FREDERICTON, April 3.

House this morning proceeded to the consideration of the question respecting the limitation of Money Grants. The Resolution was advocated by Landry, McNaughton, Steadman, Johnson, Gilmor, and Hatheway; and opposed by McLellan, Hayward, Wilmot, Kerr, and MacPherson. The question was then taken, and the Resolution carried.

Yeas—Hatheway, Gilmor, Brown, Boyd, McAdam, Smith, Johnson, Tilley, Fisher, Watters, Street, Tibbits, Connell, L. R. Harding, J. A. Harding, McNaughton, Landry, Steadman, Sutton, Cutler, 20.

Nays—End, Kerr, Botsford, Goddard, Armstrong, Wilmot, Ryan, McLeod, Purdy, MacPherson, Allan, McPhelim, Hayward, Montgomery, McLellan, Ferris, Gilbert, 17. Absent—Gray, Lunt, Stevens. Speaker in the Chair.

A Bill was introduced by Mr. End to authorize the Ballot system in the election of Parish officers.

In the afternoon the House was in Supply, and disposed of a few grants.

Report of Contingent Committee was laid before the House. Several gentlemen took occasion to animadvert upon some of the items, among which were a silk gown, two portmanteus, and several trunks. Further consideration of the Report resumed to-morrow.

The House resolved itself into Committee of the whole in consideration of the Bill relating to Mining Licenses. Several speeches were made and progress reported. House adjourned at quarter to 6.

Saint John, N. B., April 4, 1856.

CIVIC ELECTION.

The annual election of members of the Common Council came off on Tuesday last; the result of which will appear in another column. It will be seen by the returns that the anti-prohibitionists have lost two of their men, namely—Councillor Nowlan, one of the most independent and energetic members at the Board; and Alderman Beattey, whose place, however, is supplied by Mr. Joseph Coram, not a Son of Temperance; whilst the prohibitionists have lost Aldermen Keans and King. Mr. Keans has been recognized "for some years past as a prominent Son of Temperance, and as holding a high and responsible office in the Grand Division."

The prohibitionists claim a gain at the Council Board, of those whom they did not lose. Now with due deference to their sober judgments, we cannot look at the matter in their light. Supposing one of their number were in possession of a certain amount of real property at the commencement of the year, and hold precisely the same identical property at the close of it, notwithstanding an action of ejectment to recover possession of this property had, in the meantime, been disposed of in his favor, could it be fairly said that he had gained this property simply because it was not wrested from him? Certainly not.

The Common Council have no more to do with the Prohibitory Law than have the Directors of one of the city Banks. Why, then, is the liquor question foolishly to be turned into an issue, to be annually tried by the freemen and freeholders of Saint John? A man should be elected to office by reason of his active qualifications to discharge the duties of the office, and a mere negative claim, such as not lying, not cheating, not being disolute, ought not to become substitutes for the recommendation of a superior capacity, notwithstanding the candidate thus recommended thinks proper occasionally to take a glass of good wine, or a tumbler of "malt."

Two, if not three of the Sons of Temperance now in the Council house, expressed opinions decidedly averse to the Prohibitory Law. There is yet a Balm in Gilead.

The following are the returns:—

King's Ward. For Alderman—Joseph Fairweather,* 156; P. M'Court, 136. For Councillor—Charles A. Everitt,* 140; John Ritchie, 134.

Queen's Ward. For Alderman—S. K. Foster,* 231; G. V. Nowlin, 206. For Councillor—Edward E. Lockhart, 224; T. E. G. Tisdale, 216.

Duke's Ward. For Alderman—Isaac Woodward* (no opposition.) For Councillor—John Wilson,* 175; John McCoskery, 149.

Sidney Ward. For Alderman—Thomas McAvity* (no opposition.) For Councillor—H. Coxetter,* 86; James Armstrong, 62.

Wellington Ward. For Alderman—Edward B. Peters, 246; Wm. H. A. Keans, 230. For Councillor—Joseph Mercer,* (no opposition.)

Guy's Ward. For Alderman—John C. Littlehale, 140; William King, 127. For Councillor—James Colwell,* 183; Samuel S. Mosher, 64.

Brook's Ward. For Alderman—Joseph Coram, 108; Joseph Beattey, 99. For Councillor—Chas Ketchum,* 132; Peter J. Cougle, 67.

Members of the old Board are denoted by an asterick. (*)

The Council met in the evening, when on motion of Alderman Keans, Thomas Merritt, Esq., was re-appointed Chamberlain, for the ensuing year.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, April 2.

The Atlantic has arrived.

Peace is considered as virtually settled.

A King of Algiers has been born to France!

The British Parliament adjourned over the Easter recess.

Nothing new in American affairs.

Breadstuffs dull without change from previous prices. Sugars active and buoyant. London Money Market Steady. Consols 91 7-8 to 91 1-8.

☞ We have received the Fourth Annual Report of the Parish Schools in New Brunswick, by the Chief Superintendant James D'Avary, Esq.

☞ The London Times of 14th ult. announces the death of James Beattey, Esq. Civil Engineer. Mr. B. was long and favourably known in this Province, as chief of the Railway survey for Messrs Jackson & Co.

THE PROHIBITORY LAW.

This measure has been negatived by the House of Assembly of Nova Scotia, by a majority of eight.

In Pennsylvania a licence law is established in its place. The price of a licence to be in proportion to the rental of the house in which liquors are to be sold.

In New York the law is nugatory, and heeded by nobody. In Massachusetts, ditto. In Maine the law will be repealed, and a licence law enacted.

New Brunswick stands alone in its glory! But, judging from the aspect of the times its glorification will enjoy a brief existence. £80,000 per annum is too much to lose in these Railway times, for the gratification of an idle, yet vindictive caprice; whilst the law itself, so far from annihilating an acknowledged evil, exhibits a daily tendency to promote its aggravation.

☞ We regret to be informed that Doctor Davidson, was drowned by the upsetting of a boat in Musquash River last night. He had been called to visit a patient on the opposite side of the River, and was on his return home when the unfortunate event occurred.

☞ The Church Witness says—"The only subject of importance before the Legislature this week is the Bill brought in upon the petition of the Church Wardens and Vestry of the Parish of St. Marks, in this city, for defining the mode of inducting a minister into a benefice in the Church of England in this Province. The subject is one of much importance, but it is evidently misunderstood. The Bill leaves the right of presentation in the Governor, and, of course, institution in the Bishop but declares that the Wardens and Vestry shall induct, being by law, invested with the temporalities of the Church. This course is in agreement with the advice of the Crown officers, tendered to his Excellency Sir Edmund Head, and the old practice in the Province. The Bill was taken up in the Lower House on Saturday, and after several amendments were proposed and lost it finally passed by a large majority. We trust this measure will be agreed to by the Council, and this disputed question set at rest; for we are quite confident the laity will never surrender rights which the law, even as it now stands, gives them."

☞ A bill has been reported in the Maine Legislature in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors. It comprises thirty-three sections. The Bath Tribune states that it embraces the features of the seizure and destructive clauses of the existing statute, and provisions for licensing parties to sell, but under such restrictions as to prevent the keeping of drinking houses and tippling shops.—Parties are also made liable for damages committed by persons while intoxicated, and there is a heavy penalty for the selling of impure or fabricated liquor. License also is to be given for the manufacture of liquors under prescribed regulations.—There are also provisions against the sale of liquors to intoxicated individuals, and to men of whom notice has been given that they are habitually intemperate.

ALBANY, March 25.

THE NEW YORK LIQUOR LAW.—In the case of the People vs. Toynbee, of Brooklyn, the Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment of the lower Court, which was adverse to the constitunality of the search and seizure clause. In the Buffalo case, the People vs. Wynhmer, in which judgment was rendered by the lower Court in favor of the constitutionality of the prohibitory principle, the Court of Appeals has reversed the judgment; thus declaring not only the seizure clause, but even the general principle of prohibition, unconstitutional.

THE WINTER OF 1812.—A gentleman who was born in Detroit, and is now 74 years of age, informs the Monroe Commercial that the winter of 1812 was colder than the present.—The ice in the lake was three feet thick, and closed up some of the harbors till May. Ten years previous to that time the winter was still colder; and one winter, he recollects, the snow was three or four feet deep on a level.

Holloway's Pills.—The immense sale of these invaluable Pills, in all parts of Canada, are a sufficient guarantee of their numerous virtues, as well as of the talent of their inventor, indeed, many of the cures, worked by their use alone, appear as it were a miracle, in cases of derangement of the liver, the stomach and bowels, bilious disorders and irregularities of the system, their effect is miraculous, while in female complaints and dropsy they are equally invaluable. The thousands of cures performed annually in Canada, by these invaluable Pills render them, indeed a blessing to the afflicted, and therefore, no family should ever be without them.

BRIDGETOWN vs. DARTMOUTH.—Henry Glendinning, Dartmouth slaughtered, a day or two since, two hogs raised and fattenned on his premises, whose weight was 410 and 387 lbs. respectively. They were 15 months old.—Halifax Chronicle.

Mr. M. Miller of this place slaughtered a hog 15 months old, a short time since which weighed 496 lbs. It was fattened on his premises and took the prize at the Bridgetown Agricultural Fair, held here in October last.—Bridgetown Times.

In this city, on the 27th ult., Mrs. Elizabeth Brewer, of Digby, N. S., in the 80th year of her age.

At Portland, this morning, after a lingering illness of several years, JACOB ALLAN, Esquire, in the 65th year of his age, leaving a widow, one son, four daughters, and many relatives to mourn an irreparable loss. Mr. A. for many years occupied several responsible situations, his conduct in the discharge of the duties appertaining to them and more particularly to that of Police Magistrate in the Parish of Portland, met with the well deserved approbation of the public. Funeral at half-past two on Sunday.

At Indian Town, on Tuesday evening, Mr. John E. Andrews, aged 40 years, a native of Kingston upon Hull, England, leaving a wife and two children to mourn their loss.

On the 2nd inst., after a few days illness, Mr. Thomas C. Ganong, formerly of King's County, in the 72d years of his age, leaving a wife, eleven children, and a numerous circle of relatives to deplore their loss.
