LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Mrs. C. R. Sayer has returned from a two weeks' visit at her former home in Hamilton.

—The river swarms with craft of all kinds these fine afternoons. The boating season is in full swing.

—About 100 men were given checks by Assistant City Engineer Graydon yesterday for work on the streets.

—Brakeman Farrell, of the M.C.R. train to St. Thomas, had a finger bruised Thursday while coupling some cars.

—A city barber said to-day that things will be made warm for some of the barbers who intend working next Sunday.

—It is said that Hugh A. McLean, formerly labor commissioner, has received an appointment in the customs department.

—The block paving of King street, between Adelaide and William, has been completed. King street, from Ridout to Adelaide, is now the best drive in the city.

—James Hanley, a veteran and inveterate vagrant, was sent down for a month by the police magistrate yesterday. Ed. Greenaway was dismissed on a similar charge.

—A pleasant reunion of the members of the Chosen Friends was held in Askin Street Methodist school-room Thursday. South London, East London and the city proper were represented.

—The trial of John Hill, the Oneida Indian charged with stealing a $10 bill from William Nicholas, was adjourned until to-day by Judge Davis yesterday morning owing to the absence of a chief witness.

—"There's more dust in London West than in any gold mine," said a villager today, "but it's the wrong article. I think the city might donate us a street sprinkler. When we suffered from flood the city helped us and now that the other extreme is reached there is an equal opportunity for charity."

The Late Senator Leonard.

Speaking of the late Senator Leonard the St. Thomas Journal says: His death will be learned of with deep regret by many in this city and county, to whom he was a personal friend, and who were active supporters of his in the memorable contest for the representation of this division in the Legislative Council of the Parliament of Canada prior to Confederation, and in which he was successful. The experience gained by the deceased in his father's works in the county of Norfolk, and which stood him in such good stead in future years, may be said to have been his by right of descent, as the Leonards for four or five hundred years had been workers in iron in Wales and in the States, and history records that the first blacksmith's forge in America was erected by an ancestor of Mr. Leonard at Taunton, Mass., in the seventeenth century. During the rebellion Mr. Leonard strongly sympathized with the patriots, and in consequence suffered not a little persecution. In his own business he was eminently successful, and leaves a large fortune."

Having secured a first-class dressmaker, we are now prepared to do dressmaking in the very latest styles. We will be pleased to see all our old customers and as many new ones who will give us a call. Mrs. F. GALLENA, 148 Dundas street.

The Corset story is a wonder. We cannot give you the maker's name. If we did the manufacturers would not sell us their goods, because we cut the prices so low: consequently you could not get any more at these prices. We have got piles of them, and can give you any size and price at our bankrupt prices. Fancy a $1 75 Corset for $1 35, $1 50 Corset for $1 10, $1 25 Corset for 89c, $1 Corset for 85c, 75c Corset for 59c, 60c Corset for 44c, 50c Corset for 39c. We could give hundreds of other prices, but space will not admit. Remember, these prices are not for effect, but are our every-day prices.
Effort will be made to equal our prices. If so, it will only be in an odd line of goods. Come in and see for yourselves. Our goods are all marked in plain figures, with the reduction marked in red ink. Don't miss the store. Be sure you are in

CARD OF THANKS.

Approves of the Equitable's Methods.

London, May 15, 1891.

Dear Sir,—Policy No. 410,864; amount, $5,000. I feel bound to certify to the great dispatch shown by the Equitable in the payment of the above claim, and to thank you for check received to-day in settlement of the same.

That policies are paid like ordinary checks the moment the death is proven is certainly an improvement on the old-fashioned system and must commend itself to the public. C. F. STRONG.
