Bay of Fundy Tide-Power, Limited.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that under the first part of chapter 70 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1900, known as The Companies Act, letters patent have been issued under the seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 24th day of February, 1916, incorporation George Harton Cutler, president of Acadia University, Ralph Preston Clarkson, professor of engineering, William Laid Archibald, principal of Acadia University, Miss Minnie Warren Cutler, married woman, and John Tremaine Boehm, dentist, all of the Town of Wolfville, in the Province of Nova Scotia, for the following purposes, viz:—

(a) To carry on the business of an electric light, heat and power company in all its branches, provided that the sale, transmission and distribution of electric or other power or force shall be subject to local or municipal regulations;

(b) To provide, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and to construct, lay down, erect, establish, operate, maintain and carry out all necessary works, stations, pumps, water motors, machinery, plant, pipes, lines, generators, accumulators, lamps, meters, transformers, apparatuses and appliances connected with the generation, transmission, supply, sale, use and employment of electricity, and to generate, accumulate, transmit, distribute, supply and sell electricity for the purpose of electric lighting, heating, traction and motive power, and for industrial and other purposes and agreements for the lighting of cities, towns, streets, buildings and other places, and for the supply of electric light, heat and motive power for any or all public or private purposes;

(c) To make, build, construct, erect, lay down and maintain and operate reservoirs, water-works, dams, canals, tunnels, culverts, flumes, conduits, main and other pipes and appliances and to execute and do all other works and things necessary or convenient for obtaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring and distributing water for irrigation, maintenance and development of hydraulic, electrical or other mechanical power, or for irrigating lands or for any other purpose of the company;

(d) To construct, improve, work, maintain, manage, carry out or control and to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and to hold, use, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any lands, works, main, pipes, conduits, flumes, roads, ways, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electrical works, shops, stores and other works and things necessary or convenient for the generation, transmission, supply, sale, use and employment of electricity, and to generate, accumulate, transmit, distribute, supply and sell electricity for the purpose of electric lighting, heating, traction and motive power, and for industrial and other purposes and agreements for the lighting of cities, towns, streets, buildings and other places, and for the supply of electric light, heat and motive power for any or all public or private purposes;

(e) To apply for and receive or to acquire by enactment, gift, purchase, transfer, lease or otherwise and to exercise, carry out, and enjoy any statute, ordinance, regulation, license, power, authority, franchise right or privilege, relating to the generation, transmission, development, distribution, supply, sale, use and employment of electric energy, water-powers or water which any corporation or other person may be lawfully empowered to enact, make or grant, and to pay for, aid in and contribute towards carrying out and to appropriate any of the company's shares, bonds and assets to defray the necessary costs, charges and expenses thereof;

(f) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the company capable of being carried on in connection with the business of the company, or to acquire, or to calculate directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or to render profitable any of the company's property or rights;

(g) To apply for purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, grants, licenses, leases, concessions and the like conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the company and to use, exercise, develop or grant the same in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, interests or information so acquired;

(h) To purchase or otherwise acquire the shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of any other company or corporation, notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the said Act, and to pay for the same in the shares or other securities of this company and to hold, sell, vote or otherwise deal in the shares or other securities so purchased or otherwise acquired, and to promote any company or other corporation or objects altogether or in any business capable of being carried on so as directly or indirectly to benefit this company;

(i) To sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the property, rights, franchises and undertakings of the company or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit, and in particular to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of shares, debentures, bonds or other securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this company;

(j) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this company;

(k) To enter into any agreement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person, firm or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this company is authorized to engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this company and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company and to sell, hold, issue or re-lease the same with or without guarantee of principal and interest, or otherwise to deal in the same;

(l) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold and enjoy all or any of the property, franchises, rights, licenses, rights and privileges held or enjoyed by any person or firm or by any company or companies carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction similar to that which this company is authorized to carry on and to pay for the same wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in paid-up shares of the company or otherwise, and to undertake the liabilities of any such person, firm or company;

To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants and all other negotiable and transferable instruments; To make cash advances to customers and others having dealings with the company and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any persons;

Any power granted in any part hereof shall not be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

The operations of the company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere by the name of the Bay of Fundy Tide-Power, Limited, a capital stock of fifty thousand dollars divided into 500 shares of one hundred dollars each, and the chief place of business of the said company to be at the Town of Wolfville, in the Province of Nova Scotia.

Witness my hand and the seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, the 24th day of February, 1916.

THOMAS MULVEY, Under-Secretary of State.

Appreciated

The following appreciative letter was received by Mrs. Howard Bars from Mr. Leonard Eaton, His many friends will be much interested in it:

France, March 12, 1916. DEAR MRS. BARS,—If you will see fifty or more boys who are going out in the sun this afternoon, after a long weary march this morning with the exact slippers on that you sent me to distribute, you could then understand how much they were appreciated and how grateful we are to you and the young ladies of Wolfville.

Although they were several months on the way, they could not have arrived at a more opportune time. Of course you know that the 6th C.M.R.'s have been broken up I can tell you we all felt very badly at first. But we soon decided to play the game in our new formation.

We have had very few casualties. Everybody is well and happy. I must also thank you for the reading material. About five minutes after they arrived all were reading away for dear life.

Thanking you and the young ladies of Wolfville again very, very much (All the boys join in this) I am, Yours sincerely, LEONARD EATON.

With kindest regards to all the Wolfville people.

GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS Why Demanded

"Gin Pills did for my husband and me what no other remedy could. I have advised two other parties to use them, one being my brother who has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, and one the caretaker, so as to enable her to sleep on her left side. The doctor told her they would not cure her, but she has had an operation for a kidney stone, but on account of her age she could not have it. She is now able to get up and she is ever ready to speak in praise of Gin Pills."
