A TALE TOO OFTEN TOLD

DEFEAT OF THE TORONTO BASEBALL CLUB.

The Uticas Strengthen Their Claim to be Considered the Coming Champions—Hamilton Beats Binghamton by One Run—The Tennis Tournament—Racing at Many Places.

The now oft-told tale was repeated on the baseball grounds over the Don yesterday. The Torontos were beaten. Up to the end of the fifth innings it was an interesting game, and then the home club went to pieces in the field. Spill at short making two wild throws, one ten feet over long Jay Fastz's head at first, and another at his feet, the first costing two runs clear, and the last one. Thus three runs are accounted for. Smith was absent from his place at third, his knee giving him great trouble, and McGuckin was his substitute. The latter not only made a couple of errors, but failed to take chances that would have been snapped at by Smith. Morrison at centre field made some particularly brilliant catches. Osterhout batted well for a two-bagger and two singles, doing the best hitting of the day for the home nine. His base-running was also a feature of the game. Emslie was rather hardly hit, and gave T. Griffin, a slugger from Sluggersville, three bases on balls. Albert did not play quite so brilliantly as usual, having two errors to his credit, and failing to make a safe hit. Fastz, as usual, was faultless in his position, and Darling saved a number of wild pitches. But the Uticas really outplayed the Torontos in every respect. They batted better, fielded better, ran their bases better, and were coached better. Carroll's home run in the seventh innings, on which he brought in Shindle, came like a douche bath and paralyzed all hopes of redeeming the game. It was the last drop of bitterness in an already overflowing cup. "Juice" Latham afforded much amusement to the small boy brigade by his extraordinary yelling and relieved a somewhat tedious game. Hoover's umpiring on the whole was fair, but he really should stand up to the plate. Yesterday he allowed a clear foul to go as a two base hit, and on the preceding day a foul tip to catcher went entirely unnoticed. In another case he called a ball when the player struck at it. To expect a little man to satisfactorily umpire a game some yards behind a big man's broad back is rather out of the question. Rain caused an interruption of fully half an hour in the third innings of the Torontos, whose hopes at that time hung high. The attendance numbered between eight and nine hundred.

Fair Balls.

There's no doubt about the Torontos being third on the record now.

It was not hard luck, but hard bad play that lost the game yesterday.

Chas. Levis and "Daddy" Cross of the disbanded Chattanooga team have joined Binghamton.

The receipts of the St. Louis American Association team have been nearly $20,000 greater than at this time last year.

Secretary White has issued notices to the effect that official scorers must not allow members of the association or players to see the detailed score before it is sent to him.

Pat Leary of Cardiff, Wales, and Joe Ridge of Pittsburg engaged in a prize fight near Covington, Ky., last night. Twelve bloody rounds were fought and Leary was declared the victor. Ridge presented a pitiable sight.

The Fulljames party imported a 128 lb. man named Denny Clark with a view of backing him against Harry Gilmore, so report states. Paul Petillo thought he would like to have a "go" with him, and on Wednesday night the pair met, with the raw 'uns it is said, and Paul sent Mr. Clark to sleep in the second round.

Jake Gaudaur will leave St. Louis for Boston July 30, and will there superintend the packing of his boats at Ruddock's for shipment to England. That builder has two shells which he is redecking and fixing over for the champion, and has received an order for a new one, which will be built upon the same lines and be an exact counterpart of the craft in which Jake won the championship. Is will be finished about Aug. 15, and will be christened "City of St. Louis." A testimonial benefit will be given Gaudaur before his departure from the Mound City. The champion and Hamm will sail from New York for England Aug. 3, taking three practice-boats with them.

His Preference.

From the Arkansas Traveler.

Arkansas backwoods school teacher (to boy)—Did you want to come to school?

Boy—Wan't hurtin' to come.

Teacher—But you thought it better to get an education, eh?

Boy—Don't think er nuff uv it to hurt me.

Teacher—Then why did you come?

Boy—Wall, dad he said I had ter plow ther new groun' with er bull tongue ur go ter school, it didn't matter a blame which, so I come ter school, thinkin' I'd try it er few falls.

Teacher—How do you like it as far as you've got?

Boy—Ain't dead in love with it.

Teacher—Here, take this book, now, and let me teach you your letters.

Boy—Ain't got no letters. Sis is ther only one on ther place that gits any letters.

Teacher—I mean that you must learn the alphabet.

Boy (contemptuously)—Whut, all them marks?

Teacher—Yes.

Boy (taking up his hat)—Wall, er good-by. I'd rather rassle with ther bull tongue.

Pharaoh's Chariot.

—In former days when Pharaoh and his chariots were following the Egyptians over the Red Sea they were drowned, and it is said by learned men their harness gave way first and thus the horses and heroes drifted down the stream. The Canadian Harness Company would have guaranteed Pharaoh a set of harness equivalent to any emergency, but at that time the "Canadian Harness Company," 104 Front-street east, Toronto, was not established. 216

Thirty-Nine Girls in Ten Years.

From the Atlanta Constitution.

Thirty-nine girls.

In ten years fifteen will have married.

In ten years seven of the fifteen will be widows dependent upon their own exertions for bread and meat.

In ten years fifteen of the remaining twenty-four will be sleeping beneath the sod. And how far apart will they be sleeping? One in Georgia, one in California, one in Ohio, one in Virginia, another, perhaps, in a missionary's grave in China, another amid the ashes of the ancient Aztecs of Mexico, another—but only time will tell where they will sleep.

In ten years the nine not yet mentioned will begin to loose their sweetness and develop something of the sourness supposed to be inseparable from women that are destined to be old maids.

In ten years not one of the thirty-nine but that will have tasted of the bitterness which comes in time to all human beings. Hope will be blighted, loved ones will be claimed by that same skeleton you beheld just now, sorrow in a hundred forms will be experienced—indeed, to every one a surfeit of Dead Sea fruit will be offered.

The Bride "Popped the Question."

—They were sitting on the lawn last night. They live in the west end. They've been courting a year. He was shy. She was disgusted. Said she, We've courted 4 years and you've never asked me the question. I'll do it now; said the brave girl. Can I buy my groceries where I like? I guess so, said he. I'll have you, said she. Wiggins & Lewis, cor. Queen-street and Dovercourt-road, has the best crockery and liquor store in Toronto, I shall go there.

The Wrong Way.

From the Wall Street News.

He rang the door-bell several times and was going down the steps when a boy came along and said that it was an empty house.

"Ah: but I thought the family might be sojourning at the seashore."

"Oh, you did? Well, I belong to the family, and at present we are sojourning on the fourth floor back in the next street. We haven't been to the seashore since dad thought oil was going to jump seven points."

"Didn't it jump."

"She did, but it was backwards."

A Wife Don't Know Her Husband.

A most remarkable case of identification is to hand in Toronto. A gentleman returning home from business was refused admittance by his wife to his own home. A simple explanation will show the reason. He had just formed a new summer suit, and it improved his general appearance so much that even his "own wife" didn't know him. Coulter & Gibson, the tailors, 249 Yonge street, surprise every one with their nobby suits. 246x

Cannot Do Without It.

—Is the frequent remark made by gentlemen of good judgment in alluding to Goldstein's mixture or cut plug brands of smoking tobacco. Every connoisseur that has tested these brands cheerfully admits their superiority over all others. They are pure, aromatic and do not bite the tongue; all smokers of fine grades of tobacco are requested to give them a trial. Wm. Goldstein & Co., tobacconists, 93 King; street west.

Bees Take Part in an Election.

From the Pall Mall Gazette.

At Luton, yesterday, July 7, while polling was in active progress, a swarm of bees belonging to Mr. Latchmore, banker, left their hive and made for the door of the Corn Exchange, which was the polling station, eventually settling on a lamp-post close by. The polling agents beat a hasty retreat, while the crowd fled in all directions. The excitement continued until a man climbed the lamp-post and captured the bees by covering them with a box.

A Solace and Comfort.

The above may be derived by all consumers of the aromatic weed by smoking Goldstein' mixture or cut plug brands. They are so prepared as to not bite the tongue nor leave an unpleasant taste in the mouth. Gentlemen desiring an enjoyable smoke are requested to give these brands a trial. Wm. Goldstein & Co., tobacconists, 93 King-street west. edx

Who sells so cheap and gives long time
To those who seek to save a dime?
Why, Walker!

Who is it to the front does leap
By selling Parlor Suites so cheap,
That people crowd there in a heap!
Why, Walker!

Who is it that the ladies seek,
To buy House Furnishings so cheap,
And only pay so much per week?
Why, Walker!

Who looks with pleasure on the past?
Whose Stoves and Furniture will last?
Who sacrifices to sell fast?
Why, Walker!
