LATEST MARKETS

LOCAL MARKET.

London, Tuesday, Aug. 8.

The market gardeners and farmers were surprised when they reached the market this morning to find that the space usually occupied was taken up by a number of sideshows. The space allotted for the tents covered nearly half the square, which did not leave much room for the wagons. The market gardeners said that it was the slowest market in this line so far this season. The grocers and others made large purchases on Saturday, which no doubt accounted to a certain extent for business being so dull today. Prices as a rule were easier, excepting for butter and hay.

Hay and Straw—There were 14 loads offered, and they sold as soon as they were weighed; prices were a shade higher at $7 and $7 50 per ton. No straw was offered.

Butter and Eggs—Butter was in good demand and prices were higher; the dealers paid 19c and 20c per lb for butter in crocks; a few basket lots of pound rolls sold at 21c and 22c. Eggs sold mostly at 16c per dozen by the crate; smaller lots sold at 16½c to 17c per dozen.

Vegetables and Roots—This line was well represented and sales were slow; prices were easier; potatoes sold at 60c to 65c per bu; tomatoes were plentiful and lower in price; the 20-lb baskets sold at $1 10 on Saturday, and today at 70c and 75c; green corn sold at 8c and 10c per dozen; other vegetables sold as per quotations.

Very little poultry offered; prices as quoted.

Fruit—Raspberries were in fairly large supply, selling at 8c to 8½c per box for red and 9c for black; plums sold at 50c for the 8-quart baskets; peaches, 40c to 50c for 8-quart baskets.

Dressed Hogs—Only a few offered, which sold at $8 75 per cwt.

Live Hogs—The figure for tomorrow's shipment has been increased to $7 per cwt.

Butchers' Meats—Not a great deal offered; prices unchanged.

No oats were offered today; quite a few could have been sold if they had been marketed. A couple of loads of new wheat sold at 80c per bu.

DAIRY MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

New York, Aug. 7.—Butter—Easy; receipts, 12,973 packages; street prices, extra creamery, 21c to 21½c; official prices, creamery, common to extra, 17½c to 21c; state dairy, common to extra, 16½c to 20½c; western factory, common to extra, 15c to 19c; western imitation creamery, extras, 19½c; do, firsts, 18c to 18½c. Cheese—Firm; receipts 1,199 boxes; state full cream, small colored and white, fancy, 11½c; do, fair to choice, 10½c to 11c; do, large colored and white, fancy, 11½c; skims, full to light, 2½c to 8½c.

LIVERPOOL DAIRY REPORT, WEEK ENDING JULY 28.

[Hodgson Bros.' Letter.]

Cheese—Under the influence of strong cables from Canada, and with a good demand, the market has again advanced, and is 1s 6d to 2s dearer on the week. At present values here dealers are acting with caution, buying only for immediate needs. There is still an inquiry for under-priced grades to fill the popular 6d demand, but this class is in moderate supply. We quote today: Finest Canadian colored, 51s 6d to 52s 6d per cwt; finest Canadian white, 50s 6d to 51s 6d; medium grades, full creams, 42s to 48s; lower qualities scarce, nominally 35s to 42s.

Butter has advanced, and is several shillings dearer on the week, all classes sharing in the improvement. Danish arrivals are well cleared and Canadian butters have also met with a brisk demand all week. Irish produce is scarcer and higher in value notwithstanding the unsatisfactory quality of the bulk of the arrivals. Medium grades of butter are in good request. The Copenhagen quotation is advanced 4 francs for next week and now stands at the highest price recorded at this season of the year for many years past. We quote today: Choicest Canadian creamery, in 56-lb boxes, 100s to 102s per cwt; choicest Danish, in 112-lb casks, 110s to 108s; choicest Russian, do, 96s to 98s; choicest Australian and New Zealand, 102s to 104s; choicest Argentine, 100s to 102s; choicest Yalca creamery, 106s to 108s; medium grades, States and Canadians, 88s to 94s.

New York, Oct. 8—Noon.—The market has held strong all morning especially some of the railroads, notably Union Pacific and Erie, which were higher than they have been in some months. HOME-GOING CROWDS

Many of the Visitors Desert London After Busy Day.

The local depots were busy places last night. A large number of the visiting Old Boys and Old Girls, tired with the day's exertions, congregated on the platforms and waited for their trains. Some did not get away until midnight.

The Forty-eighth Highlanders' Band and a large number of Toronto Old Boys pulled out from the Grand Trunk station at 11:40.

A great number of the visitors from St. Thomas left on the Michigan Central at 10:25, while very many Stratfordites took flight via the Grand Trunk at 10:30.

Quite a number of the visitors went home this morning, but the city is nevertheless filled to overflowing with guests.

ENTHUSIASM OF HOMECOMERS AND ENTERTAINERS UNABATED

No Diminution in the Feeling of General Jubilation.

People Bracing Up for Another Gala Day—Taking in Springbank.

Tuesday finds the enthusiasm of the homecomers and their entertainers in London undiminished. The city is entertaining mad. The Old Boys still own the town, and not a citizen of London would dream for a moment of disputing their title.

The scenes on the streets are still animated. Old men who have not seen each other for twenty years are meeting and renewing acquaintances. Young men who left the city but a few years ago are finding it very pleasing to walk about town and shake hands with former schoolmates and workers. It is a time of general rejoicing, and churlish indeed is the person who would gainsay the visitors and their friends all the fun they can find.

All the visitors appear on friendly terms with the police. London's dignified force finds itself marched about from place to place in the arms of the enthused multitude. Not infrequently an Old Boy links arms with an officer and does his best to induce the guardian of the peace "to have something." Even the chief of police turns his back when he sees such capers looming up. It isn't in the interests of discipline to countenance such breaches of etiquette, but the officers are attentive to their duties and always stave off the ardent ones before deep water is reached.

The gaily decorated streets are filled with music all day. The visitors appear tireless, and with their bands they parade the town singing popular airs. In fact the bandsmen appear to be just so many Jane Shores. They'll be walked to death if they aren't careful. They'll be killed with kindness.

A great many people are resting today. A great many went home last night, to be sure, but the great majority are resting up, and are fixing for another onslaught on the merriment which London has provided for them.

Today an immense crowd went down the river to see the regatta and other sports, and it is a safe guess that one of the largest crowds which ever went to Springbank will be at the River Park when the programme begins.

Looking back at yesterday's time at revelry, old-timers in the getting up of processions and entertainments declare that every man who had a share in the work deserves the greatest praise. The parade itself is pronounced by men from New York and Chicago to have been extremely well handled from all points of view, and Mr. Walter Bartlett, the indefatigable and painstaking grand marshal, is coming in for a vast amount of praise. For many weeks Mr. Bartlett worked like a Trojan to induce the various societies and other bodies to take part in the parade, and yesterday's magnificent procession showed how well he performed his task. The city of London as well as the executive of the Old Boys is deeply indebted to Mr. Bartlett for the part he played in the success of yesterday.

Mr. W. T. Strong, who had charge of the pony show, also gave a good account of himself. He labored faithfully for many weeks, and the big list of entries in the pony class was the fruit of his individual effort.

The relay races, which yesterday were carried out so successfully, owe much to the painstaking work of Mr. George Carley, who was in charge of them.

President W. A. Small, will preside at a meeting of the International Association, which will be held in the city hall at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

It is expected that the meeting will be a most important one, in that it will be decided that biennial reunions come too close together.

In some quarters there is a disposition to have the reunions held every three or four years, but many of the Chicago and New York people say the next reunion should not take place until 1910.

"It's too much to ask the people of London to go in for a thing like this every couple of years," a gentleman from Chicago said to The Advertiser today. "In the first place this means a tremendous expense to the city and its people, and it's imposing on good nature to come too often."

On the other hand, many of the visitors say that the expense of coming home every couple of years at a time of this kind is too great, and they feel that if they come to London at a time of general rejoicing once in five years they will still be keeping track of the old town and its people.

Londoners are saying nothing. The Old Boys are welcome as often as they desire to come, prominent citizens say.

Entries in the contest for the gold watch, which is offered by Hon. C. S. Hyman for the mother or father who has the largest number of sons and daughters at the reunion, are coming in rather slowly. So far those who have entered are Mr. Alfred Cave with seven of a family, Mr. George Lewis, the painter, who has also seven sons and daughters here now, and a Mr. Hull, who, it is understood, has six of his children home at present.

Grand Marshal Walter Bartlett was asked today how many people were in yesterday's parade.

"It's pretty hard to say," he replied, "but I should judge there were about four thousand all told."

Voting for the most popular lady, or, rather, for the lady who is to be elected queen of the reunion, continues at a brisk rate. Those who are entered in the contest are Mrs. W. A. Small, Chicago; Mrs. Charles Best, Detroit; Miss Edna Flawn, Cleveland, and Mrs. John Cousins, of Cincinnati.

The voting closes tomorrow evening.

This evening the "Old Girls" will be tendered a luncheon and dance at the Springbank pavilion.

OFFICER WAS OFFICIOUS

Sent Toledo Badges Through in Bond—Caused $100 Loss.

Mr. R. L. McRae, of the Toledo Association of London Old Boys, had an unlooked-for experience with a Canadian customs officer at Windsor on Sunday. Mr. McRae had a grip containing about 150 badges for the Toledo boys, and when the customs officer learned of its contents he took possession of it, and sent it through to London in bond. The grip was not released until yesterday, by which time the Toledo Old Boys were scattered and the badges could not be sold.

The association of Toledo stands to lose about $100 through the action of the customs officer.

A PLEASING EVENT

Reception to Mr. and Mrs Wright Goodwin, Port Huron.

One of the happiest of the many pleasant social functions which are being held this week in honor of visiting Old Boys by their friends or relatives in this city, took place last evening at 588 King street, the residence of Mr. W. M. Goodwin, chief dispatcher for the middle division of the G. T. R.

The occasion was a reception tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, in Port Huron and his bride. About forty friends of the family were present and enjoyed themselves during the evening. Those in attendance included guests from Hamilton, Woodstock, Sarnia, Port Huron, and Winnipegosis, Man., in addition to the quota from the home city.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, jun., were wedded in Detroit on Sunday afternoon, at the residence of the parents of the bride, whose maiden name was Miss Hilda Haskin. Mr. Wright Goodwin, jun., is in the employ of the G. T. R. at Port Huron, where the happy couple will take up their residence after a honeymoon trip to various eastern points.

Last night's affair was therefore doubly auspicious, being both a reception to a London Old Boy and a celebration of a happy nuptial. The young couple were the recipients of heartiest congratulations from all sides, accompanied by a large number of handsome wedding gifts.

Progressive pedro and other amusements were included in the evening's programme, and it was a very late hour before the company wended their ways homeward. The interior of the house was tastefully decorated.

FIREMAN LET OUT.

One of the firemen in the Central station found the exuberance of the reunion too much for him, and he accumulated his wealth and bought fire water with it. The chief caught him at it, and now he is out of a job. The firemen should hold their heads now more than at any other time, says the chief.

TRUE TO HIS TEACHINGS.

The members of the Toledo Newsboys Band are first of all taught to be honest. When they are at home they frequently find articles on the streets, and their first thought is to turn them over to Commodore Junkal, the head of the organization, who undertakes to locate the owners. After the band reached the city on Sunday, and proceeded to a hotel, one of the boys picked up a past president's jewel
