SUBSCRIPTION—$1.00 A YEAR,

JAMES McISAAC,
Editor & Proprietor.

HERE we are, well advanced in the month of January, 1898, and many of our subscribers have not paid up for 1897. Now friends, is that the proper way to support your paper?

THE accounts for the City of Charlottetown for the year ended Dec. 31, 1897, show that the total receipts from all sources amounted to $75,269.31, and the total expenditures to $74,932.56, leaving a balance in favor of the City of $336.75. We will refer to this matter at greater length when the accounts come before us.

AT the regular meeting of the City Council held on Monday evening last, advance sheets of the City accounts for the past year were presented, and the Mayor and Councillors made addresses dealing with important civic matters. His Worship reviewed the work of the past year, congratulating the city on having a balance to the credit side of its account. Councillor Nicholson made an able and practical speech on the question of sewerage for the city. He pointed out the necessity of sewerage, and announced his determination to contest his ward at the forthcoming elections on that question.

WASHINGTON advices of a recent date indicate that there are strong reasons for believing that Great Britain will again take the lead of all other nations in the negotiation of reciprocal treaties under the Dingley Tariff Act. While other nations were lodging complaints against the terms of the act and of the very limited advantages offered by the reciprocity clause, the British Embassy has been quietly carrying out negotiations for a series of treaties exceeding the benefits of so much reciprocity as may be obtained under the act to British possessions in the West Indies.

AFTER correspondence with the Imperial Government, the authorities at Ottawa have decided to admit the products of Spain to the banefits of the reciprocal tariff up to the 31st of July next. This concession is made, not on the merits of the Spanish tariff, but on account of the treaty arrangements between that country and Britain. The concession will apply to all importations of Spanish goods from the 23rd of April last. For the same reason, viz., because of Britain's treaty obligations, the following countries have been added to the list of those entitled to the benefits of the Canadian reciprocal tariff. Morocco, Siberia, Salvador, Tonga and South African republic.

WORD comes from Ottawa that an influential delegation of stalwart Grits waited on Messrs. Fielding and Paterson the other day and discussed with these ministers the present position of the binder twine industry. On the first of January binder twine went on the free list, under the Fielding tariff of last session. Now these stalwart Grits claim that without some protection the industry cannot exist, that the surplus stock of United States manufacturers will be dumped into Canada, and that the result will be to close up Canadian factories, while the consumer himself will not derive any material benefit. This is one of the results of Fielding's tariff tinkering. Beneficial, Very!

IT is now estimated that, in consequence of arrangements agreed to by the Canadian and United States authorities with a view of removing any unreasonable impediment in the way of transportation, Canadian goods for the Yukon district will be allowed to pass through the disputed territory without payment of customs charges under regulations soon to be put in force by the customs authorities at Dyea. The goods are to be entered at the customs at Dyea or Skaguay on a list which will be checked by a United States officer at the frontier or possibly at Tagish. If the goods are found to correspond with the list they will then pass without further charge by the United States customs.

EVERYONE who gives the least attention to public men and public affairs, is familiar with the professions of economy made by Grit politicians, Federal and Provincial, when out of office. All know, too, how lamentably such professions are falsified, as soon as these same Grit politicians get into power. During the eighteen years the Conservatives were in power at Ottawa, Grit speakers and Grit newspapers kept up a constant howl regarding the extravagance of the Tory Government. Only give the Grits a chance and a reign of economy would at once be inaugurated. Well, they got into power, and what is the consequence? The public accounts of the Dominion for the financial year beginning with the month in which Laurier assumed office, are at hand, and they tell the tale. As compared with the year 1896, when the wicked Tories were in office, the expenditure on current account is $1,400,617 in excess. In 1896 the expenditure was $36,949,142, and under the economical Grits during their first year of office it was $38,349,759. In consequence of this recklessness in paying out the public money, the Government has a deficit of $519,981.44. Such is Grit economy wherever found.

THE long looked for decision of the customs department regarding miners' outfits was published at Ottawa on Saturday last. It is covered by a new circular to collectors regarding travellers baggage. Although not promulgated in specific terms the 100-pound exemption of last session is wiped out, and there will be applied to Yankees entering Canada exactly the same rules that pertain to Canadian travellers entering the States. The circular says: Wearing apparel, articles of personal adornment, toilet articles and similar effects of persons arriving in Canada may be passed free of duty as travellers baggage, under the provisions of the customs tariff, but this paovision shall only include such articles as are actually accompanying the parties or are necessary and appropriate for the wearing and use of such persons for the immediate purposes of the journey, and for present comfort and convenience, and shall not be held to apply to merchandise or articles intended for other purposes or for sale." No person can bring in a stock of clothing or provisions intending to last any length of time. Broken packages of food for immediate consumption by parties will be permitted, or in other words such provisions as may be brought in by a picnic party spending a day in Canada, but it will not now be possible to secure exemption of supplies.

THE Pope's Encyclical on the Manitoba schools was promulgated in the Basilica, Quebec, on Sunday last. Like all utterances of Leo XIII., the encyclical deals with the question under review in a masterly manner. He clearly points out that, for Catholic children, the only kind of schools are Catholic schools. Irreligious and neutral schools are condemned. His Holiness accentuates the injustice done the Catholics of Manitoba by the Provincial law which deprived them of the Catholic schools guaranteed them by the constitution, and councils them to exert every legitimate means to regain their full rights in this matter. He praises the Bishops of Canada for the course they pursued all through the agitation, and approves of every step taken by them. On this matter the Pope says: "It is not right to call in doubt or to abandon in any way these principles of judging and acting which are founded on truth and justice, and which are the safeguards both of public and private interests. Wherefore, thus when the new law in Manitoba struck a blow at Catholic education, it was your duty, venerable brothers, to freely protest against the injury and disaster inflicted; and the way in which you all fulfilled that duty is a proof of you common vigilance, and of a spirit truly worthy of bishops; and although each one of you will find on this point a sufficient approbation in the testimony of his own conscience, learn, nevertheless, that you have also our concurrence and our approbation, for the things which you sought and still seek to protect and defend are most sacred." He deplores the fact that "Catholic Canadians themselves failed to unite as they should in defending those interests which are of such importance to all—the importance and gravity of which should have stilled the voice of party politics, which are of much less importance." Next week we shall publish the encyclical in full, and will make some comments there anent.

RECENT Ottawa advices indicate that there are, in the political atmosphere at the Capital, evidences of friction between some members of the Government. This is especially true of those two worthies known as the heavenly twins, Blair and Tarte. The public may be very sure the disagreement is not as to which course is best for the country on any particular project. Oh no, whatever friction exists between the twins is on the matter of spoils. Mr. Tarte, as all know, is deeply interested in the matter of the Drummond County Railway, and Mr. Blair, being Minister of Railways, of course must deal with the matter in his official capacity. Now Mr. Blair has a little scheme of his own that he desires to push through; but in order to succeed he must have the co-operation of Mr. Tarte and his friends. His project is to make the Canada Eastern, a certain railway in New Brunswick, a part of the Intercolonial. The conditions upon which Mr. Blair is willing to put through the Drummond County steal, are said to be the harnessing to it of the Canada Eastern project. Mr. Tarte is afraid the two together will be more than his friends can swallow. Hence there is a dead lock between the two ministers. Meantime it is hinted the faithful in Ontario are showing signs of disapprobation, as the following Ottawa despatch of the 7th to the Toronto Mail and Empire indicates: "It is learned that Sir Richard Cartwright, as a result of the pressure which has been brought to bear on him by liberal friends in Ontario since the last session, to exert his influence in correcting the extravagant tendencies of the government, has presented the ultimatum to his colleagues since the government reassembled. The exact nature of the ultimatum, the despatch adds, has not been divulged, but it is surmised that the liberal financier has given the government to understand that the affairs of the country can be administered on a more economical scale. Sir Richard has put his foot down upon the acquisition of the Canada Eastern Railway by the government, and subsidizing another line between Montreal and Quebec. He is unalterably opposed to new schemes involving large expenditures, to which several of his colleagues wish to commit the government. In this attitude he has the support and co-operation of Davies and Mills." We shall probably, in a short time, see what we shall see.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

C. E. E. Ushers, assistant general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific, has been appointed general passenger agent of the lines at Port Arthur, with an office in Montreal.

A. R. Notman, the present district passenger agent of the C. P. R. at St. John, has been appointed general passenger agent of the line in New Brunswick and Maine, with an office in St. John.

J. H. Blumenthal & Sons, one of the largest clothing houses in Montreal assigned on Wednesday last to Gault Bros. The firm had three large stores in the city. The liabilities will be very heavy, amounting to about $150,000.

An Edmonton, Saskatchewan, despatch received at Montreal the other day from Hon. Wm. Pugsley, of St. John, says that four thousand dollars has been paid over to the town of Edmonton for the Edmonton district railway charter.

Moncton advices indicate that four more guards at the Dorchester, N. B. penitentiary are to be dismissed, and that Deputy Warden Ross is to be removed and Warden Foster and Accountant Grey transferred to St Vincent de Paul.

The National Art gallery at Ottawa which is in charge of Tarte's department, was burglarized the other night and a case of old coins of priceless value, presented to the government many years ago by Colonel Falkland, was stolen. Some of the coins were over 2,000 years old.

Hon. Mr. Chamberlain at the desire of the queen expresses her deep regret at the sad accident at London, Ont., and her sincere condolence with the sufferers and the families of those who lost their lives. Mr. Chamberlain also asks Lord Aberdeen to convey his deep sympathy with the sufferers.

Premier Murray and Attorney-General Longley of Nova Scotia were in Ottawa last week and had an interview with Fielding and other ministers. It is said the object of their visit was in connection with an agreement made with the Dominion Coal Company at Boston.

A serious fire occurred at the Ottawa Catholic university last Wednesday morning. As a result the eastern wing was badly gutted and the beautiful chapel badly damaged. Total loss is in the vicinity of $40,000; covered by insurance. Rev. Father Fallon, rector, says the fire does not affect the reopening of the college which took place on Friday.

The latest investigation shows only twenty victims of the City Hall disaster at London, Ont. Stewart Harris and John Fellows, two supposed victims, have rallied and are now on the way to recovery. The error regarding the number was caused by the hurried removal of bodies and the injured. Several actions for damages have been entered against the city.

A cablegram received at the war department, Washington on the 7th from Lieut. Devore, who was sent with Dr. Jackson to Europe to secure reindeer for the Klondyke relief expedition, said that a steamer had been chartered for the transportation of the reindeer to the United States, and it was expected the party would be able to sail for New York on the 30th instant.

The navy department, Washington, has received a report from the naval attache at London, telling of the ceremony attending the laying of the first plates for the Queen's new yacht, to replace the antiquated Victoria and Albert, which has carried royalty for many years. The new yacht is to cost $1,000,000. The new vessel will be the same length as the cruiser New York 380 feet over all. She will have a speed of 21 knots. Only two guns will be in her battery and those are intended principally for saluting purposes.

Colonel Turner, United States consul general at Ottawa, has returned from Connecticut. He says provided the requisite permission is given by the British government, the Connecticut regiment will be there on the 24th of May to take part in the Queen's birthday celebrations. The reported trouble in the regiments to which the New York despatches gave currency, is said by Mr. Turner to be a gross fabrication.

It is now over five weeks since the schooner Julia A. Warr left Calais, Me., for Vineyard Haven, and nothing has been heard from her since. It is feared that the vessel capsized in one of the terrific gales which swept the coast about four weeks ago. The schooner was owned jointly by Homer N. Skinner of Fall River and James Murchie & Sons of Calais, and the owners and friends have given her up as lost. The crew list of the vessel was as follows: Captain George Warr; mate, Fred Wilson of Jonesport, Me.; cook, J. Moses; seamen, Wm. Warr and Campbell McKay. The boat was built in Calais in 1891.

A daring burglary was committed by three men at the residence of Miss Elizabeth Orkney, Montreal, early on Friday morning last. Only two persons were in the house at the time, Miss Orkney, who sleeps on the second floor, and a hired man, who sleeps downstairs. The burglars wer evidently familiar with the premises, as they immediately made their way to the room in which Miss Orkney, who is quite an elderly lady, was sleeping. They did not take any pains not to disturb her, but lit the gas and set about ramsacking the room. Miss Orkney was quickly aroused but one of the intruders threatened her, and she was obliged to watch the depredations without uttering a sound. After having thoroughly overhauled things and securing $60 in cash and a large quantity of jewelry, including a gold watch, the whole valued at $300, they made off the way they had come. The police have since arrested three men on suspicion.

At Sherbrooke, Que., on Tuesday afternoon of last week, J. B. Dubois shot Mrs. Tanguay. He then turned the revolver on himself, killing him instantly. The woman is still living. Dubois was formerly engaged to marry Mrs. Tanguay. While absent the girl changed her mind and married a man named Taugnay. Dubois swore revenge on his return.

Ottawa advices say the Canadian Pacific cannot secure from Blair the approval required by law of the plans for the proposed independent line from Robson to Rossland, hence Eastern merchants are crippled in their efforts to secure trade with Rossland. They say the C. P. R. rates are all right, but that exorbitant rates charged on the Princes railway from Trail to Rossland are simply paralyzing secured. The view of the syndicate is that economy in administration, purchasing supplies, etc., will enable a lucrative business to be done, which will have the effect of largely increasing tourist and business travel at various places covered by the scheme. McGibbon, Casgrain & Co., are solicitors for the syndicate. Mr. McGibbon states the hotels are all to be fireproof, and plans have been prepared by Bruce Price, New York, architect of the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec. The syndicate represents a strong party of London financiers and gentlemen connected with the colonies and a local board of much strength.

WHAT EVERYBODY KNOWS

Or ought to know, is that health and even life itself depends upon the condition of the blood. Feeding, as it does, all the organs of the body, it must be rich and pure in order to give proper nourishment. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure, rich and nourishing, and in this way strengthens the nerves, creates an appetite, tones the stomach and builds up the health. Hood's Sarsaparilla wards off colds, pneumonia and fevers, which are prevalent at this time.

Thos. L. Bourke, St. John, recently obtained an order from Judge Wells requiring A. E Killam, the newly-appointed Intercolonial railway bridge inspector, to pay five dollars per month until the amount of debt due Bourke about $300, and interest, was paid. Justice Landry subsequently granted a rule nisi calling upon Bourke to show cause why the order should not be garnishee, the principal grounds being that the salary of a dominion official cannot be taken to pay private debts. The matter will be argued at the next term of the supreme court.

CATARRH IS A DISEASE

Which requires a constitutional remedy. It cannot be cured by local applications. Hood's Sarsaparilla is wonderfully successful in curing catarrh because it eradicates from the blood the scrofulous taints which cause it. Sufferers with catarrh find a cure in Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other remedies utterly fail.

HOOD'S PILLS are prompt, efficient, always reliable, easy to take, easy to operate.
