence, Braden; centre, Longfellow; third home, Denneny; second home, J. Green or Fitzgerald; first home, Warwick; outside, Barnett; inside, Kalls; spares, Barber, Tweddle.

Tecumsehs—Goal, Kinsman; point, Graydon; cover, Powers; first defence, Eelker; second defence, Mackenzie; third defence, Stagg; centre, Dandeno; third home, Denneny; second home, Querrie; first home, Donihee; outside, Durkin; inside, Carmichael; spares, Spellen, Rowntree, Whitehead, Porter, Bennett.
