Section 8
Notice to Contractors

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned and marked "Tender for Section 8, Welland Ship Canal," will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon, on Thursday, December 27th, 1923.

Plans, specifications and form of contract to be entered into can be seen on or after this date at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, and at the office of the Engineer in Charge, Welland Ship Canal, St. Catharines, Ont.

Copies of plans and specifications may be obtained from the Department on the payment of the sum of fifty dollars. To bona fide tenderers this amount will be refunded upon the return of the above in good condition.

An accepted bank check on a chartered bank of Canada for the sum of $550,000, made payable to the order of the Minister of Railways and Canals, or War Loan Bonds of the Dominion of Canada to the same amounts or War Loan Bonds and checks if required to make up the difference, must accompany each tender, which sum will be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The check or bonds thus sent in will be returned to the respective contractors whose tenders are not accepted.

The check or bonds of the successful tenderer will be held as security or part security for the due fulfilment of the contract to be entered into.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

By order,
J. W. PUGSLEY,
Secretary.
Department of Railways and Canals,

Sparta, Dec. 14. — The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the Methodist Church have been staging a contest for membership during the past three weeks. Miss Dorothy Jacobs and Miss Marjory Gorvitt were the captains, the former winnine. The contest ended Tuesday night with a program and social evening put on by the losing side, under the direction of the president, Mrs. Floyd Banghart.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Leverton. Mrs. Husser, the president, was in charge. Mrs. W. A. Henderson gave a Christmas story, Mrs. R. Yelland, "Marion's Dream"; Miss Grisdale, a short reading; Mrs. Scanlon, "The Chimes," and Mrs. Husser, "The White Gift For the King." The society decided to make a special Christmas offering which will go toward rebuilding of the W. M. S. school at Azabu, Japan, which was damaged by the recent earthquake. They will also send a parcel of Christmas presents to Miss Alice Jackson, Nelson House, Manitoba, to be distributed among the Indian children.

Thorndale, Dec. 14.—The annual meeting of the W. M. S. of the South Presbyterian Church, West Nissouri, was held at the home of Mrs. K. Ramsey on Thursday. A very pleasing feature of the meeting was the presentation of a life membership to Mrs. John McKay, who has been a faithful worker in the society and president for the last eight years. Mrs. Fairweather read the address and Mrs. E. Dunn made the presentation. Mrs. McKay made a very suitable reply. The officers elected for next year were: President, Mrs. McKay; secretary, Mrs. Fairweather; treasurer, Mrs. Dunn. A program consisting of music and readings and a paper by Miss Sacey on conditions in Japan was given. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bonnel and Mrs. J. Ramsey. An offering was taken up.

The choir of the South Presbyterian Church, West Nissouri, was entertained at the home of Miss Stacey on Wednesday evening.

Woodstock, Dec. 14.—Khaki Chapter, No. 27, O. E. S., elected as officers: W.M., Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor; W.P., W. L. Waterson; associate matron, Mrs. Elwood Broom; conductress, Mrs. Colin Sutherland; associate conductress, Miss Manley; secretary, Miss Lillian McKay; treasurer, Mrs. F. M. Kellet; trustees, F. M. Kellet; W. S. Brewer and A. M. Ross; auditors, Mrs. M. L. Breckenridge, F. M. Kellet, and Mrs. L. E. Waterson.

Marie darling,
I met the most intriguing man yesterday! He is quite young (at least at heart) and brother Bobbie says he's "some bird"! I'll swear he uses Campene's Italian Balm to keep his hair slicked back in the approved lounge lizard style — C'est la mode! And I suppose he also knows how refreshing and soothing Campene's is when rubbed on the face after shaving.
Toujours,
Peggy.

Obituary

JOHN HOWARD.

John Howard, aged 71, died in Victoria Hospital last night after a short illness. He was a well-known painter throughout the city and formerly lived at 4 Dundas street, West London. His wife pre-deceased him about a year ago.

Mr. Howard is survived by one son John, and an adopted daughter Beatrice.

The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of N. J. Griffith, 104 Dundas street, to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Services will be conducted at 2 p.m.

HERBERT FOREMAN.
Special to The Advertiser.

Listowel, Dec. 14.—The funeral of the late Herbert Foreman was held Wednesday afternoon from his home, Rev. (Capt.) Edwards of the Methodist Church taking the services. Mr. Foreman, who was 42 years of age, was ill for some months.

He is survived by his wife and four young children, Edgar, Thelma, Doreen and Vera, also his mother and two brothers, Arthur and Walter of Atwood, and three sisters, Mrs. Eliza Brock of town; Mrs. N. I. Forbes of Toronto; and Mrs. Hugh McIntosh of Locust Hill.

MRS. CHRISTOPHER SMITH.
Special to The Advertiser.

Highgate, Dec. 14.—At the good age of nearly 90 years there passed away a well-known and respected resident of Highgate, in the person of Mrs. Christopher Smith. She leaves the husband, three sons, David, Thomas and George; three daughters, Mrs. Leslie Johnson, Mrs. Mary Chalmers and Mrs. Herbert Walters. The funeral service was held at the Anglican Church on Friday. Interment is Gosnell Cemetery.

THOMAS MOFFAT.
Special to The Advertiser.

Cargill, Dec. 14.—The funeral of the late Thomas Moffat took place from his late home, about a mile south of the village, Thursday afternoon, to Douglas Hill Cemetery, Rev. Woolley, of the Methodist Church, officiating. The late Mr. Moffat was born in Ireland almost 75 years ago, and has resided in this locality for about 53 years. He was a Conservative in politics and a consistent member of the Methodist Church. Surviving relatives are the widow, one daughter and one brother.

TWO CHILDREN BURN IN QUEBEC HOUSE FIRE

Canadian Press Despatch.

Three Rivers, Que., Dec. 14.—Two children of Adelarde Pepin, Germaine, 9 years, and Henri, 4 years, were burned to death Wednesday night during a fire which destroyed their home in the parish of Nicolet, near St. Monique.

WEDDINGS

ROWLEY—KLIE.
Special to The Advertiser.

Leamington, Dec. 14.—At 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, Dec. 12, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Klie of Colchester-on-the-Lake was the scene of a pretty wedding, when their third daughter, Evadyne Loraine, became the bride of Wilfred Blake Rowley, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rowley of Leamington, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. B. Kinder of Leamington, under an arch of evergreens, bittersweet and chrysanthemums.

Miss Dorothy Klie, youngest sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while the groom was attended by his brother, E. Gladstone Rowley.

Promptly at the stroke of the hour the wedding party descended the stairway to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Irene Lypps.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very charming in a gown of white brocade velvet, and tulle veil, with bandeau of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and tulle.

The bridesmaid was gowned in turquoise blue chiffon over satin, and carried a bouquet of Columbia roses.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Wilfred Lee of Detroit, cousin of the bride, sang "O, Perfect Love."

The guests, to the number of 75, were ushered into the dining-room by Mr. Donald R. Klie, brother of the bride, and Mr. Angus Askew, where supper was served by four intimate girl friends of the bride, the Misses Mickle, Irene Lypps, Marjorie Lounsbury and Charlotte Askew.

The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a rope of pearls, and to her assistans white gold bar pins.

Following a six weeks' honeymoon trip in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Rowley will be at home to their friends at their home on the First Concession, Leamington.

PRENDERGAST—PRICE.
Special to The Advertiser.

Tilbury, Dec. 14.—A happy ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday afternoon, when Rev. George Kersey, B.A., solemnized the marriage of Miss Clara, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Price, and Clark Prendergast of Detroit. Rev. H. Lawson of Gesto, a cousin of the groom, assisted in the ceremony. Miss Viola Ruddle of Detroit attended the bride, while Charles Norton of Bolton was best man. The bride was attired in a gown of white canton crepe, and wore a veil. She carried a bouquet of carnations and narcissus. The bridesmaid wore gray canton crepe and carried Ophelia roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial check, to the bridesmaid a chip diamond bar pin, and to the best man Masonic cuff links in green gold. The bride was the recipient of a beautiful array of presents from relatives and friends.

Out-of-town guests at the reception were Mrs. J. Campbell and C. J. Ramsay of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ellis and daughter Vivian of London, Mrs. Henry Boyer of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker and daughter Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. A. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker of Wheatley, Mr. and Mrs. L. Prendergast of Comber.

FREER—DOBBIN.
Special to The Advertiser.

Oil Springs, Dec. 14. — A quiet wedding took place at the parsonage, Oil Springs, Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Ada Dobbin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobbin of Enniskillen, was married to Mr. Elton Freer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Freer of Enniskillen, Rev. R. S. Hosking officiating. The bride wore a gown of navy taffeta trimmed with radium lace. After a trip to Toronto and Niagara Falls they will reside on Mr. Freer's farm on the 8th of Enniskillen.

Mr. Wm. Kay has left for Venezuela, where he will drill for the Royal Dutch Oil Syndicate.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham of Alvinston are visiting friends in Oil Springs.

Mr. Jas. McKinley is visiting his uncle, Mr. D. Wallace.

HENSALL

Special to The Advertiser.

Hensall, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Thomas Sherritt, Sen., was in Clinton the first of this week, visiting relatives and renewing acquaintances.

Arthur Coxworth returned recently from the west.

The bazaar held in part of the Observer office on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Mollard Mission Circle was well attended, and netted a nice little sum.

The dance held in the town hall on Friday last under the auspices of the "Big Four" was well attended and a good time enjoyed.

Miss Elva Shiddock is visiting with relatives in Chicago.

The Presbytery of Huron met in Clinton on Tuesday last and was attended by the Rev. J. A. McConnell and Rev. Dr. C. Fletcher of this village.

Tax Collector A. W. E. Hemphill is busy this week, taking money for taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Forrest and daughter motored to Hensall from their home in Moose Jaw, Sask., during the past few weeks.

On Monday evening the league held their weekly meeting, the program for the evening being in the hands of Miss Gretta Lammie and proved very interesting. Short readings were given by the Misses Nora Follick, Hattie Whitesides, Frances Pearce and Alma Scruton; quartet by Mrs. George Joynt, Miss G. Lammie, Miss Passmore and Mr. Bueglas; a short address by the Rev. A. Sinclair, and violin duet by the Misses Gretta Lammie and Ethel Murdock. The chair was taken by Mr. W. J. Jones.

BRUSSELS

Brussels, Dec. 14.—Next Sunday Rev. S. T. Allin, Toronto, will preach anniversary sermons in the Methodist Church. He is a former pastor.

John W. King, M.P., North Huron, will address a public meeting in the Cranbrook Hall, Tuesday afternoon, giving an account of his stewardship. He was elected as a Progressive.

It looks as if the 1923 town council may seek re-election. The tax rate is the highest on record, but there is not much prospect of reduction. The school building loan is now paid, but two new teachers were added to the staff, which will keep that rate high.

Barrister E. E. Wade, who filled a large place in his profession years ago in Brussels, passed away a few days ago in Detroit, where he was living with a daughter. Mrs. Wade pre-deceased her husband. An adult family survives.

Mrs. David Watson of Brantford, whose husband was killed when struck by an auto, is a daughter of John Broadfoot of Brussels. Dr. Watson had an office here some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rutledge received the sad intelligence that their eldest son Francis, who was in poor health, had dropped dead on the railway platform in Winnipeg. He was 49 years of age and was unmarried. He had lived in the west for a good many years.

The Ladies' Aid bazaar of the Methodist Church realized over $200, despite the fact that the day was very unpropitious as far as weather was concerned.

Jessie Alexander gave a fine entertainment, assisted by local musical talent, and added much to her good name as a public reader.
