COMMERCE AND FINANCE.

Latest Financial News by Mail and Telegraph.

Finance Notes

Toronto Globe: The past has been a very quiet week in wholesale trade circles. Travelers generally are in, and nothing will be done until next week. The great contest just now is the elections, and it is generally thought when they are won trade once more will come to the front. The feature of the week is the millinery openings. There are large and choice stocks displayed, and the attendance at the different houses in this line is very encouraging to dealers. The leading staples are not quotably changed in prices. Sugars dull and unchanged. Coffees and teas firm. Hardware quiet, without changes of any consequence in prices. The demand for wheat and oats continues good, with prices of the latter higher. Peas also very firm and rye higher. Hogs are a trifle firmer this week, but the supply is light.

An Important Scientific Discovery.

Nerviline, the latest discovered pain remedy, may safely challenge the world for a substitute that will as speedily and promptly check inflammatory action. This highly penetrating properties of Nerviline make it never failing in all cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, cramps, pains in the back and side, headache, etc. It possesses marked stimulating and counter irritant properties, and at once subdues all inflammatory action. Ormand & Walsh, druggists, Peterboro, writes: "Our customers speak well of Nerviline." Large bottles 25 cents. Try Nerviline, the great internal and external pain cure. Sold by all druggists and county dealers.

One of England's most popular states men, Sir Henry James, has been practically shelved by being elevated to the House of Lords as a life peer and Lord of Appeal. He was offered the Lord High Chancellorship, with a salary of $50,000 a year, and a peerage, by Mr. Gladstone in 1886, but declined it because he did not believe in Home Rule.

Lord Dufferin's success as a diplomate at the Czar's court was ascribed in a large degree to the charms of his wife, who became a favorite of the Russian aristocracy. In Rome, where her husband is now stationed as the representative of England, she is no less popular. Besides being a woman of tact and judgment, the Countess is a linguist of much ability, conversing fluently in French, German and Italian.

To insure satisfactory results Strong's Baking Powder should always be used, as all baking powders are not of uniform strength and some are not pure. This powder is made fresh daily and sold only at Strong's Drug Store, 184 Dundas street; price, 25 cents per pound. 24tf

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D., Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels, promptly and cause a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc. in the market.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

PERILOUS PASSAGE.

The British Troopship Orontes Nearly Swamped—A Number of Persons Injured.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 5.—The troopship Orontes, with the first battalion Leicestershire regiment, arrived to-day from Bermuda. Very bad weather was experienced all the run up, and considerable field ice was passed. When nearing the Nova Scotia coast, shortly after leaving England for Bermuda, the steamer was boarded by an immense tidal wave. Everything movable was swept from the decks, and it looked at one time as if the ship would founder. A number of the seamen were badly injured, and some 25 soldiers more or less hurt. Some had their arms broken, while others were badly bruised and in some instances had their legs broken. The Leicestershire regiment is composed of 17 officers, 2 ladies, 2 warrant officers, 837 men, 23 women and 30 children. The troops disembarked this afternoon.

A NOTABLE WEDDING.

Miss Lita Garner Married to the Marquis de Breteuil.

PARIS, March 5.—The Marquis de Breteuil and Miss Lita Garner were married Tuesday at Pau. All the nobility of the Basque Provinces were present at the wedding. The civil ceremony was performed in the Town Hall. The religious part of the marriage exercises were held in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Martin and Trinity Chapel (Protestant Episcopal). The couple started to-night for the marquis' chateau at Tarbes, where they will spend their honeymoon. The marquis is a widower nearly 50 years of age. He is a well-known adherent of the French royalist cause, and is an intimate friend of Lord Randolph Churchill. The bride is the eldest daughter of the late William Garner, of New York, who was at one time vice-commodore of the New York Yacht Club, and was drowned with his wife in 1876 by the upsetting of his yacht, Mohawk, off Stapleton, S.I.

The Birmingham (Ala.) Age-Herald prints the following inscription from a tombstone, which evidently refers to a member of one of the old before-the-war darkey families: "Henryetta Emmeretta Demiretta Creamer-tarter Carolina Balstic, daughter of Bob and Sooky Cottin."

It was found from careful germination tests at the Wisconsin station that the hulled grains of timothy seed neither germinate so well nor retain their vitality so long as those not hulled; also that timothy seed, when properly stored, is fairly reliable up to five years old.

London's Lord Mayor, Savory, is abnormally sensitive about chaffing, and he has been getting plenty of it since his un-Savory speech from a collection of Spurgeon's addresses.

Merritt L. Fernald, though only 16 years old, has become Assistant Botanist at Harvard College. He is a son of the president of the Maine State College, and has, by his own researches, added to the scientific knowledge of the flora of Maine. Merritt will tell.

Fred Madison, a gripman on the San Diego Cable Road, is 23 years old, stands seven feet two inches in height, and has to remain in a stooping posture while reaching for the brake. He is a good-natured, good-looking curiosity for tourists, and enjoys their surprised gaze as much as anyone.

Is Your Plumbing Defective?

Are you troubled with an inferior job of plumbing from which offensive odors arise? If so give us a call. We have purchased one of the most thorough testing machines ever invented, with which a test can be made without removing woodwork around the fixtures. We are prepared to make a thorough test of any plumbing work and point out its defects, if any.

The picture of the Pied Piper of Hamelin, playing upon his magic pipe, while the entranced rats of the town leave their holes and flock after him into the sea, reminds one of the speed with which the diseases and impurities of the blood leave the system when Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is taken.

It removes all humors, poisons, or taints, from the system, whether manifested in the common pimple, or eruption, or in boils, carbuncles, eczema, salt-rheum, fever-sores, white swellings, hip-joint disease, and kindred affections — in fact anything and everything resulting from impure blood.

For scrofula of the lung tissues (consumption) it has no equal, and often cures cases which physicians have given up. It is a guaranteed liver, blood and lung remedy, and the only one sold. Your money returned if the medicine fails to accomplish what its manufacturers claim, when taken in time and given a fair trial.

All the year round, you may rely upon Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify the blood and invigorate the system. It's not like the sarsaparillas, that are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May. The "Golden Medical Discovery" works equally well at all times, and in all cases of blood-taints, or humors, no matter what their name or nature.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar, because you only pay for the good you get.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

Can you ask more?

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol to inebriate, and no syrup or sugar to derange digestion.

It's a concentrated vegetable extract; put up in large bottles at $1.00; pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children.

AN ARMY PORTIA.

By Charles King, U. S. Army.

AUTHOR OF "THE COLONEL'S DAUGHTER," "THE DESERTER," "FROM THE RANKS," "DUNRAVEN RANCH," "TWO SOLDIERS," ETC.

"Surely they cannot believe such an outrageous tissue of lies," burst out Mrs. Wharton, vehemently. "Surely the moment our side of the story is heard the public will see the difference."

"Our side, my dear madam, is never heard. The newspaper has the public ear. Scandal spreads world-wide; truth never reaches half as far. Hearn has only one recourse—grin and bear it, and pray God nothing worse may follow."

"What worse can follow, I should like to know?" asked Lee, indignantly.

"What worse? Why, man, you don't suppose a Chicago paper sends an emissary thousand miles to work up only one scene for a sensation? Look for the next day's mail, and the next. Wait till the letters demanding explanation begin coming in from department, division and army headquarters. Fiat justitia, ruat cœlum, will be the Palladium's cry; Parturiunt montes, nascitur ridiculus mus, the outcome. But the same, my friends and fellow-citizens, we won't get through this row without the most kind of a court-martial—Ah, the majesty of the commanding officer! Whom do we want?"

A word was spoken, and every eye was fixed upon the trim figure of the approaching soldier, who entered the gate, halting respectfully a few yards away from the foot of the steps, saluted:

"The colonel's compliments to the officer of the day, and desires that Private Welsh, now in the guard-house, be sent to the office immediately."

"Aha!" said Kenyon, as the soldier turned away. "Already somebody's been tickling the colonel with a telegram. He's hardly had time to read the papers. Now he will hear Welsh's story; and when Welsh has sufficiently blackened the character of his commanding officer, Hearn will be afforded a chance—Hearn, my boy, my hearty sympathies are with you. By all means go home and prosper in your profession, and learn to love it as I do—Martin, you and I have a moment to spare, come over to quarters with me; I want to talk this thing over with you—Good afternoon, Mrs. Lee. Good afternoon, Mrs. Graves. A sudden thought occurs to me. What was Cambronne is report to have said at Waterloo?—The Guard dies, but never surrenders.' Here's a more modern epitaph for you: The Press lies, but never acts."

CHAPTER VIII.

With all his soldierly qualifications Colonel Morris, like most of his sex, had certain defects of character. He was a tireless worker as a regimental commander. He had done a great deal to bring up the "one" of the Eleventh, which had suffered mostly during the reign of old Riggs, his predecessor. He had won a good name as a young officer in the war days, and had borne himself well in the more trying and hazardous campaign of the far frontier. But Morris, both during the war and since, had been staff duty that had brought him into official and political circles in Washington and learned there the lesson that an ounce of influence is worth a pound of pure record. In the most matters affecting army legislative, financial, and social circles he was the men who were the farthest away from the army whose opinion Congress sought; that in all appointments to the staff departments personal and professional excellence might plead in vain unless backed by Senators by the score. And had that while judicious use the gifts that had put in way in the shape of the public press might result in the gradual paring of a monument of popular esteem, a single unguarded word or petulant expression would tumble the whole fabric about his ears. He had seen the highest name in legislative, financial, and social circles dragged in the dust; the head of the House of Representatives dethroned; a President monarch execrated; a gallant soldier, met in battle, ridiculed. In combination with ceaseless assult the press had overwhelm
